Overview of the Constitutional Convention Process

Provisions generally began as Committee Proposals and were then brought to the convention floor for first reading. The majority of debate on the substance of provisions occurred during the first and second readings. There were two third readings; the first on an article-by-article basis and the second reviewing the Constitution as a whole. Following the third readings the entire Constitution was voted on by the delegates. The delegates then created the Notice of Address to the People, summarizing the Constitution on a provision-by-provision basis, which was distributed so that the people could be informed when making their ratification votes.

The convention used ALL CAPS to denote added material and [brackets] to denote removed material.

Amends article V by adding a new section thereto; with the recommendation that the proposal be referred to the committee on emerging problems.

T. Jefferson Hoxie, chairman.

Mr. Lesinski, seeking recognition on the Hutchinson amendment?

MR. LESINSKI: Just a point of information, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LESINSKI: It is in regard to a reference point in your committee proposal. It states by "section 1 of this article X"—of what constitution, 1908 or—?

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman will defer that point of order until the Hutchinson amendment is disposed of. Does the gentleman from St. Clair Shores desire to speak on the Hutchinson amendment?

MR. SNYDER: Mr. Chairman, I arise on a point of information that either Mr. Brake or Mr. Hutchinson can advise me on; in fact, it may be well to get it from both. Now the present language, I would assume, would put the responsibility in the executive department, because this is a natural branch of the executive department. Now, with the removal of the specific department, would there be any confusion as to whether the authority would lie in the legislature or in the executive branch? I think that this is a very important point. It may be more than a mere omission of a few words; the future responsibility of the various departments may be involved.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman yields to the gentleman from Fennville for an answer.

MR. HUTCHINSON: Mr. Chairman, certainly it is a legislative responsibility to provide the several departments of government. The legislature has the responsibility in creating those departments and, from time to time, it is desirable to change them and to reorganize them and so on. This reorganization has taken place before in our history. Governor Groesbeck undertook a great governmental reorganization, and so on. Now, as Mr. Brake pointed out, the Constitution of 1908 referred to the state board of assessors, and in 1908, I dare say that it was probably stated upon the floor of that convention that there was a function that was being done by the state board of assessors and in the foreseeable future would be done by the state board of assessors; but, you see, the times and the organization of the government have completely changed that, and it is actually being done by the state tax commission.

I think that, looking again into the future, we don't know how the organizational changes will come about and I think it is unwise to freeze into our constitution simply a department by name in the executive branch of the government. Mr. Snyder's point that he wonders if there might be some confusion about whether this would revert as a legislative responsibility or an executive responsibility—well, let me answer it this way. Obviously, it is an activity or function which must be performed within the executive branch of the government; but as to whether one department within that branch or another department within that branch shall undertake the duty is the responsibility, first, of the legislature to implement the organization of the government.

MR. SNYDER: Then I am to understand that the chain of command in this instance would not be changed by the exclusion of the words. Thank you very much. Mr. Hutchinson, I do not think that the record will show the nod of your head, so will you speak?

MR. HUTCHINSON: Mr. Chairman, I agree with the gentleman's interpretation.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Does the gentleman from Detroit, Mr. Mahinske, desire to speak on the Hutchinson amendment?

MR. MAHINSKE: Yes. I would like to direct a question to Mr. Hutchinson. Do you believe, Mr. Hutchinson, in any way the elimination of this language would have anything to do with the existence of the state tax commission, or are you just taking away the constitutional delegation of this power to that commission?

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman yields to the gentleman from Fennville.

MR. HUTCHINSON: In answer, Mr. Mahinske, the state tax commission is now an agency created by statute. The statute will continue to exist. The agency will continue to exist. Its functions which are now devolved upon it by statute will continue to reside there, unless and until in a governmental reorganization brought about lawfully those functions should be transferred to some other department. The removal of reference to the state tax commission out of this article at this time will not abolish the state tax commission, sir.

MR. MAHINSKE: Your argument is just in reverse that by leaving this language in we would create for the life of this constitution, at least, a state tax commission?

MR. HUTCHINSON: You are right.

MR. MAHINSKE: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Fennville, Mr. Hutchinson. As many as are in favor will respond by saying aye. Those opposed?

The amendment is adopted. Does the gentleman from Detroit, Mr. Lesinski, now desire to pursue his point of information?

MR. LESINSKI: Yes. I would make an amendment if I knew how, but I don't—I can't see to what constitution this section and article refers to.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Does the gentleman care to yield to the chairman of the committee?

MR. LESINSKI: Yes.

MR. BRAKE: The reference to section 1 of article X is to the 1908 constitution. That is the section which specifies the basis of taxation that was to go into the primary school fund, which we handled the other day.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman has the floor.

MR. LESINSKI: I am glad that I am here today, because, if I read it 10 years from now, would I know or would I be able to find out?

MR. BRAKE: You are talking about that word "now"?

MR. LESINSKI: No. The reference. It should state 1908 constitution.

MR. BRAKE: Now I know what you are talking about. We had to say something. Style and drafting, when they decide what the section numbers and article numbers are going to be, will put in the appropriate section and article. We don't know now what article this is going to be numbered or what section it is going to be.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Are there any amendments to the body of the proposal? If not, it will pass.

Committee Proposal 52, as amended, is passed and the secretary will read.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 27 on the calendar, from the committee on finance and taxation, by Mr. Brake, chairman, Committee Proposal 53, A proposal to require that every tax law shall distinctly describe the tax, covering article X, section 6 of the present constitution.

Following is Committee Proposal 53 as read by the secretary, and the reasons submitted in support thereof:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax[, and the objects to which it is to be applied; and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object].

Mr. Brake, chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, submits the following reasons in support of Committee Proposal 53:

This section continues in part the present language of section 6 of article X. It requires no more than any taxpayer should expect, i.e., a distinct and clear statement of any tax imposed upon the citizens of this state.

The proposal eliminates the requirement that tax laws specify "the objects to which [the tax] is to be applied". This has been judicially construed to mean "the purpose for which the money is to be spent". In a complex system of taxation, when the proceeds of one general tax may be devoted to many different purposes, this seems obsolete.

The proposal also deletes the present statement that "it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax". The committee believes that any question of the legislature's right to refer to income determined for federal tax purposes should be eliminated. However, the committee does not intend by this to permit any delegation of the power to fix a tax or tax base to another legislative authority.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Mr. Brake.

MR. BRAKE: Mr. Chairman, I yield to our committee member, Dean Doty.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman from Grand Ledge.

MR. DEAN DOTY: Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, I will refer you to Journal 69, page 406, the right-hand column.

[The supporting reasons to Committee Proposal 53 were read by Mr. Doty. For text, see above, page 911.]

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Are there any amendments to the body of the proposal? If not, it will pass.

Committee Proposal 53 is passed and the secretary will read.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 28 on the calendar, from the committee on finance and taxation, by Mr. Brake, chairman, Committee Proposal 54, A proposal that the power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away, covering the material in article X, section 9 of the present constitution.

Following is Committee Proposal 54 as read by the secretary, and the reasons submitted in support thereof:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. [The power of taxation shall never be surrendered or suspended by any grant or contract to which the state or any municipal corporation shall be a party.] THE POWER OF TAXATION SHALL NEVER BE SURRENDERED, SUSPENDED, OR CONTRACTED AWAY.

Mr. Brake, chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, submits the following reasons in support of Committee Proposal 54:

This proposal contains the substance of section 9, article X of the present constitution. It simplifies the language.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman from Stanton.

MR. BRAKE: On this proposal, I yield to our committee member, Roy Howes.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman from Copenish is recognized.

MR. HOWES: Mr. Chairman, fellow delegates, this is also in Journal 69, on page 407, "This proposal contains the substance of section 9, article X of the present constitution, but it simplifies the language." This simplified wording of this proposal is now the exact wording of article VI, section 1 of the Hawaiian constitution.

The power of taxation should reside perpetually with the state and its corporate districts and should never be surrendered, delegated or assigned to private parties. An important development in regard to this section in recent years has been the practice of some communities to give exemptions or other special incentives to lure industry to their areas. Potential problems arise when communities promise tax exemptions of 5, 10, or 20 years to new industries. Some of these industries remain only as long as these exemptions or other special incentives remain in force, and the long run value of this special treatment for new industries is questionable. These policies to some extent involve a contracting away of the taxing power and to this extent are construed by some to be in violation of this section.

This practice was used many times in English colonial history, but is one that is normally looked down upon in the United States today. We strongly recommend the adoption of this proposal into our constitution.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Are there any amendments to the body of the proposal? If not, it will pass.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

Committee Proposal 54 is passed and the secretary will read.
SECRETARY CHASE: Item 29 on the calendar, from the committee on finance and taxation, by Mr. Brake, chairman, Committee Proposal 55, A proposal to include article X, section 19 of the 1908 constitution in the new constitution.

Following is Committee Proposal 55 as read by the secretary, and the reasons submitted in support thereof:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. No collector, holder or disburser of public moneys shall have a seat in the legislature, nor be eligible to any office of trust or profit under this state, until he shall have accounted for and paid over, as provided by law, all sums for which he may be liable.

Mr. Brake, chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, submits the following reasons in support of Committee Proposal 55:

The committee recommends the inclusion of the present language of the 1908 constitution unchanged. The section actually contains 2 limitations. It provides that collectors or holders of public moneys are ineligible for membership in the legislature while continuing to be collector or holder, and prior to the time when proper accounting has been made.

It also provides that collectors or holders of public moneys are ineligible for office of trust or profit prior to the time when proper accounting has been made.

The citizens research council in its comparative analysis states, "... these provisions exclude all collectors, holders, or disbursers of public money and thus seek to avoid any question of incompatibility of interest. The lesson of history suggests the wisdom of protecting the integrity of handlers of public money." The governor's citizens advisory committee also recommended the section be retained as written.

The committee believes this section serves a very real and useful purpose and should be retained in the constitution.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman from Stanton.

MR. BRAKE: For this proposal, I yield to our committee member, Dave Upton.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman from St. Joseph.

MR. UPTON: I would like to refer the committee to, again, Journal 69, page 407:

[The supporting reasons to Committee Proposal 55 were read by Mr. Upton. For text, see above.]

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: Are there any amendments to the body of the proposal? The gentleman from Muskegon Heights, Mr. Hanna.

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. Chairman, I would like to address a question to Mr. Upton. He used the words "disburser of public moneys." Would a person signing a warrant or a purchase order be construed to be a disburser of public moneys?

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman yields to the gentleman from St. Joseph for a reply.

MR. UPTON: This exact question did not come before our committee. It is a legal matter that I would not be prepared to answer.

MR. W. F. HANNA: My question, Mr. Chairman, possibly Mr. Brake, I know that it is common practice; this question is as to whether it is necessary or not for supervisors of various townships who sign warrants — by signing a warrant he is a disburser of public moneys, in my opinion. Would he then be barred from a seat in the legislature?

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The gentleman yields to the gentleman from Stanton.

MR. BRAKE: I think what we are talking about, Mr. Hanna, is the person who has the control, the custody of the money, and until he has made a proper accounting, that he is not eligible to a seat in the legislature. Now that very plainly, treat any new district unfairly. Frankly, I think this is a step in the right direction.

Also, I would like to say that I have the figures from our county and the increase is only a fraction over the 15 mills. The highest millage, taking the 5 year highs for the 3 units of government, would only come to 15.48 mills.

I know in some areas it would come a little larger than that, but I think we can afford to give a little bit on the 15 mills in order to accomplish what this does.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Grand Rapids, Mr. Martin.

MR. MARTIN: Mr. Chairman, I talked about this kind of a solution to the problems which we have had with friction between the various units of government in Kent county over the activities of the allocation board. I talked to various people who were involved in some of that friction during the campaign, and it was my impression that this type of solution that is proposed here would be most welcome to those various units and that it provides them a flexibility which they do not have at the present time, and particularly would relieve the situation involved in the constant squabble and struggle over who gets what portion of this 15 mills.

It seems to me the committee has done an admirable job of working out a better solution than the one we have now and that this is a good provision, one that is well worth putting into the constitution in place of the old provision which is proposed to be reinstated by Mr. Turner's amendment. I therefore would support the committee's position.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The Chair recognizes the chairman of the committee, the gentleman from Stanton, Mr. Brake.

MR. BRAKE: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I had hoped that we could finish all of the finance committee's proposals tonight, but I find we have conflicts—something else has been set—so I move the committee rise.

CHAIRMAN BENTLEY: The question is on the motion that the committee shall rise. Those in favor will say aye. Those opposed?

The committee rises.

[Whereupon, the committee of the whole having risen, President Nisbet resumed the Chair.]

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Bentley.

MR. BENTLEY: Mr. President, the committee of the whole has had under consideration certain items on the general orders calendar of which the secretary will give a detailed report.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will read.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, the committee of the whole has had under consideration Committee Proposal 52, A proposal with reference to the taxation of certain utilities, covering the material in article X, section 5 of the 1908 constitution. It reports this proposal back to the convention with an amendment thereto, recommending the amendment be agreed to and the proposal, as thus amended, do pass.

[The following is the amendment recommended by the committee of the whole:

1. Amend page 1, line 8, after "state" by striking out "tax commission"; and in line 12, after "state" by striking out "tax commission".]

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on agreeing to the amendment as proposed by the committee. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The amendment is agreed to.

Committee Proposal 52, as amended, is referred to the committee on style and drafting.

Following is Committee Proposal 52 as amended and referred to the committee on style and drafting:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. The legislature may provide by law for the assessment by the state of the property whose ad valorem taxes are reserved to state aid for public education by section 1 of this article X, and of such other property as the legislature may designate, and for the levy and collection of taxes thereon. Property assessed by the state shall be assessed at the same proportion of its true cash value as the legislature shall specify for property subject to general ad valorem taxation, and the rate of taxation on such property shall be the average rate levied upon other property under the general ad valorem tax law, or, if the legislature shall so provide, the rate of tax applicable to the property of each business enterprise so taxed shall be the average rate of ad valorem taxation levied upon other property in all counties in which any of said property is situated.

SECRETARY CHASE: The committee of the whole, Mr. President, has also had under consideration Committee Proposal 53, A proposal to require that every tax law shall distinctly describe the tax, covering article X, section 6 of the present constitution; Committee Proposal 54, A proposal that the power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away, covering the material in article X, section 9 of the present constitution; and Committee Proposal 55, A proposal to include article X, section 19 of the 1908 constitution in the new constitution. It reports these 3 proposals back to the convention without amendment and with the recommendation that they do pass.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposals 53, 54 and 55 are referred to the committee on style and drafting.

For Committee Proposal 53 as referred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 911.

For Committee Proposal 54 as referred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 912.

the schools, and there is no need to fix it in the constitution as we had in the past.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Brown.

MR. G. E. BROWN: Mr. President, members of the committee, I would like to address a question to Mr. Austin, or ask him to confirm my understanding of this.

PRESIDENT NISBET: You may if Mr. Austin cares to answer.

MR. G. E. BROWN: I believe it is your understanding, as you stated previously, that if a no vote is cast upon this, then the matter is stricken from the committee proposal, and Committee Proposal 51 will do exactly what this amendment would have done had the word been left in, "may" rather than "shall." Is that correct?

MR. AUSTIN: That is correct.

MR. G. E. BROWN: That is a clear understanding?

MR. AUSTIN: That is correct.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Kuhn. Mr. Kuhn passes. Mr. Gust.

MR. GUST: Well, that may be your understanding, Mr. Austin, and maybe you are convinced by it, Mr. Garry Brown, but that is why I took the trouble to put this question to Mr. Van Dusen half an hour ago. Now, let's get it straight in our minds. This is the whole nub of the matter. The one side says, and I don't think it has been refuted, when you take away the earmarking of these funds, in order to preserve the status quo, taxwise, of utilities and other groupings in the state of Michigan, you've got to change the "may" to "shall" in order to preserve their rights in this matter, and, incidentally, your rights as citizens of the state of Michigan. Now, I don't care whose understanding it is, going back with this Mutt and Jeff conversation on the floor, it is still back to the question I put to Mr. Van Dusen, and nobody has refuted it yet, that in order to preserve the status quo here and insure the utilities that they will have the tax break to which they are entitled for the reasons that were set forth so eloquently by the chairman of this committee, Mr. Brake, himself, I urge you to vote yes on this proposal as amended.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Kuhn.

MR. KUHN: Mr. President, I move the previous question.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The previous question has been demanded. Is that demand seconded? Sufficient number up. The question now is: shall the previous question be put? Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The previous question is ordered. The question now is on Committee Proposal 52, as amended. Those in favor will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the passage of Committee Proposal 52, the yeas are 62; the nays are 46.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposal 52, as amended, is not passed. Mr. Woolfenden.

MR. WOOLFENDEN: I would like to make a parliamentary inquiry. Is my understanding of our rules correct, that a motion to reconsider can be made on Monday?

PRESIDENT NISBET: That is correct, Mr. Woolfenden. Mr. Barthwell.

MR. BARTHWELL: Mr. President, I move that we reconsider the vote on the proposal that we have just voted on and ask for the yeas and nays.

MR. WANGER: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Wanger.

MR. WANGER: Can the motion to reconsider be made more than once?

PRESIDENT NISBET: No, sir.

MR. WANGER: I move to table the motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Hutchinson, are we in trouble again?

MR. HUTCHINSON: Mr. President, in the senate, if you move to table the motion to reconsider, it is gone; you can't take that motion from the table.

MR. HOXIE: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Hoxie.

MR. HOXIE: Mr. President, I move that the proposal be placed on the table.

MR. KUHN: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: If everyone will just please keep quiet for a moment, we will try not to get into the trouble we were in before. Mr. Barthwell, your motion was made to reconsider. Do you want to put that or do you want to withdraw it?

MR. BARTHWELL: I want to put it, sir.

MR. KUHN: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Yes, Mr. Kuhn.

MR. KUHN: We are not proceeding under the rules of the committee of the whole, but we are proceeding under the rules of the convention, and I think if you read those rules clearly, that there are 2 times that you may move to reconsider, once the same day, and once the next, but not twice in the same day, and I so call your attention to that rule, rule 53, and ask for a ruling. Mr. President, could we have a ruling on rule 53, please?

PRESIDENT NISBET: That is what we are trying to get, Mr. Kuhn. That is what we are discussing. Will the convention please be in order.

The Chair calls attention to the last sentence of rule 53, "No motion to reconsider shall be renewed on the same day." This seems to indicate that a second motion to reconsider, if made pursuant to the provisions of the first sentence of rule 53, it would be in order. The ruling will be that the vote to reconsider may be made now. If it loses, it can be made again on Monday.

MR. KUHN: Thank you, Mr. President.

MR. WANGER: Mr. President, I withdraw the motion to table.

MR. BARTHWELL: Mr. President, I withdraw the motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will read the next proposal.

SECRETARY CHASE: Committee Proposal 53, A proposal to require that every tax law shall distinctly describe the tax, covering article X, section 6 of the present constitution.

Following is Committee Proposal 53 as reported by the committee on style and drafting and read by the secretary. (For full text as referred to said committee, see above, page 911.):

Sec. a. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Brake.

MR. BRAKE: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, this is the provision of the old constitution, except that we have left out the words saying that it is not sufficient to refer to some other law in order to fix your tax. That prohibition has been left out. Otherwise, we have the same provision of the old constitution.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Mr. President and fellow delegates, I would like to urge a unanimous vote on this one.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on Committee Proposal 53. Those in favor will vote aye. Those opposed will vote nay. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote. Mr. Brown.

MR. G. E. BROWN: In order to save time, while the vote is being recorded, the matter that has just occurred has bothered me for some time, and that is that you can have a motion to reconsider by a nonproponent of the motion. Now, I think this is a bad rule, and I think that is not the rule that is always accepted. And I would like to suggest to the president that the rules committee consider changing this rule so that we will not have the debacle that occurs when this happens.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Brown, would you mind writing that out and referring it to Mr. Van Dusen?

The roll was called and the delegates voted as follows:

Nays—0

SECRETARY CHASE: On the passage of Committee Proposal 53, the yeas are 100; the nays, none.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposal 53 is passed and referred to the committee on style and drafting.

For Committee Proposal 53 as rereferred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 2666.

The secretary will read the next proposal.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 13 on the calendar, Committee Proposal 54, A proposal that the power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away, covering the material in article X, section 9 of the present constitution.

Following is Committee Proposal 54 as reported by the committee on style and drafting and read by the secretary. (For full text as referred to said committee, see above, page 912.):

Sec. a. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The Chair recognizes Mr. Brake.

MR. BRAKE: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, this comes down to us from the remote past, when there was a practice of farming out taxes. We think the safe thing to do is to continue it.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the adoption of Committee Proposal 54. Miss Donnelly.

MISS DONNELLY: Through the Chair, Mr. President, I would like to ask the proponent of this a question, if he would answer; the question being, whose power of taxation shall never be? Are we talking about the state, are we talking about a city, are we talking about a county? In view of what we did in local government, I don't understand this one.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Brake.

MR. BRAKE: We are talking about all of them. I think there is no conflict with what we did in connection with the metropolitan authorities, but if there is any conflict, both will have to be construed by the court. I think there is not.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Will the boards be cleared, please? Those in favor of Committee Proposal 54 will vote aye. Those opposed will vote nay. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote. Mr. Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Mr. President, in order to save time, while the machine is picking up the votes, I would like to explain my abstention on this one. I was on my feet when Miss Donnelly asked her question, because I think she has raised a very legitimate question, and I feel we should have dealt with it before we voted. I certainly thought that I should abstain.

measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next [ensuing] general election.

Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members[,] to be elected from single member districts at the same [time] ELECTION as the governor for [4] FOUR-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned an apportionment factor equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest [1/100] ONE-ONE HUNDREDTH of one percent multiplied by [4] FOUR and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest [1/100] ONE-ONE HUNDREDTH of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties [are] IS entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment FACTORS of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there [shall be] IS a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to [2] TWO or more senate districts shall be [further sub]divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for [2] TWO-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as [hereinafter] provided IN THIS ARTICLE. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than [7/10] SEVEN-TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than [7/10] SEVEN-TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than [7/10] SEVEN-

TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as [herein] provided IN THIS SECTION shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to [2] TWO or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of [each] SUCH districtS shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined upon the effective date of the annexation or merger[.]. THE DISTRICTS WITH WHICH THE TERRITORY SHALL BE COMBINED SHALL BE [as] determined by ordinance of the city certified to the secretary of state.

[No legislator shall be deemed to have vacated his office by virtue of the above section.] NO SUCH CHANGE IN THE BOUNDARIES OF A REPRESENTATIVE OR SENATORIAL DISTRICT SHALL HAVE THE EFFECT OF REMOVING A LEGISLATOR FROM OFFICE DURING HIS TERM.

Sec. 5. ISLAND AREAS ARE CONSIDERED TO BE CONTIGUOUS BY LAND TO THE COUNTY OF WHICH THEY ARE A PART.

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of [8] EIGHT persons, [4] FOUR of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the [2] TWO political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election AT WHICH A GOVERNOR WAS ELECTED preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, [4] FOUR of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One member of the commission shall be selected by each political party organization from each of the following [4] FOUR regions: (1) The upper peninsula; (2) The northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana; (3) Southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) Southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

The supreme court shall determine which plan complies most accurately with the constitutional requirements and shall direct that it be adopted BY THE COMMISSION and published as provided in this section.

Proposed amendments agreed to by [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house on a [yea and nay] vote WITH THE NAMES AND VOTE OF THOSE VOTING entered in the respective journals shall be submitted, not less than 60 days thereafter, to the electors at the next general election or special election as the legislature shall direct. If a majority of electors voting on [such] a proposed amendment approve [such amendment,] THE SAME, it shall become part of the constitution and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved.

Sec. 2. Amendments may be proposed to this constitution by petition of the registered electors of this state. Every petition shall include the full text of the proposed amendment, and be signed by registered electors of the state equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, or 300,000 registered electors, whichever is less. Such petitions shall be filed with the person authorized by law to receive the same at least 120 days before the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon. Any such petition shall be in the form, and shall be signed and circulated in such manner, as prescribed by law. The person authorized by law to receive such petition[,] shall[,] upon its receipt[,] determine, as provided by law, the validity and sufficiency of the signatures on the petition, and make an official announcement thereof at least 60 days prior to the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon.

Any amendment proposed by such petition shall be submitted, not less than 120 days after it was filed, to the electors at the next GENERAL election. [at which any state officer is to be elected.] Such proposed amendment, existing provisions of the constitution which would be altered or abrogated thereby, and the question as it shall appear on the ballot [used in such election] shall be published in full as provided by law. Copies of such publication shall be posted in each polling place and furnished to news media as provided by law.

The ballot to be used in such election shall contain a statement of the purpose of the proposed amendment, expressed in not more than 100 words, exclusive of caption. Such statement of purpose and caption shall be prepared by the person authorized by law, and shall consist of a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against the proposed amendment.

If the proposed amendment is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question, the proposed amendment shall become part of the constitution, and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved. IF TWO OR MORE AMENDMENTS APPROVED BY THE ELECTORS AT THE SAME ELECTION CONFLICT, THAT AMENDMENT RECEIVING THE HIGHEST AFFIRMATIVE VOTE SHALL PREVAIL.

Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year 1978, and in each 16th year thereafter and at such times as may be provided by law, the question of a general revision of the constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state. If a majority of the electors voting on the question decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, at an election to be held not later than [4] FOUR months after the proposal was certified as approved, the electors of each [house of] representative[s] district as then organized shall elect one delegate and the electors of each senatorial district as then organized shall elect one delegate. The delegates so elected shall convene at the SEAT OF GOVERNMENT [capital city] on the first Tuesday in October next succeeding such election or at an earlier date if provided by law.

The convention shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings and judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members. The governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district to fill a vacancy in the office of any delegate. [If the legislature shall determine that delegates shall be elected on a partisan basis, the governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district and of the same party.] WHO SHALL BE A MEMBER OF THE SAME PARTY AS THE DELEGATE VACATING THE OFFICE IF THE LEGISLATURE PROVIDES FOR PARTISAN ELECTION OF DELEGATES. The convention shall have power to appoint such officers, employees and assistants as it deems necessary and to fix their compensation; to provide for the printing and distribution of its documents, journals and proceedings; to explain and disseminate information about the proposed constitution and to complete the business of the convention in an orderly manner. Each delegate shall receive for his services compensation provided by law.

No proposed constitution or amendment adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the electors for approval as hereinafter provided unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to and serving in the convention, WITH THE NAMES AND VOTE OF THOSE VOTING [the yeas and nays being] entered in the journal. Any proposed constitution or amendments adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the qualified electors in the manner and at the time provided by such convention not less than 90 days after final adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or amendments by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon the constitution or amendments shall take effect as provided by the convention.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the amendment offered by Mr. Binkowski, the yeas are 34; the nays are 82.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The amendment is not adopted. That completes the amendments to this article on the secretary's desk. Mr. Downs.

MR. DOWNS: Mr. President, fellow delegates, there are no more amendments and we're now on the adoption of the entire article; is that correct?

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: That is correct, Mr. Downs.

MR. DOWNS: I rise near the hour of midnight in trepidation, fellow delegates, but I shall try to be very brief. I rise, announcing I am going to vote no on the entire article and urging other delegates to do the same. I shall not make a long speech but I want to make one or two points on what we've done, so the delegates will knowingly and very clearly know what has transpired, particularly on the key item of apportionment.

I wish to point out that under this provision neither house is based on population. And I do not say this in a fringe or flaky manner. I have asked the research department of this convention to prepare maps on how the apportionment system would work out. I am told this is a possible apportionment plan and there are other possibilities. However, I asked for one that would be as reasonable construction as possible.

In the senate in 1970, and not before, there would be a reapportionment and the smallest district in population would be 86,000; the largest would be 3 in Oakland county, each averaging 365,000 votes. In other words, it would take 4 voters in Oakland county to equal 1 voter in the 86,000 area. That is the senate. And this ties in with advice and consent. Then in the matter of the house, Monroe county, according to the 1960 figures, would be the largest, with 101,000, and the counties of the presiding delegate, Allegan and Van Buren, have the distinction of having an average of 53,062, in other words, practically a 2 to 1 difference. It would take 2 citizens from Monroe county to equal 1 citizen's vote in Allegan county. I point this out to try to dramatize that neither house is on population, and if anybody came to this convention pledged to have at least 1 house on population, I hope those delegates will join with me in voting no on this section in the hope that we'll have something done by third reading.

I do also wish to point out that by the time we come back on August 1, there may be additional supreme court decisions. I just have the newspaper report and if I keep talking long enough, I'll be able to have a special delivery letter with some of the further details. But I understand that not only Georgia threw out the county unit system, but in Maryland, their frozen senate, somewhat similar to Michigan's, has also been thrown out by the court there on the concept of equal protection of the laws. I will not now move that we postpone consideration until further court action is taken. I remind us again that the Michigan case, Scholle versus Hare, was remanded by the United States supreme court and is back in the hands of the Michigan state supreme court. I feel that our progress here is going to come from the judicial branch, unfortunately, rather than branches like this which, by themselves, are not created on a one man, one vote concept. I do urge the delegates to understand these factors in arriving at the conclusion. There are other points of this article that we have discussed — some facetiously; some seriously. But I wish to emphasize that the main reason that I am urging a no vote on this article IV, section 2, is that I think that it is not only wrong to deny the one man, one vote concept, but I believe it is running contrary to the historical thrust of the court decisions. Thank you.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. McAllister.

MR. McALLISTER: Mr. President and fellow delegates, the hour is getting late. I cannot vote for this article. The committee that proposed this apportionment setup does not seem to be able to explain just what counties are going to be where. In fact, when the committee can't explain it to my satisfaction, I certainly can't vote for something of that kind.

It appears to me from the Tennessee case, the Scholle case, your Georgia case in the federal court, and your Maryland case, that we are doing something here that is just what Mr. Downs would like to have us do. And I do support his position. But I don't think this article should be passed if there is a possibility that the Michigan supreme court will rule on this case before August 1. It appears to me that what we are really going to have here is a senate and a house, both on a population basis. And at the present time I can't see where rural Michigan has any representation, either in the house or senate, under this plan. And in view of that fact, I cannot vote for it.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Pollock.

MR. POLLOCK: Mr. President, I've listened with what, for me, is unusual patience to the repeated dolorous pronouncements of the delegate from Detroit to the effect that he intends to vote no on one article after another. I will not attempt to surmise his real reason for acting in this negative and wholly destructive manner. He can answer to his own conscience and whatever forces in his party or elsewhere to which he so loyally responds.

I can only say that it is, to me, utterly incomprehensible how any delegate — I say any delegate; not merely the leader of the minority party — can sit here for 7½ months in the give and take of debate and decision and then, at the end of our deliberations, recommend a no vote on issues in which he shared responsibility as a delegate and, as often as not, won his own points. By what kind of extraordinary wisdom or insight does he or any other delegate or delegates think that his or their views are so superior to the slowly agreed majority view that they warrant this extraordinary procedure which, to me, is utterly destructive in its result of trying to throw together a shadow constitution or at least shadow articles in place of the carefully mature articles of this proposed constitution? I say, Mr. President, that this tactic — obviously partisan and nonpublic in nature — is unworthy of any delegate and, in my opinion, deserves condemnation on this floor. (applause)

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. DOWNS: I rise to a point of personal privilege —

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President.

MR. DOWNS: — Mr. President.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: You may state it, Mr. Downs.

MR. DOWNS: I believe that the former speaker — and I am not going to question his motives — did attack my motives, did attack me personally, and as such, I have the right to respond.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: You may proceed.

MR. DOWNS: All right. I wish to apprise the convention that this is the first time I have, to my memory, risen on a matter of personal privilege on the floor of the convention. To my knowledge, I have never knowingly attacked any individual on the floor of this convention, nor have I questioned any delegate's motives. I may have disagreed with the judgment or conclusion and I have always, I hope, respected the right of other delegates to question my judgment and my conclusion; and I hope have shown no bitterness or malice when any individual delegate, for his reasons, has seen necessary to vote contrary to what I have wished or expressed.

I wish to say that when I campaigned for this office there were several very clear points I went to the constituents in my district on and offered myself as a candidate. One was that I did not want to see any backward steps in this constitution that's being developed. I specifically refer to civil service, and will touch on that when we get into it. On the apportionment matter, I simply say that this does not represent one man, one vote in either house. I campaigned, and I can show clippings and speeches ad nauseam where I campaigned on the concept of one man, one vote. Whether or not that is right or wrong is not the issue before this convention. The issue is that as a delegate, as a candidate I campaigned on that. I said I would fight for that. I have fought for that. And if I am defeated on this, I feel no moral obligation to support something that is less than that on which I campaigned. If, on the other hand, I were to compromise basic principles—and I'm not talking about modifications of day to day operations—I would feel that that was not justifiable. How other delegates answer to themselves is their prerogative and their business and I do not intend to answer that on this floor. I do hope, as we mature and develop here, we'll have a chance to review this more thoroughly and compare item by item.

I'm a little surprised at all those points that I've won in debate. I enjoyed the conversation and fellowship but I think it would take a rather small adding machine to suggest the number of significant suggestions I've made that the convention has adopted. And I express no resentment or bitterness at the convention for having seen fit to adopt suggestions other than mine. I hope I have shown no rancor; I have felt no rancor. I apologize for taking this time of the convention this late at night. I want the delegates to know that I came here in a spirit of friendship. I feel that has been increased and I hope we do nothing or say things which we individually would later wish had been left unsaid. Thank you for your patience. (applause)

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, we do seem to be straying from the point. I would move that further debate on this article of the constitution terminate at 12:00 midnight.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: It being now 11:58, Mr. Van Dusen moves to terminate debate at 12:00 o'clock midnight. All those in—

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, I'd like to amend that so that they could speak. There have been several delegates that have tried to get recognition.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: There are 4.

MR. MADAR: That's right. Approximately that. And I move that we give them 10 minutes.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Each one?

MR. MADAR: No, sir, 10 minutes for the 4.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Madar moves that debate be terminated in 10 minutes. All those in favor will say aye. Opposed no.

The motion does not prevail.

DELEGATES: Division.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: All right. A division is called for upon that. Is the demand for a division supported?

SECRETARY CHASE: Eleven.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The demand is supported. All those in favor of limiting debate at 12:10 will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the total.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the motion to limit debate to 10 minutes, the yeas are 63; the nays are 48.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The motion prevails.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. President.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Is a motion necessary to require that this time be divided equally between those that wish to speak? If so, I move.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Between those who wish to speak?

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Yes.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: There are 4 and the Chair will request the 4 speakers to limit themselves to not more than 2½ minutes each. Mr. Wanger is next recognized.

MR. WANGER: Mr. President, fellow delegates, very briefly I'd like to comment on what Delegate Downs has urged the delegates at this convention to do. He has urged every delegate here to vote no on this article, in other words, to vote for nothing. He has offered no substitute, nothing to present to the people by way of any improvement whatsoever in this area of our constitution. And it seems to me very, very clear that such a vote is the most apparent and the grossest kind of irresponsible action for any delegate to take at this state of a constitutional convention.

I am not going to observe upon the motives of any delegate except to say this: I think that for those few delegates at the convention who have already publicly made expressions that they intend to fight the adoption of any revised constitution which we propose, that no observation on their motives is necessary because their vote on the board speaks for itself.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Dr. Hannah.

MR. J. A. HANNAH: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Downs has recommended that you vote no on this article primarily because of the apportionment provisions. I would remind you that you have had 21 able persons on this committee who worked long and diligently. They have come up with recommendations which you have approved on first and second reading which the formula—you know what it is—I am only going to, for the record, make it perfectly clear that the recommendations as they appear here apportion the senate seats 80 per cent on population, 20 per cent on area.

Mr. Downs takes the extreme, the very large district in the upper peninsula that will have small population and the 3 most populous districts in Oakland county for his comparison. In the house of representatives he has taken the extreme because in grouping the counties that are not entitled to a single representative, you are left with Allegan and Van Buren counties that are thrown together and then when we come to apportion the difference in the number of seats between those counties that have one or more, and 110, it happens that they get the second seat. This is the extreme. Actually, the house of representatives, as you well know, is as near as you can come to exact population with the exception of a single representative. You could just change one and it comes as close as you can—it's as close as you can come up with a workable formula.

I should dislike, this late at night when you're all tired, any of you to feel that the statement that Mr. Downs has made, that neither house of the legislature reflects population, is correct. We have done very well indeed. I've said before I am very proud of what our committee has come up with and what you are about to approve. We need no apologies for the apportionment portion of the article before you and I urge you to approve it.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Marshall.

MR. MARSHALL: Mr. President and fellow delegates, I was going to answer Delegate Pollock but it seems to me that Delegate Downs took care of that rather well himself. I only wish that Delegate Pollock had been as consistent on this question as Delegate Downs has been. He had some very unkind things to say about the provision himself. He equated it as 19 acres equaling 1 man, among other statements, and I can dig them out. This is not a one man, one vote principle. It does not meet the equality—

I do not think we should question the motives of those delegates. We have our own opinions, our own desires. We try to reflect the viewpoints of the people we represent. I urge a no vote on the article, too.

I've heard Dr. Hannah, on several occasions on the floor of this convention, over and over again, talk about how we do not have to apologize to any one for the provision that has come out of this convention. Let me tell you that if I voted for the provision I would have to apologize to the 680,000 people in my senatorial district that has only one senator. I think that we should understand, as Delegate Downs pointed out, that neither house of the legislature is going to be on a straight population basis. And there were alternatives. I think Dr. Pollock said we were taking a negative approach. We did all of the giving and no taking. And there were offers to accept proposals in the committee. Dr. Pollock himself offered one which we agreed to accept as a compromise proposal. Dr. Pollock himself, for reasons best known to him, a day or two later decided to revise his proposal. Then it was no longer acceptable to the minority on that committee. And we could go on and on and point out the facts here, and I'm willing to let the people of the state of Michigan decide whether or not they've got an equitable apportionment.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Nord.

MR. NORD: Mr. President, how much time is left for the debate? Am I the last speaker?

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: You are.

MR. NORD: How much time is left, sir?

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: It looks like 2 minutes to the Chair.

MR. NORD: That is fine. Thank you. I rose earlier. I asked for recognition because I didn't think that Mr. Downs would have an opportunity to reply to the attack on him. Since that has been covered, I will simply attempt to close the debate.

I would like to point out that as to Dr. Pollock's remarks relating to whether or not this is a satisfactory legislature, that when Dr. Pollock appeared before the committee on legislative organization, he started out by saying—and I applauded him and I told him that I would join with him—he said the legislature is so bad that we must start from scratch; we cannot have a patched job. He appeared later before us with a specific proposal. At that point I was not satisfied with it. I asked him, "Dr. Pollock, is this starting from scratch, or is it a patched job?" He said, "It's a patched job." We didn't approve of it. Nevertheless, we were forced to accept it at the end because, of all of the proposals we would find that were put in by the Republicans, that was the best; even though it was a patched job, we tried to accept it. He has retreated from that position. Then he attacked the proposal that you had before you and broke it down so that was worthless. Now he has rebuilt it so that it looks good.

I intend to vote against this. I think everyone understands I intend to vote against this section. I would vote against the entire constitution on the basis of either this section or the one I spoke on before. Both of these, I believe, are unconstitutional. The one about search and seizure, I believe, is clearly unconstitutional. And this one about the senate apportionment is certainly unconstitutional as to the next 10 years, and beyond that my opinion is that it is unconstitutional as well. But even if it were not unconstitutional, it is unjust. There is no reason for me to support it; there is every reason for me not to support it. And with that view, I can't see how anyone can quarrel with my doing what my conscience dictates. And I explained my conscience for 4 hours on the floor. There is no secret why I will vote against this. And when I vote against these 2 sections that have to do with apportionment, they are the heart of the entire constitution to me.

Either you have an effective democratic legislature or you have nothing. You have no state government. We have virtually no state government now in this state. We wanted to cure it. If you vote no on this, we will come back with other proposals. We've been putting in proposal after proposal; we will not quit. Just try it. If you don't believe us, vote no on this and see whether that means that there is no constitution. Vote no and we will stay here until kingdom come until we get something that is agreeable. You're not left with no alternative. Just because you put something on the ballot doesn't mean that anyone is obligated to vote for it and it doesn't mean that anyone here must support it.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Time for debate has expired. The question is upon the passage of article IV. All those in favor of article IV will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote.

Following is section 4 of article IV, as amended and passed:

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined upon the effective date of the annexation or merger if provided by ordinance of the city. The districts with which the territory shall be combined shall be determined by said ordinance certified to the secretary of state.

No such change in the boundaries of a representative or senatorial district shall have the effect of removing a legislator from office during his term.

Following is section 6 of article IV, as amended and passed:

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of eight persons, four of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the two political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election at which a governor was elected preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, four of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One member of the commission shall be selected by each political party organization from each of the following four regions: (1) The upper peninsula; (2) The northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana; (3) Southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) Southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

No officers or employees of the federal, state or local governments, excepting notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, shall be eligible for membership on the commission. Members of the commission shall not

We, the people of the State of Michigan, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of freedom, and earnestly desiring to secure these blessings undiminished to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution.

Sec. 2. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws; nor shall any person be denied the enjoyment of his civil or political rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of religion, race, color or national origin. The legislature shall implement this section by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Article II Elections

Sec. 1. Every citizen of the United States who has attained the age of 21 years, who has resided in this state six months, and who meets the requirements of local residence provided by law, shall be an elector and qualified to vote in any election except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature shall define residence for voting purposes.

Sec. 2. The legislature may by law exclude persons from voting because of mental incompetence or commitment to a jail or penal institution.

Sec. 3. For purposes of voting in the election for president and vice-president of the United States only, the legislature may by law establish lesser residence requirements for citizens who have resided in this state for less than six months and may waive residence requirements for former citizens of this state who have removed herefrom. The legislature shall not permit voting by any person who meets the voting residence requirements of the state to which he has removed.

Sec. 4. The legislature shall enact laws to regulate the time, place and manner of all nominations and elections, except as otherwise provided in this constitution or in the constitution and laws of the United States. The legislature shall enact laws to preserve the purity of elections, to preserve the secrecy of the ballot, to guard against abuses of the elective franchise, and to provide for a system of voter registration and absentee voting. No law shall be enacted which permits a candidate in any partisan primary or partisan election to have a ballot designation except when required for identification of candidates for the same office who have the same or similar surnames.

Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill vacancies, or as otherwise provided in this constitution, all elections for national, state, county and township offices shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even-numbered year or on such other date as members of the congress of the United States are regularly elected.

Sec. 6. Whenever any question is required to be submitted by a political subdivision to the electors which involves the increase of any ad valorem tax rate limitation for a period of more than five years, or the issue of bonds, only electors in, and who have property assessed for any ad valorem taxes in, any part of the district or territory to be affected by the result of such election or electors who are the lawful husbands or wives of such persons shall be entitled to vote thereon. Sec. 8. Laws shall be enacted to provide for the recall of all elective officers except judges of courts of record upon petition of electors equal in number to 25 percent of the number of persons voting in the last preceding election for the office of governor in the electoral district of the officer sought to be recalled. The sufficiency of any statement of reasons or grounds procedurally required shall be a political rather than a judicial question.

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds and must be invoked in the manner prescribed by law within 90 days following the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the law was enacted. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of registered electors, not less than eight percent for initiative and five percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected shall be required.

No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided.

If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next general election.

Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by a vote of the electors or three-fourths of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The legislature shall implement the provisions of this section.

Article III

General Government

Sec. 1. The seat of government shall be at Lansing.

Sec. 2. The powers of government are divided into three branches: legislative, executive and judicial. No person exercising powers of one branch shall exercise powers properly belonging to another branch except as expressly provided in this constitution.

Sec. 4. The militia shall be organized, equipped and disciplined as provided by law.

Subject to provisions of general law, this state or any political subdivision, any governmental authority or any combination thereof may enter into agreements for the performance, financing or execution of their respective functions, with any one or more of the other states, the United States, the Dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision thereof unless otherwise provided in this constitution. Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or of any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service. The legislature may impose such restrictions, limitations or conditions on such service as it may deem appropriate.

Sec. 8. Either house of the legislature or the governor may request the opinion of the supreme court on important questions of law upon solemn occasions as to the constitutionality of legislation after it has been enacted into law but before its effective date.

Article IV Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members to be elected from single member districts at the same election as the governor for four-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned an apportionment factor equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent multiplied by four and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties is entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there is a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to two or more senate districts shall be divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for two-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as provided in this article. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as provided in this section shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to two or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial dis-

1 | trict in the city with which it is combined, if
2 | provided by ordinance of the city. The district
3 | or districts with which the territory shall be
4 | combined shall be determined by such ordinance
5 | certified to the secretary of state. No such change
6 | in the boundaries of a representative or senatorial
7 | district shall have the effect of removing a legis-
8 | lator from office during his term.

9 | Sec. 5. Island areas are considered to be con-
10 | tiguous by land to the county of which they are
11 | a part.

12 | Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportion-
13 | ment is hereby established consisting of eight
14 | persons, four of whom shall be selected by the
15 | state organizations of each of the two political
16 | parties whose candidates for governor received
17 | the highest vote at the last general election at
18 | which a governor was elected preceding each ap-
19 | portionment. If a candidate for governor of a third
20 | political party has received at such election more
21 | than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the
22 | commission shall consist of 12 members, four of
23 | whom shall be selected by the state organization of
24 | the third political party. One member of the com-
25 | mission shall be selected by each political party or-
26 | ganization from each of the following four regions:
27 | (1) The upper peninsula; (2) The northern part of
28 | the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along
29 | the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay,
30 | Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana;
31 | (3) Southwestern Michigan, those counties south
32 | of region (2) and west of a line drawn along
33 | the western boundaries of the counties of Bay,
34 | Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hills-
35 | dale; (4) Southeastern Michigan, the remaining
36 | counties of the state.

37 | No officers or employees of the federal, state
38 | or local governments, excepting notaries public
39 | and members of the armed forces reserve, shall
40 | be eligible for membership on the commission.
41 | Members of the commission shall not be eligible
42 | for election to the legislature until two years after
43 | the apportionment in which they participated
44 | becomes effective.

45 | The commission shall be appointed immediately
46 | after the adoption of this constitution and when-
47 | ever apportionment or districting of the legislature
48 | is required by the provisions of this constitution.
49 | Members of the commission shall hold office until
50 | each apportionment or districting plan becomes
51 | effective. Vacancies shall be filled in the same
52 | manner as for original appointment.

53 | The secretary of state shall be secretary of
54 | the commission without vote, and in that capacity
55 | shall furnish, under the direction of the commis-
56 | sion, all necessary technical services. The com-
57 | mission shall elect its own chairman, shall make
58 | its own rules of procedure, and shall receive com-
59 | pensation provided by law. The legislature shall
60 | appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its activities.

1 | Within 30 days after the adoption of this con-
2 | stitution, and after the official total population
3 | count of each federal decennial census of the state
4 | and its political subdivisions is available, the se-
5 | cretary of state shall issue a call convening the
6 | commission not less than 30 nor more than 45
7 | days thereafter. The commission shall complete
8 | its work within 180 days after all necessary census
9 | information is available. The commission shall
10 | proceed to district and apportion the senate and
11 | house of representatives according to the provi-
12 | sions of this constitution. All final decisions shall
13 | require the concurrence of a majority of the mem-
14 | bers of the commission. The commission shall hold
15 | public hearings as may be provided by law.

16 | Each final apportionment and districting plan
17 | shall be published as provided by law within 30
18 | days from the date of its adoption and shall be-
19 | come law 60 days after publication. The secre-
20 | tary of state shall keep a public record of all the
21 | proceedings of the commission and shall be re-
22 | sponsible for the publication and distribution of
23 | each plan.

24 | If a majority of the commission cannot agree
25 | on a plan, each member of the commission, indi-
26 | vidualy or jointly with other members, may sub-
27 | mit a proposed plan to the supreme court. The
28 | supreme court shall determine which plan com-
29 | plies most accurately with the constitutional re-
30 | quirements and shall direct that it be adopted
31 | by the commission and published as provided
32 | in this section.

33 | Upon the application of any elector filed not
34 | later than 60 days after final publication of the
35 | plan, the supreme court, in the exercise of origi-
36 | nal jurisdiction, shall direct the secretary of
37 | state or the apportionment commission to per-
38 | form their duties, may review any final plan
39 | adopted by the commission, and shall remand
40 | such plan to the commission for further action
41 | if it fails to comply with the requirements of
42 | this constitution.

43 | Sec. 7. Each senator and representative
44 | must be a citizen of the United States, at least
45 | 21 years of age, and an elector of the district
46 | he represents. The removal of his domicile from
47 | the district shall be deemed a vacation of the
48 | office. No person who has been convicted of sub-
49 | version or who has within the preceding 20 years
50 | been convicted of a felony involving a breach
51 | of public trust shall be eligible for either house
52 | of the legislature.

53 | Sec. 8. No person holding any office under the
54 | United States or this state or a political subdivi-
55 | sion thereof, except notaries public and officers
56 | of the armed forces reserve, may be a member of
57 | either house of the legislature.

58 | Sec. 9. No person elected to the legislature
59 | shall receive any civil appointment within this
60 |

1 state from the governor, except notaries public,
2 from the legislature, or from any other state
3 authority, during the term for which he is elected.

4 Sec. 10. No member of the legislature nor any 5 state officer shall be interested directly or in-
6 directly in any contract with the state or any 7 political subdivision thereof which shall cause a
8 substantial conflict of interest. The legislature
9 shall further implement this provision by appro-
10 priate legislation.

11 Sec. 11. Senators and representatives shall be 12 privileged from civil arrest and civil process dur-
13 ing sessions of the legislature and for five days
14 next before the commencement and after the 15 termination thereof. They shall not be ques-
16 tioned in any other place for any speech in either
17 house.

18 Sec. 12. The compensation and expense al-
19 lowances of the members of the legislature shall 20 be determined by law. Changes in compensation
21 or expense allowances shall become effective only
22 when legislators commence their terms of office
23 after a general election.

24 Sec. 13. The legislature shall meet at the seat
25 of government on the second Wednesday in Janu-
26 ary of each year at twelve o'clock noon. Each
27 regular session shall adjourn without day, on a
28 day determined by concurrent resolution, at 29 twelve o'clock noon. Any business, bill or joint 30 resolution pending at the final adjournment of 31 a regular session held in an odd numbered year
32 shall carry over with the same status to the 33 next regular session.

34 Sec. 14. A majority of the members elected
35 to and serving in each house shall constitute a 36 quorum to do business. A smaller number in 37 each house may adjourn from day to day, and 38 may compel the attendance of absent members in 39 the manner and with penalties as each house may 40 prescribe.

41 Sec. 15. There shall be a bi-partisan legisla-
42 tive council consisting of legislators appointed in 43 the manner prescribed by law. The legislature
44 shall appropriate funds for the council's opera-
45 tions and provide for its staff which shall main-
46 tain bill drafting, research and other services
47 for the members of the legislature. The council
48 shall periodically examine and recommend to the 49 legislature revision of the various laws of the 50 state.

51 Sec. 16. Each house, except as otherwise pro-
52 vided in this constitution, shall choose its own

56 serving therein from discharging a committee
57 from the further consideration of any measure.
58 Each house shall be the sole judge of the quali-

1 all the members elected thereto and serving
2 therein, expel a member. The reasons for such 3 expulsion shall be entered in the journal, with 4 the votes and names of the members voting upon
5 the question. No member shall be expelled a
6 second time for the same cause.

7 Sec. 17. Each house of the legislature may 8 establish the committees necessary for the effi-

46 through either house so as to change its original
47 purpose as determined by its total content and 48 not alone by its title.

49 Sec. 25. No law shall be revised, altered or 50 amended by reference to its title only. The section
51 or sections of the act altered or amended shall 52 be re-enacted and published at length.

Any bill requiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of the general appropriation bills as passed by the legislature shall contain an itemized statement of estimated revenue by major source in each operating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total of which shall not be less than the total of all appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

If two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house. The vote of each house shall be entered in the journal with the votes and names of the members voting thereon. Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except a bill appropriating money, may provide that it will not become law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Notwithstanding the power conferred by this section, elections shall always be called as soon as possible to fill any vacancies in elective offices temporarily occupied by operation of any legislation enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. The legislature may by law establish a liquor control commission which, subject to statutory limitations, shall exercise complete control of the alcoholic beverage traffic within this state, including the retail sales thereof. They shall be grouped as far as practicable according to major purposes.

Subsequent to the initial allocation, the governor may make changes in the organization of the executive branch or in the assignment of functions among its units which he considers necessary for efficient administration. Where these changes require the force of law, they shall be set forth in executive orders and submitted to the legislature. Thereafter the legislature shall have 60 calendar days of a regular session, or a full session if of shorter duration, to disapprove each executive order. Unless disapproved in both houses by a resolution concurred in by a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house, each order shall become effective at a date thereafter to be designated by the governor.

Sec. 3. The head of each principal department shall be a single executive unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law. The single executives heading principal departments shall include a secretary of state, a state treasurer and an attorney general. Sec. 6. Appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate when used in this constitution or laws in effect or hereafter enacted means appointment subject to disapproval by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in the senate if such action is taken within 60 session days after the date of such appointment. Any appointment not disapproved within such period shall stand confirmed.

Sec. 20. No appropriation shall be a mandate to spend. The governor, with the approval of the appropriating committees of the house and senate, shall reduce expenditures authorized by appropriations whenever it appears that actual revenues for a fiscal period will fall below the revenue estimates on which appropriations for that period were based. Reductions in expenditures shall be made in accordance with procedures prescribed by law. If the governor or the person in line of succession to serve as governor is absent from the state, or suffering under an inability, the powers and duties of the office of governor shall devolve in order of precedence until the absence or inability giving rise to the devolution of powers ceases.

The inability of the governor or person acting as governor shall be determined by a majority of the supreme court on joint request of the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. Article IX

Finance and Taxation

13 Sec. 1. The legislature shall impose taxes suf-
14 ficient with other resources to pay the expenses of 15 state government.

16 Sec. 2. The power of taxation shall never be 17 surrendered, suspended or contracted away.

18 Sec. 3. The legislature shall provide for the 19 uniform general ad valorem taxation of real and 20 tangible personal property not exempt by law. The 21 legislature shall provide for the determination of 22 true cash value of such property; the proportion 23 of true cash value at which such property shall 24 be uniformly assessed, which shall not, after 25 January 1, 1966, exceed 50 percent; and for a sys-
26 tem of equalization of assessments. The legislature
27 may provide for alternative means of taxation of 28 designated real and tangible personal property in 29 lieu of general ad valorem taxation. Every tax
30 other than the general ad valorem property tax
31 shall be uniform upon the class or classes on 32 which it operates.

33 Sec. 4. Property owned and occupied by non-34 profit religious or educational organizations and 35 used exclusively for religious or educational pur-
36 poses, as defined by law, shall be exempt from 37 real and personal property taxes.

38 Sec. 5. The legislature shall provide for the 39 assessment by the state of the property of those
40 public service businesses assessed by the state
41 at the date this constitution becomes effective, and 42 of other property as designated by the legislature,
43 and for the imposition and collection of taxes
44 thereon. Property assessed by the state shall be
45 assessed at the same proportion of its true
46 cash value as the legislature shall specify for 47 property subject to general ad valorem taxation.
48 The rate of taxation on such property shall be 49 the average rate levied upon other property in this 50 state under the general ad valorem tax law, or,
51 if the legislature provides, the rate of tax applicable
52 to the property of each business enterprise assessed
53 by the state shall be the average rate of ad valorem
54 taxation levied upon other property in all counties
55 in which any of such property is situated.

56 Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this 57 constitution, the total amount of general ad valo-
58 rem taxes imposed upon real and tangible per-
59 sonal property for all purposes in any one year
60 shall not exceed 15 mills on each dollar of the

1 assessed valuation of property as finally equalized.
2 Under procedures provided by law, which shall
3 guarantee the right of initiative, separate tax
4 limitations for any county and for the townships
5 and for school districts therein, the aggregate of 6 which shall not exceed 18 mills on each dollar of 7 such valuation, may be adopted and thereafter
8 altered by the vote of a majority of the qualified
9 electors of such county voting thereon, in lieu 10 of the limitation hereinbefore established. These 11 limitations may be increased to an aggregate of 12 not to exceed 50 mills on each dollar of valuation,
13 for a period of not to exceed 20 years at any one
14 time, if approved by a majority of the electors,
15 qualified under Section 6 of Article II of this 16 constitution, voting on the question.

17 The foregoing limitations shall not apply to 18 taxes imposed for the payment of principal and 19 interest on bonds or other evidences of indebted-
20 ness or for the payment of assessments or con-
21 tract obligations in anticipation of which bonds
22 are issued, which taxes may be imposed without 23 limitation as to rate or amount; or to taxes im-
24 posed for any other purpose by any city, vil-
25 lage, charter county, charter township, charter
26 authority or other authority, the tax limitations
27 of which are provided by charter or by general
28 law.

29 In any school district which extends into two 30 or more counties, property taxes at the highest 31 rate available in the county which contains the 32 greatest part of the area of the district may be 33 imposed and collected for school purposes through-
34 out the district.

35 Sec. 7. No income tax graduated as to rate
36 or base shall be imposed by the state or any of 37 its subdivisions.

38 Sec. 8. The legislature shall not impose a
39 sales tax on retailers at a rate of more than 40 four percent of their gross taxable sales of 41 tangible personal property.

42 Sec. 9. All specific taxes, except general sales
43 and use taxes and regulatory fees, imposed di-
44 rectly or indirectly on fuels sold or used 45 to propel motor vehicles upon highways and on 46 registered motor vehicles shall, after the payment
47 of necessary collection expenses, be used exclusi-
48 vely for highway purposes as defined by law.

49 Sec. 10. One-eighth of all taxes imposed on 50 retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible
51 personal property shall be used exclusively for 52 assistance to townships, cities and villages, on 53 a population basis as provided by law. In de-
54 termining population the legislature may exclude 55 any portion of the total number of persons who 56 are wards, patients or convicts in any tax sup-
57 ported institution.

58 Sec. 11. There shall be established a state
59 school aid fund which shall be used exclusively
60 for the support of public education and school employees' retirement systems, as provided by law. One-half of all taxes imposed on retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible personal property, and other tax revenues provided by law, shall be dedicated to this fund. Payments from this fund shall be made in full on a scheduled basis, as provided by law.

Sec. 12. No evidence of state indebtedness shall be issued except for debts authorized pursuant to this constitution.

Sec. 13. Public bodies corporate shall have power to borrow money and to issue their securities evidencing debt, subject to this constitution and law.

Sec. 14. To meet obligations incurred pursuant to appropriations for any fiscal year, the legislature may by law authorize the state to issue its full faith and credit notes in which case it shall pledge undedicated revenues to be received within the same fiscal year for the repayment thereof. Such indebtedness in any fiscal year shall not exceed 15 percent of undedicated revenues received by the state during the preceding fiscal year and such debts shall be repaid at the time the revenues so pledged are received, but not later than the end of the same fiscal year.

Sec. 15. The state may borrow money for specific purposes in amounts as may be provided by acts of the legislature adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house, and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at any general election. The question submitted to the electors shall state the amount to be borrowed, the specific purpose to which the funds shall be devoted, and the method of repayment.

Sec. 16. The state, in addition to any other borrowing power, may borrow from time to time such amounts as shall be required, pledge its faith and credit and issue its notes or bonds therefor, for the purpose of making loans to school districts as provided in this section.

If the minimum amount which would otherwise be necessary for a school district to levy in any year to pay principal and interest on its qualified bonds, including any necessary allowances for estimated tax delinquencies, exceeds 13 mills on each dollar of its assessed valuation as finally equalized, or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, then the school district may elect to borrow all or any part of the excess from the state. In that event the state shall lend the excess amount to the school district for the payment of principal and interest. If for any reason any school district will be or is unable to pay the principal and interest on its qualified bonds when due, then the school district shall borrow and the state shall lend to it an amount sufficient to enable the school district to make the payment.

The term "qualified bonds" means general obligation bonds of school districts issued for capital expenditures, including refunding bonds, issued prior to May 4, 1955, or issued thereafter and qualified as provided by law pursuant to Section 27 or Section 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908 or pursuant to this section.

After a school district has received loans from the state, each year thereafter it shall levy for debt service, exclusive of levies for nonqualified bonds, not less than 13 mills or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, until the amount loaned has been repaid, and any tax collections therefrom in any year over and above the minimum requirements for principal and interest on qualified bonds shall be used toward the repayment of state loans. In any year when such levy would produce an amount in excess of the requirements and the amount due to the state, the levy may be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the legislature shall have the power to prescribe and to limit the procedure, terms and conditions for the qualification of bonds, for obtaining and making state loans, and for the repayment of loans.

The power to tax for the payment of principal and interest on bonds hereafter issued which are the general obligations of any school district, including refunding bonds, and for repayment of any state loans made to school districts, shall be without limitation as to rate or amount.

All rights acquired under Sections 27 and 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908, by holders of bonds heretofore issued, and all obligations assumed by the state or any school district under these sections, shall remain unimpaired.

Sec. 17. No money shall be paid out of the state treasury except in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Sec. 18. The credit of the state shall not be granted to, nor in aid of any person, association or corporation, public or private, except as authorized in this constitution.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the investment of public funds until needed for current requirements or the investment of funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees, as provided by law.

Sec. 19. The state shall not subscribe to, nor be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation, except that funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees may be invested as provided by law; and endowment funds created for charitable or educational purposes may be invested as provided by law governing the investment of funds held in trust by trustees.

Sec. 20. No state money shall be deposited in banks other than those organized under the national or state banking laws. No state money

1 shall be deposited in any bank in excess of 50
2 percent of the capital and surplus of such bank.
3 Any bank receiving deposits of state money shall 4 show the amount of state money so deposited as 5 a separate item in all published statements.

6 Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by law
7 for the annual accounting for all public moneys,
8 state and local, and may provide by law for interim
9 accounting.

10 The legislature shall provide by law for the 11 maintenance of uniform accounting systems by

Article XII

Amendment & Revision

Sec. 1. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the senate or house of representatives. Proposed amendments agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house on a vote with the names and vote of those voting entered in the respective journals shall be submitted, not less than 60 days thereafter, to the electors at the next general election or special election as the legislature shall direct. If a majority of electors voting on a proposed amendment approve the same, it shall become part of the constitution and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved.

Sec. 2. Amendments may be proposed to this constitution by petition of the registered electors of this state. Every petition shall include the full text of the proposed amendment, and be signed by registered electors of the state equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected. Such petitions shall be filed with the person authorized by law to receive the same at least 120 days before the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon. Any such petition shall be in the form, and shall be signed and circulated in such manner, as prescribed by law. The person authorized by law to receive such petition shall upon its receipt determine, as provided by law, the validity and sufficiency of the signatures on the petition, and make an official announcement thereof at least 60 days prior to the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon.

Any amendment proposed by such petition shall be submitted, not less than 120 days after it was filed, to the electors at the next general election. Such proposed amendment, existing provisions of the constitution which would be altered or abrogated thereby, and the question as it shall appear on the ballot shall be published in full as provided by law. Copies of such publication shall be posted in each polling place and furnished to news media as provided by law.

The ballot to be used in such election shall contain a statement of the purpose of the proposed amendment, expressed in not more than 100 words, exclusive of caption. Such statement of purpose and caption shall be prepared by the person authorized by law, and shall consist of a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against the proposed amendment.

If the proposed amendment is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question, it shall become part of the constitution, and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved. If two or more amendments approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that amendment receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year 1978, and in each 16th year thereafter and at such times as may be provided by law, the question of a general revision of the constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state. If a majority of the electors voting on the question decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, at an election to be held not later than six months after the proposal was certified as approved, the electors of each representative district as then organized shall elect one delegate and the electors of each senatorial district as then organized shall elect one delegate at a partisan election. The delegates so elected shall convene at the seat of government on the first Tuesday in October next succeeding such election or at an earlier date if provided by law.

The convention shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings and judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members. The governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district to fill a vacancy in the office of any delegate who shall be a member of the same party as the delegate vacating the office. The convention shall have power to appoint such officers, employees and assistants as it deems necessary and to fix their compensation; to provide for the printing and distribution of its documents, journals and proceedings; to explain and disseminate information about the proposed constitution and to complete the business of the convention in an orderly manner. Each delegate shall receive for his services compensation provided by law.

No proposed constitution or amendment adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the electors for approval as hereinafter provided unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to and serving in the convention, with the names and vote of those voting entered in the journal. Any proposed constitution or amendments adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the qualified electors in the manner and at the time provided by such convention not less than 90 days after final adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or amendments by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon the constitution or amendments shall take effect as provided by the convention.

against the secretary of state, by Mr. Van Dusen, chairman, submits the following report:

In accordance with Resolution 96, the committee on action against secretary of state on May 14, 1962, filed with the circuit court for the county of Ingham, a petition for declaration of rights in an action entitled, Stephen S. Nisbet, President of the Michigan Constitutional Convention of 1961-1962 v. James M. Hare, Secretary of State. The relief sought was a declaration that the convention has the right to provide for submission of the proposed new constitution to the electors at the general election to be held November 6, 1962. The summons and petition were served on the secretary of state on the same day.

On May 22, having had no response from the attorney general, petitioner filed a motion for the entry of a decree. On May 25, the secretary of state appeared specially by the attorney general and moved to dismiss the petition on the ground that the case did not present an actual controversy. The trial court heard argument on the attorney general's motion on June 1 and on June 6 rendered an opinion denying the motion to dismiss. An order to that effect was entered on June 11.

Instead of proceeding to file an answer, the attorney general then filed an application to the supreme court for leave to appeal. This application was granted by the supreme court and the attorney general, on July 2, filed a claim of appeal.

The attorney general has not yet filed a brief and he states that he does not intend to do so until after August 7.

It is obvious that no judicial determination of the right of the constitutional convention to require submission of the proposed constitution to the electors on November 6 will be made in time to be useful to the convention. Accordingly, the committee recommends:

1) That section 15 [formerly section 16] of the schedule and temporary provisions of the proposed constitution be amended by striking from the first sentence the words "Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962" and inserting "first Monday in April, 1963."

2) That the committee be authorized to discontinue the action entitled, Nisbet v. Hare.

Richard C. Van Dusen, chairman.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, I move the adoption of the report.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the motion of Mr. Van Dusen that the report be adopted. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The report is adopted. Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, in compliance with our rules, I think it would now be necessary to take a roll call vote on the amendment to the constitution changing the date.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Chase will read the amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: The amendment recommended in the report is as follows:

1. Amend the schedule, section 15 [formerly section 16] (column 2) line 11, after "held on the" by striking out "Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962.", and inserting "first Monday in April, 1963."

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will call the roll. Those in favor of the amendment will vote aye as your name is called. Those opposed will vote no.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the adoption of the constitution as amended, the yeas are 98; the nays are 43. (applause)
PRESIDENT NISBET: The constitution is adopted.

For the constitution as adopted, see below, page 3317.

Because of the hour, it being almost noon, the Chair recognizes Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VANDUSEN: Mr. President, I move that the convention now stand in recess until 2:00 p.m.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the motion of Mr. Van Dusen that we recess until 2:00 p.m. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The motion prevails. We are recessed until 2:00 o'clock.

[Whereupon, at 11:50 o'clock a.m., the convention recessed; and, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., reconvened.]

Will the delegates please take their seats. The convention will please come to order.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, a quorum of the convention is present.

PRESIDENT NISBET: I think we should recognize the fact that many of our employees are voluntarily back with us today, meeting with the delegates. I'm sure all of us are very happy to have them here. It brings about a happy result to see them and I think we ought to give them a good hand. (applause) Mr. Chase has an announcement.

SECRETARY CHASE: There are 3 announcements that possibly should have been made before we recessed for lunch.

First, there is mail for all of the delegates in the mail room downstairs.

Just prior to the May 11 adjournment, several of the delegates took out, on loan, sets of convention slides which have not been returned. Missing from our files are 12 complete sets of slides. Since we frequently have call from other delegates for the use of these slides, we would appreciate their return as soon as possible. Ink White, chairman of the committee on public information.

I am sure the delegates recall the lady on the civic center staff who took such good care of keeping the windows clean and the place well slicked up, who had to go to the hospital for a very critical operation. A number of the delegates contributed to a fund to help her over her financial difficulties. I have the following card:

It is very difficult to express my appreciation to all the wonderful people of con con. Let me say, with my heart, your kindness and generosity will always be remembered.

Sincerely,
Freda Adams.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Since the adjournment on May 11, we have added 2 new associate members to the delegation: Mrs. Charles Follo and Mrs. Gil Wanger.

I asked Charlie if Mrs. Follo was present so that he might present her, but he said she isn't. We are sorry, Charlie, she couldn't be with us.

Mr. Wanger, is your associate delegate present? Would you present her?

[Whereupon, the delegates accorded Mrs. Wanger a standing ovation.]

At the final session before the long recess the president was authorized to name a reunion committee for the constitutional convention. Accordingly, the president appoints, as members of the reunion committee: Mr. Erickson, Mrs. Koeze, Messrs. Jones, Bowens, Brake, Mrs. Conklin, Mr. Dean Doty, Mrs. Daisy Elliott, Messrs. Faxon, Kelsey, Kuhn, Powell, Sharpe, Wanger, White and Norris.

Without objection, the appointments are approved. You will notice that most of these delegates are within the area of Lansing, Detroit or Grand Rapids for their ease in getting together when they have to meet. Mr. Claud Erickson is chairman of the committee.

Returning to the order of business, approval of address to people. We will take up the report of the committee on public information. Mr. White, chairman.

MR. WHITE: Mr. President, under date of June 26, 1962, each delegate was mailed proof copies of the proposed address to the people. Since that time our committee has received numerous suggestions for corrections, additions, deletions and so on. Our committee has met and gone over these suggestions and they have been, for the most part, agreed to. I might say, parenthetically, the address in its present corrected form represents the writing and editing of upwards of 50 of our delegates.

Under date of July 27, 1962, each of you was mailed a 16 page multilith report which outlined in detail some 108 corrections. This communication also carried the recommendation that we be authorized to correct the text of the constitution as it appears in the address to conform with the style and drafting changes adopted at today's session, and to offer comments accordingly, if necessary. All of this material has been delivered again to each delegate's desk today. Additionally, you have a single white multilith sheet from our committee containing brief addenda to this 16 page report.

It seems to me, Mr. President, the delegates have had ample time to consider these matters, and to expedite our final deliberations, I move that the report of the public information committee, with the recommended addenda, be considered read.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, it is so ordered.

Following is the report as submitted and considered read:

After careful consideration of suggestions from delegates, your committee on public information recommends the adoption of the following changes in the proof copy of the address to the people:

For document incorporating following changes, see below, page 3355. Page numbers in report refer to document pages.

1. Amend page 2, second full paragraph, line 3, after "that one" by striking out "must" and inserting "should"; to improve phraseology.

2. Amend page 2, third full paragraph, line 1, by striking out "Ordered by popular vote, its delegates selected by the people on the basis of one from each senatorial and representative district, the Constitutional Convention of 1961-62 met in Lansing on October 3, 1961.", and inserting "The convention was ordered by popular vote in April of 1961. There were 144 delegates, representing Michigan's 34 State Senatorial districts and 110 State Representative seats. They were elected in statewide voting on September 12, 1961, and convened at Lansing on October 3, 1961."; to improve awkward sentence construction and correct error by indicating "seats" rather than representative "districts."

3. Amend page 2, fifth full paragraph, line 2, after "overlapped" by striking out "each other"; to improve phraseology.

4. Amend page 2, fifth full paragraph, line 6, after

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Michigan, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of freedom, and earnestly desiring to secure these blessings undiminished to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I

Declaration of Rights

Sec. 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal benefit, security and protection.

Sec. 2. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws; nor shall any person be denied the enjoyment of his civil or political rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of religion, race, color or national origin. The legislature shall implement this section by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Sec. 4. Every person shall be at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, or, against his consent, to contribute to the erection or support of any place of religious worship, or to pay tithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any minister of the gospel or teacher of religion. No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society, theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the state be appropriated for any such purpose. The civil and political rights, privileges and capacities of no person shall be diminished or enlarged on account of his religious belief.

Sec. 5. Every person may freely speak, write, express and publish his views on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of such right; and no law shall be enacted to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.

Sec. 6. Every person has a right to keep and bear arms for the defense of himself and the state.

Sec. 7. The military shall in all cases and at all times be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Sec. 8. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner or occupant, nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. Neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this state.

Sec. 10. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law or law impairing the obligation of contract shall be enacted.

Sec. 11. The person, houses, papers and possessions of every person shall be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any criminal proceeding any narcotic drug, firearm, bomb, explosive or any other dangerous weapon, seized by a peace officer outside the curtilage of any dwelling house in this state.

Sec. 12. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

Sec. 13. A suitor in any court of this state has the right to prosecute or defend his suit, either in his own proper person or by an attorney.

Sec. 14. The right of trial by jury shall remain, but shall be waived in all civil cases unless demanded by one of the parties in the manner prescribed by law. In all civil cases tried by 12 jurors a verdict shall be received when 10 jurors agree.

Sec. 15. No person shall be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for murder and treason when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Sec. 16. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed; cruel or unusual punishment shall not be inflicted; nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

Sec. 17. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law. The right of all individuals, firms, corporations and voluntary associations to fair and just treatment in the course of legislative and executive investigations and hearings shall not be infringed.

Sec. 18. No person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief.

Sec. 19. In all prosecutions for libels the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and, if it appears to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the accused shall be acquitted.

Sec. 20. In every criminal prosecution, the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, which may consist of less than 12 jurors in all courts not of record; to be informed of the nature of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; to have the assistance of counsel for his defense; to have an appeal as a matter of right; and in courts of record, when the trial court so orders, to have such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to perfect and prosecute an appeal.

Sec. 21. No person shall be imprisoned for debt arising out of or founded on contract, express or implied, except in cases of fraud or breach of trust.

Sec. 22. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or on confession in open court.

Sec. 23. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE II

Elections

Sec. 1. Every citizen of the United States who has attained the age of 21 years, who has resided in this state six months, and who meets the requirements of local residence provided by law, shall be an elector and qualified to vote in any election except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature shall define residence for voting purposes.

Sec. 2. The legislature may by law exclude persons from voting because of mental incompetence or commitment to a jail or penal institution.

Sec. 3. For purposes of voting in the election for president and vice-president of the United States only, the legislature may by law establish lesser residence requirements for citizens who have resided in this state for less than six months and may waive residence requirements for former citizens of this state who have removed herefrom. The legislature shall not permit voting by any person who meets the voting residence requirements of the state to which he has removed.

Sec. 4. The legislature shall enact laws to regulate the time, place and manner of all nominations and elections, except as otherwise provided in this constitution or in the constitution and laws of the United States. The legislature shall enact laws to preserve the purity of elections, to preserve the secrecy of the ballot, to guard against abuses of the elective franchise, and to provide for a system of voter registration and absentee voting. No law shall be enacted which permits a candidate in any partisan primary or partisan election to have a ballot designation except when required for identification of candidates for the same office who have the same or similar surnames.

Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill vacancies, or as otherwise provided in this constitution, all elections for national, state, county and township offices shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even-numbered year or on such other date as members of the congress of the United States are regularly elected.

Sec. 6. Whenever any question is required to be submitted by a political subdivision to the electors for the increase of the ad valorem tax rate limitation imposed by Section 6 of Article IX for a period of more than five years, or for the issue of bonds, only electors in, and who have property assessed for any ad valorem taxes in, any part of the district or territory to be affected by the result of such election or electors who are the lawful husbands or wives of such persons shall be entitled to vote thereon. All electors in the district or territory affected may vote on all other questions.

Sec. 7. A board of state canvassers of four members shall be established by law. No candidate for an office to be canvassed nor any inspector of elections shall be eligible to serve as a member of a board of canvassers. A majority of any board of canvassers shall not be composed of members of the same political party.

Sec. 8. Laws shall be enacted to provide for the recall of all elective officers except judges of courts of record upon petition of electors equal in number to 25 percent of the number of persons voting in the last preceding election for the office of governor in the electoral district of the officer sought to be recalled. The sufficiency of any statement of reasons or grounds procedurally required shall be a political rather than a judicial question.

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds and must be invoked in the manner prescribed by law within 90 days following the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the law was enacted. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of registered electors, not less than eight percent for initiative and five percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected shall be required.

No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided.

If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next general election.

Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by a vote of the electors unless otherwise provided in the initiative measure or by three-fourths of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The legislature shall implement the provisions of this section.

ARTICLE III

General Government

Sec. 1. The seat of government shall be at Lansing.

Sec. 2. The powers of government are divided into three branches: legislative, executive and judicial. No person exercising powers of one branch shall exercise powers properly belonging to another branch except as expressly provided in this constitution.

Sec. 3. There shall be a great seal of the State of Michigan and its use shall be provided by law.

Sec. 4. The militia shall be organized, equipped and disciplined as provided by law.

Sec. 5. Subject to provisions of general law, this state or any political subdivision thereof, any governmental authority or any combination thereof may enter into agreements for the performance, financing or execution of their respective functions, with any one or more of the other states, the United States, the Dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision thereof unless otherwise provided in this constitution. Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or of any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service. The legislature may impose such restrictions, limitations or conditions on such service as it may deem appropriate.

Sec. 6. The state shall not be a party to, nor be financially interested in, any work of internal improvement, nor engage in carrying on any such work, except for public internal improvements provided by law.

Sec. 7. The common law and the statute laws now in force, not repugnant to this constitution, shall remain in force until they expire by their own limitations, or are changed, amended or repealed.

Sec. 8. Either house of the legislature or the governor may request the opinion of the supreme court on important questions of law upon solemn occasions as to the constitutionality of legislation after it has been enacted into law but before its effective date.

ARTICLE IV

Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members to be elected from single member districts at the same election as the governor for four-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned apportionment factors equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent multiplied by four and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties is entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there is a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to two or more senators shall be divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for two-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as provided in this article. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as provided in this section shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to two or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population, adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined, if provided by ordinance of the city. The district or districts with which the territory shall be combined shall be determined by such ordinance certified to the secretary of state. No such change in the boundaries of a representative or senatorial district shall have the effect of removing a legislator from office during his term.

Sec. 5. Island areas are considered to be contiguous by land to the county of which they are a part.

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of eight electors, four of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the two political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election at which a governor was elected preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, four of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One resident of each of the following four regions shall be selected by each political party organization: (1) the upper peninsula; (2) the northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana; (3) southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

No officers or employees of the federal, state or local governments, excepting notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, shall be eligible for membership on the commission. Members of the commission shall not be eligible for election to the legislature until two years after the apportionment in which they participated becomes effective.

The commission shall be appointed immediately after the adoption of this constitution and whenever apportionment or districting of the legislature is required by the provisions of this constitution. Members of the commission shall hold office until each apportionment or districting plan becomes effective. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as for original appointment.

The secretary of state shall be secretary of the commission without vote, and in that capacity shall furnish, under the direction of the commission, all necessary technical services. The commission shall elect its own chairman, shall make its own rules of procedure, and shall receive compensation provided by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its activities.

Within 30 days after the adoption of this constitution, and after the official total population count of each federal decennial census of the state and its political subdivisions is available, the secretary of state shall issue a call convening the commission not less than 30 nor more than 45 days thereafter. The commission shall complete its work within 180 days after all necessary census information is available. The commission shall proceed to district and apportion the senate and house of representatives according to the provisions of this constitution. All final decisions shall require the concurrence of a majority of the members of the commission. The commission shall hold public hearings as may be provided by law.

Each final apportionment and districting plan shall be published as provided by law within 30 days from the date of its adoption and shall become law 60 days after publication. The secretary of state shall keep a public record of all the proceedings of the commission and shall be responsible for the publication and distribution of each plan.

If a majority of the commission cannot agree on a plan, each member of the commission, individually or jointly with other members, may submit a proposed plan to the supreme court. The supreme court shall determine which plan complies most accurately with the constitutional requirements and shall direct that it be adopted by the commission and published as provided in this section.

Upon the application of any elector filed not later than 60 days after final publication of the plan, the supreme court, in the exercise of original jurisdiction, shall direct the secretary of state or the commission to perform their duties, may review any final plan adopted by the commission, and shall remand such plan to the commission for further action if it fails to comply with the requirements of this constitution.

Sec. 7. Each senator and representative must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and an elector of the district he represents. The removal of his domicile from the district shall be deemed a vacation of the office. No person who has been convicted of subversion or who has within the preceding 20 years been convicted of a felony involving a breach of public trust shall be eligible for either house of the legislature.

Sec. 8. No person holding any office, employment or position under the United States or this state or a political subdivision thereof, except notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, may be a member of either house of the legislature.

Sec. 9. No person elected to the legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this state from the governor, except notaries public, from the legislature, or from any other state authority, during the term for which he is elected.

Sec. 10. No member of the legislature nor any state officer shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract with the state or any political subdivision thereof which shall cause a substantial conflict of interest. The legislature shall further implement this provision by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 11. Senators and representatives shall be privileged from civil arrest and civil process during sessions of the legislature and for five days next before the commencement and after the termination thereof. They shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech in either house.

Sec. 12. The compensation and expense allowances of the members of the legislature shall be determined by law. Changes in compensation or expense allowances shall become effective only when legislators commence their terms of office after a general election.

Sec. 13. The legislature shall meet at the seat of government on the second Wednesday in January of each year at twelve o'clock noon. Each regular session shall adjourn without day, on a day determined by concurrent resolution, at twelve o'clock noon. Any business, bill or joint resolution pending at the final adjournment of a regular session held in an odd numbered year shall carry over with the same status to the next regular session.

Sec. 14. A majority of the members elected to and serving in each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. A smaller number in each house may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in the manner and with penalties as each house may prescribe.

Sec. 15. There shall be a bi-partisan legislative council consisting of legislators appointed in the manner prescribed by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds for the council's operations and provide for its staff which shall maintain bill drafting, research and other services for the members of the legislature. The council shall periodically examine and recommend to the legislature revision of the various laws of the state.

Sec. 16. Each house, except as otherwise provided in this constitution, shall choose its own officers and determine the rules of its proceedings, but shall not adopt any rule that will prevent a majority of the members elected thereto and serving therein from discharging a committee from the further consideration of any measure. Each house shall be the sole judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its members, and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected thereto and serving therein, expel a member. The reasons for such expulsion shall be entered in the journal, with the votes and names of the members voting upon the question. No member shall be expelled a second time for the same cause.

Sec. 17. Each house of the legislature may establish the committees necessary for the efficient conduct of its business and the legislature may create joint committees. On all actions on bills and resolutions in each committee, names and votes of members shall be recorded. Such vote shall be available for public inspection. Notice of all committee hearings and a clear statement of all subjects to be considered at each hearing shall be published in the journal in advance of the hearing.

Sec. 18. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same unless the public security otherwise requires. The record of the vote and name of the members of either house voting on any question shall be entered in the journal at the request of one-fifth of the members present. Any member of either house may dissent from and protest against any act, proceeding or resolution which he deems injurious to any person or the public, and have the reason for his dissent entered in the journal.

Sec. 19. All elections in either house or in joint convention and all votes on appointments submitted to the senate for advice and consent shall be published by vote and name in the journal.

Sec. 20. The doors of each house shall be open unless the public security otherwise requires.

Sec. 21. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two intervening calendar days, nor to any place other than where the legislature may then be in session.

Sec. 22. All legislation shall be by bill and may originate in either house.

Sec. 23. The style of the laws shall be: The People of the State of Michigan enact.

Sec. 24. No law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title. No bill shall be altered or amended on its passage through either house so as to change its original purpose as determined by its total content and not alone by its title.

Sec. 25. No law shall be revised, altered or amended by reference to its title only. The section or sections of the act altered or amended shall be re-enacted and published at length.

Sec. 26. No bill shall be passed or become a law at any regular session of the legislature until it has been printed or reproduced and in the possession of each house for at least five days. Every bill shall be read three times in each house before the final passage thereof. No bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house. On the final passage of bills, the votes and names of the members voting thereon shall be entered in the journal.

Sec. 27. No act shall take effect until the expiration of 90 days from the end of the session at which it was passed, but the legislature may give immediate effect to acts by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 28. When the legislature is convened on extraordinary occasions in special session no bill shall be passed on any subjects other than those expressly stated in the governor's proclamation or submitted by special message.

Sec. 29. The legislature shall pass no local or special act in any case where a general act can be made applicable, and whether a general act can be made applicable shall be a judicial question. No local or special act shall take effect until approved by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house and by a majority of the electors voting thereon in the district affected. Any act repealing local or special acts shall require only a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house and shall not require submission to the electors of such district.

Sec. 30. The assent of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature shall be required for the appropriation of public money or property for local or private purposes.

Sec. 31. The general appropriation bills for the succeeding fiscal period covering items set forth in the budget shall be passed or rejected in either house of the legislature before that house passes any appropriation bill for items not in the budget except bills supplementing appropriations for the current fiscal year's operation. Any bill requiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of the general appropriation bills as passed by the legislature shall contain an itemized statement of estimated revenue by major source in each operating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total of which shall not be less than the total of all appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

Sec. 32. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax.

Sec. 33. Every bill passed by the legislature shall be presented to the governor before it becomes law, and the governor shall have 14 days measured in hours and minutes from the time of presentation in which to consider it. If he approves, he shall within that time sign and file it with the secretary of state and it shall become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature has within that time finally adjourned the session at which the bill was passed, it shall not become law. If he disapproves, and the legislature continues the session at which the bill was passed, he shall return it within such 14-day period with his objections, to the house in which it originated. That house shall enter such objections in full in its journal and reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house. The vote of each house shall be entered in the journal with the votes and names of the members voting thereon. If any bill is not returned by the governor within such 14-day period, the legislature continuing in session, it shall become law as if he had signed it.

Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except a bill appropriating money, may provide that it will not become law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Sec. 35. All laws enacted at any session of the legislature shall be published in book form within 60 days after final adjournment of the session, and shall be distributed in the manner provided by law. The prompt publication of judicial decisions shall be provided by law. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Sec. 36. No general revision of the laws shall be made. The legislature may provide for a compilation of the laws in force, arranged without alteration, under appropriate heads and titles.

Sec. 37. The legislature may by concurrent resolution empower a joint committee of the legislature, acting between sessions, to suspend any rule or regulation promulgated by an administrative agency subsequent to the adjournment of the last preceding regular legislative session. Such suspension shall continue no longer than the end of the next regular legislative session.

Sec. 38. The legislature may provide by law the cases in which any office shall be vacant and the manner of filling vacancies where no provision is made in this constitution.

Sec. 39. In order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency only, resulting from disasters occurring in this state caused by enemy attack on the United States, the legislature may provide by law for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices; and enact other laws necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations. Notwithstanding the power conferred by this section, elections shall always be called as soon as possible to fill any vacancies in elective offices temporarily occupied by operation of any legislation enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. The legislature may by law establish a liquor control commission which, subject to statutory limitations, shall exercise complete control of the alcoholic beverage traffic within this state, including the retail sales thereof. The legislature may provide for an excise tax on such sales. Neither the legislature nor the commission may authorize the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages in any county in which a majority of the electors voting thereon shall prohibit the same.

Sec. 41. The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets.

Sec. 42. The legislature may provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts, and confer power and authority upon them to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

Sec. 43. No general law providing for the incorporation of trust companies or corporations for banking purposes, or regulating the business thereof, shall be enacted, amended or repealed except by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Under procedures provided by law, which shall guarantee the right of initiative, separate tax limitations for any county and for the townships and for school districts therein, the aggregate of which shall not exceed 18 mills on each dollar of such valuation, may be adopted and thereafter altered by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting thereon, in lieu of the limitation hereinbefore established. In that event the state shall lend the excess amount to the school district for the payment of principal and interest. If for any reason any school district will be or is unable to pay the principal and interest on its qualified bonds when due, then the school district shall borrow and the state shall lend to it an amount sufficient to enable the school district to make the payment.

The term "qualified bonds" means general obligation bonds of school districts issued for capital expenditures, including refunding bonds, issued prior to May 4, 1955, or issued thereafter and qualified as provided by law pursuant to Section 27 or Section 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908 or pursuant to this section.

After a school district has received loans from the state, each year thereafter it shall levy for debt service, exclusive of levies for nonqualified bonds, not less than 13 mills or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, until the amount loaned has been repaid, and any tax collections therefrom in any year over and above the minimum requirements for principal and interest on qualified bonds shall be used toward the repayment of state loans. In any year when such levy would produce an amount in excess of the requirements and the amount due to the state, the levy may be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the legislature shall have the power to prescribe and to limit the procedure, terms and conditions for the qualification of bonds, for obtaining and making state loans, and for the repayment of loans.

The power to tax for the payment of principal and interest on bonds hereafter issued which are the general obligations of any school district, including refunding bonds, and for repayment of any state loans made to school districts, shall be without limitation as to rate or amount.

For the retirement of notes and bonds issued under Section 26 of Article X of the 1908 constitution, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund each year during their life a sum equal to the amount of principal and interest payments due and payable in each year.

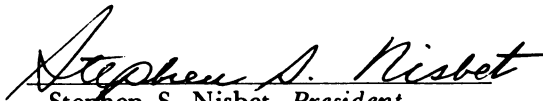

Sec. 14. The legislature by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house may provide that the state may borrow money and may pledge its full faith and credit for refunding any bonds issued by the Mackinac Bridge Authority and at the time of refunding the Mackinac Bridge Authority shall be abolished and the operation of the bridge shall be assumed by the state highway department. The legislature may implement this section by law.

Sec. 15. This constitution shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on the first Monday in April, 1963. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state forthwith to give notice of such submission to all

() Yes. () No. All votes cast at the election shall be taken, counted, canvassed and returned as provided by law for the election of state officers. If the revised constitution so submitted receives more votes in its favor than were cast against it, it shall be the supreme law of the state on and after the first day of January of the year following its adoption.

[ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE]

What the Proposed
New State Constitution
Means to You

- A report to the people of Michigan
by their elected delegates to the Constitutional Convention of 1961-62.

Lansing, Michigan

August 1, 1962

No change from Sec. 24, Article V, of the present constitution except for the insertion of the words "and serving" to clarify the method of computing a majority provided in Sec. 14 of this Article.

General appropriations; priority.

Sec. 31. The general appropriation bills for the succeeding fiscal period covering items set forth in the budget shall be passed or rejected in either house of the legislature before that house passes any appropriation bill for items not in the budget except bills supplementing appropriations for the current fiscal year's operation. Any bill requiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of the general appropriation bills as passed by the legislature shall contain an itemized statement of estimated revenue by major source in each operating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total of which shall not be less than the total of all appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

This is a new section designed to accomplish two major purposes:

1. To focus legislative attention on the general appropriation bill or bills to the exclusion of any other appropriation bills, except those supplementing appropriations for the current year's operation.
2. To require the legislature (as well as the governor by a subsequent provision) to set forth by major item its own best estimates of revenue.

The legislature frequently differs from executive estimates of revenue. It is proper to require that such differences as exist be specifically set forth for public understanding and future judgment as to the validity of each.

Laws imposing taxes.

Sec. 32. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax ****.

This is a revision of Sec. 6, Article X, of the present constitution. It requires a distinct and clear statement of any tax imposed upon the citizens of this state.

The section eliminates the requirement that tax laws specify "the objects to which (the tax) is to be applied". This has been judicially construed to mean "the purpose for which the money is to be spent". In a complex system of taxation, when the proceeds of one general tax may be devoted to many different purposes, this seems obsolete.

Also deleted is the present statement that "it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax". This eliminates the possible question of the legislature's right to refer to income determined for federal tax purposes. It is not the intention of the section, however, to permit any delegation of the power to fix a tax or tax base to another legislative authority.

Bills passed; approval and veto by governor.

Sec. 33. Every bill passed by the legislature shall be presented to the governor before it becomes law, and the governor shall have 14 days *measured in hours and minutes from the time of presentation in which to consider it. If he approves, he shall within that time sign and file it with the secretary of state and it shall become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature has within that time finally adjourned the session at which the bill was passed, it shall not become law. If he disapproves, and the legislature continues the session at which the bill was passed, he shall return it within such 14-day period with his objections, to the house in which it originated. That house shall enter such objections in full in its journal and reconsider the bill.  If two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house  for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house.  The vote of each house shall be entered in the journal with the votes and names of the members voting thereon.  If any bill is not returned by the governor within such 14-day period, the legislature continuing in session, it shall become * law  as if he had signed it. ****

This is a revision of Sec. 36, Article V, of the present constitution to clarify and change existing language regarding the executive veto. It provides as follows: (1) The governor shall have 14 days in which to consider a bill; and his 14-day period for consideration and approval will not be affected by whether or not the legislature adjourns its session. (2) If during that period he signs the bill, it becomes law. (3) If during that period he does not sign the bill, and the legislature has adjourned its session, the bill does not become law. (4) If during that period he does not approve, he must send it back to the house of origin, if the legislature is still in session, for consideration of his veto. (5) If during that period he neither approves nor returns the bill with a veto message, the legislature continuing in session, it becomes a law as if he had signed it.

The time for consideration by the governor has been extended from 10 to 14 days in accordance with testimony by former governors that some additional time is desirable.

The two-thirds vote of the legislature to override the governor's veto is retained.

Referendum on certain bills.

Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except a bill appropriating money, may  provide that it will not become * law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

No change from Sec. 38, Article V, of the present constitution except for improvement in phraseology.

Publication of laws.

Sec. 35. All laws enacted at any session of the legislature shall be published in book form within 60 days after * final adjournment of the session, and shall be distributed in the manner  provided by law. The prompt publication of * judicial decisions * shall be provided * by law. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.
