[No. 9.]

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section one of article three of the constitution, relative to the right of students while in attendance at any institution of learning, members of the legislature while in attendance at any session of the legislature, or commercial travelers, to vote.

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Michigan (the House of Representatives concurring), That the following amendment to section one of article three of the constitution, relative to the right of students while in attendance at any institution of learning, to vote, is hereby proposed and submitted to the people of the State:

SECTION 1. In all elections, every male inhabitant of this State, being a citizen of the United States; every male inhabitant residing in this State on the twenty-fourth day of June, eighteen hundred thirty-five; every male inhabitant residing in this State on the first day of January, eighteen hundred fifty; every male inhabitant of foreign birth who, having resided in the State two years and six months prior to the eighth day of November, eighteen hundred ninety-four, and having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States two years and six months prior to said last named day; and every civilized male inhabitant of Indian descent, a native of the United States, and not a member of any tribe, shall be an elector and entitled to vote; but no one shall be an elector or entitled to vote at any election unless he shall be above the age of twenty-one years, and has resided in this State six months and in the township or ward in which he offers to vote twenty days next preceding such election: Provided, That no qualified elector in the actual military service of the United States or of this State, or in the army or navy thereof, in time of war, insurrection or rebellion, or any student while in attendance at any institution of learning, or any member of the legislature while in attendance at any session of the legislature or commercial traveler, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from the township, ward or State in which he resides; and the legislature shall provide by law the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the canvass and return of their votes.

Resolved further, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to the people of this State at the general election to be held in the month of November in the year nineteen hundred fourteen.—The Secretary of State is hereby required to certify the foregoing amendment to the clerks of the several counties of this State as required by law. It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners of each county to prepare a ballot for the use of the electors for voting upon said amendment, which ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

Vote on amendment to section one of article three of the constitution relative to the right of students while in attendance at any institution of learning, members of the legislature while in attendance at any session of the legislature, or commercial travelers, to vote; it being proposed that said section one of article three be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. In all elections, every male inhabitant of this State, being a citizen of the United States; every male inhabitant residing in this State on the twenty-fourth day of June, eighteen hundred thirty-five; every male inhabitant residing in this State on the first day of January, eighteen hundred fifty; every male inhabitant of foreign birth who, having resided in the State two years and six months prior to the eighth day of November, eighteen hundred ninety-four, and having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States two years and six months prior to said last named day; and every civilized male inhabitant of Indian descent, a native of the United States and not a member of any tribe, shall be an elector and entitled to vote; but no one shall be an elector or entitled to vote at any election unless he shall be above the age of twenty-one years, and has resided in this State six months and in the township or ward in which he offers to vote twenty days next preceding such election: Provided, That no qualified elector in the actual military service of the United States or of this State, or in the army or navy thereof, in time of war, insurrection or rebellion, or any student while in attendance at any institution of learning, or any member of the legislature while in attendance at any session of the legislature, or commercial traveler, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from the township, ward or State in which he resides; and the legislature shall provide by law the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the canvass and return of their votes.
