[No. 5.]

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section twenty-nine of article five of the constitution giving the legislature the power to enact laws relative to the hours and conditions under which men may be employed.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, That the following amendment to section twenty-nine of article five of the constitution of the State to empower the legislature to enact laws relative to the hours and conditions under which men, women and children may be employed, is hereby proposed and agreed to, that is to say, that said section be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 29. The legislature shall have power to enact laws relative to the hours and conditions under which men, women and children may be employed.

Resolved further, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to the people of this State at the general election to be held in November, nineteen hundred twenty. The Secretary of State is hereby required to certify said proposed amendment to the clerks of the various counties of the State in the manner required by law. It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners of each county to prepare ballots for the use of the electors when voting on said proposed amendment, which ballots, after setting forth the proposed amendment in full, shall be in substantially the following form:

Vote on amendment to section twenty-nine of article five of the constitution. Shall section twenty-nine of article five of the State constitution be so amended so as to empower the legislature to enact laws relative to the hours and conditions under which men may be employed?

Yes ().

No ().

It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners of each county to deliver the ballots so prepared to the inspectors of election of the several voting precincts within their respective counties, within the time ballots to be used at said election are required to be delivered to such inspectors under the general election law. All votes cast upon said amendment shall be counted, canvassed, and returned in the same manner as is provided by law for counting, canvassing and returning the vote for State officers.
