Same; president, board duties.

Sec. 8. The board of trustees shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of Michigan state university, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board with the privilege of speaking but not of voting. He shall preside at the meetings of the board and be the principal executive officer of Michigan state university. The board shall have the general supervision of Michigan state university, and the direction and control of all Michigan state university funds; and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

Resolved further, That the foregoing amendments shall be submitted to the people of the state at the next regular election in the manner provided by law.

[Proposal No. 3.]

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to article 11 of the state constitution to add a new section 16 creating a board of governors of Wayne state university and prescribing their powers and duties, and to render an annual account of the funds to the legislature.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Michigan, That the following amendment to article 11 of the state constitution, to add a new section 16 creating a board of governors of Wayne state university and prescribing their powers and duties, and to render an annual account of the funds to the legislature, is hereby proposed, agreed to and submitted to the people of this state:

ARTICLE XI.

Wayne state university board of governors; election, term, president, duties, accounting.

Sec. 16. There shall be a board of governors of Wayne state university, consisting of 6 members, who shall hold office for 6 years. There shall be elected at each regular biennial spring election 2 members of such board. When a vacancy occurs in the board of governors, it shall be filled by appointment of the governor. The board of governors of Wayne state university and their successors in office shall continue to constitute the body corporate known as "the board of governors of Wayne state university". The board of governors shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of Wayne state university. The president and the superintendent of public instruction shall be ex officio members of the board of governors, with the privilege of speaking but not of voting. The president shall preside at the meetings of the board and be the principal executive officer of Wayne state university. The board of governors of Wayne state university shall have general supervision of Wayne state university and the duties of said board shall be prescribed by law. The legislature shall be given an annual detailed accounting of all income from whatever source derived and all expenditures by Wayne state university.

Resolved further, That the foregoing amendment shall be submitted to the people of this state at the next regular election in the manner provided by law.
