[No. 2.]

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section thirty of article five of the constitution, relative to right of repeal of local or special acts by the Legislature.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, That the following amendment to section thirty of article five of the constitution, relative to right of repeal of local or special acts by the Legislature, is hereby proposed and submitted to the people of the State.

SEC. 30. The Legislature shall pass no local or special act in any case where a general act can be made applicable, and whether a general act can be made applicable shall be a judicial question. No local or special act, excepting acts repealing local or special acts in effect January one, nineteen hundred nine and receiving a two-thirds vote of the Legislature shall take effect until approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon in the district to be affected; and be it further

Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to the people of this State at the general election to be held in November, nineteen hundred sixteen. The Secretary of State is hereby required to certify the foregoing amendment to the clerks of the several counties of the State as required by law. It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners of each county to prepare a ballot for the use of the electors in voting upon said amendment, which ballot, after showing the amendment in full, shall be in substantially the following form:

"Vote on amendment to section thirty of article five of the constitution, relative to right of repeal of local or special acts by the legislature:

Amendment to section thirty of article five of the constitution, relative to right of repeal of local or special acts by the Legislature. Yes. []

Amendment to section thirty of article five of the constitution, relative to right of repeal of local or special acts by the Legislature. No. []"

It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners of each county to deliver the ballots so prepared to the inspectors of election at the several voting precincts within their respective counties, within the time ballots to be used at said election are required to be delivered to such inspectors under the general election law. All votes cast upon said amendment shall be counted, canvassed and returned in the same manner as is provided by law for counting, canvassing and returning the vote for State officers.
