

GOING IN REVERSE

Michigan School Officials Should Resist
Backtracking on Obama-Era Reforms

Molly Macek is the director of education policy for the Mackinac Center for Public Policy. She holds a Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) from Johns Hopkins University. Prior to attaining her doctorate, she earned a Master's in Teaching degree from Johns Hopkins University, and a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University.

The Mackinac Center for Public Policy is dedicated to improving the understanding of economic and political principles among citizens, public officials, policymakers and opinion leaders. The Center has emerged as one of the largest and most prolific of the more than 50 state-based free-market “think tanks” in America. Additional information about the Mackinac Center and its publications can be found at www.mackinac.org.
