JOINT RESOLUTIONS, 1889.

[No. 1.]

JOINT RESOLUTION to amend section six of article six of the constitution of the State of Michigan, relative to circuit courts.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, That the following amendment to the constitution of this State be and the same is hereby proposed, that is to say, that section six of article six of said constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 6. The State shall be divided into judicial circuits, in each of which the electors thereof shall elect one circuit judge, who shall hold his office for the term of six years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Legislature may provide for the election of more than one circuit judge in the judicial circuit in which the city of Detroit is or may be situated, and in the judicial circuit in which the county of Saginaw is or may be situated, and in the judicial circuit in which the county of Kent is or may be situated. And the circuit judge or judges of said circuits, in addition to the salary provided by this constitution, shall receive from their respective counties such additional salary as may from time to time be fixed and determined by the boards of supervisors of said counties. And the board of supervisors of each county in the Upper Peninsula is hereby authorized and empowered to give and pay to the circuit judge of the judicial circuit to which such county is attached such additional salary or compensation as may from time to time be fixed and determined by such board of supervisors. This section as amended shall take effect from the time of its adoption; be it further

Resolved, That said amendment shall be submitted to the people of this State at the spring election to be held on the first Monday in April in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the Secretary of State is hereby required to give notice of the same to the sheriff of the several counties of this State at least twenty days prior to the said election, and the said sheriffs are required to give the general notices required by law in the same manner that they are now required to give in case of an election of judges of the supreme court; and the inspectors of election in the several townships and wards of this State shall prepare a suitable box for the reception of ballots cast for or against said amendment. Each person voting for said amendment of section six, article six, shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed on his ballot the words: "Amendment relative to judicial circuits—Yes;" and each person voting against said amendment shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed on his ballot the words: "Amendment relative to judicial circuits—No." The ballots in all respects shall be canvassed and returns made as in electing judges of the Supreme Court.

Ordered to take immediate effect.

Approved February 27, 1889.

[No. 2.]
