DEBATE WORKSHOPS 2006

The policy debate resolution for 2006-2007 is

Resolved: The United States federal government should establish a policy substantially increasing the number of persons serving in one or more of the following national service programs: AmeriCorps, Citizen Corps, Senior Corps, Peace Corps, Learn and Serve America, Armed Forces.

$1,000 SCHOLARSHIPS

A $1,000 college scholarship will be awarded to one student from each Debate Workshop. A panel-judged essay topic which qualifies students for the scholarship will be released the day of the workshop. Students must attend to apply.

SPEAKERS

Gregory Rehmke directs educational programs for Economic Thinking/E Pluribus Unum Films, a nonprofit organization in Seattle, Washington. He has a degree in economics from the University of Washington and has lectured and published widely on economics and history of a variety of public policy issues.

Richard Edwards is professor of communication studies at Baylor University. Since 1972, he has been the author of the "topic introduction" issue of the Forensic Quarterly. He has also been a college debate coach for 25 years and has directed high school summer debate workshops at Northwestern, Georgia State and Baylor universities.

Mike Winther has written articles on many public policy issues and is a frequent lecturer at debate camps. He has a vast 30-year experience with both participating in and coaching debate. Mike and his wife currently coach a California debate club which has consistent success with their teams — placing within the top 10 rankings, nationally.

This image shows a full page of a document template designed for handwritten notes or essays. It features a series of evenly spaced, light gray horizontal lines running across the width of the page. The lines are thin and consistent in color and thickness throughout. There are no vertical margin lines, headers, footers, or other markings present on the page. The background is a solid, clean white, providing a clear space for writing. The overall appearance is that of a standard, minimalist notebook page.

Seating Is Limited. Reply by Sept. 15
