Any resolution of the grievance, which has an economic impact upon the County, shall not be final until the County Board of Commissioners approves it.

Step 3. In the event that the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step 2, the POAM may request arbitration of the unresolved grievance, which is arbitratable by giving written notice to the Employer of its intent to arbitrate, provided that said notice is received within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the Sheriff's answer in Step 2.
