- b) Service recognized by the County when it absorbs employees from another level of government by taking over an established operation of that government shall be included.

The department head in such departments shall schedule the working hours for all employees in a manner to most efficiently cover the needs of the department. Whenever it becomes necessary for a department head to change the starting and ending hours of daily work for any employee, the employee shall still be required to complete an eight (8) hour day of work. There shall be no discrimination or favoritism shown toward any employee in this instance.
- C. If it becomes necessary for the department to change the hours or days of work, either temporarily or permanently, the most senior employee in the classification assigned to the change of hours or

- F. A ten (10) or twelve (12) hour schedule will be available to be implemented with the authorization of the County Administrator or County Board of Commissioners. Note that 'normally scheduled' hours in a day are eight (8) for employees scheduled for five (5) eight (8) hour days in a week, ten (10) for employees scheduled for four (4) ten (10) hour days per week and twelve (12)-hour permanent shifts totaling eighty-four (84) hours in a two (2) bi-weekly pay periods and seventy-two (72) hours in one (1) bi-weekly pay period over a six (6) week cycle.

When overtime is assigned the person on the list with the least number of overtime hours shall work the assignment. If all hours are equal, the least senior employee will be required to work. The equalization list shall be renewed each six (6) months. For Muskegon Area Transit System employees, overtime assignments of less than four (4) hours shall not be used to calculate the overtime equalization list.
- C. If no full-time employees sign up for overtime, a rotation list shall be maintained by the department. Employees shall be placed on the list in order of seniority. The first person on the list shall receive the overtime assignment. Having worked the assignment, the first employee would be moved to the bottom of the list.
- D. Nothing in this provision shall be construed to prohibit the Employer from assigning overtime to any employee in an emergency situation, or continuing an employee on a work assignment when the work must be completed after normal working hours.

Section 10.2 Premium Pay for Overtime Work

Overtime shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 & ½) times the employee's normal base hourly rate, including any applicable shift differential, for full-time employees for all hours worked in excess of the employee's normally scheduled hours or shift or forty (40) hours per week. Part-time and hourly employees as defined in Section 2.2, working hours in excess of that required of full-time employees shall also be eligible for overtime payment. Annual leave and paid holidays shall be counted as time worked when determining eligibility for overtime payment.

For employees on a twelve (12) hour shift, work extending beyond twelve (12) hours in a day or over eighty-four (84) hours in a regular two (2) week pay period (or over seventy-two (72) hours as applicable per the work schedule cycle in Section 9.1 above), shall be compensated for at one and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's regular hourly rate for base pay.

Section 10.3

Minimum Call-In

Employees eligible for overtime payment who are called in to work on a regularly scheduled day off or who are called back to work after having left work from their regular shift, shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours overtime pay regardless of the number of hours worked. Eligible employees who are called in to work on either a Sunday or a holiday as recognized in this Agreement shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours overtime pay under this provision. Employees required to work in excess of the minimum call-in time shall be paid for time worked at the appropriate rates. Section 10.3 shall not apply where an employee is required to begin his/her shift early.

Section 10.4

On-Call Pay

Employees designated for an on-call assignment will be available to respond to an emergency or other call-in outside of normal working hours. Employees will be available for contact by electronic means and expected to be within a reasonable distance of their response location to ensure a prompt response time. Only employees eligible for overtime payment shall be eligible for on-call assignment pay.

- A. Classifications designated by their Department Head for on-call assignment and available for contact by electronic means outside of normal working hours will receive compensation in lieu of overtime pay at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's normal base hourly rate, including shift differential, for each shift of on-call assignment.
- B. Designated on-call employees will be paid for actual call-in time worked in accordance with Section 10.3 Minimum Call-In.

Employees on paid sick leave will suffer no loss of seniority.

Section 11.2

Years Service	Annual Accumulation	Days Per Pay	Maximum Accumulation*

11 - 15	19 days	.731	28.5
16	20 days	.769	30

Vacation requests will be approved or denied by the Department Head within a reasonable time frame following the request, but in any case, not more than a two (2) week time frame following the request.

Such time will not be charged against the employee's annual leave or sick leave. Section 17.1

Family and Medical Leave Act Application

- A. The Employer shall abide by the provisions of the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 for eligible employees as defined in the Act.

In the event that a complaint is reduced to writing, it shall be submitted on a form mutually agreed upon and shall contain but not be limited to, the following information: date, time, grievance number, grievant's name and signature, steward's signature, alleged violation of this Agreement, settlement desired, and a space allowed for the signature of the Employer representative answering each step. Either the Union or the Employer shall have the right to bring into a grievance proceeding any witnesses or representatives deemed desirable for the purpose of adjusting as promptly as possible the matter at hand. When the Union is the grievant, the Chief Steward shall sign as the aggrieved.

The time limit for filing all grievances shall be five (5) days from the date of the occurrence of the alleged grievance or from the date the aggrieved knows of the cause for complaint.

The time limits specified herein for movement of grievances through the process shall be strictly adhered to. In the event that a grievance is not appealed within the particular specified time limit, it shall be deemed to be settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. In the event the Employer should fail to supply the Union with its answer to the particular step within the specified time limits in Steps 1 and 2, the grievance shall be deemed automatically positioned for appeal at the next step with the time limit for exercising said appeal commencing with the expiration of the grace period for answering. If the Employer fails to supply its answer in Step 3 within the prescribed time limits, the grievance shall be deemed to be settled according to the relief requested.

All specified time limits herein shall consist only of County work days Monday through Friday, but excluding holidays. Time limits may be extended only by mutual agreement of the parties.

Procedure:

Step 1

The employee having a specific grievance may present it in writing to their Department Head or designated representative. The written grievance must be signed by the grievant and his/her steward, and receipt acknowledged by the employee's Department Head or the Department Head's designated representative. The Department Head or the Department Head's designated representative will schedule a meeting with the grievant and steward, if so requested by the grievant, in an attempt to resolve the matter. In disciplinary matters, the Union shall be furnished all available evidence used to take the disciplinary action against the grievant, including witness statements and reports. In any case, the department will give its written reply within five (5) days of the receipt of the written grievance. The Union shall review all grievances at this step to determine the appropriateness of the next step.

Step 2

A grievance not settled at Step 1 may be submitted to the Human Resources Director within five (5) days of the date of the receipt of the written reply. The Human Resources Director shall provide written notice of the Employer's position within ten (10) days after receipt of the written grievance.

Step 3

If the grievance is not settled in Step 2 of the grievance procedure, it may be submitted by the Union to final and binding arbitration. Within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of the receipt of the written reply from Step 2, the Union shall request from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) a list of arbitrators in accordance with the rules of the Service. If the grievance is concerning a discharge from employment, the Union shall request an FMCS list of arbitrators within ten (10) days of the date of the receipt of the written reply from Step 2. A copy of the Union's arbitration request shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Director. Expenses for arbitration shall be borne equally by both parties, except that each party shall bear the expense of its own witnesses.

Section 20.2

Arbitration Procedure

At the time of the arbitration hearing, both the Employer and the Union have the right to examine and cross-examine witnesses. Upon request of either the Employer or the Union or the arbitrator, a transcript of the hearing shall be made. The cost of the transcript shall be borne by the party making the request. Either party may make a tape recording of the hearing. At the close of the hearing, the arbitrator shall afford the Employer and the Union a reasonable opportunity to furnish briefs, if it is the desire of either party.

An employee promoting to a new classification with a higher maximum pay rate shall receive the minimum step of the new class. In the case of an overlap in pay ranges between the employee's current class and the class to which he/she is promoting, the employee shall receive an increase to that step on the new pay range which would most closely approximate a five percent (5%) increase over his/her present pay rate, not to exceed the maximum pay rate for the class into which he/she is promoting. An employee so promoted shall be eligible for a merit increase one (1) year from the date of such promotion, subject to the outcome of a performance evaluation.
- B. A transfer is defined as a status change of an employee from the employee's present position to another vacant position in the same classification or a classification of equal maximum pay in another department. Transfers to a class of equal maximum pay require that the employee meet the minimum qualifications of that classification.
