Overview of the Constitutional Convention Process

Provisions generally began as Committee Proposals and were then brought to the convention floor for first reading. The majority of debate on the substance of provisions occurred during the first and second readings. There were two third readings; the first on an article-by-article basis and the second reviewing the Constitution as a whole. Following the third readings the entire Constitution was voted on by the delegates. The delegates then created the Notice of Address to the People, summarizing the Constitution on a provision-by-provision basis, which was distributed so that the people could be informed when making their ratification votes.

The convention used ALL CAPS to denote added material and [brackets] to denote removed material.

Mr. A. G. Elliott, for the committee on local government, introduced Committee Proposal 84, A proposal to provide for liberal construction of provisions concerning municipal corporations. Amends article VIII; with the recommendation that it pass.

Arthur G. Elliott, chairman.

For Committee Proposal 84 and the reasons submitted in support thereof, see below under date of February 14.

Mr. A. G. Elliott, for the committee on local government, introduced

MR. WANGER: Just a brief comment on the drafting. It says:

The legislature may provide by general law for the organization and government, and for the dissolution, of political subdivisions other than counties, cities and villages . . .

so I presume they cannot provide, by law, for the organization of cities and villages under the amendment as it is before the committee at this time.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The Chair recognizes the author of the amendment, Delegate Pollock.

MR. POLLOCK: I am sure that was a sincere question, but it doesn't seem to me to be an extremely important one. It says "may" in the first place. We have already provided other places in the constitution for counties. We are going on to provide for cities and villages, and this clearly allows the flexibility which other parts of the constitution allow.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question is on the Pollock amendment to Committee Proposal 82. A division vote has been requested. All those who are in favor of the Pollock amendment will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. The secretary will lock the machine and tally the vote. The secretary will announce the vote.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the amendment offered by Dr. Pollock, the yeas are 41, the nays are 88.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The amendment is not adopted. Are there any further amendments to the body of Committee Proposal 82?

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. W. F. Hanna offers the following amendment to Committee Proposal 82:

1. Amend page 2, following line 14, by inserting:

"Sec. f. The legislature may by general law provide for an optional charter township form of township government which optional charter township shall have such officers selected in such manner as the optional charter township law shall provide."

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The Chair recognizes the delegate from Muskegon, Delegate Hanna.

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. Chairman, I don't want to belabor this point, but this is an effort to give the legislature power to further improve the charter township act. This act is a start in the right direction. It is a rather effective act. Mr. Farnsworth referred to the amendments which the legislature has adopted since the original act was first passed by the legislature. Those amendments, for good or for bad, were authored by myself, along with some others that were not adopted by the legislature.

However, one of the stumbling blocks in the charter township act is the constitutional provision that you must elect a supervisor, clerk and treasurer for 2 year terms or for 4 year terms; that in respect to the charter township act, those provisions governing general townships must be complied with, in an effort to create a charter township act. This would remove the limitation from the charter township act and give to the legislature some flexibility with regard to the officers of a township.

We have gone farther in this constitution, by freezing 2 to 4 trustees in the term and, in turn, we have taken out the highway commissioner and the constables, which were part of the objectionable features. But this would, in the charter township act, allow the legislature full and complete jurisdiction to design a good optional charter township act and remove from the restrictions on the legislature the power to deal with township offices.

I urge the adoption.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegan, Delegate Farnsworth.

MR. FARNSWORTH: Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, I would like to make this presentation without any great amount of feeling one way or the other on this proposition of possibly unfreezing the township, elective township officers, when a township decides to become a charter township.

I would say, however that it was discussed in the committee and we came to the conclusion that obviously the township unit would be electing some kind of local officials and that would be their governing board. We thought it made very little difference whether they called it a town board or a township commission or town council or what have you. In any event, they were going to be electing a treasurer, a clerk, a supervisor, and at least 2 trustees.

As it is now, that is their town board. Under the charter township act, they have a right to hire a superintendent and many of them do. The supervisor has a right to hire assisting help, and many of them do. They have a right to pave streets, to install curbs and gutters and sidewalks. They may levy special assessments. They may levy millage, 5 mills over and above their regular 15 mill limitation. By a vote of the people they can levy 10 mills without adhering to the 15 mill limitation. They may borrow money. They may own land. They may establish libraries. They can have a fire department, a police department. In effect, they can do really anything that they need to do, under a charter form of township government, which is permissible by statute at the present time.

Again I say, I do not feel strongly about this, personally, but I can not see, for the life of me, what possible difference it makes whether you free up those particular constitutional officers or not. They are going to be electing some kind of a town board.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question is on the adoption of the Hanna amendment to Committee Proposal 82. The secretary will read the amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Hanna's amendment is:

[The amendment was again read by the secretary. For text, see above.]

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question is on the adoption of the amendment. All those in favor of the Hanna amendment will say aye. Opposed, no.

The amendment is not adopted.

Are there any further amendments to the body of Committee Proposal 82? If not, it will pass.

Committee Proposal 82, as amended, is passed. The secretary will read Committee Proposal 83.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 3 on the calendar, from the committee on local government, by Mr. Elliott, chairman, Committee Proposal 83, A proposal pertaining to cities and villages. Amends article VIII, sections 20, 21, 22, 23 and 25.

Following is Committee Proposal 83 as read by the secretary, and the reasons submitted in support thereof:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. The legislature shall provide by a general law for the incorporation of cities[,] and [by a general law for the incorporation of] villages; such general laws shall limit their rate of GENERAL PROPERTY taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts. EACH CITY AND VILLAGE IS HEREBY GRANTED POWER TO LEVY TAXES FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS AND PROHIBITIONS SET FORTH IN THIS CONSTITUTION OR LAW.

Sec. b. [Under such general laws] The electors of each city and village [shall have] ARE HEREBY GRANTED THE power and authority to frame, adopt, amend, AND REVISE its charter, and to amend, AND REVISE an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or passed by the legislature for the government of the city or village, [and, through its regularly constituted authority, to pass all laws and ordinances relating to its municipal concern, subject to the constitution and general laws of this state.] THE LEGISLATURE SHALL PROVIDE BY GENERAL LAW THE PROCEDURE FOR FRAMING, ADOPTING, AMENDING, AND REVISING SUCH CHARTERS.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

EACH SUCH CITY AND VILLAGE IS HEREBY GRANTED FULL POWER TO PASS LAWS AND ORDINANCES RELATING TO ITS MUNICIPAL CONCERNS, PROPERTY, AND GOVERNMENT, BUT THE LEGISLATURE MAY ENACT LAWS OF STATEWIDE CONCERN WHICH WILL PREEMPT THE FIELD ONLY WHEN THIS INTENTION IS SO STATED THEREIN. NO ENUMERATION OF POWERS IN THIS CONSTITUTION SHALL BE DEEMED TO LIMIT OR RESTRICT THE GENERAL GRANT OF AUTHORITY HEREBY CONFERRED. SUCH CITIES AND VILLAGES SHALL HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER MATTERS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL PERSONNEL AND ADMINISTRATION.

Sec. c. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, either within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals, [almshouses] and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. d. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THIS CONSTITUTION, NO CITY OR VILLAGE SHALL HAVE THE POWER TO ASSESS, LEVY OR COLLECT ANY TAX OR ASSESSMENT FOR OTHER THAN A PUBLIC PURPOSE, OR TO LOAN ITS CREDIT FOR ANY PRIVATE PURPOSE OR FOR ANY PUBLIC PURPOSE EXCEPT AS AUTHORIZED BY LAW.

Sec. e. Subject to the provisions of this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own, and operate, either within or without its corporate limits, public utilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, SEWAGE DISPOSAL, and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof; and may also sell and deliver heat, power, and light without its corporate limits to an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, EXCEPT AS GREATER AMOUNTS MAY BE PERMITTED BY LAW; and may also sell and deliver water AND PROVIDE SEWAGE DISPOSAL, outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines without the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law. [: Provided, That the right to own or operate transportation facilities shall not extend to any city or village of less than 25,000 inhabitants.]

Sec. f. [No city or village shall have power to abridge the right of elective franchise, to loan its credit; nor to assess, levy or collect any tax or assessment for other than a public purpose. Nor shall any] NO city or village SHALL acquire any public utility or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless such proposition shall have first received the affirmative vote of 3/5 of the electors of such city or village voting thereon at a regular or special municipal election. [; and upon such proposition women taxpayers having the qualifications of male electors shall be entitled to vote.] NOR SHALL ANY CITY OR VILLAGE SELL ANY PUBLIC UTILITY UNLESS SUCH PROPOSITION SHALL HAVE FIRST RECEIVED THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF A MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS OF SUCH CITY OR VILLAGE VOTING THEREON AT A REGULAR OR SPECIAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Mr. Arthur Elliott, chairman of the committee on local government, submits the following reasons in support of Committee Proposal 83:

[The comment regarding sections a and b immediately following is the comment as originally submitted by the committee. This was ordered revised on February 8 (see above, page 909). The revised comment appears following this original comment.]

Section a comment. In 1908, this section was spelled out in great detail because the home rule concept was new and the delegates wanted to be as precise as possible. They therefore provided for a separate general law for cities and for villages. Home rule and the avoidance of special act charters is now established practice in Michigan and the change in the first sentence is made only for the sake of brevity and simplicity. In the third line, the term "general property" is used to be specific and to distinguish the limitation on property taxes from the new grant of power to levy nonproperty taxes in the last sentence. The grant of power for nonproperty taxes is added to permit cities and villages that wish to ease the burden on the property tax to act on the basis of clear constitutional authority, for legal opinion as to current taxing powers of cities and villages is conflicting. The committee proposal does not attempt to specify the taxes a municipality might or should adopt, but to make possible a local decision on such matters, subject to limitations and prohibitions contained in this constitution or general laws now existing or that might be adopted by a future legislature. The committee on finance and taxation has concurrent jurisdiction on this section and has no objection to these changes. The committee majority is of the opinion that wages and hours should be set by the local governing body rather than by the legislature. Local officials are better acquainted with their fiscal problems and can more readily solve them than is likely to be the case with a legislator voting on a problem with which he is not familiar. Cities and villages differ greatly in resources and their ability to finance wage and salary schedules and any general act of the legislature concerning these matters cannot take account of the diversity among local units of government.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

Section b comments. The language change in the first paragraph is to achieve a more positive statement of the right of cities and villages to home rule. The only substantive change is to make it clear that the power to revise a charter exists along with the other rights named. This is to clear up a possible ambiguity. The language deleted in lines 6 through 9 is replaced by a more positive statement in the second paragraph. In addition, home rule cities and villages are guaranteed full power over their own property and government, and these powers cannot be limited except by deliberate statement of intent by the legislature. In the past, general laws of the state providing for a standard of service or performance have been held by the courts to make invalid municipal ordinances or charter provisions providing a higher standard. This is undesirable and this language will permit the municipal provisions to stand in the absence of deliberate intent by the legislature to set them aside. The last sentence of the second paragraph is intended to strengthen and clarify municipal home rule by granting the local legislative body the right to control local personnel and administration. It is the feeling of a majority of the committee that certain categories of municipal employees are given preferred treatment by state laws to the detriment of other employees. Nothing in this section would prohibit municipalities from applying standards and practices in current state laws to their municipal personnel. The general saving clause of this constitution will protect existing rights, but future changes in personnel regulations will be made by ordinance or charter.

Following is the comment regarding sections a and b as revised on February 8 (see above, page 909) by the committee on local government:

Section a comment. In 1908, this section was spelled out in great detail because the home rule concept was new and the delegates wanted to be as precise as possible. They therefore provided for a separate general law for cities and for villages. Home rule and the avoidance of special act charters is now established practice in Michigan and the change in the first sentence is made only for the sake of brevity and simplicity. In the third line, the term "general property" is used to be specific and to distinguish the limitation on property taxes from the new grant of power to levy nonproperty taxes in the last sentence. The grant of power for nonproperty taxes is added to permit cities and villages that wish to ease the burden on the property tax to act on the basis of clear constitutional authority, for legal opinion as to current taxing powers of cities and villages is conflicting. The committee proposal does not attempt to specify the taxes a municipality might or should adopt, but to make possible a local decision on such matters, subject to limitations and prohibitions contained in this constitution or general law now existing or that might be adopted by a future legislature. The committee on finance and taxation has concurrent jurisdiction on this section and has no objection to these changes.

Section b comments. The language change in the first paragraph is to achieve a more positive statement of the right of cities and villages to home rule. The only substantive change is to make it clear that the power to revise a charter exists along with the other rights named. This is to clear up a possible ambiguity. The language deleted in lines 19 through 22 is replaced by a more positive statement in the second paragraph. In addition, home rule cities and villages are guaranteed full power over their own property and government, and these powers cannot be limited except by deliberate statement of intent by the legislature. In the past, general laws of the state providing for a standard of service or performance have been held by the courts to make invalid municipal ordinances or charter provisions providing a higher standard. This is undesirable and this language will permit the municipal provisions to stand in the absence of deliberate intent by the legislature to set them aside. The last sentence of the second paragraph is intended to strengthen and clarify municipal home rule by granting the local legislative body the right to control municipal wages and hours and administration. It is the feeling of a majority of the committee that certain categories of municipal employees are given preferred treatment by state laws to the detriment of other employees. The committee is of the opinion that wages and hours should be set by the local governing body rather than by the legislature, except where state law deals with all persons, or all public employees. Local officials are better acquainted with their fiscal problems, and can more readily solve them than is likely to be the case with a legislator voting on a problem with which he is not familiar. The right of the municipality to decide on matters of wages and hours should be preserved in all cases except where the legislature determines that some statewide interest is involved, but its action in such cases should be limited to all persons or all public employees without favor or distinction among them.

Section c comments. This section remains unchanged except for the deletion of the reference to "almshouses", which is obsolete. The enumeration here is not intended to restrict the powers of municipalities to the functions listed, but to guarantee their rights to perform certain functions either inside or outside of their corporate limits.

Section d comments. This section is a new section and presents in amended form the first sentence of section 25 in the present constitution. The limitation on the use of taxes for public purposes only is unchanged from the present constitution. The right to loan credit is broadened to permit this to be done for public purposes as authorized by the legislature. The legislature might, for example, permit 2 or more municipalities to loan their credit in order to finance a joint public works project by general obligation bonds, which would permit a lower interest rate than if revenue or special assessment bonds were used. It is the committee's opinion that this provision in no way conflicts with article X, section 12. The committee on finance and taxation has no objections to this language. This section deletes the reference to elective franchise as this matter has been referred to the committee on declaration of rights, suffrage and elections.

Section e comments. The courts have construed this section to mean that a city or village cannot engage in any business but must restrict itself to public utilities. The committee recommends 3 changes in the section. First, adding to the list of utilities, "sewage disposal", without wishing to raise the legal questions whether or not sewage disposal should be regarded as a public utility. It was felt that this function of local government should be listed here so as to make it indisputable that cities and villages can operate such plants either within or without their limits. Secondly, there should not be any limits to the sale of these utilities either within or without the corporate limits of municipality. The power granted municipalities to sell and deliver utility services without their corporate limits is designed to prevent the duplication of plants in contiguous localities and to allow the extension of the benefits of such improvement to territory not sufficiently populous to warrant the establishment of such activities as either a public or private enterprise. The present constitution contains a 25 per cent limitation on heat, power and light delivered outside the limits. It was felt that this limit was arbitrary and that the legislature should have the authority to authorize a higher figure. The committee felt this was desirable in a constitution that should, wherever possible, allow for future contingencies. Testimony was given in some instances that this figure should be larger. However, the committee felt that some control should be exercised relative to heat, light and power. Third, the committee recommends the deletion of the restriction of public transit facilities to cities and villages of over 25,000. The original purpose of this clause appears to have been to prevent small cities from entering into unwise transit ventures that could not retire their original capital outlays. Today, the unprofitability of public transit is known to all and this danger is small. There are also at least 2 positive reasons for deleting this clause. One is to permit the use by all municipalities of the plan whereby a city or village acquires a private transit system for a symbolic amount and then leases it to a private operating firm, thus minimizing taxes. This privilege should logically be available to all municipalities. The other reason is to permit municipalities in metropolitan areas including those of under 25,000 inhabitants to join together in a public transit system.

Section f comments. The committee recommends 3 changes in this section. It proposes to amend the first sentence and move it to a new section for it deals with subject matter not germane to this section. The last clause of the last sentence relative to women taxpayers is obsolete and should be deleted. The 3/5 affirmative vote of the electors for a city or village to acquire a public utility should be retained in this section. The committee proposes to add a new sentence relative to the sale of municipally owned utilities. It believes that a large investment such as that represented by a utility should not be disposed of without permission of a majority of the voters, who as taxpayers are owners. There is no constitutional restriction on such, relative to the sale of utilities in the present constitution. A 3/5 majority, which is required for purchase of a utility, seems to have been provided in 1908 because such a purchase implies a commitment to the making of a large investment which should not lightly be undertaken. The consideration involved is not the same in a sale but is largely restricted to the questions of whether most voters believe sale is desirable and the sale price is satisfactory. This section has the approval of the committee on declaration of rights, suffrage and elections and the committee on finance and taxation.

Following is minority report A to Committee Proposal 83 as offered and the reasons submitted in support thereof:

Messrs. Ford, Buback, Baginski, Mrs. Hatcher, Messrs.

MR. FORD: Point of order, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: What is your point of order, Delegate Ford?

MR. FORD: I understand we had divided the previous section so that we were considering all but the last sentence.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Mr. Lundgren's motion, Delegate Ford, was to pass the entire section temporarily.

MR. FORD: I didn't hear you use the word "entire" until just this moment. When I voted to pass the section, I voted to pass the portion that had been under discussion. The last sentence in the section has not been under discussion.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: It is the understanding of the Chair that he said the motion dealt with paragraph 2 of section b.

MR. FORD: We have been dealing with paragraph 2 of section b all morning, but only a part of it, and it has been made very explicit on the floor that we were under no circumstances to discuss the last sentence, and the last sentence was not directly related to the rest of it. When will it come before the group?

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: When the committee again considers section b. The Chair rules the point of order is not well taken. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wyandotte, Delegate McCauley.

MR. MCCAULEY: Mr. Chairman, I wish to yield to Delegate Dell.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Delegate McCauley yields to the gentleman from St. Ignace, Delegate Dell.

MR. DELL: The chairman of my committee warned me yesterday morning that I would be called upon to take care of this section. It seems to me we are having quite a time getting to it.

The comments on this section by the committee were:

[The supporting reasons for section c were read by Mr. Dell. For text, see above, page 1006.]

Now this section, as I understand, was not incorporated in the Constitution of 1835, or 1850 but was incorporated in the 1908 constitution, presumably to supplement the powers of the home rule. The committee recommends that this pass.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Are there any amendments to section c? The gentleman from Muskegon, Delegate Hanna.

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. Chairman, I would like to address a question to one of the members of the committee as to whether or not this section is at all necessary. It is literally the same power expressed in the city home rule act, and it seems to me that this adds nothing to the powers of cities that haven't been granted under home rule, and whether or not this language cannot be deleted. There are many other things the city can do outside its borders, such as enforce plumbing codes, at least according to the home rule acts that say they can, and I wonder if this section is at all necessary or adds anything to the power granted under the home rule act.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Delegate Hanna yields to Delegate Dell for the purpose of answering the question.

MR. DELL: Delegate Hanna, as I stated, it was presumably placed in the Constitution of 1908 for the purpose of strengthening the section on home rule, and for that reason we see no reason why it should not be continued. The question of deleting is debatable, of course.

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. Chairman, may I address a question to Mr. Allen, who is well versed in this? Is this section at all necessary, Mr. Allen, in view of the permissive powers under the home rule act?

MR. ALLEN: I would say that it was, Delegate Hanna, and it seems as though we get into a problem where if we want to change anything someone thinks something is happening. So we had better leave it the same.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Are there any amendments to section c of Committee Proposal 83? If not, it will pass.

Section c is passed and the secretary will read section d.

SECRETARY CHASE: Section d.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wyandotte, speaking on behalf of the committee, Delegate McCauley.

MR. MCCAULEY: Mr. Chairman, members of the committee, I would like to yield to Mr. Leslie Richards.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Delegate McCauley yields to Delegate Richards.

MR. L. W. RICHARDS: Mr. Chairman, fellow delegates, as you may know, the comments on this particular section are found in Journal 70 on page 439 under section d.

I might add that in behalf of our very intellectual, democratic chairman, Mr. John E. McCauley, we would like to have this passed and accepted.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question before the committee is: are there any amendments to section d of Committee Proposal 83? The gentleman from East Grand Rapids, Delegate Martin.

MR. MARTIN: Mr. Chairman, just a matter of clarification on this. The last portion of the sentence reads—the new language reads “or to loan its credit for any private purpose or any public purpose except as authorized by law,” and the phrase “except as authorized by law,” although I am sure the committee didn't intend it so, may be taken to modify both private purpose and public purpose.

I haven't had an opportunity to prepare an amendment here, but it appears to me that the last part of the sentence should read “for any private purpose or, except as authorized by law for any public purpose.” Otherwise it will modify both, and I am sure the committee doesn't intend that municipalities be able to authorize the loan of their credit for private purposes.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The Chair recognizes the delegate from Negaunee, Delegate Richards.

MR. L. W. RICHARDS: That is exactly what I was discussing with our able subcommittee chairman here, and he feels there will be no objection, Mr. Martin, if that were added.

MR. MARTIN: Mr. Chairman, is it necessary for me to submit a written amendment?

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Would the delegate mind stepping to the rostrum to submit the amendment?

Mr. Arthur Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: I was just going to ask if this were something that could be handled in style and drafting, but if he feels an amendment is better, we can do that.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question before the committee is the amendment offered by Mr. Martin, and the secretary will read.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Martin offers the following amendment:

1. Amend page 2, line 23, after “purpose or” by inserting a comma and “except as authorized by law”; and in line 24, after “purpose” by striking out “except as authorized by law”; so that the language will read, beginning in line 22, “or to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as authorized by law for any public purpose.”

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The question before the committee is the Martin amendment. As many as are in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The amendment is adopted. Are there any further amendments to section d of Committee Proposal 83? If not, it will pass.

Section d, as amended, is passed and the secretary will read section e.

MR. DeVRIES: Mr. President, the committee of the whole has had under consideration certain items, of which the secretary will give a detailed report.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, the committee of the whole has had under consideration Committee Proposal 84, A proposal to provide for liberal construction of provisions concerning municipal corporations; Committee Proposal 86, A proposal pertaining to highways and their maintenance; Committee Proposal 87, A proposal relating to ports and port districts; reports these 3 committee proposals back to the convention without amendment, and with the recommendation that they do pass.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Committee Proposals 84, 86 and 87 are referred to the committee on style and drafting.

For Committee Proposal 84 as referred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 1048.

For Committee Proposal 87 as referred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 1059.

SECRETARY CHASE: The committee of the whole, Mr. President, has also had under consideration Committee Proposal 83, A proposal pertaining to cities and villages; reports this back to the convention with several amendments agreed to by the committee of the whole, and recommends that the amendments be agreed to and that the committee proposal as thus amended do pass.

[The following are the amendments recommended by the committee of the whole:

1. Amend page 1, line 11, after "levy" by inserting "other".
2. Amend page 1, line 14, after "Sec. b.", by reinserting "Under such general laws"; and in line 15, after "village" by striking out "are hereby granted" and reinserting "shall have"; and by striking out all of line 22; and on page 2 by striking out all of lines 1 and 2.
3. Amend page 2, by striking out lines 3 to 7 and line 8 through the word "therein.", and inserting
"Each city and village shall have power to pass laws and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government subject to the constitution and general laws of this state."
4. Amend page 2, line 11, after "conferred.", by striking out the balance of the line and all of lines 12, 13 and 14.
5. Amend page 2, line 23, after "purpose or" by inserting a comma and "except as authorized by law"; and in line 24, after "purpose" by striking out "except as authorized by law".
6. Amend page 3, line 22, after "majority" by inserting a comma and "or of a greater number if the charter shall so provide,."]

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The question is on agreeing to the amendments recommended by the committee of the whole.

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, I believe that there is an amendment to 83.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: We will take the amendments that were recommended by the committee of the whole first. Then we will act upon the amendments that have been filed with the secretary and are on the secretary's desk. The question is on agreeing to the amendments recommended by the committee of the whole. All those in favor —

Mr. Ford.

MR. FORD: I would like to request a record roll call vote on this.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: You want a record roll call vote on the amendments that were agreed to by the committee of the whole?

MR. FORD: That is correct.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: There has been a request for a record roll call vote. Let's see if there is sufficient number to request it. There is a sufficient number to request a record roll call vote. The question is now on agreeing to the amendments recommended by the committee of the whole. All those — Mr. Suzore.

MR. SUZORE: I would like to know what we are voting on specifically. I would like to have the amendments read.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: We will ask the secretary to read the amendments recommended by the committee of the whole, on which there has been requested a record roll call vote.

SECRETARY CHASE: The amendments recommended by the committee of the whole to Committee Proposal 83 are as follows:

[The amendments were read by the secretary. For text, see above.]

Those are the amendments that have been recommended and agreed to by the committee of the whole.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The question is on the amendments recommended and agreed to by the committee of the whole. Those who are in favor will indicate by voting yea. Those who are opposed will indicate by voting nay.

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, are we voting on each one of them?

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: No, we are voting on them collectively.

MR. MADAR: Some of these amendments we are for and some we are against. I think we ought to separate them.

SECRETARY CHASE: May the secretary point out, Mr. Madar, that every one of these amendments has been adopted by the committee of the whole, the amendments which we have read.

MR. MADAR: Some of them we voted for in the committee of the whole, and some we didn't vote for. If we vote now one way it puts us on the spot so we are voting for something we didn't vote for before.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The vote has been called for. Those who are in favor will signify by voting aye, and those who are opposed by voting no. This is a recorded roll call vote. Delegate Walker.

MR. WALKER: I have been standing since before you ordered the vote the last time, and therefore would like to abstain from voting and to explain my reason for abstention. I do not feel I can honestly and in fairness to myself or my constituents vote either aye or nay on a question with this broad concept.

SECRETARY CHASE: Has everyone voted?

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, I am giving the same explanation for abstaining.

MR. MAHINSKE: Mr. President, I would also abstain from voting on a package like this.

MR. SNYDER: I have the same reason for abstaining.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Wanger.

MR. WANGER: Is there any parliamentary way, Mr. President, that we can divide the question, since so many people object to this? I am in favor of all of them, and I think the majority of the rest are too, but —

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: I am advised that the question could have been divided before it was put, and we could have voted on each one separately. Now I will consult with the secretary to see whether this can be reconsidered. However, the vote was called and technically, once the vote is called, I do not know how it can be divided. If you will pause just for a moment, I would like to check with the secretary for advice.

I am advised by the secretary that I was correct on the ruling that once the vote is called there is no other parliamentary action in order. However, after the vote has been taken, a reconsideration vote is in order, as it would be ordinarily. Delegate Leibrand.

MR. LEIBRAND: I have the same reason for abstaining. I can't vote on a package.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Marshall.

MR. MARSHALL: I move we table this until the first order of business tomorrow morning, Mr. President.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Would you wait just a moment? Mr. McAllister.

MR. McALLISTER: Mr. President, isn't that out of order? The vote has been called.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Will the convention please be in order. We will pause while I check with the secretary on the question of whether the motion to vote can be tabled.

The vote has been called, the secretary advises me, and the Chair rules that once the vote has been called, the motion to table is not in order. The parliamentary action that is in order is that after the vote is taken for reconsideration, the question could be divided. Mr. Marshall.

MR. MARSHALL: Then a motion to take each one of these amendments separately would not be in order either?

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Not until after the vote is taken.

MR. MARSHALL: Then I will abstain from voting too, Mr. President, and members of the "legislature," because of the reasons previously stated.

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, just getting some information. I believe I am correct in stating that you must vote affirmatively on this to move to reconsider; am I right?

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: That is not correct. Under the rules of the convention you do not have to vote affirmatively in order later to vote to reconsider.

MR. MADAR: I am extremely sorry, Mr. President. My book of Mason's happens to be in the other room.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Murphy.

MR. MURPHY: Mr. President, I would like to say I am not voting for the same reasons.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Baginski.

MR. BAGINSKI: Mr. President, if this motion is put and carried, or whatever happens to it, I will have the privilege to ask to have it reconsidered, will I not?

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: That is correct. All right, those agreeing to the amendments — Mrs. Conklin.

MRS. CONKLIN: I wish to abstain from voting for the same reasons given.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Conklin was recognized for the purpose of abstaining. Delegate Hatcher.

MRS. HATCHER: I would like to abstain from voting.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate Hatcher is recognized for abstaining. Delegate Hood.

MR. HOOD: Delegate Hood would also like to abstain from voting for the reasons expressed by the others.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Delegate McAllister.

MR. McALLISTER: I would also like to abstain for the same reasons.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Will the convention please be in order. We can go through with any person who so wants to abstain. Will the convention please be in order.

However, there is one other course of action. By unanimous consent we can refrain from having this vote and instead divide the question. It is entirely up to the convention. Is there any objection to unanimous consent to not have the vote on all the questions, but give the opportunity to divide the question? Is there any objection? Delegate Yeager.

MR. YEAGER: I think we ought to get one thing straight here. You have been ruling that the statements of abstention are in order, and under rule 67, since the vote has been called, they are not in order.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The question before the convention now is, is there objection to unanimous consent to go back to where we were and then divide the question? Is there objection?

MR. MARSHALL: Mr. President —

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Do you rise to object?

MR. MARSHALL: The hour is now 6:00 o'clock. I move we adjourn.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The secretary advises me the motion to adjourn is in order.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Point of order.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: State your point of order, Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Would the Chair please tell me where it is that an adjournment motion is in order when you have called for a vote?

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The motion to adjourn is always in order.

All those in favor of adjournment will signify by saying aye. Those opposed by nay. The Chair is in doubt. Would those who are in favor raise their right hands.

SECRETARY CHASE: The yeas are 51.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: Those who are opposed to adjourning will raise their right hands.

SECRETARY CHASE: Forty-eight.

VICE PRESIDENT DOWNS: The motion to adjourn has prevailed, and the convention is adjourned until 9:30 tomorrow morning.

[Whereupon, at 6:05 o'clock p.m., the convention adjourned until 9:30 o'clock a.m., Thursday, February 15, 1962.]

EIGHTIETH DAY

Thursday, February 15, 1962, 9:30 o'clock a.m.

PROCEEDINGS

PRESIDENT NISBET: The convention will please come to order.

Our invocation this morning will be given by one of our own delegates, Herb Turner, from Saginaw.

MR. TURNER: Our heavenly Father, please be our guide. Watch over us, O Lord. Our souls are infested with selfish interests, our hearts are filled with personal greed, our minds are torn by the weight of confusion. Give us the strength, O God, to stand strong and free of the factors that make us small and petty. Millions of people of this state of Michigan look toward us to create a miracle; may we heed their precautions and consider their desires. Instill in our hearts, O Lord, the will to do what is right for all; cleanse our souls and free our minds that we may stand tall and proud of what we do here. Lead us through these darkest hours, be with us now and forever. Amen.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The roll call will be taken by the secretary. Those present please vote aye.

SECRETARY CHASE: Has everyone voted? The machine is locked and the attendance will be recorded.

Mr. President, a quorum of the convention is present.

Prior to today's session, the secretary received the following requests for leave: Mr. Tubbs, from today's session; Mr. Page, from the sessions of today and Friday, due to illness; and Mr. Nord, indefinitely, due to illness.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, the requests are granted.

SECRETARY CHASE: Absent with leave: Messrs. Bentley, Nord, Ostrow, Page and Tubbs.

Absent without leave: Mr. Marshall.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, Mr. Marshall is excused.

[During the proceedings, the following delegates entered the chamber and took their seats: Messrs. Marshall and Ostrow.]

SECRETARY CHASE: We have a request for 2 announcements before we proceed with the order of business. The subcommittee on eminent domain will meet in room G today after the morning session. Paul Mahinske, chairman; and the committee on local government will meet at 11:45 or immediately after the recess this morning in room A. Arthur Elliott, chairman.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Reports of standing committees.

SECRETARY CHASE: The committee on administration, by Mr. DeVries, chairman, submits the following report and recommends to the president for appointment to the constitutional convention staff, Mr. William Sorrell, as research consultant on a part time basis, with the office of public information. Walter DeVries, chairman.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, the recommendation is concurred in.

SECRETARY CHASE: The president appoints, pursuant to authorization by the convention, and with the approval of the committee on administration, the aforementioned person to the position indicated.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, the appointment is approved.

SECRETARY CHASE: That is the only standing committee report, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Reports of select committees.

SECRETARY CHASE: None.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Communications from state officers.

SECRETARY CHASE: None.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Second reading.

SECRETARY CHASE: Nothing on that calendar.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Third reading.

SECRETARY CHASE: Nothing.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Motions and resolutions.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Van Dusen offers

Resolution 72, A resolution to amend rule 57 of the rules of the convention.

Following is Resolution 72 as offered:

Resolved, That rule 57 of the rules of the convention is hereby amended by striking out subsections 9 and 10 thereof.

PRESIDENT NISBET: It will be referred to the committee on rules and resolutions.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mrs. Daisy Elliott offers

Resolution 73, A resolution pertaining to an extension of the convention deadline and the placing of the proposed constitution upon the ballot.

Following is Resolution 73 as offered:

Whereas, It has been stated on the floor of this convention by President Nisbet, Vice Presidents Romney and Downs, Dr. Pollock and many outstanding delegates that the primary concern of this constitutional convention is to take the necessary time to write a constructive constitution rather than meet an arbitrary and restrictive deadline for adjournment; and

Whereas, It has become apparent to all delegates that the time schedule relating to the April 1 deadline cannot be met if proper consideration is to be given to the many important matters before this body; and

Whereas, The pressure of the April 1 deadline is the result of an opinion of the attorney general that the convention must adjourn by April 1, 1962, in order to place the document on the November ballot; and

Whereas, The attorney general is not the final authority in this state on matters of constitutional law and this opinion may be disputed before the state supreme court and resolved by that body; and

Whereas, The question as to when the proposed constitution will be voted upon is not so important as to sacrifice the quality of the document; and

Whereas, The enabling legislation setting up this constitutional convention provided for a period until May 15, 1962, for the completion of the work of this convention; and

Whereas, The May 15 deadline seems to provide proper and more ample time for the adequate consideration and necessary deliberations required to produce a sound and equitable constitution; now therefore be it

Resolved, That this body instruct the committee on rules and resolutions to prepare a new schedule for the completion of the work by the convention on or before May 15, 1962, as provided in the enabling legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That all special and partisan interests be laid aside and subjugated by the delegates to the end that a constitution which will meet the needs of all the people of the state of Michigan in the coming decades be drafted; and be it further

Resolved, That the convention take the necessary steps to require the secretary of state to place the revised constitution on the November ballot for the consideration of the voters of Michigan at that time.

PRESIDENT NISBET: It will be referred to the committee on rules and resolutions.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Wanger moves that for the balance of the general orders, except on Mondays, at approximately 10:40 a.m. and 3:40 p.m., the committee of the whole, by declaration of its chairman, rise; that the report of the committee of the whole be withheld; that the convention, without intervening business, then stand in recess for 10 minutes, at the end of which time the convention, without intervening business, will be resolved into committee of the whole.

He further moves that the rules be suspended for the immediate consideration of this motion.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Is there objection to the suspension of the rules for immediate consideration of Mr. Wanger's motion? I hear none. Mr. Wanger.

MR. WANGER: Thank you, Mr. President. I respectfully suggest to the convention that our experience in the past several weeks has shown it is of great convenience to the convention and in total will help our work if we can have a recess at about midpoint in the morning session and in the afternoon session. However, I think it is also clear that it is unrealistic to expect a chairman of the committee of the whole to arbitrarily interrupt business approximately at midpoint if a vote has not been taken without some moral authority of the convention behind him authorizing him to do so. Therefore, I make this motion in hopes that we can facilitate the work of the committee of the whole and promote a better result to send on to style and drafting.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, the rules are suspended, and the question is on the motion of Mr. Wanger. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The motion prevails. Are there any further motions or resolutions?

SECRETARY CHASE: That is all of the motions and resolutions on file, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Unfinished business.

SECRETARY CHASE: Under the order of unfinished business, the president lays before the convention the report of the committee of the whole on Committee Proposal 83, A proposal pertaining to cities and villages. This report was not completed last night upon adjournment. The question at the time was agreeing to the 6 amendments recommended by the committee of the whole, which amendments will be found in the journal of this morning, beginning at the bottom of the lefthand column on page 615. The amendments are as follows:

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Leibrand.

MR. LEIBRAND: Mr. President, I request the proposed amendments be voted upon separately.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, we will vote on the amendments separately. Mr. Walker.

MR. WALKER: I ask a record roll call vote on each of the amendments.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Is the demand seconded for roll call vote?

SECRETARY CHASE: Not a sufficient number, Mr. President. It takes 1/5 of the delegates present.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Not a sufficient number up.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 1.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 2.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on amendment 2. Those in favor will say yes. Opposed, no.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 3.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on amendment 3. Those in favor will say aye. Those opposed, no.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 4.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on amendment 4. Those in favor will say aye. Those opposed will say no.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 5.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on amendment 5. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

SECRETARY CHASE: Amendment 6.

[The amendment was again read by the secretary. For text, see above, page 1065.]

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on amendment 6. Mr. Leibrand.

MR. LEIBRAND: Mr. President, I move a record roll call vote on amendment 6.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Is the demand supported? Those in favor will rise. A sufficient number up. Those in favor of amendment 6 will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the machine will be locked and the vote recorded.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the question of agreeing to amendment 6 recommended by the committee of the whole, the yeas are 123, the nays are 9.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The amendment is adopted. Are there other amendments?

SECRETARY CHASE: There have been filed with the secretary some additional amendments, Mr. President.

Mr. Kuhn offers the following amendment:

1. Amend page 1, line 13, after "law.", by inserting "No governmental subdivision shall impose any income tax except on its own residents; the state, however, may preempt this field of taxation."

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment of Mr. Kuhn. Mr. Kuhn.

MR. KUHN: I demand a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT NISBET: A demand for roll call vote has been made. Is the demand supported? A sufficient number up. Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: I urge that we defeat the amendment.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Gover.

MR. GOVER: What page is this? What proposal?

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will read the amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: This is Committee Proposal 83, A proposal pertaining to cities and villages. The amendments of the committee of the whole have just been agreed to. Mr. Kuhn now offers the following amendment:

[The amendment was again read by the secretary. For text, see above.]

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment of Mr. Kuhn. Those in favor will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the amendment offered by Mr. Kuhn, the yeas are 42, the nays are 91.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The amendment is not adopted.

Following is explanation of nay vote submitted by Messrs. Austin, Baginski, Balcer, Binkowski, Buback, Douglas, Downs, Mrs. Daisy Elliott, Messrs. Faxon, Follo, Garvin, Greene, Hodges, Hood, Lesinski, Mahinske, McCauley, Murphy, Sablich, Wilkowski and Young:

In compliance with our rights as delineated in rule 65, we, the undersigned, hereby submit for publication in the journal our reasons for voting "nay" on the question of constitutional proposal to prohibit a municipality from levying a payroll tax.

In voting against the constitutional proposal to prohibit a municipality from levying a payroll tax, we were opposing any restrictions on a municipality to levy an income tax which should include taxes on wages as well as corporation profits, rents, and other income. We believe that the constitution should not include specific tax language for local communities.

We are consistent in favoring taxation at the state level with rebates to local communities in preference to any form of local income taxation.

If this were a legislative body, we would have voted against the payroll tax. We oppose a tax on income which would relate only to payrolls. Other income, including business and professional income, would have to be included in the tax base.

We would like to point out that our position is consistent with declarations made in the governor's tax program whereby needed assistance is given to hard pressed local units of government in meeting their own revenue requirements.

PRESIDENT NISBET (Continuing): The next amendment, Mr. Secretary.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Suzore offers the following amendment:

1. Amend page 1, line 13, after "law" by inserting "except that no city shall impose a tax upon the income of any person".

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment by Mr. Suzore. Those in favor will say aye. Those opposed will say no.

The amendment is not adopted. The next amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Madar offers the following amendment:

1. Amend page 3, line 17, after "regular" by striking out "or special"; and in line 22, after "vote of" by striking out "a majority" and inserting "3/5"; and in line 23, after "regular" by striking out "or special".

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment. Mr. Madar.

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, I request a recorded roll call vote.

PRESIDENT NISBET: A roll call vote has been demanded. Is the demand seconded? A sufficient number up. Those in favor of the amendment will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the machine will be locked and the vote recorded.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the amendment offered by Messrs. Sharpe, Finch and Snyder, the yeas are 37, the nays are 94.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The amendment is not adopted. Are there other amendments, Mr. Secretary?

SECRETARY CHASE: That is all of the amendments on file on the secretary's desk, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Do you want to talk on this, Mr. Madar?

MR. MADAR: No, sir. A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Madar, would you let Mr. Chase complete this report. Then we will call on you.

MR. MADAR: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposal 83, as amended, is referred to the committee on style and drafting.

Following is Committee Proposal 83 as amended and referred to the committee on style and drafting:

The committee recommends that the following be included in the constitution:

Sec. a. The legislature shall provide by general law for the incorporation of cities and villages; such general laws shall limit their rate of general property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts. Each city and village is hereby granted power to levy other taxes for public purposes subject to limitations and prohibitions set forth in this constitution or law.

Sec. b. Under such general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt, amend, and revise its charter, and to amend, and revise an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or passed by the legislature for the government of the city or village.

Each city and village shall have power to pass laws and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government subject to the constitution and general laws of this state. No enumeration of powers in this constitution shall be deemed to limit or restrict the general grant of authority hereby conferred.

Sec. c. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, either within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals, and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. d. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to assess, levy or collect any tax or assessment for other than a public purpose, or to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as authorized by law for any public purpose.

Sec. e. Subject to the provisions of this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own, and operate, either within or without its corporate limits, public utilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal, and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof; and may also sell and deliver heat, power, and light without its corporate limits to an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; and may also sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal, outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines without the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. f. No city or village shall acquire any public utility or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless such proposition shall have first received the affirmative vote of 3/5 of the electors of such city or village voting thereon at a regular or special municipal election. Nor shall any city or village sell any public utility unless such proposition shall have first received the affirmative vote of a majority, or of a greater number if the charter shall so provide, of the electors of such city or village voting thereon at a regular or special municipal election.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, the committee of the whole also had under consideration Committee Proposal 85.

MR. MADAR: Mr. President, it was on Committee Proposal 83 in which I was bringing up this point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT NISBET: All right, Mr. Madar.

MR. MADAR: Yesterday, when Mr. Ford made a point of order that the minority report amendment filed with the secretary should be given precedence over the amendment filed by Mr. Elliott, Delegate DeVries ruled that the amendment filed by Mr. Elliott would take precedence, since it was filed in the name of Mr. Elliott on behalf of the committee on local government. Later, when this came up again, Mr. Elliott wished to withdraw the amendment, I rose to a point of order, stating that Mr. Elliott had no right to withdraw that amendment because it was not a "Delegate Elliott amendment"; it was a committee amendment, and he couldn't do this without the authority of the committee.

However, Mr. DeVries ruled against me that this was Mr. Elliott's amendment. And I just wish to point out here that he did not have any right to withdraw it. He only has a right to withdraw with the full approval of those who submitted the amendment.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Thank you, Mr. Madar.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, the committee of the whole yesterday also had under consideration Committee Proposal 85, A proposal to provide that public utilities may use public property with consent of local authorities and a limitation on the length of franchise; and in committee of the whole has postponed consideration of this proposal until the afternoon session today.

The committee of the whole had also had under consideration Committee Proposal 88, A proposal pertaining to metropolitan areas; and had come to no final resolution thereon.

This completes the report of the committee of the whole, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Special orders?

SECRETARY CHASE: None.

PRESIDENT NISBET: General orders. Mr. DeVries.

MR. DeVRIES: Mr. President, I move the convention resolve itself into committee of the whole for the consideration of certain items on the order of general orders.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the motion of Mr. DeVries. Those in favor will say aye. Those opposed? The motion prevails. Mr. DeVries.

[Whereupon, Mr. DeVries assumed the Chair to preside as chairman of the committee of the whole.]

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: The committee of the whole will come to order. When last the committee met it was considering Committee Proposal 88, A proposal pertaining to metropolitan areas; section b, and the following delegates sought recognition on Section b: Delegates Downs, Martin, Hoxie, Pollock and Cushman.

For last previous action by the committee of the whole on Committee Proposal 88, see above, page 1059.

The secretary will read section b of Committee Proposal 88.
SECRETARY CHASE: Section b.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Does the gentleman from Detroit, Vice President Downs, seek recognition?

MR. SNYDER: Point of order, Mr. Chairman, if I may.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: What is your point of order?

MR. SNYDER: Yesterday, just before the committee rose, I had the floor and Mr. Elliott, for the second time during this committee, shut off my utilities, and he told me last night he was going to turn the utilities on. However, he hasn't done it; so what are my rights? Do I still have the floor? I would address the question to the committee.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Will Vice President Downs yield to the delegate from St. Clair Shores?

MR. DOWNS: I yield to the delegate from St. Clair Shores.

CHAIRMAN DeVRIES: Delegate Snyder.

MR. SNYDER: Mr. Chairman, yesterday, before the committee rose, we were discussing section b of Committee Proposal 88, and Mr. Hutchinson at that time had made what I felt was a very pertinent point; that after we had gone beyond section a of the proposed committee report, we were getting into considerable statutory detail. And my problem that I raised was this: the language as submitted at the present time does go into a field of statutory law that I feel should be flexible, and it should not be frozen into the constitution, and this has to do with the multipurpose functions of government rather than the single functions of government, and the specific question that I raised to the committee yesterday was how, under the proposed committee report, would this affect those functions of government such as, for instance, the police and the fire department. Would this make it mandatory for the units to be combined, or would there still be legislative jurisdiction in this thing?

I think this is a very important point. It will be a very sensitive issue. And if we don't have a proper interpretation

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH DAY

Tuesday, March 27, 1962, 9:30 o'clock a.m.

PROCEEDINGS

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The convention will come to order.

The invocation this morning will be delivered by the delegate from Ingham, Mr. Wanger.

MR. WANGER: Let us pray. Father in heaven, we again acknowledge our weaknesses before You and humbly ask for Your blessing and Your guidance in our work. Remove all animosity, all partisan controversy and all selfish desire from our hearts; and give us the ambition, the courage and the understanding to write the best possible constitution for all the people of Michigan. Help us, dear God, to be wise statesmen, not foolish partisans; and always remind us that to whatever extent we should fail the people of our state, we fail You. Amen.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The roll call will be taken by the secretary. All those present will vote aye. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and take the roll.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, a quorum of the convention is present.

Absent with leave: Mr. Bentley, Mrs. Cushman, Messrs. Dade, Farnsworth, W. F. Hanna, Mosier, Nisbet, Norris and L. W. Richards.

Absent without leave: Messrs. Bledsoe, Habermehl, Mrs. Hatcher, Messrs. King, Pugsley and Stamm.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Without objection, the unexcused delegates will be excused from the morning session temporarily. The Chair hears no objection. Then they are excused.

[During the proceedings, the following delegates entered the chamber and took their seats: Mr. Stamm, Mrs. Hatcher, Mr. Dade and Mr. Bentley.]

SECRETARY CHASE: On the passage of Committee Proposal 82, the yeas are 114; the nays are 6.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposal 82 is passed and referred to the committee on style and drafting.

For Committee Proposal 82 as rereferred to the committee on style and drafting, see above, page 2513.

The secretary will read Committee Proposal 83.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 3 on the calendar, Committee Proposal 83, A proposal pertaining to cities and villages. Amends article VIII, sections 20, 21, 22, 23 and 25.

Following is Committee Proposal 83 as reported by the committee on style and drafting and read by the secretary. (For full text as referred to said committee, see above, page 1070.):

Sec. a. The legislature shall provide by general [law] LAWS for the incorporation of cities and villages[]; [such general laws shall limit their rate of general property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts.] Each city and village is [hereby] granted power to levy [other] taxes for public purposes, BORROW MONEY AND CONTRACT DEBTS subject to limitations and prohibitions [set forth in] PROVIDED BY this constitution or BY law.

Sec. b. Under [such] general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt[, AND amend[, and revise] its charter, and to amend[, and revise] an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or [passed] ENACTED by the legislature for the government of the city or village. Each SUCH city and village shall have power to [pass] ENACT laws and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government subject to the constitution and [general laws] LAW [of this state]. No enumeration of powers GRANTED TO CITIES AND VILLAGES in this constitution shall be deemed to limit or restrict the general grant of authority [hereby] conferred[.] BY THIS SECTION.

Sec. c. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, [either] within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals, and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. d. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to [assess, levy or collect any tax or assessment for other than a public purpose, or to] loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as authorized by law, for any public purpose.

Sec. e. Subject to [the provisions of] this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own, and operate, [either] within or without its corporate limits, public [utilities] SERVICE FACILITIES for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal[, and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof[]; and]

ANY CITY OR VILLAGE may [also] sell and deliver heat, power, and light without its corporate limits to an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; [and] may [also] sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal SERVICES, outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines without the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. f. No city or village shall acquire any public utility FURNISHING LIGHT, HEAT AND POWER or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless [such] THE proposition shall have [first received the affirmative vote of] BEEN APPROVED BY 3/5 of the electors [of such city or village] voting thereon, [at a regular or special municipal election. Nor shall any] NO city or village MAY sell any SUCH public utility unless [such] THE proposition shall have [first received the affirmative vote of a majority, or of a greater number if the charter shall so provide, of the electors of such city or village] BEEN APPROVED BY A MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS voting thereon, [at a regular or special municipal election] OR A GREATER NUMBER IF THE CHARTER SHALL SO PROVIDE.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on Committee Proposal 83. The first amendment?

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Arthur Elliott offers —

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. McCauley has a committee amendment.

PRESIDENT NISBET: That's the first amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: Messrs. McCauley, L. W. Richards, Tweedie and Dell, on behalf of the committee on local government — is this the amendment. Mr. Elliott?

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: That's it, Mr. Chase.

SECRETARY CHASE: — offer the following amendment:

1. Amend page 1, line 2, [section a] after "villages" by changing the period to a semicolon and reinserting "such general laws shall limit their rate of general property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts."; and in line 5, after "levy" by reinserting "other"; and after "purposes," by striking out "borrow money and contract debts".

PRESIDENT NISBET: The Chair recognizes Mr. McCauley.

MR. MCCAULEY: Mr. President and members of the convention, the committee in reviewing the language of the style and drafting committee's report feels that some of the language in the proposal has been streamlined. However, we felt that the condensed language leaves room for argument as to the intention on local government, that is, to broaden the city tax base by permitting taxes in addition to the general property tax and which additional taxes are self executing except as to what might be preempted in this constitution or by law. In view of the complex law on the subject, the committee recommends that the original language be reinstated dispose of all the amendments and before this whole section is passed.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the amendment by Mr. Allen. All in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The amendment is adopted. The question now is on the adoption of Committee Proposal 83. Mr. Hanna, do you care to be recognized?

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. President, as I understand our position now, we have, in section a, put back in the language so that in line 3, the words "municipal purposes" are used. In line 5 other taxes may be levied "for public purposes." Am I correct, Mr. Chase?

SECRETARY CHASE: In the committee amendment to section a — this is to which you have reference, Mr. Hanna?

MR. W. F. HANNA: Yes, sir.

SECRETARY CHASE: In line 5, after "levy" it reinserts "other" and after "purposes" strikes out "borrow money and contract debts"; so the language there reads —

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. Chase, it now reads "to levy other taxes for public purposes."

SECRETARY CHASE: Right.

MR. W. F. HANNA: And in line 3 we have reinstated "general property taxation for municipal purposes." Is that correct?

SECRETARY CHASE: Reinserted in lines 2 and 3, "such general laws shall limit their rate of general property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts."

MR. W. F. HANNA: Fine. Mr. President, then a question to Mr. Elliott. Mr. Elliott, in line 3 we say that you may levy a property tax for "municipal purposes." In line 5 you say that we may levy other taxes for "public purposes." May I ask you, sir, for what purposes may I levy taxes as a city, under line 5, that I cannot expend money raised by taxation of general property under line 3?

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. President and Mr. Hanna, I have been persuaded over the several months that there is some difference here and that by the language "public purposes" in line 5 we would be given the freedom of levying taxes for those areas, for instance, where we are getting into cooperative ventures with other communities. But I would yield to Mr. Allen to give a — to either agree or to correct me if he feels that that should be in order.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Allen, do you care to make rejoinder?

MR. ALLEN: Mr. Hanna, the reason "public" was used in this second part is that at the time it was drawn it was drawn in terms of the existing section 25 of the Michigan constitution which says that no city shall have the power to "loan its credit," and then it goes on to say, "nor to assess, levy or collect any tax . . . for other than a public purpose." Now this language was deliberately left as "public purpose" because it is the same as the language is in the 1908 constitution where, instead of saying "municipal purposes" it said "public purpose" and that's why — it keeps the thing consistent — the word "public" was used.

I know that in the 1908 constitution in section 20 it talked about "municipal purposes" and in section 25 it talked about "public purpose," but in section 25 where the reference was made to "public purpose," it was definitely in terms of this "assess, levy or collect" taxes and there they used the word "public." So the committee felt it was better to be consistent and use "public" just like it was used in section 25.

MR. W. F. HANNA: Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the delegates to the difference in these 2 words. This bothered me when I saw it on first reading and it bothered me in style and drafting and it still bothers me. The usual rule of construction of a law is that you intended something different by the 2 terms.

Now, my concept of government was that a city could do individually or jointly those things dealing with a city's powers, prerogatives and rights, or the broad term of "municipal purposes." But the term "public purposes" gets over into the field of building a warehouse to entice Gerber's to store their baby food in my city, or a plant to attract industry, or many things far and beyond the normal municipal purposes of providing streets, fire protection, police protection, heat, light, utility services, and so forth. I don't know that I am correct but, obviously, the court is now put to the point that for one purpose of taxation you have a different purpose for which you may expend the money than you have for the other taxes.

It seems to me that in all fairness, whether I raise the money by a tax against real and personal property or against incomes or the sales of tangible personal properties, the purposes for which I raise the tax as a city council should be the same and it should be either "municipal purposes" or "public purposes." I call your attention to this language so that the lawyers here who may in the future or may now be representing cities can possibly straighten out this difference in language.

My own personal feeling is that no city or village should be allowed to levy taxation except for "municipal purposes" and that in line 5, the word "public" should be stricken and the word "municipal" inserted. Yet the local government committee seems to indicate there is some difference here, but without being specific; no one has ever been able to define the exact difference.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the passage of Committee Proposal 83, as amended. Those in favor of the passage of the proposal as amended will vote aye. Those opposed will vote nay. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote.

MR. SNYDER: Mr. President. Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Snyder.

MR. SNYDER: Will I have an opportunity of explaining in writing my nay vote?

PRESIDENT NISBET: That's right.

MR. SNYDER: Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. President, I notice Mr. Hannah's light is on; was Mr. Hannah in the room?

PRESIDENT NISBET: No, the Chair thinks that is a mistake, isn't it?

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: I think it is.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Dr. Hannah is not here.

MR. DURST: I think Dr. Hannah's book was pushed by someone talking to Miss Hart and that turned it on to "no."

PRESIDENT NISBET: Dr. Hannah's vote will be cancelled.

The roll was called and the delegates voted as follows:

Nays—5

Hutchinson	Snyder	Walker
Plank	Suzore

SECRETARY CHASE: On the passage of Committee Proposal 83, the yeas are 112; the nays are 5.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Committee Proposal 83, as amended, is passed.

Following is explanation of vote submitted by Messrs. Snyder, Suzore and Walker:

In our opinion section a, as adopted, will permit a haphazard form of local taxation that will in the long run work against formulation of a tax plan required to adequately and objectively resolve the fiscal needs of the entire state. Our nay vote is confined to this section alone of Committee Proposal 83 and we are in accord with the balance of the proposal.

PRESIDENT NISBET: (continuing): Committee Proposal 83 is referred to the committee on style and drafting.

Following is Committee Proposal 83 as amended and rereferred to the committee on style and drafting:

Sec. a. The legislature shall provide by general laws for the incorporation of cities and villages; such general laws shall limit their rate of general property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts. Each city and village is granted power to levy other taxes for public purposes, subject to limitations and prohibitions provided by this constitution or by law.

Sec. b. Under general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt and amend its charter, and to amend an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or enacted by the legislature for the government of the city or village. Each such city and village shall have power to pass resolutions and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government subject to the constitution and law. No enumeration of powers granted to cities and villages in this constitution shall be deemed to limit or restrict the general grant of authority conferred by this section.

Sec. c. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals, and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. d. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as authorized by law, for any public purpose.

Sec. e. Subject to this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own, and operate, within or without its corporate limits, public service facilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof.

Any city or village may sell and deliver heat, power, and light without its corporate limits to an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; may sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal services, outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines without the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. f. No city or village shall acquire any public utility furnishing light, heat and power or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless the proposition shall have been approved by 3/5 of the electors voting thereon. No city or village may sell any such public utility unless the proposition shall have been approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, or a greater number if the charter shall so provide.

MR. ANSPACH: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Dr. Anspach.

MR. ANSPACH: Mr. President and delegates, I rise—if I have the permission of the Chair—to respond to Mr. Farnsworth's statement a moment ago. I think the thing that he was interested in was the fact that a number of amendments were being introduced for the purpose of clarifying the proposals and that perhaps in some cases we might trust the committee on style and drafting.

The reason for that is because of the situation that came up in connection with a lady who wanted her family tree traced and employed a person to write up the family tree. After she had employed him she said, "Now there is one thing that I think you ought to know. There is Uncle Jake. We are not very proud of Uncle Jake. In fact Uncle Jake was a murderer and he was sent to Sing Sing and he was electrocuted." "Well," the man said, "we can't leave Uncle Jake out of this. We'll have to put him in, but I'll see what I can do." So when she got the family history back, it said, "And there was Uncle Jake. He was an expert in the field of electricity. He occupied a very prominent chair in a well known eastern institution and died in the harness." (laughter)

PRESIDENT NISBET: Thank you, Dr. Anspach. Judge Dehnke.

MR. DEHNKE: Mr. President, along that same line is a revised version I recently read to the effect that Socrates was a Greek who drank himself to death. (laughter)

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will read Committee Proposal 84.

SECRETARY CHASE: Item 4 on the calendar, Committee Proposal 84, A proposal to provide for liberal construction of provisions concerning municipal corporations. Amends article VIII.

Following is Committee Proposal 84 as reported by the committee on style and drafting and read by the secretary. (For full text as referred to said committee, see above, page 1048.):

Sec. a. The provisions of this constitution and [the laws of this state] LAW concerning [municipal corporations] CITIES, VILLAGES, COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS shall be liberally construed in their favor. Powers granted to counties and townships by this constitution and [the laws of the state of Michigan] BY LAW shall include those [expressly granted or] fairly implied and not inconsistent with nor prohibited by this constitution.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The Chair recognizes Mr. Elliott.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: Mr. President, the committee has no quarrel, in fact endorses the changes as made by style and drafting.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will read the amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Faxon and Mr. Hutchinson offer the following amendment:

1. Amend page 1, line 3, after "favor," by striking out "Powers granted to counties and townships by this constitution and by law shall include those fairly implied and not inconsistent with nor prohibited by this constitution."

PRESIDENT NISBET: The Chair recognizes Mr. Faxon.

MR. FAXON: Mr. President and fellow delegates, in the first sentence we state very clearly that these powers, these provisions, are to be liberally construed. Now the second sentence attempts to write in some rules as to what liberal construction is. I suggest to you, from the standpoint of keeping consistent with the kind of language we are putting into the

Article IDeclaration of Rights

Sec. 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal benefit, security and protection.

Sec. 2. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws; nor shall any person be denied the enjoyment of his civil or political rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of race, COLOR, religion, sex or national origin. The legislature shall implement this section by appropriate legislation. This SECTION shall not be construed to [prevent] PROHIBIT reasonable [classification] LEGISLATION for the protection of women.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Sec. 4. Every person shall be at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, or, against his consent, to contribute to the erection or support of any place of religious worship, or to pay tithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any minister of the gospel or teacher of religion. No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society, theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the state be appropriated for any such purpose. The civil and political rights, privileges and capacities of no person shall be diminished or enlarged on account of his religious belief.

Sec. 5. Every person may freely speak, write, express[,] and publish his views on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of such right; and no law shall be [passed] ENACTED to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.

Sec. 6. Every person has a right to keep and bear arms for the defense of himself and the state.

Sec. 7. The military shall in all cases and at all times be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Sec. 8. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner or occupant, nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. Neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this state.

Sec. 10. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law or law impairing the obligation of contract shall be ENACTED [passed].

Sec. 11. The person, houses, papers and possessions of every person shall be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any criminal proceeding[,] any narcotic drug, [any] firearm, bomb, explosive[,] or any other dangerous weapon, seized by A [any] peace officer outside the curtilage of any dwelling house in this state.

Sec. 12. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

Sec. 13. [Any] A suitor in any court of this state [shall have] HAS the right to prosecute or defend his suit, either in his own proper person or by an attorney.

Sec. 14. The right of trial by jury shall remain, but shall be [deemed to be] waived in all civil cases unless demanded by one of the parties in THE [such] manner [as shall be] prescribed by law. In all civil [actions in circuit courts] CASES TRIED BY 12 JURORS a verdict shall be received when 10 jurors [shall] agree.

Sec. 15. No person shall be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for murder and treason when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Sec. 16. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed; cruel or unusual punishment shall not be inflicted; nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

Sec. 17. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law. The right of all individuals, firms, corporations and voluntary associations to fair and just treatment in the course of legislative and executive investigations and hearings shall not be infringed.

Sec. 18. No person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief.

Sec. 19. In all prosecutions for libels the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and, if it appears to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the accused shall be acquitted.

Sec. 20. In every criminal prosecution, the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, which may consist of less than 12 jurors in all courts not of record; to be informed of the nature of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; to have the assistance of counsel for his defense; to have an appeal as a matter of right; and in courts of record, when the trial court so orders, to have such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to perfect and prosecute an appeal.

Sec. 21. No person shall be imprisoned for debt arising out of[,] or founded on contract, express or implied, except in cases of fraud or breach of trust.

Sec. 22. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless upon the testimony of [2] TWO witnesses to the same overt act[,] or on confession in open court.

Sec. 23. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Article II Elections

Sec. 1. Every citizen of the United States who has attained the age of 21 years, who has resided in this state [6] SIX months, and who meets the requirements of local residence provided by law, shall be an elector and qualified to vote in any election except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature shall define residence for voting purposes.

Sec. 2. The legislature may by law exclude persons from voting because of mental incompetence[,] or commitment to a jail or penal institution.

Sec. 3. For purposes of voting in the election for president and vice-president of the United States only, the legislature may by law establish lesser residence requirements for citizens who have resided in this state for less than [6] SIX months and may waive residence requirements [of] FOR FORMER citizens of this state who have

1 removed [t]herefrom. The legislature [may pro-
2 vide the manner of voting by such persons but]
3 shall not permit voting by any [such] person who 4 meets the voting residence requirements of the 5 state to which he has removed.

6 Sec. 4. The legislature shall enact laws to reg-
7 ulate the time, place [,] and manner of all nom-
8 inations and elections, except as otherwise pro-
9 vided in this constitution or in the constitution
10 and laws of the United States. The legislature
11 shall enact laws to preserve the purity of elec-
12 tions, to preserve the secrecy of the ballot, to 13 guard against abuses of the elective franchise,
14 and to provide for a system of voter registration
15 and absentee voting. No law shall be enacted
16 which permits a candidate in any partisan pri-
17 mary or partisan election to have a ballot desig-
18 nation except when required for identification
19 of [persons who are] candidates for the same 20 office WHO [and] have the same or similar sur-21 names.

22 Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill va-
23 cancies, OR AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN 24 THIS CONSTITUTION, all elections for national,
25 state, county and township offices shall be held on 26 the first Tuesday after the first Monday in Novem-27 ber in each even-numbered year[,] or on such
28 other date as MEMBERS OF THE CONGRESS
29 OF THE UNITED STATES ARE REGULARLY
30 ELECTED [may hereafter be provided by the 31 Constitution of the United States or by congress
32 for election of members thereof].

33 Sec. 6. Whenever any question is REQUIRED
34 TO BE submitted BY A POLITICAL SUBDIVI-35 SION to [a vote of] the electors which involves 36 THE INCREASE OF ANY AD VALOREM TAX
37 RATE LIMITATION FOR A PERIOD OF MORE
38 THAN FIVE YEARS, the direct expenditure
39 of public money, OR the issue of bonds, [or the 40 increase of any ad valorem tax rate for a period 41 of more than 5 years,] only [persons having the 42 qualifications of] electors in, and who have prop-43 erty assessed for any ad valorem taxes in, any 44 part of the district or territory to be affected
45 by the result of such election or the lawful hus-46 bands or wives of such persons shall be entitled
47 to vote thereon. All ELECTORS IN THE DIS-
48 TRICT OR TERRITORY AFFECTED [persons
49 having the qualifications of electors] may vote
50 on all other questions, [involving an increase in 51 any ad valorem tax rate and on borrowing by 52 this state.]

53 Sec. 7. A board of state canvassers [consisting] 54 of [4] FOUR members shall be established by law.
55 No candidate for an office to be canvassed nor any 56 inspector of elections shall be eligible to serve as 57 a member of a board of canvassers. A majority 58 of any board of canvassers shall not be composed 59 of members of the same political party.

60 Sec. 8. Laws shall be enacted to provide for the recall of all elective officers except judges of courts of record upon petition of electors equal in number to 25 percent of the number of persons voting [at]

IN the last preceding election for the office of governor in the electoral district of the officer sought to be recalled. THE SUFFICIENCY OF any statement of reasons or grounds procedurally required shall be [deemed to pose] a political rather than a judicial question.

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum.
The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution.
The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds AND MUST BE INVOKED IN THE MANNER PRESCRIBED BY LAW WITHIN 90 DAYS FOLLOWING THE
FINAL ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLA-TIVE SESSION AT WHICH THE LAW WAS ENACTED. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of registered electors, not less than [8] EIGHT percent for initiative and [5] FIVE percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election AT WHICH A GOVERNOR WAS ELECTED shall be required.

NO LAW AS TO WHICH THE POWER OF REFERENDUM PROPERLY HAS BEEN IN-VOKED SHALL BE EFFECTIVE THEREAFTER
UNLESS APPROVED BY A MAJORITY OF
THE ELECTORS VOTING THEREON AT THE NEXT GENERAL ELECTION.

[The] ANY law proposed by initiative petition shall be either enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 days from the time such petition is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided.

If the law so [petitioned for] PROPOSED is not enacted by the legislature within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at the next [ensuing] general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next [ensuing] general election.

Any [act] LAW submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of the official declaration of the vote. No [act] LAW

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

initiated or adopted by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no [act] LAW adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by a vote of the electors or [3/4] THREE-FOURTHS of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. [Acts] LAWS adopted by the people under the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If [2] TWO or more measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, THAT [the measure] receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The legislature shall implement the provisions of this section.

Article IV

Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members[,] to be elected from single member districts at the same [time] ELECTION as the governor for [4] FOUR-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned an apportionment factor equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest [1/100] ONE-ONE HUNDREDTH of one percent multiplied by [4] FOUR and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest [1/100] ONE-ONE HUNDREDTH of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties [are] IS entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment FACTORS of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there [shall be] IS a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to [2] TWO or more senate districts shall be [further sub]divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for [2] TWO-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as [hereinafter] provided IN THIS ARTICLE. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than [7/10] SEVEN-TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than [7/10] SEVEN-TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than [7/10] SEVEN-

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

TENTHS of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as [herein] provided IN THIS SECTION shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to [2] TWO or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of [each] SUCH districtS shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined upon the effective date of the annexation or merger[.]. THE DISTRICTS WITH WHICH THE TERRITORY SHALL BE COMBINED SHALL BE [as] determined by ordinance of the city certified to the secretary of state.

[No legislator shall be deemed to have vacated his office by virtue of the above section.] NO SUCH CHANGE IN THE BOUNDARIES OF A REPRESENTATIVE OR SENATORIAL DISTRICT SHALL HAVE THE EFFECT OF REMOVING A LEGISLATOR FROM OFFICE DURING HIS TERM.

Sec. 5. ISLAND AREAS ARE CONSIDERED TO BE CONTIGUOUS BY LAND TO THE COUNTY OF WHICH THEY ARE A PART.

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of [8] EIGHT persons, [4] FOUR of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the [2] TWO political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election AT WHICH A GOVERNOR WAS ELECTED preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, [4] FOUR of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One member of the commission shall be selected by each political party organization from each of the following [4] FOUR regions: (1) The upper peninsula; (2) The northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana; (3) Southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) Southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

No officers or employees of the federal, state or local governments, excepting notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, shall be eligible for membership on the commission. Members of the commission shall not be eligible for election to the legislature until [2] TWO years after the apportionment [plan] in which they participated becomes effective.

The commission shall be appointed immediately after the adoption of this constitution and whenever [Re]apportionment or districting OF THE LEGISLATURE is required by the provisions of this constitution. Members of the commission shall hold office until each apportionment or districting plan becomes effective. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as for original appointment.

The secretary of state shall be secretary of the commission without vote, and in that capacity shall furnish, under the direction of the commission, all necessary technical services. The commission shall elect its own chairman, shall make its own rules of procedure, and shall receive compensation provided by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds [necessary] to enable the commission to carry out its activities.

Within 30 days after the adoption of this constitution, and after the official total population count of each federal decennial census of the state and its political subdivisions is available, the secretary of state shall issue a call convening the commission not less than 30 nor more than 45 days thereafter. The commission shall complete its work within 180 days after all necessary census information is available. The commission shall proceed to DISTRICT AND apportion[, and district,] the senate and house of representatives according to the provisions of this constitution. All final decisions shall require the concurrence of a majority of [all of] the members of the commission. The commission shall hold public hearings as may be provided by law.

Each final apportionment and districting plan shall be published as provided by law within 30 days from the date of its adoption and shall become law 60 days after publication. The secretary of state shall keep a public record of all the proceedings of the commission and shall be responsible for the publication and distribution of each plan.

If a majority of the commission cannot agree on a plan, each member of the commission, individually or jointly with other members, may submit a proposed plan to the supreme court. The supreme court shall determine which plan complies most accurately with the constitutional requirements and shall direct that it be adopted BY THE COMMISSION and published as provided in this section.

Upon the application of any [qualified] elector filed not later than 60 days after final publication of the plan, the supreme court, in the exercise of original jurisdiction, shall direct the secretary of state or the apportionment commission to perform their duties, may review any final plan adopted by the commission, and shall make orders amending such plan if it fails to comply with the requirements of this constitution.

Sec. 7. Each senator and representative MUST [shall] be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and AN [a qualified] elector of the district he represents[,] . [and] The removal of his domicile from the district shall be deemed a vacation of the office. No person who has been convicted of subversion or who has within the preceding 20 years been convicted of a felony involving a breach of public trust shall be eligible for either house of the legislature.

Sec. 8. No person holding any office under the United States or this state or a political subdivision thereof, except notaries public and officers of the armed forces reserve, may be a member of either house of the legislature.

Sec. 9. No person elected TO [a member of] the legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this state from the governor, except notaries public, [from the governor and senate,] from the legislature, or from any other state authority, during the term for which he is elected.

Sec. 10. No member of the legislature nor any state officer shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract with the state or any political subdivision thereof which shall cause a substantial conflict of interest. The legislature shall further implement this provision by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 11. Senators and representatives shall be privileged from civil arrest and civil process during sessions of the legislature and for [5] FIVE days next before the commencement and after the termination thereof. They shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech in either house.

Sec. 12. The annual salary of the members of the legislature shall be not less than $9,000[.], AS PROVIDED BY LAW. Members of the legislature shall be entitled to REIMBURSEMENT FOR [2] TWO round trips home EACH [per] month while the legislature is in session, and expenses in connection with the work of interim committees. [No] ChangeS in salary or expenses shall beCOME effective [during the term of office for which the legislature making the change was elected] ONLY WHEN LEGISLATORS COMMENCE THEIR TERM OF OFFICE AFTER A GENERAL ELECTION except and only to the extent of a general salary reduction in all other branches of STATE government.

No person serving in the legislature shall receive at any time for his services as a member of the legislature any additional fees, compensation or financial benefits from the state or its political subdivisions. This section shall not be construed to [deny] AFFECT retirement benefits [to those] OF legislators [eligible to receive] WHICH HAVE [these benefits at] ACCRUED PRIOR TO the [time] EFFECTIVE DATE OF this constitution [becomes effective].

Sec. 13. The legislature shall meet at the seat of government on the second Wednesday in January of each year at [12:00] TWELVE o'clock noon. Each regular session shall adjourn without day, on a day determined by concurrent resolution, at TWELVE [12:00] o'clock noon. Any business, bill or joint resolution pending at the final adjournment of a regular session held in an odd numbered year shall carry over WITH THE SAME STATUS to the next regular session.

Sec. 14. A majority of the members elected to and serving in each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. A smaller number in each house may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in the manner and with penalties as each house may prescribe.

Sec. 15. There shall be a bi-partisan legislative council consisting of legislators appointed in the manner prescribed by law. The legislature shall appropriate [adequate] funds for the council's operations and provide for its staff which shall maintain bill drafting, research and other services for the members of the legislature. The council shall PERIODICALLY [from time to time] examine and recommend to the legislature revision of the various laws of the state.

Sec. 16. Each house, except as otherwise provided in this constitution, shall choose its own officers and determine the rules of its proceedings, but shall not adopt any rule that will prevent a majority of the members elected thereto and serving therein from discharging a committee

1 from the further consideration of any measure.
2 Each house shall BE THE SOLE judge of the 3 qualifications, elections and returns of its mem-
4 bers, and may, with the concurrence of TWO-
5 THIRDS [2/3] of all the members elected thereto
6 and serving therein, expel a member. The reasons
7 for such expulsion shall be entered IN [upon] the 8 journal, with the [yeas and nays] VOTES AND 9 NAMES of the members voting upon the ques-
10 tion. No member shall be expelled a second time
11 for the same cause.

12 Sec. 17. Each house of the legislature may
13 establish the committees necessary for the effi-
14 cient conduct of its business and the legislature
15 may create joint committees. Each committee
16 shall [keep a recorded] BY roll call vote RECORD
17 THE VOTE AND NAME [by yeas and nays] of 18 all action on bills and resolutions taken in the 19 committee. Such vote shall be available FOR [to]
20 public inspection. Notice of all committee hear-
21 ings and a clear statement of all subjects to be 22 considered at each hearing shall be published in
23 the journal in advance of the hearing.

24 Sec. 18. Each house shall keep a journal of 25 its proceedings, and publish the same unless se-
26 curity otherwise requires. The [yeas and nays]
27 RECORD OF THE VOTE AND NAME of the 28 members of either house VOTING on any question 29 shall be entered in the journal at the request of 30 [1/5] ONE-FIFTH of the members present. Any 31 member of either house may dissent from and 32 protest against any act, proceeding or resolution 33 which he deems injurious to any person or the 34 public, and have the reason for his dissent entered 35 in the journal.

36 Sec. 19. All elections in either house or in
37 joint convention and all votes on appointments
38 [recommended to the senate for confirmation]
39 SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE FOR ADVICE
40 AND CONSENT shall be [taken by yeas and 41 nays and] published BY VOTE AND NAME in 42 the journal.

43 Sec. 20. The doors of each house shall be open
44 unless the public security otherwise requires.

45 Sec. 21. Neither house shall, without the con-
46 sent of the other, adjourn for more than [3] TWO 47 INTERVENING CALENDAR days, nor to any 48 place other than where the legislature may then 49 be in session.

50 Sec. 22. All legislation [by the legislature]
51 shall be by bill and may originate in either house.

52 Sec. 23. The style of the laws shall be: The 53 People of the State of Michigan enact.

54 Sec. 24. No law shall embrace more than one
55 object, which shall be expressed in its title. No
56 bill shall be altered or amended on its passage
57 through either house so as to change its original
58 purpose as determined by its total content and
59 not alone by its title.

60 Sec. 25. No law shall be revised, altered or

1 amended by reference to its title only. The section
2 or sections of the act altered or amended shall
3 be re-enacted and published at length.

4 Sec. 26. No bill shall be passed or become a
5 law at any regular session of the legislature until
6 it has been printed or reproduced and in the pos-
7 session of each house for at least [5] FIVE days.
8 Every bill shall be read THREE [3] times in each
9 house before the final passage thereof. No bill
10 shall become a law without the concurrence of a 11 majority of [all] the members elected to and 12 serving in each house. On the final passage of [all]
13 bills, the voteS AND NAMES OF THE MEMBERS
14 VOTING THEREON shall be [by yeas and nays
15 and] entered in the journal.

16 Sec. 27. No act shall take effect [or be in force]
17 until the expiration of 90 days from the end of 18 the session at which it was passed, but the legis-
19 lature may give immediate effect to acts by a [2/3] 20 TWO-THIRDS vote of the members elected to and 21 serving in each house.

22 Sec. 28. When the legislature is convened on 23 extraordinary occasions in special session no bill 24 shall be passed on any subjects other than those 25 expressly stated in the governor's proclamation
26 or submitted by special message.

27 Sec. 29. The legislature shall pass no local 28 or special act in any case where a general act can 29 be made applicable, and whether a general act
30 can be made applicable shall be a judicial question.
31 No local or special act shall take effect until 32 approved by TWO-THIRDS [2/3] of the mem-33 bers elected to and serving in each house [of the 34 legislature] and by a majority of the electors vot-35 ing thereon in the district [to be] affected. Any 36 act repealing local or special acts [in effect as of 37 the effective date of this constitution] shall re-38 quire only a majority of the members elected to 39 and serving in each house and shall not require 40 submission to the electors of such district.

41 Sec. 30. The assent of TWO-THIRDS [2/3] of 42 the members elected to and serving in each house
43 of the legislature shall be required for the appro-44 priation of public money or property for local or 45 private purposes.

46 Sec. 31. The general appropriation bills for the 47 succeeding fiscal period covering items set forth
48 in the budget shall be passed or rejected in either
49 house of the legislature before that house passes
50 any appropriation bill for items not in the budget 51 except bills supplementing appropriations for the 52 current FISCAL year's operation. Any bill re-
53 quiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose 54 shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of 55 the general appropriation bills as passed by the 56 legislature shall contain an itemized statement of 57 estimated revenue by major source in each oper-
58 ating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total 59 of which shall not be less than the total of all 60 appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

Sec. 32. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax.

Sec. 33. Every bill passed by the legislature shall be presented to the governor before it becomes law, and the governor shall have 14 days measured in hours and minutes from the time of presentation in which to consider it. If he approves, he shall within that time sign and file it with the secretary of state and it shall become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature has within that time finally adjourned the session at which the bill was passed, it shall not become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature continues the session at which the bill was passed, he shall return it within such 14-day period with his objections, to the house in which it originated. That house shall enter such objections in full in its journal and reconsider the bill. If TWO-THIRDS [2/3] of the members elected TO and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by TWO-THIRDS [2/3] of the members elected TO and serving in that house. The vote of each house shall be [determined by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against the bill shall be] entered in the journal WITH THE VOTES AND NAMES OF THE MEMBERS VOTING THEREON. If any bill is not returned by the governor within such 14-day period, the legislature continuing in session, it shall become law as if he had signed it.

Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except A BILL appropriATING MONEY [ion bills], may [be referred by the legislature to the qualified electors. No bill so referred shall] PROVIDE THAT IT WILL NOT become [a] law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Sec. 35. All laws enacted at any session of the legislature shall be published in book form within 60 days after final adjournment of the session, and shall be distributed in the manner provided by law. The [speedy] PROMPT publication of judicial decisions shall be provided by law. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Sec. 36. No general revision of the laws shall [hereafter] be made. The legislature may provide for a compilation of the laws in force, arranged without alteration, under appropriate heads and titles.

Sec. 37. The legislature may by concurrent resolution empower a joint committee of the legislature acting [in the interim] between sessions to suspend until the end of the next regular legislative session any rule or regulation [promulgated by] OF an administrative agency PROMULGATED when the legislature is not in regular session.

Sec. 38. The legislature may provide by law the cases in which any office shall be [deemed] vacant and the manner of filling vacancies[,] where no provision is made in this constitution.

Sec. 39. In order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency only, resulting from disasters occurring in this state CAUSED by enemy attack on the United States, the legislature MAY [shall have the power to such extent as it deems advisable (1) to] provide by [legislative enactment] LAW for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices[,] and ENACT [(2) to adopt by legislative enactment such] other [legislation] LAWS [as may be] necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations. Notwithstanding the power conferred by this section, elections shall always be called as soon as possible to fill any [elective] vacancies in [any] ELECTIVE offices temporarily occupied by operation of any legislation enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. The legislature may by law establish a liquor control commission[,] which, subject to statutory limitations, shall exercise complete control of the alcoholic beverage traffic within this state, including the retail sales thereof. [and] THE LEGISLATURE may provide for an excise tax on such sales. Neither the legislature nor the commission may authorize the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages in any county in which a majority of the electors voting thereon shall prohibit the same.

Sec. 41. The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets.

Sec. 42. The legislature may provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts, and confer power and authority upon them to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

Sec. 43. No general law providing for the incorporation of trust companies or corporations for banking purposes, or regulating the business thereof, shall be enacted, amended or repealed except by a vote of [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house [of the legislature].

Sec. 44. The legislature may authorize a trial by a jury of less than 12 jurors in civil cases.

Sec. 45. The legislature may provide for indeterminate sentences as [a] punishment for crime and for the detention and release of persons imprisoned or detained [on] UNDER such sentences.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

Sec. 46. No law shall be enacted providing for the penalty of death.

Sec. 47. The legislature may authorize the employment of chaplains in state institutions of DETENTION OR confinement.

Sec. 48. The legislature may enact laws providing for the resolution of disputes [in] CONCERNING public [employment] EMPLOYEES, except THOSE IN THE state classified civil service.

Sec. 49. The legislature may enact laws relative to the hours and conditions of employment.

Sec. 50. The legislature may provide safety measures and regulate the use of atomic energy and forms of energy developed in the future, having in view the general welfare of the people of this state.

Sec. 51. The public health and general welfare of the people of the state are hereby declared to be matters of primary public concern. The legislature shall pass suitable laws for the protection and promotion of the public health.

Sec. 52. The conservation and development of the natural resources of the state are hereby declared to be of paramount public concern in the interest of the health, safety[,] and general welfare of the people. The legislature shall provide for the protection of the air, water[,] and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment and destruction.

Sec. 53. The legislature by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, shall appoint an auditor general, who shall be [an administrator and] a certified public accountant [duly] licensed to practice in this state, to serve for a term of [8] EIGHT years. He shall be ineligible for appointment or election to any other [paid] public office in this state FROM WHICH COMPENSATION IS DERIVED while serving as auditor general and for [2] TWO years following the termination of his service. He may be removed for cause at any time by a [2/3] TWO-THIRDS vote of the members elected to and serving in each house [of the legislature]. The auditor general shall conduct post audits of financial transactions and accounts of the state and of all branches, departments, offices, boards, commissions, agencies, authorities and institutions of the state established by this constitution or by law, and performance post audits thereof.

The auditor general upon direction by the legislature may employ independent accounting firms or legal counsel and may make investigations pertinent to the conduct of audits. He shall report annually to the legislature and to the governor and at such other times as he deems necessary or as required by the legislature. He shall be assigned no duties other than those [herein]

specified IN THIS SECTION.

Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to infringe the responsibility and constitutional authority of the governing boards of the [universities and colleges] INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION to be solely responsible for the control and direction of all expenditures from the institutions' funds.

[The legislature shall provide by law for the maintenance of uniform accounting systems by units of local government and the auditing of county accounts by competent state authority and other units of government as provided by law.]

The auditor general, his deputy and one other member of his staff shall be exempt from classified civil service. All other members of his staff shall have classified civil service status.

Article V Executive Branch

Sec. 1. The executive power is vested in the governor.

Sec. 2. All executive and administrative offices, agencies and instrumentalities of the EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF state government and their respective functions, powers and duties, except for the office of governor and lieutenant governor and the governing bodies of institutions of higher education provided for in this constitution, shall be allocated by law among and within not more than 20 principal departments. They shall be grouped as far as practicable according to major purposes.

Subsequent to the initial allocation, the governor may make changes in the organization of the executive branch or in the assignment of functions among its units which he considers necessary for efficient administration. Where these changes require the force of law, they shall be set forth in executive orders AND SUBMITTED TO THE LEGISLATURE. THEREAFTER the legislature shall have 60 CALENDAR days of a regular session, or a full session if of shorter duration, to disapprove [these] EACH executive order[s]. Unless disapproved in both houses by a resolution concurred in by a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house, [these] EACH order[s] shall become effective at a date thereafter to be designated by the governor.

Sec. 3. The head of each principal department shall be a single executive unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law. The single executives heading principal departments shall include a secretary of state, a state treasurer and an attorney general. When a single executive [other than an elective official,] is the head of a principal department, UNLESS ELECTED OR APPOINTED AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THIS CONSTITUTION, he shall be [nominated and,] APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR by and with the advice and consent of the senate[, appointed by the governor] and he shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

When a board or commission is at the head of a principal department, [the members thereof,] unless elected or appointed as otherwise provided in this constitution, THE MEMBERS THEREOF shall be [nominated and,] APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR by and with the advice and consent of the senate[, appointed by the governor]. The term of office and procedure for removal of such members shall be as prescribed in this constitution or by law.

Terms of office of any board or commission created or enlarged after [adoption] THE EFFECTIVE DATE of this constitution shall not exceed [4] FOUR years except as otherwise authorized in this constitution. The terms of office of existing boards and commissions[,] which are [greater] LONGER than [4] FOUR years shall not be further extended except as provided in this constitution.

Sec. 4. At no time shall an examining or licensing board of a profession INCLUDE [be composed of] less than a majority of members of that profession. Temporary commissions or agencies for special purposes with a life of no more than [2] TWO years may be established by law and need not be allocated within a principal department.

Sec. 5. Appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate when used in this constitution or [in statutes] LAWS in effect or hereafter enacted means appointment subject to disapproval by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in the senate if such action is taken within 60 [legislative] SESSION days after the date of such appointment. [If the] ANY appointment [is] not disapproved within such period [of time the appointment] shall stand confirmed.

Sec. 6. [When the senate is not in session, the governor shall fill a vacancy] VACANCIES in any office, appointment to which requires advice and consent of the senate, [by appointment which may be disapproved by the senate in the manner provided for other] SHALL BE FILLED BY THE GOVERNOR BY AND WITH THE ADVICE AND CONSENT OF THE SENATE. [appointments requiring such advice and consent.] A person [who] WHOSE APPOINTMENT has been disapproved by the senate shall not be eligible for [another] AN interim appointment to the same office.

Sec. 7. Each principal department shall be under the supervision of the governor[, unless otherwise provided by this constitution. The governor shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government and may require information in writing from all executive and administrative state officers, elective and appointive, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.]

The governor may initiate court proceedings in the name of the state to enforce compliance with any constitutional or legislative mandate, or to restrain violations of any constitutional or legislative power, duty[, or right by any officer, department[, or agency of the state or any of its political subdivisions. This authority shall not be construed to authorize court proceedings against the legislature.]

Sec. 8. Single executives heading principal departments and the chief executive officers of

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

1 principal departments headed by boards or com-
2 missions shall keep their offices at the seat of 3 government except as otherwise provided by law,
4 superintend them in person and perform duties
5 prescribed by law.

6 Sec. 9. The governor shall have power and it
7 shall be his duty[,] to inquire into the condition
8 and administration of any public office and the 9 acts of any public officer, elective or appointive.
10 He may remove or suspend from office for gross
11 neglect of duty or for corrupt conduct in office,
12 or FOR any other misfeasance or malfeasance
13 therein, any elective or appointive state officer,
14 except legislative or judicial, and report the [causes
15 of] REASONS FOR such removal or suspension to 16 the legislature. [if in session or otherwise at its 17 next session.]

18 Sec. 10. The governor may make a provisional 19 appointment to fill a vacancy occasioned by the 20 suspension of an appointed or elected officer, other 21 than a [judicial] LEGISLATIVE OR JUDICIAL 22 officer, until he is REINSTATED [acquitted] or[,
23 if convicted,] until the vacancy is filled in the 24 manner prescribed by law or this constitution [for 25 such office].

26 Sec. 11. The governor shall be commander-in-27 chief of the armed forces and may call them out 28 to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and 29 repel invasion.

30 Sec. 12. The governor shall issue writs of 31 election to fill vacancies in the senate or house of 32 representatives. Any such election shall be held 33 in a manner prescribed by law.

34 Sec. 13. The governor shall have power to 35 grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after 36 convictions for all offenses, except cases of im-
37 peachment, upon such conditions and limitations
38 as he may direct, subject to procedures and regu-39 lations [provided] PRESCRIBED by law. He shall 40 inform the legislature annually of each reprieve,
41 commutation and pardon granted, stating reasons
42 therefor.

43 Sec. 14. The governor may convene the legis-
44 lature on extraordinary occasions.

45 Sec. 15. The governor may convene the legis-
46 lature at some other place when the seat of gov-
47 ernment becomes dangerous from any cause.

48 Sec. 16. The governor shall communicate by 49 message to the legislature at the beginning of each 50 session and may at other times present to the 51 legislature information as to the affairs of the 52 state and recommend measures he considers nec-
53 essary or desirable.

54 Sec. 17. The governor shall submit to the leg-55 islature at a time fixed by law, a budget for the 56 ensuing fiscal period setting forth in detail, for 57 all operating funds, the proposed expenditures and 58 estimated revenue of the state. Proposed expendi-
59 tures from any fund shall not exceed the esti-60 mated revenue thereof. On the same date, the

1 governor shall submit to the legislature general
2 appropriation bills to embody the proposed ex-
3 penditures and any necessary bill or bills to pro-
4 vide new or additional revenues to meet proposed
5 expenditures. The amount of any surplus created
6 or deficit incurred in any fund during the last
7 preceding fiscal period shall be entered as an item
8 in the budget and in one of the appropriation bills.
9 The governor may submit amendments to appro-10 priation bills to be offered in either house during 11 consideration of the bill by that house, and shall 12 submit any bills to meet deficiencies in current 13 appropriations.

14 Sec. 18. The governor [shall have power to]
15 MAY disapprove any distinct item or items AP-
16 PROPRIATING MONEYS in any appropriation bill.
17 The part or parts approved shall become law, and 18 the item or items disapproved shall be void unless 19 re-passed according to the method prescribed for 20 the passage of other bills over the executive veto.

21 Sec. 19. No appropriation shall be [deemed] a 22 mandate to spend. The governor, with the ap-23 proval of the appropriating committees of the 24 house and senate, shall reduce expenditures AU-
25 THORIZED BY [of any bodies receiving] appro-
26 priations whenever it appears that actual revenues
27 for a fiscal period will fall below the revenue
28 estimates on which appropriations for that period
29 were based. Reductions in expenditures shall be 30 made in accordance with procedures [established]
31 PRESCRIBED by law. The governor[']s power to 32 reduce expenditures shall not apply to] MAY
33 NOT REDUCE EXPENDITURES OF the legis-
34 lative and judicial branches or FROM [to those 35 services for which] funds CONSTITUTIONALLY 36 DEDICATED FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES. [are 37 mandated by this constitution.]

38 Sec. 20. The governor, lieutenant governor, 39 secretary of state and attorney general shall 40 be elected FOR FOUR-YEAR TERMS at the gen-41 eral election in each alternate even-numbered 42 year. [They shall serve for terms of 4 years
43 beginning at 12:00 o'clock noon on the first day
44 of January next succeeding their election.]

45 The lieutenant governor, secretary of state and 46 attorney general shall be nominated by party 47 conventions in a manner prescribed by law. In 48 the general election one vote shall be cast jointly 49 for the candidates for governor and lieutenant 50 governor nominated by the same party.

51 VACANCIES IN THE OFFICE OF THE SEC-
52 RETARY OF STATE AND ATTORNEY GEN-
53 ERAL SHALL BE FILLED BY APPOINTMENT
54 BY THE GOVERNOR.

55 Sec. 21. [No person shall] TO be eligible for 56 the office of governor or lieutenant governor [who 57 shall not have] A PERSON MUST HAVE at-58 tained the age of 30 years, and [who shall] have 59 [not] been [4 years next preceding his election]

YEARS NEXT PRECEDING HIS ELECTION.

Sec. 22. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state[, state treasurer] and attorney general shall each receive the compensation [prescribed] PROVIDED by law in full payment for all services performed and expenses incurred during his term of office. Such compensation shall not be changed during the term of office except as otherwise provided in this constitution.

Sec. 23. An executive residence suitably furnished shall be provided at the seat of government for the use of the governor. He shall receive an allowance for its maintenance as provided by law.

Sec. 24. The lieutenant governor shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote except in case of equal division. He [shall] MAY perform [additional] duties [as] requested of him by the governor[.], BUT NO POWER VESTED IN THE GOVERNOR SHALL BE DELEGATED.

Sec. 25. In case of the conviction of the governor on impeachment, his removal from office, his resignation, or [the] HIS death, [of the governor or governor-elect, the powers and duties of the office shall vest, in the following order of precedence, in the person elected at the last election to the office of] THE lieutenant governor, THE ELECTED secretary of state, THE ELECTED attorney general, and such other persons designated by law[, who] shall IN THAT ORDER be governor [after the commencement of their term] for the [residue] REMAINDER of the governor's term.

IN CASE OF THE DEATH OF THE GOVERNOR-ELECT, THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR-ELECT, THE SECRETARY OF STATE-ELECT, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL-ELECT AND SUCH OTHER PERSONS DESIGNATED BY LAW SHALL BECOME GOVERNOR IN THAT ORDER AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE GOVERNOR-ELECT'S TERM.

If the governor or the person in line of succession to serve as governor is absent from the state, or suffering under an inability [as determined herein], the powers and duties of the office of governor shall devolve in order of precedence [upon such persons] until the absence or inability giving rise to the DEVOLUTION [devolvment] of powers ceases.

The inability of the governor[, governor-elect] or person[s serving] ACTING as governor shall be determined by a majority of the supreme court on joint request of the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. Such determination shall be final and conclusive. The supreme court shall upon its own initiative determine if and when the inability ceases.

Sec. 26. The legislature shall provide that the salary of any state officer WHILE ACTING AS [performing the duties of] governor [is] SHALL BE equal to that of the governor.

Sec. 27. There is hereby established a state highway commission, which shall administer the state highway department and have jurisdiction and control over all state trunkline highways and appurtenant facilities, and such other public works of the state, as [shall be prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

The state highway commission shall consist of [4] FOUR members, not more than [2] TWO of whom shall be members of the same political party. They shall be appointed by the governor BY AND with the advice and consent of the senate for [4] FOUR-year terms, no [2] TWO of which shall expire in the same year AS PROVIDED BY LAW.

The state highway commission shall appoint AND MAY REMOVE a state highway director, who shall be a competent highway engineer and administrator. He shall be the PRINCIPAL [chief] executive OFFICER of the state highway department and shall be responsible for executing the policy of the state highway commission.

Sec. 28. There is hereby established a civil rights commission which shall consist of [8] EIGHT persons, not more than [4] FOUR of whom shall be members of the same political party, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for [4] FOUR-year terms not more than [2] TWO of which shall expire in the same year. It shall be the duty of the commission in a manner which may be prescribed by law to investigate alleged discrimination against any person because of [race] religion, RACE, color or national origin in the enjoyment of the civil rights guaranteed by law and by this constitution, and to secure the equal protection of such civil rights without such discrimination. The legislature shall provide an annual appropriation for the effective operation of the commission.

The commission shall have [the] power, in accordance with the provisions of this constitution and of general laws governing administrative agencies, to promulgate rules and regulations for its own procedures, to hold hearings, administer oaths, through court authorization to require the attendance of witnesses and the submission of records, to take testimony, and to issue appropriate orders. The commission shall have other powers provided by law to carry out its purposes. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to diminish the right of any party to direct and immediate legal or equitable remedies in the courts of this state.

Article VI Judicial Branch

Sec. 1. The judicial power of the state is vested exclusively in one court of justice[,] which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, one trial court of general jurisdiction known as the circuit court, one probate court, and other courts of limited jurisdiction that the legislature may establish by a [2/3] TWO-THIRDS vote of the members ELECTED TO AND SERVING IN [of] each house.

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall consist of [8] SEVEN justices [to be] elected at non-partisan elections as provided by law. [A vacancy hereafter created as the result of the death, retirement or resignation of one incumbent justice shall not be filled.] The term of office shall be [for 8] EIGHT years and not more than [3] TWO terms of office shall expire at the same time. Nominations for justices of the supreme court shall be in the manner [as provided] PRESCRIBED by law[.]. [except] Any incumbent justice whose term is to expire may become a candidate for re-election by filing an affidavit of candidacy, in the form and manner prescribed by law, not less than 180 days prior to the expiration of his term.

Sec. 3. One justice of the supreme court shall be selected by the court as its chief justice AS [in the manner and for the term] provided by [the] rules of the court. He shall perform other duties required by the court. The supreme court shall appoint an administrator of the courts and other assistants of the supreme court as [shall] MAY be [deemed] necessary to aid in the administration of the courts of this state. The administrator shall perform administrative duties assigned by the court.

Sec. 4. The supreme court shall have general superintending control over all courts; power to issue, hear, and determine prerogative and remedial writs; and appellate jurisdiction as provided by rules of the supreme court. The supreme court shall not have the power to remove a judge.

Sec. 5. The supreme court shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state. The distinctions between law and equity proceedings shall, as far as practicable, be abolished. The office of master in chancery is prohibited.

Sec. 6. Decisions of the supreme court, including all decisions on prerogative writs, shall be in writing and shall contain a concise statement of the facts and reasons for each decision and reasons for each denial of leave to appeal. When a judge dissents in whole or in part he shall give in writing the reasons for his dissent.

Sec. 7. The supreme court may appoint, may remove, and shall have general supervision of its staff. It shall have control of the preparation of its budget recommendations and the expenditure of [the funds] MONEYS appropriated for any purpose pertaining to the operation of the court or the performance of activities of its staff except that the salaries of the justices shall be established by law. All fees and perquisites collected by the court staff shall be turned over to the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 8. The court of appeals shall consist initially of [9] NINE judges who shall be nominated and elected [on a] AT non-partisan ELECTIONS [basis] from districts, and in the manner, prescribed by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals may sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be [altered] CHANGED by law.

Sec. 9. Judges of the court of appeals shall hold office for a TERM [period] of [6] SIX years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office for the judges in each district shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall be provided by law and the practice and procedure therein shall be [as provided] PRE-SCRIBED by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 11. The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. [A] SESSIONS OF THE circuit court shall be held at least [4] FOUR times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges may be changed and circuits may be created, altered and discontinued by law and the number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges [n]or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term.

Sec. 12. Circuit judges shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the circuit in which they reside, and shall hold office for a TERM [period] of [6] SIX years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In circuits having more than one circuit judge their terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 13. THE circuit court[s] shall have original jurisdiction in all matters not prohibited by law; appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals except as otherwise provided by law; power to issue, hear and determine prerogative and remedial writs; supervisory and general control over inferior courts and tribunals within their respective jurisdictions[,] in accordance with rules of the supreme court; and jurisdiction of other cases and matters as provided by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 14. The clerk of each county organized for judicial purposes or other officer performing the duties of such office as provided in a county charter shall be clerk of the circuit court for such county. The judges of the circuit court[s] may fill [any] A vacancy in an elective office of county clerk or prosecuting attorney within their respective jurisdictions.

Sec. 15. In each county organized for judicial purposes[,] there shall be a probate court. The legislature may [combine one or more counties into] CREATE OR ALTER probate COURT districts OF MORE THAN ONE COUNTY [upon the approval by a majority of the voters of each county voting separately on the question,] IF AP-PROVED IN EACH AFFECTED COUNTY BY A MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS VOTING ON THE QUESTION. [or combine] THE LEGISLA-TURE MAY PROVIDE FOR THE COMBINATION OF the office of probate judge with any judicial office of limited jurisdiction [in any] WITHIN A county with supplemental salary as provided by law. The jurisdiction, powers and duties of the probate court[s] and of the judges thereof shall be [prescribed] PROVIDED by law. They shall [also] have original jurisdiction in all cases of juvenile delinquents and dependents, except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 16. ONE OR MORE judges of probate AS PROVIDED BY LAW shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the counties or the probate districtS in which they reside and shall hold office for [a period] TERMS of [6] SIX years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In counties or districts with more than one judge the terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that NOT all terms will [not] expire at the same time.

Sec. 17. No judge or justice of any court of this state shall be paid from the fees of his office nor shall the amount of his salary be measured by fees, other moneys received or [by] the amount of judicial activity of his office.

Sec. 18. Salaries of justices of the supreme court, of the judges of the court of appeals, of the circuit judges within a [county or] circuit, and of the probate judges within a county or district, shall be uniform, and may be increased, but shall not be decreased during a term of office except and only to the extent of a general salary reduction in all other branches of government.

Each of the judges of the circuit court[s] shall receive an annual salary as provided by law. In addition to the salary received from the state, [treasury,] each circuit judge may receive from any county in which he regularly holds court [such] AN additional salary as [may be] determined from time to time by the board of supervisors of the county. In any county where [such] AN additional salary is granted, it shall be paid at the same rate to all circuit judges regularly holding court therein.

Sec. 19. The supreme court, the court of appeals, the circuit court, the probate court and other courts designated as such by the legislature shall be courts of record and [shall] each SHALL have a common seal. [Except as otherwise authorized by this constitution,] Justices and judges of [the] courts of record [of this state shall] MUST be PERSONS WHO ARE licensed to practice law in this state. [and] No person shall be elected or appointed to a judicial office after reaching the age of 70 years.

Sec. 20. Whenever a JUSTICE OR judge removes his domicile beyond the limits of the territory from which he was elected, he shall [be deemed to] have vacated his office.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

Sec. 21. Any justice or judge of a court of record shall be ineligible to be nominated for or elected to an elective office other than a judicial office during the period of his service [as a judge] and for one year thereafter.

Sec. 22. Any elected judge of [a] THE court of appeals, circuit court or probate court may become a candidate in the primary election for the office of which he is the incumbent by filing an affidavit of candidacy in the form and manner [provided] PRESCRIBED by law.

Sec. 23. A vacancy in the elective office of a judge of any court of record shall be filled at a general or special election AS PROVIDED BY [according to] law. The supreme court may authorize persons who have served as judges and who have retired, to perform judicial duties for the limited period of time from the occurrence of the vacancy until the successor is elected and qualified. SUCH PERSONS SHALL BE INELIGIBLE FOR ELECTION TO FILL THE VACANCY.

Sec. 24. There shall be printed upon the ballot under the name of each elected incumbent justice or judge[,] who is a candidate for nomination or election to the same office[,] the designation of that office.

Sec. 25. For reasonable cause, which is not sufficient ground for impeachment, the governor shall remove any judge on a concurrent resolution of [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. The cause for removal shall be stated at length in [such] THE resolution.

Sec. 26. The offices of circuit court commissioner and justice of the peace shall be abolished at the expiration of [5] FIVE years from the date this constitution becomes effective or may within this period be abolished by law. Their jurisdiction and powers within this period shall be as provided by law. Within [such] THIS [5] FIVE-year period, the legislature shall establish a court or courts of limited jurisdiction with powers and jurisdiction defined by law. The location of such court or courts, and the qualifications, tenure, method of election[,] and salary of the judges of such court or courts, and by what governmental units the JUDGES [same] shall be paid, shall be provided by law, subject to the limitations contained in this Article.

Statutory courts in existence at the time this constitution becomes effective shall retain their powers and jurisdiction, except as provided by law, until they are abolished by law.

Sec. 27. The supreme court, the court of appeals, the circuit court, or any justices or judges thereof, shall not exercise any power of appointment to public office except as [otherwise] provided in this constitution.

Sec. 28. All final decisions, findings, rulings and orders of any administrative officer or [body] AGENCY existing under the constitution or by law, which are judicial or quasi-judicial and affect private rights [,] or licenses, shall be subject to direct review by the courts as [shall be] provided by law. This review shall include, as a minimum, the determination whether such final decisions, findings, rulings and orders are authorized by law[.]; and, in cases in which a hearing is required, whether the same are supported by competent, material[,] and substantial evidence on the whole record[:]. [Provided however, that the] Findings of fact [of the] IN workmen's compensation [commission] PROCEEDINGS shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 29. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, circuit judges[,] and other judges as provided by law shall be conservators of the peace within their respective jurisdictions.

Article VII

Local Government

Sec. 1. Each organized county shall be a body corporate with powers and immunities [prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

Sec. 2. Any county may frame, adopt, amend or repeal a county charter in a manner and with powers and limitations to be provided by general law, which shall among other things provide for the election of a charter commission. The law may permit the organization of county government in form different from that set forth in this constitution and shall limit the rate of ad valorem property taxation for county purposes, and restrict THE [their] powers of CHARTER COUNTIES TO borrow[ing] money and contract[ing] debts. Each charter county is hereby granted power to levy other taxes for county purposes subject to limitations and prohibitions set forth in this constitution or law. Subject to law, a county charter may authorize the county through its regularly constituted authority to [enact] ADOPT resolutions and ordinances relating to its concerns.

The board of supervisors by a majority vote of its members may, and upon petition of [5] FIVE percent of the electors shall, place upon the ballot the question of electing a commission to frame a charter.

No county charter shall be adopted, amended or repealed until approved by a majority of electors voting on the question.

Sec. 3. No organized county shall be reduced by the organization of new counties to less than 16 townships as surveyed by the United States, unless APPROVED in [pursuance of] THE MANNER PRESCRIBED BY law BY a majority of electors voting [on] THEREON [the question] in each county to be affected. [thereby shall so decide.]

Sec. 4. There shall be elected for [4] FOUR-year terms in each organized county a sheriff, a county clerk, a county treasurer, a register of deeds and a prosecuting attorney, whose duties and powers shall be [prescribed] PROVIDED by law. The board of supervisors in any county may COMBINE [unite] the offices of county clerk and register of deeds in one office or separate the same at pleasure.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, county clerk, county treasurer and register of deeds shall hold their principal offices at the county seat.

Sec. 6. The sheriff may be required by law to renew his security [from time to time] PERIODICALLY and in default of giving such security, his office shall be [deemed] vacant. The county shall never be responsible for his acts, except that the board of supervisors may protect him against claims by prisoners for unintentional injuries received while in his custody. He shall not hold any other office except in [connection with] civil defense.

Sec. 7. A board of supervisors shall be established in each ORGANIZED county consisting of one member from each organized township and such representation from cities as [shall be prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

Sec. 8. [The] Boards of supervisors shall have LEGISLATIVE, ADMINISTRATIVE [such] AND SUCH OTHER powers and duties as provided by law [not inconsistent with this constitution].

Sec. 9. [The] Boards of supervisors shall have exclusive power to fix the compensation of [all] county [officials] OFFICERS not otherwise provided [for] by law.

Sec. 10. [No] A county seat once established shall NOT be removed until the place to which it is proposed to be [re]moved shall be designated by [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the MEMBERS OF THE board of supervisors [of the county,] and a majority of the electors voting thereon shall have [voted in favor of] APPROVED the proposed location in [a] THE manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 11. No county shall incur any indebtedness which shall increase its total debt beyond 10 percent of its assessed valuation.

Sec. 12. [No] A navigable stream [of this state] shall NOT be bridged or dammed without permission granted by the board of supervisors of the county [under the provisions of] AS PROVIDED BY law, which permission shall be subject to such reasonable compensation and other conditions as may seem best suited to safeguard the rights and interests of the county and POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS [the municipalities] therein.

Sec. 13. Two or more CONTIGUOUS counties may combine into a single county [provided] IF APPROVED IN EACH AFFECTED COUNTY BY a majority of the [voters] ELECTORS voting on the question. [of each county, voting separately, approve such combination and the counties are contiguous.]

Sec. 14. The board of supervisors of each organized county may organize and consolidate townships under restrictions and limitations [prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

1 Sec. 15. Any county, when authorized by its
2 BOARD OF SUPERVISORS [legislative body]
3 shall have the authority to enter or to intervene
4 in any ACTION [suit] or certificate proceed-
5 ing involving the services, charges or rates of 6 any privately owned public utility furnishing serv-7 ices or commodities to rate payers within the 8 county.

9 Sec. 16. The legislature may provide for the 10 laying out, construction, improvement and main-
11 tenance of highways, bridges, culverts and airports
12 by the state and by the counties and townships
13 thereof; and may authorize counties to take charge
14 and control of any highway within their limits
15 for such purposes. The legislature may [also 16 prescribe] PROVIDE the powers and duties of 17 counties in relation to highways, bridges, culverts
18 and airports; may provide for county road com-
19 missioners to be appointed or elected, with powers
20 and duties [as may be prescribed] PROVIDED by 21 law. The ad valorem property tax IMPOSED for 22 road purposes by any county shall not exceed in 23 any year [1/2] ONE-HALF of one percent of the 24 assessed valuation for the preceding year.

25 Sec. 17. Each organized township shall be a 26 body corporate with powers and immunities [pre-
27 scribed] PROVIDED by law [and not inconsistent
28 with this constitution].

29 Sec. 18. IN EACH ORGANIZED TOWNSHIP
30 there shall be elected for [a] termS of not less 31 than [2 years] TWO nor more than [4] FOUR 32 years as [provided] PRESCRIBED by law [in 33 each organized township] a [township] supervisor, 34 a [township] clerk, a [township] treasurer, and[,] 35 not to exceed [4 township] FOUR trustees, whose 36 legislative and administrative powers and duties
37 shall be [prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

38 Sec. 19. No ORGANIZED township shall grant
39 any public utility franchise which is not subject 40 to revocation at the will of the township, unless 41 the proposition shall FIRST have BEEN AP-
42 PROVED BY [first received the affirmative vote
43 of] a majority of the electors of such township
44 voting thereon at a regular or special election.

45 Sec. 20. The legislature shall provide by law
46 for the dissolution of township government when-
47 ever all the territory of [a] AN ORGANIZED
48 township is included within the boundaries of a 49 village or villages NOTWITHSTANDING THAT
50 A VILLAGE MAY INCLUDE TERRITORY
51 WITHIN ANOTHER ORGANIZED TOWNSHIP
52 and provide by law for the classification of such 53 village or villages as cities [notwithstanding that a 54 village may include territory within another town-55 ship].

56 Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by gen-57 eral laws for the incorporation of cities and 58 villages[;]. [such general laws] SUCH LAWS
59 shall limit their rate of [general] AD VALOREM
60 property taxation for municipal purposes, and

1 restrict [their] THE powers of CITIES AND
2 VILLAGES TO borrow[ing] money and con-
3 tract[ing] debts. Each city and village is granted
4 power to levy other taxes for public purposes,
5 subject to limitations and prohibitions provided
6 by this constitution or by law.

7 Sec. 22. Under general laws the electors of 8 each city and village shall have the power and 9 authority to frame, adopt[,] and amend its 10 charter, and to amend an existing charter of the 11 city or village heretofore granted or enacted by 12 the legislature for the government of the city or 13 village. Each such city and village shall have 14 power to [pass] ADOPT resolutions and ordinances 15 relating to its municipal concerns, property and 16 government, subject to the constitution and law.
17 No enumeration of powers granted to cities and 18 villages in this constitution shall [be deemed to] 19 limit or restrict the general grant of authority
20 conferred by this section.

21 Sec. 23. Any city or village may acquire, own, 22 establish and maintain, within or without its 23 corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries,
24 hospitals[,] and all works which involve the public
25 health or safety.

26 Sec. 24. Subject to this constitution, any city
27 or village may acquire, own[,] and operate, within 28 or without its corporate limits, public service
29 facilities for supplying water, light, heat, power,
30 sewage disposal and transportation to the munic-
31 ipality and the inhabitants thereof.

32 Any city or village may sell and deliver heat,
33 power[, and] OR light without its corporate limits
34 [to] IN an amount not [to exceed] EXCEEDING 35 25 percent of that furnished by it within the 36 corporate limits, except as greater amounts may 37 be permitted by law; may sell and deliver water 38 and provide sewage disposal services[,] outside of 39 its corporate limits in such amount as may be 40 determined by the legislative body of the city or 41 village; and may operate transportation lines
42 [without] OUTSIDE the municipality within such 43 limits as may be prescribed by law.

44 Sec. 25. No city or village shall acquire any 45 public utility furnishing light, heat [and] OR 46 power, or grant any public utility franchise which 47 is not subject to revocation at the will of the city
48 or village, unless the proposition shall FIRST have 49 been approved by [3/5] THREE-FIFTHS of the 50 electors voting thereon. No city or village may 51 sell any such public utility unless the proposition
52 shall FIRST have been approved by a majority 53 of the electors voting thereon, or a greater num-54 ber if the charter shall so provide.

55 Sec. 26. Except as otherwise provided in this 56 constitution, no city or village shall have the 57 power to loan its credit for any private purpose 58 or, except as [authorized] PROVIDED by law, for 59 any public purpose.

60 Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution the legislature may establish in metropolitan areas additional forms of government or authorities with powers, duties and jurisdictions as the legislature shall provide. Wherever possible, such additional forms of government or authorities shall be designed to perform multi-purpose functions rather than a single function.

Sec. 28. The legislature by general law shall authorize two or more counties, cities, villages, townships or districts, or any combination thereof among other things to: enter into contractual undertakings or agreements with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof for the joint administration of any of the functions or powers which each would have the power to perform separately; share the costs and responsibilities of functions and services with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof which each would have the power to perform separately; transfer functions or responsibilities to one another or any combination thereof upon the consent of each unit involved; cooperate with one another and with state government [and with intergovernmental agencies]; lend their credit to one another or any combination thereof as PROVIDED [prescribed] by law in connection with any authorized publicly owned undertaking.

Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or any [of] such unit[s] of government or subdivision or agency thereof, except members of the legislature, may serve on or with any governmental body established for the [above] purposes SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service.

Sec. 29. No person, partnership, association or corporation, public or private, operating a public utility shall have the right to the use of the highways, streets, alleys or other public places of any county, city, village or township for wires, poles, pipes, tracks, conduits or other utility facilities, without the consent of the duly constituted authority of the county, city, village or township; or to transact local business therein without first obtaining a franchise from the city, village or township. Except as otherwise [authorized] PROVIDED in this constitution the right of all counties, cities, villages and townships to the reasonable control of their highways, streets, alleys and public places is hereby reserved to such local units of government.

Sec. 30. No franchise or license shall be granted by any city, village or township for a [longer] period LONGER than 30 years.

Sec. 31. The legislature shall not vacate or alter any road, street, alley, or public place under the jurisdiction of any county, township, city or village.

Sec. 32. Any county, township, city, village, authority or school district empowered by the legislature or by this constitution to prepare budgets of estimated expenditures and revenues shall adopt [said] SUCH budgets only after a public hearing in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 33. The provisions of this constitution and law concerning cities, villages, counties and townships shall be liberally construed in their favor. Powers granted to counties and townships by this constitution and by law shall include those fairly implied and not [inconsistent with nor] prohibited by this constitution.

Article IX

Finance and Taxation

Sec. 1. The legislature shall impose taxes sufficient with other resources to pay the expenses of state government.

Sec. 2. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended[,] or contracted away.

Sec. 3. The legislature shall provide for the uniform general ad valorem taxation of real and tangible personal property not exempt by law. The legislature shall provide for the determination of true cash value of such property; the proportion of true cash value at which such property shall be uniformly assessed, which shall not, after January 1, 1966, exceed 50 percent; and for a system of equalization of assessments. The legislature may provide for alternative means of taxation of designated real and tangible personal property in lieu of general ad valorem taxation. Every tax other than the general ad valorem property tax shall be uniform upon the class or classes on which it operates.

Sec. 4. Property held by a non-profit corporation, association, or legal entity and used and occupied exclusively for religious, educational, charitable or burial grounds purposes, as defined by law, shall be exempt from real and personal property taxes.

Sec. 5. The legislature shall provide for the assessment by the state of the property of those PUBLIC SERVICE businesses [whose property is now] assessed by the state AT THE DATE THIS CONSTITUTION BECOMES EFFECTIVE, and of other property as designated by the legislature, and for the [levy] IMPOSITION and collection of taxes thereon. Property assessed by the state shall be assessed at the same proportion of its true cash value as the legislature shall specify for property subject to general ad valorem taxation. The rate of taxation on such property shall be the average rate levied upon other property in this state under the general ad valorem tax law, or, if the legislature provides, the rate of tax applicable to the property of each business enterprise assessed by the state shall be the average rate of ad valorem taxation levied upon other property in all counties in which any of such property is situated.

Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, the total amount of general ad valorem taxes [levied against] IMPOSED UPON REAL AND TANGIBLE PERSONAL property for all purposes in any one year shall not exceed 15 mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of [said] property as finally equalized. Under procedures provided by law, which shall guarantee the right of initiative, separate tax limitations for any county and FOR the townships and FOR school districts therein, the aggregate of which shall not exceed 18 mills on each dollar of such valuation, may be adopted and thereafter altered by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting thereon, in lieu of the limitation hereinbefore established. The limitations established [herein] BY THIS CONSTITUTION or by county vote may be increased to an aggregate of not to exceed 50 mills, OR MORE IF PROVIDED BY LAW, on each dollar of [such] valuation, [except as otherwise provided by law,] for a period of not to exceed 20 years at any one time, [by the vote of] IF APPROVED BY a majority of the [qualified] electors, QUALIFIED UNDER [as defined in] Article II, [hereof] SECTION 6 OF THIS CONSTITUTION[,] VOTING ON THE QUESTION [of any such taxing authority voting thereon].

The foregoing limitations shall not apply to [(a)] taxes [levied] IMPOSED for the payment of principal and interest on bonds or other evidences of indebtedness[,] or for the payment of assessments or contract obligations in anticipation of which bonds are issued, which taxes may be [levied] IMPOSED without limitation as to rate or amount[,] or [(b)] TO taxes [levied] IMPOSED for any other purpose by any city, village, charter county, charter township or other charter authority the tax limitations of which are provided by charter or by general law.

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

In any school district which extends into [2] TWO or more counties, [there may be levied and collected for school purposes throughout the district] property taxes at the highest rate available in the county which contains the greatest part of the area of the district MAY BE IMPOSED AND COLLECTED FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT.

Sec. 7. No income tax graduated as to rate or base shall be imposed by the state or any of its subdivisions.

Sec. 8. [At no time shall] The legislature SHALL NOT [levy] IMPOSE a sales tax on retailers at a rate of more than [4] FOUR percent of their gross taxable sales of tangible personal property.

Sec. 9. All specific taxes, except general sales and use taxes and regulatory fees, imposed DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY on fuels sold or used to propel motor vehicles upon highways and on registered motor vehicles shall, after the payment of [the] necessary collection expenses, be used exclusively for highway purposes as defined by law.

Sec. 10. One-eighth of all taxes [upon the privilege of selling] IMPOSED ON RETAILERS ON TAXABLE SALES AT RETAIL OF tangible personal property [at retail] shall be used exclusively for assistance to cities, villages and townships, on a population basis as provided by law. IN DETERMINING POPULATION the legislature may exclude [from population] any portion of the total number of persons who are wards, patients or convicts [of] IN any tax supported institution.

Sec. 11. There shall be established a state school aid fund. The legislature may [from time to time] dedicate [certain] tax revenues to this fund which shall be used exclusively for the support of public education and [for] school employees' retirement systems, [in a manner] AS provided by law.

Sec. 12. No evidence of state indebtedness shall be issued except for debts authorized pursuant to this constitution.

Sec. 13. Public bodies corporate shall have power to borrow money and to issue their securities evidencing debt, subject to this constitution and law.

Sec. 14. To meet obligations incurred pursuant to appropriations for any fiscal year, the legislature may by law authorize the state to issue its full faith and credit notes in which case it shall pledge undedicated revenues to be received within the same fiscal year for the repayment thereof. Such indebtedness in any fiscal year shall not exceed 15 percent of undedicated revenues received by the state during the preceding fiscal year and such debts shall be repaid at the time the revenues so pledged are received, but not later than the end of the same fiscal year.

Sec. 15. The state may borrow money for specific purposes in amounts as may be provided by acts of the legislature adopted by a vote of [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house, and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at any general election. The question submitted to the electors shall state the amount to be borrowed, the specific purpose to which the funds shall be devoted, and the method of repayment.

Sec. 16. The state, in addition to any other borrowing power, may borrow from time to time such amounts as shall be required, pledge its faith and credit and issue its notes or bonds therefor, for the purpose of making loans to school districts as provided in this section.

If the minimum amount which [it] would otherwise be necessary for a school district to levy in any year to pay principal and interest on its qualified bonds, including any necessary allowances for estimated tax delinquencies, exceeds 13 mills on each dollar of its assessed valuation as [last] FINALLY equalized [by the state], or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, then the school district may elect to borrow all or any part of the excess from the state. In that event the state shall LEND [loan] the excess amount to the school district for the payment of principal and interest. If for any reason any school district will be or is unable to pay the principal and interest on its qualified bonds when due, then the school district shall borrow and the state shall LEND [loan] to it an amount sufficient to enable the school district to make the payment.

The term "qualified bonds" means general obligation bonds of school districts issued for capital expenditures, including refunding bonds, issued prior to May 4, 1955, or issued thereafter and qualified as provided by law pursuant to Section 27 or Section 28, Article X, of the Constitution of 1908 or pursuant to this section.

After a school district has received loans from the state, each year thereafter it shall levy for debt service, exclusive of levies for nonqualified bonds, not less than 13 mills or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, until the amount loaned has been repaid, and any tax collections therefrom in any year over and above the minimum requirements for principal and interest on qualified bonds shall be used toward the repayment of state loans. In any year when such [a] levy would produce an amount in excess of the requirements and the amount due to the state, the levy may be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the legislature shall have the power to prescribe and to limit the procedure, terms and conditions for the qualification of bonds, for obtaining and making state loans, and for the repayment of loans.

The power to tax for the payment of principal and interest on bonds hereafter issued which are the general obligations of any school district, including refunding bonds, and for repayment of any state loans made to school districts, shall be without limitation as to rate or amount.

All rights acquired under Sections 27 and 28, Article X of the Constitution of 1908, by holders of bonds heretofore issued, and all obligations assumed by the state or any school district under these sections, shall remain unimpaired.

Sec. 17. No money shall be paid out of the state treasury except in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Sec. 18. The credit of the state shall not be granted to, nor in aid of any person, association or corporation, public or private, except as authorized in this constitution.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the investment of public funds until needed for current requirements [or the investment of public employee retirement system funds], as [may be] provided by law.

Sec. 19. The state shall not subscribe to, nor be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation[,] . [except that] Funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees may be invested as provided by law[;] . [and except that] Endowment funds created for charitable or educational purposes may be invested as provided by law governing the investment of funds held in trust by trustees.

Sec. 20. No state money shall be deposited in banks other than those organized under the national or state banking laws. No state money shall be deposited in any bank in excess of 50 percent of the capital and surplus of such bank. Any bank receiving deposits of state money shall show the amount of state money so deposited as a separate item in all published statements.

Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by law for the annual accounting for all public moneys, state and local, and may [also] provide by law for interim accounting.

The legislature shall provide by law for the maintenance of uniform accounting systems by units of local government and the auditing of county accounts by competent state authority and other units of government as provided by law.

Sec. 22. PROCEDURES FOR THE EXAMINATION AND ADJUSTMENT OF CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE SHALL BE PRESCRIBED BY LAW.

Sec. 23. All financial records, accountings, audit reports and other reports of public moneys shall be public records and open to inspection. A statement of all revenues and expenditures of public moneys shall be published and distributed annually, as [prescribed] PROVIDED by law.

Sec. 24. The accrued financial benefits of each pension plan and retirement system of the state and its political subdivisions shall be a contractual obligation thereof which shall not be diminished or impaired thereby.

Financial benefits arising on account of service rendered in each fiscal year shall be funded during that year and such funding shall not be [usable] USED for financing unfunded accrued liabilities.

Public Officers and Employment

Sec. 1. [Members of the legislature and] All officers, LEGISLATIVE, executive and judicial, [shall,] before [they enter] ENTERING upon the duties of their respective offices, SHALL take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: ["I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this state, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of according to the best of my ability."] No other oath, affirmation, or any religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust.

Sec. 2. The terms of office of elective state officers, members of the legislature[,] and JUSTICES AND judges of courts of record shall begin at [12:00] TWELVE o'clock noon on the first day of January next succeeding their election, except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The terms of office of county officers shall begin on the first day of January next succeeding their election, except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 3. Neither the legislature nor any political subdivision of this state shall grant or authorize extra compensation to any public officer, agent or contractor after the service has been rendered or the contract entered into.

Sec. 4. No person having custody or control of public moneys shall [have a seat in] BE A MEMBER OF the legislature, [n]or be eligible to any office of trust or profit under this state, until he shall have made an accounting, as provided by law, of all sums for which he may be liable.

Sec. 5. The classified state civil service shall consist of all positions in the state service except those filled by popular election, heads of principal departments, members of boards and commissions, the [chief] PRINCIPAL executive officer of boards and commissions heading principal departments, employees of courts of record, employees of the legislature, employees of the state institutions of higher education, all persons in the armed forces of the state, [8] EIGHT exempt positions in the office of the governor, and within each principal department, when requested by the department head, [2] TWO other exempt positions, one of which shall be policy-making. The civil service commission may exempt [3] THREE additional positions of a policy-making nature within each principal department.

Sec. 6. The civil service commission shall be non-salaried and shall consist of [4] FOUR persons, not more than [2] TWO of whom shall be members of the same political party, appointed by the governor for TERMS OF [8] EIGHT yearS, [overlapping terms.] NO TWO OF WHICH SHALL EXPIRE IN THE SAME YEAR.

The administration of the commission's powers shall be vested in a state personnel director who shall be a member of the classified service and who shall be responsible to and selected by the commission after open competitive examination.

Sec. 7. The commission shall classify all positions in the classified service according to their respective duties and responsibilities, fix rates of compensation for all classes of positions, approve or disapprove disbursements for all personal services, determine by competitive examination and performance exclusively on the basis of merit, efficiency and fitness the qualifications of all candidates for positions in the classified service, make rules and regulations covering all personnel transactions, and regulate all conditions of employment in the classified service.

No person shall be appointed to or promoted in the classified service who has not been certified BY THE COMMISSION as qualified for such appointment or promotion [by the commission]. No appointments, promotions, demotions or removals in the classified service shall be made for partisan, racial or religious considerations.

Sec. 8. Increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission may be effective only at the start of a fiscal year and shall require prior notice to the governor, who shall transmit such increases to the legislature as part of his budget. Within 60 calendar days following such transmission, the legislature may, by a [2/3] TWO-THIRDS vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, reject, reduce, or modify increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission[:]. [Provided however,] The legislature may not reduce rates of compensation below those in effect at the time of the transmission of increases authorized by the commission. The legislature may, by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, waive the notice and permit increases in rates of compensation to be effective at a time other than the start of a fiscal year.

Sec. 9. The appointing authorities may create or abolish positions for reasons of administrative efficiency without the approval of the commission. Positions shall not be created nor abolished except for reasons of administrative efficiency. Any employee considering himself aggrieved by the abolition of a position shall have a right of appeal to the commission through established grievance procedures.

Sec. 10. The civil service commission shall recommend to the governor and to the legislature rates of compensation for all appointed positions within the executive department not a part of the classified service.

Sec. 11. To enable the commission to exercise its powers, the legislature shall appropriate to the commission for the ensuing fiscal year a sum not less than one percent of the aggregate payroll of the classified service for the preceding fiscal year, as certified by the commission. Within [6] SIX months after the conclusion of each fiscal year the commission shall return to the state treasury all [funds] MONEYS unexpended for that fiscal year.

The commission shall furnish reports of expenditures, at least annually, to the governor and the legislature and shall be subject to annual audit as provided by law.

Sec. 12. No payment for personal services shall be made or authorized until the provisions of this [article] CONSTITUTION PERTAINING TO CIVIL SERVICE have been complied with in every particular. Violation of any of the provisions hereof may be restrained or observance compelled by injunctive or mandamus proceedings brought by any citizen of the state.

Sec. 13. BY ORDINANCE OR RESOLUTION WHICH SHALL NOT TAKE EFFECT UNTIL APPROVED BY A MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS VOTING THEREON, each city, village, township, county, school district[,] and other governmental unit[s] or authorit[ies]Y [performing the same or similar functions] may[, by ordinance or resolution of the governing body which ordinance or resolution shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon,] establish, modify or discontinue a merit system for its employees other than teachers under contract or tenure. Article XII

Amendment & Revision

Sec. 1. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the senate or house of representatives. Proposed amendments agreed to by [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house on a [yea and nay] vote WITH THE NAMES AND VOTE OF THOSE VOTING entered in the respective journals shall be submitted, not less than 60 days thereafter, to the electors at the next general election or special election as the legislature shall direct. If a majority of electors voting on [such] a proposed amendment approve [such amendment,] THE SAME, it shall become part of the constitution and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved.

Sec. 2. Amendments may be proposed to this constitution by petition of the registered electors of this state. Every petition shall include the full text of the proposed amendment, and be signed by registered electors of the state equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, or 300,000 registered electors, whichever is less. Such petitions shall be filed with the person authorized by law to receive the same at least 120 days before the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon. Any such petition shall be in the form, and shall be signed and circulated in such manner, as prescribed by law. The person authorized by law to receive such petition[,] shall[,] upon its receipt[,] determine, as provided by law, the validity and sufficiency of the signatures on the petition, and make an official announcement thereof at least 60 days prior to the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon.

Any amendment proposed by such petition shall be submitted, not less than 120 days after it was filed, to the electors at the next GENERAL election. [at which any state officer is to be elected.] Such proposed amendment, existing provisions of the constitution which would be altered or abrogated thereby, and the question as it shall appear on the ballot [used in such election] shall be published in full as provided by law. Copies of such publication shall be posted in each polling place and furnished to news media as provided by law.

The ballot to be used in such election shall contain a statement of the purpose of the proposed amendment, expressed in not more than 100 words, exclusive of caption. Such statement of purpose and caption shall be prepared by the person authorized by law, and shall consist of a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against the proposed amendment.

If the proposed amendment is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question, the proposed amendment shall become part of the constitution, and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved. IF TWO OR MORE AMENDMENTS APPROVED BY THE ELECTORS AT THE SAME ELECTION CONFLICT, THAT AMENDMENT RECEIVING THE HIGHEST AFFIRMATIVE VOTE SHALL PREVAIL.

Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year 1978, and in each 16th year thereafter and at such times as may be provided by law, the question of a general revision of the constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state. If a majority of the electors voting on the question decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, at an election to be held not later than [4] FOUR months after the proposal was certified as approved, the electors of each [house of] representative[s] district as then organized shall elect one delegate and the electors of each senatorial district as then organized shall elect one delegate. The delegates so elected shall convene at the SEAT OF GOVERNMENT [capital city] on the first Tuesday in October next succeeding such election or at an earlier date if provided by law.

The convention shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings and judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members. The governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district to fill a vacancy in the office of any delegate. [If the legislature shall determine that delegates shall be elected on a partisan basis, the governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district and of the same party.] WHO SHALL BE A MEMBER OF THE SAME PARTY AS THE DELEGATE VACATING THE OFFICE IF THE LEGISLATURE PROVIDES FOR PARTISAN ELECTION OF DELEGATES. The convention shall have power to appoint such officers, employees and assistants as it deems necessary and to fix their compensation; to provide for the printing and distribution of its documents, journals and proceedings; to explain and disseminate information about the proposed constitution and to complete the business of the convention in an orderly manner. Each delegate shall receive for his services compensation provided by law.

No proposed constitution or amendment adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the electors for approval as hereinafter provided unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to and serving in the convention, WITH THE NAMES AND VOTE OF THOSE VOTING [the yeas and nays being] entered in the journal. Any proposed constitution or amendments adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the qualified electors in the manner and at the time provided by such convention not less than 90 days after final adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or amendments by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon the constitution or amendments shall take effect as provided by the convention.

TO INSURE THE ORDERLY TRANSITION FROM THE CONSTITUTION OF 1908 TO THIS CONSTITUTION THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE IS SET FORTH TO BE EFFECTIVE FOR SUCH PERIOD AS ITS PROVISIONS REQUIRE.

Sec. 1. The attorney general [of the state] shall recommend to the legislature AS SOON AS PRACTICABLE [at the commencement of the next session] such changes AS MAY BE NECESSARY [in existing laws as may be deemed necessary] to adapt EXISTING LAWS [the same] to this constitution.

Sec. 2. All writs, actions, suits, proceedings, civil or criminal liabilities, prosecutions, judgments, sentences, orders, decrees, appeals, causes of action, contracts, claims, demands, titles and rights [of individuals, partnerships, bodies corporate, and of this state or any subdivision or agency thereof] existing on the effective date [hereof] OF THIS CONSTITUTION shall continue unaffected except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, all officers filling any office by election or appointment shall continue to exercise THEIR POWERS AND [the] duties [thereof, according to their respective commissions or appointments,] until their offices shall have been abolished or their successors selected and qualified in accordance with this constitution or the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

No provision of this constitution, or of law or of executive order authorized by this constitution shall shorten the term of any person elected to state office at a statewide election ON [in] or prior to THE DATE ON WHICH THIS CONSTITUTION IS SUBMITTED TO A VOTE. [November, 1962.] In the event the duties of any [of] such officers shall not have been ABOLISHED OR incorporated into one or more of the principal departments at the expiration of his term, such officer shall continue to serve until his duties are so incorporated OR ABOLISHED.

Sec. 4. All officers elected [on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962] AT THE SAME ELECTION THAT THIS CONSTITUTION IS SUBMITTED TO THE PEOPLE FOR ADOPTION [under the 1908 Constitution as amended and existing laws] shall take office [on and after the first day of January, 1963,] and complete the term to which they were elected UNDER THE 1908 CONSTITUTION AND EXISTING LAWS AND CONTINUE TO SERVE UNTIL THEIR SUCCESSORS ARE ELECTED AND QUALIFIED PURSUANT TO THIS CONSTITUTION OR LAW.

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision in this constitution, the governor, THE lieutenant governor, THE secretary of state [and], THE attorney general, AND state senators shall be elected at the general election in 1964 to serve for [2] TWO year terms beginning on the first day of January next succeeding their election. The first [4 year] election OF SUCH OFFICERS FOR FOUR-YEAR TERMS under this constitution shall be held at the general election in 1966.

Sec. 6. The state shall be districted for the purpose of electing senators in accordance with the provisions of [Committee Proposal 80, section a,] ARTICLE IV, SECTION 2 after the official publication of the total population count of the 1970 decennial federal census. Until the [re]apportionment of the senate following the 1970 census, the senatorial districts under the 1908 constitution[, as amended,] shall remain intact except that upon the adoption of this constitution each of the counties of Kent, Genesee, Macomb and Oakland shall be divided by the apportionment commission into [2] TWO senatorial districts and Wayne county into [8] EIGHT senatorial districts in accordance with this constitution.

Sec. 7. [A vacancy hereafter created as the result of the death, retirement or resignation of one incumbent justice shall not be filled.]

NOTWITHSTANDING THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CONSTITUTION THAT THE SUPREME COURT SHALL CONSIST OF SEVEN JUSTICES IT SHALL CONSIST OF EIGHT JUSTICES UNTIL THE TIME THAT A VACANCY OCCURS AS A RESULT OF DEATH, RETIREMENT OR RESIGNATION OF A JUSTICE. THE FIRST SUCH VACANCY SHALL NOT BE FILLED.

Sec. 8. Any [supreme court justice, circuit judge,] judge of probate serving [at] ON the [time this constitution becomes] effective DATE OF THIS CONSTITUTION may serve the remainder of the term and be eligible TO SUCCEED HIMSELF for election [to his present office] regardless of other provisions in this constitution requiring him to be licensed to practice law in this state.

Sec. 9. The provisions of [this] Article VI providing that terms of JUDICIAL offices shall not all expire at the same time, shall be implemented BY LAW PROVIDING THAT at the next election for such offices [by legislation providing for elections] JUDGES SHALL BE ELECTED for terms of varying length, none of which shall be shorter than the [basic] REGULAR term provided for the office.

Sec. 10. THE MEMBERS OF THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION PROVIDED FOR IN ARTICLE VIII SECTION 3 SHALL FIRST BE ELECTED AT THE FIRST GENERAL ELECTION AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS CONSTITUTION FOR THE FOLLOWING TERMS: TWO SHALL BE ELECTED FOR TWO YEARS, TWO FOR FOUR YEARS, TWO FOR SIX YEARS, AND TWO FOR EIGHT YEARS AS PRESCRIBED BY LAW.

THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION PROVIDED FOR IN THE CONSTITUTION OF 1908 IS ABOLISHED AT TWELVE O'CLOCK NOON JANUARY 1 OF THE YEAR FOLLOWING THE FIRST GENERAL ELECTION UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION AND THE TERMS OF MEMBERS THEREOF SHALL THEN EXPIRE.

Sec. 11. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CONSTITUTION PROVIDING FOR MEMBERS OF BOARDS OF CONTROL OF INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC COMMUNITY AND JUNIOR COLLEGES SHALL BE IMPLEMENTED BY LAW. THE LAW MAY PROVIDE THAT THE TERM OF EACH MEMBER IN OFFICE ON THE DATE OF THE VOTE ON THIS CONSTITUTION MAY BE EXTENDED, AND MAY FURTHER PROVIDE THAT THE INITIAL TERMS OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS MAY BE LESS THAN EIGHT YEARS.

Sec. 12. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CONSTITUTION INCREASING THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY AND OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY TO EIGHT, AND OF THEIR TERMS OF OFFICE TO EIGHT YEARS, SHALL BE IMPLEMENTED BY LAW. THE LAW MAY PROVIDE THAT THE TERM OF EACH MEMBER IN OFFICE ON THE DATE OF THE VOTE ON THIS CONSTITUTION MAY BE EXTENDED ONE YEAR, AND MAY FURTHER PROVIDE THAT THE INITIAL TERMS OF OFFICE OF THE ADDITIONAL MEMBERS MAY BE LESS THAN EIGHT YEARS.

Sec. 13. The initial allocation of departments by law pursuant to Article V, Section 2 shall be completed within two years after the effective date of this constitution. If such allocation shall not have been completed within such period, the governor, within one year thereafter, by executive order, shall make the initial allocation.

Sec. 14. Contractual obligations of the state incurred pursuant to the constitution of 1908 [as amended] shall continue to be obligations of the state.

For the retirement of [such] notes and bonds [as may have been] issued under Section 26 of Article X of the 1908 constitution, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund each year during their life a sum equal to the amount of principal and interest payments due and payable in each [such] year.

Sec. 15. [Provided however, That] The legislature [is authorized to provide by general law adopted] by a vote of [2/3] TWO-THIRDS of the members elected to and serving in each house MAY PROVIDE THAT THE STATE MAY [for the] borrow[ing of] money AND MAY PLEDGE ITS FULL FAITH AND CREDIT for [the] refunding [of] any bonds issued by the Mackinac Bridge Authority[,] AND at [which] THE time OF REFUNDING the Mackinac Bridge Authority [Act] shall be [repealed] ABOLISHED and the operation of the bridge SHALL be assumed by the state highway department. THE LEGISLATURE MAY IMPLEMENT THIS SECTION BY LAW.

Sec. 16. This constitution shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state forthwith to give notice of such submission to all other officers required to give or publish any notice in regard to A GENERAL [such] election. He shall give notice that this constitution will be duly submitted to the electors at such election. The notice shall be given in the manner required for the election of governor.

Sec. 17. Every registered elector may vote

1 on the adoption of the constitution. The board
 2 of election commissioners in each county shall 3 cause to be printed on a ballot separate from 4 the ballot containing the names of the nominees
 5 for office, the words: ["] Shall the revised con-
 6 stitution be adopted? () Yes. () No. ["] All
 7 votes cast at THE [this] election shall be taken, 8 counted, canvassed and returned as provided by law for the election of state officers. [Should]

 IF the revised constitution so submitted receiveS more votes in its favor than were cast against it, it shall be the supreme law of the state on and after the first day of January OF THE YEAR FOLLOWING ITS ADOPTION [,1963, except as otherwise provided in this constitution].

ing body" there, taking that out, so that the local units of government don't have the power any more to do it but the state highway department or some place in the state of Michigan, down in Lansing, could grant all power to override that.

MR. A. G. ELLIOTT: The answer is, no.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The question is upon the amendment offered by Mr. William F. Hanna and Mr. Arthur Elliott. Mrs. Cushman.

MRS. CUSHMAN: I would like to speak to the amendment. I think that actually we only have 2 changes here and I don't think they are bad. I think that actually, probably, we could make them in style and drafting and I don't think you would object to them.

In the first place you have changed — in response to Mr. Gover's question, actually, there is no change at all in the wording about franchises, not one change. In the second place, all we have said is, "No public utility" to substitute for all this business about "No person, partnership, association or corporation," and so on. And then in the other place, instead of saying all these involved words, which to my understanding is not good constitutional language, you say "wires, poles, pipes, tracks, conduits or other utility facilities;" for that we substitute just plain "utility facilities." So that it seems to me that there is really no substantive change here and, now that the other changes have been redone to correspond with the original language, I can't see that there is any particular problem at all with this.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Hoxie.

MR. HOXIE: Mr. President and fellow delegates, we started out in consideration of this amendment on the premise that there was no substantive change intended, at least. However, I think it is admitted now that there was a substantive change.

I think that at this stage in our deliberations it is very unwise to start in making amendments unless we are sure that we know what we are doing. This particular section was considered by the committee and it appears now that we have 2 individuals who want to rewrite this section. The purpose I don't know or what their intent is but, as far as I am concerned, I am willing to accept the section as it came from the committee, as it was adopted by this convention, as it came back to us from style and drafting. I think it is very unwise for this convention to start amending sections unless we are sure we know what we are doing. I urge a no vote on the amendment.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Hanna, just for 30 seconds.

MR. W. F. HANNA: I'll sit down.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: No, go ahead. The question is upon the adoption of the revised amendment offered by Mr. William F. Hanna and Mr. Arthur Elliott, which has been read. All those in favor will say aye. Opposed no.

The amendment is not adopted.

DELEGATES: Division.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Division is called for. Is the demand for division supported? The demand is supported. A sufficient number up. All those in favor of the amendment will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the total.

SECRETARY CHASE: On the adoption of the amendment offered by Messrs. W. F. Hanna and A. G. Elliott, the yeas are 26; the nays are 88.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: The amendment is not adopted. Are there any further amendments? The question is upon the passage of article VII, local government.

MR. ALLEN: Mr. President.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Allen.

MR. ALLEN: I don't have an amendment but, if I could make a suggestion or a comment, I notice in the way we have set it up in the third reading, we start with an index and I assume that index will not be kept the same, particularly because it refers to committee proposals, but there are 2 sections that are very related: one is our old Committee Proposal 88, which is intergovernmental agreements as far as they apply within the state. And then there is the one that came out of emerging problems, which was 128. Now 128, as style and drafting has set it up, is now in article III under general government and I think this is all right, but the caption given it in the index is "intergovernmental agreements;" whereas, the very similar one which we have in local government is given a different caption. I think it is called "intrastate cooperation."

I just wanted to make this suggestion and I don't know where the suggestion would go — probably to style and drafting, but each should be entitled the same but one of them is interstate and the other is intrastate. They each could be called "intergovernmental cooperation" or they each could be called "agreements," but I think if we keep the titles which we have now it could cause some confusion. And I just make this as a suggestion.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, there are no further amendments, as I understand it?

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: There are none.

MR. VAN DUSEN: I would move to limit further debate on this article to 5 minutes.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: On the motion to limit debate upon the article to 5 minutes, all those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The motion prevails. The Chair recognizes Mr. Cudlip.

MR. CUDLIP: Mr. President and members, I rise just for the purpose of saying that these section captions in this brochure before you are not a part of the constitution. They are put in there for your convenience. The constitution as proposed will have article numbers and captions like judicial branch, executive branch, nothing else, and the schedule will not even bear a caption or an article number. These are purely for your convenience and if anybody puts them in future reprints of this document — if it is enacted or adopted by the people — it will be an editor, West Publishing or Callahan or somebody in the secretary of state's office, as in the present case. Thank you.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Downs.

MR. DOWNS: Mr. President and fellow delegates, I did not put any amendments in on this because this had been done in committee of the whole and on second reading. In committee of the whole we did try to get certain standards for county home rule which did not pass and then in the second reading many delegates — and I was one of those — went all out for pure home rule.

I now rise in opposition to this article, urge a no vote, and want the delegates to know what the reasoning is, whether or not they individually or collectively agree. This provision now is that, "Any county may frame, adopt, amend or repeal a county charter in a manner and with powers and limitations to be provided by general law. . . ." What I had urged in committee of the whole was that we assure that every county have partisan government. This was lost and then I supported the pure home rule concept, which would provide that any county could have either partisan or nonpartisan government, as the next best thing. This is the third best thing. My concern — and I feel it is a real one — is that by using the term "by general law" with the type of legislature we have created that there will be a classification so counties over a million, which include the one in which I reside, may end up with nonpartisan government and counties under a million may end up with the requirement of partisan government. I think this is a double standard that is, possibly, almost written into this. I think it is an unsound approach and there should be a single standard. I would take a different attitude if we had a legislature with equal representation for urban areas.

I regret that we did not improve the basic structure of the board of supervisors providing for election or providing for more equal representation therein.

I believe that in our other provisions here that we set up a double standard on cities or villages acquiring utilities where it takes 3/5 to buy and only a simple majority to reject.

Time and again through this article — such as section 27 — when we provide for metropolitan government, we use the term "the legislature may establish." I suppose the delegates are as tired of hearing as I am of saying that the concern here is that when we say "legislature may establish" — and I am greatly concerned — that this is almost meaningless when it comes to meeting the needs of those of us from industrial, urban areas with the type of legislative makeup we have. I therefore urge a no vote and hope that there will be a substitute before we complete third reading, which will permit a more responsive, more responsible type of government and hope then that the delegates will be able to support a more positive substitute. Thank you.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. King.

MR. KING: Mr. President and fellow delegates, I should like to comment on this section in general, but before I do that I would like to point out to Mr. Allen and for the benefit of the record that Committee Proposal 128 deals with both intrastate and interstate governmental relations and I don't know that Mr. Allen was completely aware of that, but I should want the record to clearly reflect that fact.

I find myself, like Mr. Downs, dissatisfied and unhappy that we were not able to provide for the election of supervisors. I am also disappointed that we were not able to achieve what I considered to be essential: that is, pure home rule. However, I would point out to this delegation, and to Mr. Downs in particular, that the phrase "democratic process" is spelled with a small "d," and as such, I think it is absolutely essential that we all be prepared to win on some points and to lose on others. By and large, this is an excellent article and I support it.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Time for debate has expired. The question is upon the passage of the article, article VII, local government. All those in favor of the article will vote aye. All those opposed —

MR. BINKOWSKI: Mr. President.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Mr. Binkowski.

MR. BINKOWSKI: I would like to announce my intention to abstain.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: All those in favor will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Mr. Binkowski abstains. Have you all voted? If so, the secretary will lock the machine and record the vote.

The roll was called and the delegates voted as follows:

SECRETARY CHASE: On the passage of article VII, the yeas are 92; the nays are 26.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: A majority of the delegates elect having voted in favor thereof, article VII on local government is passed.

For article VII as passed, see above, page 3063.

Following is explanation of vote submitted by Mr. Finch:

I voted no on article VII because I object to a portion of section 21. I believe that cities and villages should not be able to impose a payroll tax or an income tax on nonresidents.

Following is explanation of vote submitted by Messrs. Hodges, Baginski, Madar, Buback, Downs, Ford, Jones and Miss Hart:

We voted no on article VII — local government, for several reasons.

The provision of county home rule provides that counties could have home rule only if authorized by the legislature. We are very concerned that the legislature, not based on population, would set a double standard of home rule — one for large urban counties and another for smaller, nonurban counties. We believe this double standard would frustrate effective home rule and regret that principles for standards of home rule were turned down in committee of the whole and on second reading. Self executing provisions to provide the people of a county the possibility of developing home rule independently of the legislature were also rejected.

The boards of supervisors throughout the counties in Michigan need strengthening. Unfortunately county boards of supervisors presently are selected on a basis that is not truly representative of people and violates the concept of equality of representation. We believe that local government can be strengthened effectively by strengthening county boards of supervisors through an elective process that assures equality of representation on a responsible basis.

Section 25 sets up a double standard for cities and villages in acquiring public utilities by requiring a 3/5 vote to obtain public utilities and permitting them to be sold by only a simple majority.

The creation of metropolitan areas so vital to a growing industrial economy is hamstrung by making it contingent upon the actions of a legislature that does not truly represent people. We therefore voted no on article VII and hope that the convention will take more positive action before we complete the third reading.

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON (continuing): The secretary will read article VIII, education.

SECRETARY CHASE: Article VIII:

[Article VIII, sections 1 through 9, was read by the secretary. For text, see above, page 3085.]

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Article VIII has been read a third time.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. Cudlip, on behalf of the committee on style and drafting, requests that the following corrections be made in article VIII of the proposed revision of the constitution:

sec-	col-	tion	umn	line	Corrections
3	2	45			After "institutions" insert "of higher education".
3	2	46-7			After "DEGREES" insert a comma and delete "[of higher education].".

VICE PRESIDENT HUTCHINSON: Without objection it is so ordered. [Corrections made above.] The question is upon the passage of the article. The secretary will report an amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: Miss Hart, Messrs. Faxon, Barthwell, T. S. Brown, Follo and Douglas offer the following amendment:

Explanation—Matter within [] is stricken, matter in capitals is new.

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Michigan, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of freedom, and earnestly desiring to secure these blessings undiminished to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution.

Article I

Declaration of Rights

Sec. 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal benefit, security and protection.

Sec. 2. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws; nor shall any person be denied the enjoyment of his civil or political rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of religion, race, color or national origin. The legislature shall implement this section by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Sec. 4. Every person shall be at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, or, against his consent, to contribute to the erection or support of any place of religious worship, or to pay tithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any minister of the gospel or teacher of religion. No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society, theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the state be appropriated for any such purpose. The civil and political rights, privileges and capacities of no person shall be diminished or enlarged on account of his religious belief.

Sec. 5. Every person may freely speak, write, express and publish his views on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of such right; and no law shall be enacted to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.

Sec. 6. Every person has a right to keep and bear arms for the defense of himself and the state.

Sec. 7. The military shall in all cases and at all times be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Sec. 8. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner or occupant, nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. Neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this state.

Sec. 10. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law or law impairing the obligation of contract shall be enacted.

Sec. 11. The person, houses, papers and possessions of every person shall be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any criminal proceeding any narcotic drug, firearm, bomb, explosive or any other dangerous weapon, seized by a peace officer outside the curtilage of any dwelling house in this state.

Sec. 12. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

Sec. 13. A suitor in any court of this state has the right to prosecute or defend his suit,

1 either in his own proper person or by an attorney.

2 Sec. 14. The right of trial by jury shall re-
3 main, but shall be waived in all civil cases un-
4 less demanded by one of the parties in the man-
5 ner prescribed by law. In all civil cases tried by 6 12 jurors a verdict shall be received when 10
7 jurors agree.

8 Sec. 15. No person shall be subject for the 9 same offense to be twice put in jeopardy. All 10 persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by 11 sufficient sureties, except for murder and treason
12 when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

13 Sec. 16. Excessive bail shall not be required;
14 excessive fines shall not be imposed; cruel or un-15 usual punishment shall not be inflicted; nor shall 16 witnesses be unreasonably detained.

17 Sec. 17. No person shall be compelled in any 18 criminal case to be a witness against himself, 19 nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without 20 due process of law. The right of all individuals, 21 firms, corporations and voluntary associations to 22 fair and just treatment in the course of legislative 23 and executive investigations and hearings shall 24 not be infringed.

25 Sec. 18. No person shall be rendered incom-
26 petent to be a witness on account of his opinions
27 on matters of religious belief.

28 Sec. 19. In all prosecutions for libels the truth
29 may be given in evidence to the jury; and, if it 30 appears to the jury that the matter charged as 31 libelous is true and was published with good mo-32 tives and for justifiable ends, the accused shall 33 be acquitted.

34 Sec. 20. In every criminal prosecution, the ac-
35 cused shall have the right to a speedy and public 36 trial by an impartial jury, which may consist of 37 less than 12 jurors in all courts not of record;
38 to be informed of the nature of the accusation;
39 to be confronted with the witnesses against him;
40 to have compulsory process for obtaining wit-41 nesses in his favor; to have the assistance of 42 counsel for his defense; to have an appeal as a 43 matter of right; and in courts of record, when 44 the trial court so orders, to have such reason-
45 able assistance as may be necessary to perfect
46 and prosecute an appeal.

47 Sec. 21. No person shall be imprisoned for debt
48 arising out of or founded on contract, express 49 or implied, except in cases of fraud or breach of 50 trust.

51 Sec. 22. Treason against the state shall con-
52 sist only in levying war against it or in adhering
53 to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No
54 person shall be convicted of treason unless upon 55 the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt 56 act or on confession in open court.

57 Sec. 23. The enumeration in this constitution of 58 certain rights shall not be construed to deny or 59 disparage others retained by the people.

Article II Elections

1 Sec. 1. Every citizen of the United States who 2 has attained the age of 21 years, who has resided 3 in this state six months, and who meets the 4 requirements of local residence provided by law,
5 shall be an elector and qualified to vote in any 6 election except as otherwise provided in this con-
7 stitution. The legislature shall define residence
8 for voting purposes.

9 Sec. 2. The legislature may by law exclude
10 persons from voting because of mental incompe-11 tence or commitment to a jail or penal institution.

12 Sec. 3. For purposes of voting in the election 13 for president and vice-president of the United 14 States only, the legislature may by law establish 15 lesser residence requirements for citizens who 16 have resided in this state for less than six months
17 and may waive residence requirements for former 18 citizens of this state who have removed here-19 from. The legislature shall not permit voting by 20 any person who meets the voting residence re-21 quirements of the state to which he has removed.

22 Sec. 4. The legislature shall enact laws to 23 regulate the time, place and manner of all nom-
24 inations and elections, except as otherwise pro-
25 vided in this constitution or in the constitution
26 and laws of the United States. The legislature
27 shall enact laws to preserve the purity of elec-
28 tions, to preserve the secrecy of the ballot, to
29 guard against abuses of the elective franchise,
30 and to provide for a system of voter registration
31 and absentee voting. No law shall be enacted
32 which permits a candidate in any partisan pri-
33 mary or partisan election to have a ballot desig-
34 nation except when required for identification 35 of candidates for the same office who have the 36 same or similar surnames.

37 Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill va-
38 cancies, or as otherwise provided in this consti-
39 tution, all elections for national, state, county
40 and township offices shall be held on the first 41 Tuesday after the first Monday in November in 42 each even-numbered year or on such other date
43 as members of the congress of the United States
44 are regularly elected.

45 Sec. 6. Whenever any question is required to 46 be submitted by a political subdivision to the 47 electors which involves the increase of any ad
48 valorem tax rate limitation for a period of more
49 than five years, or the issue of bonds, only elec-50 tors in, and who have property assessed for any 51 ad valorem taxes in, any part of the district or 52 territory to be affected by the result of such 53 election or electors who are the lawful husbands 54 or wives of such persons shall be entitled to 55 vote thereon. All electors in the district or terri-56 tory affected may vote on all other questions.

57 Sec. 7. A board of state canvassers of four members shall be established by law. No candidate for an office to be canvassed nor any inspector of elections shall be eligible to serve as a member of a board of canvassers. A majority of any board of canvassers shall not be composed of members of the same political party.

Sec. 8. Laws shall be enacted to provide for the recall of all elective officers except judges of courts of record upon petition of electors equal in number to 25 percent of the number of persons voting in the last preceding election for the office of governor in the electoral district of the officer sought to be recalled. The sufficiency of any statement of reasons or grounds procedurally required shall be a political rather than a judicial question.

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds and must be invoked in the manner prescribed by law within 90 days following the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the law was enacted. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of registered electors, not less than eight percent for initiative and five percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected shall be required.

No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided.

If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next general election.

Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by a vote of the electors or three-fourths of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The legislature shall implement the provisions of this section.

Article III

General Government

Sec. 1. The seat of government shall be at Lansing.

Sec. 2. The powers of government are divided into three branches: legislative, executive and judicial. No person exercising powers of one branch shall exercise powers properly belonging to another branch except as expressly provided in this constitution.

Sec. 3. There shall be a great seal of the State of Michigan and its use shall be provided by law.

Sec. 4. The militia shall be organized, equipped and disciplined as provided by law.

Sec. 5. Subject to provisions of general law, this state or any political subdivision, any governmental authority or any combination thereof may enter into agreements for the performance, financing or execution of their respective functions, with any one or more of the other states, the United States, the Dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision thereof unless otherwise provided in this constitution. Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or of any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service. The legislature may impose such restrictions, limitations or conditions on such service as it may deem appropriate.

Sec. 6. The state shall not be a party to, nor be financially interested in, any work of internal improvement, nor engage in carrying on any such work, except for public internal improvements provided by law.

Sec. 7. The common law and the statute laws now in force, not repugnant to this constitution, shall remain in force until they expire by their own limitations, or are changed, amended or repealed.

Sec. 8. Either house of the legislature or the governor may request the opinion of the supreme court on important questions of law upon solemn occasions as to the constitutionality of legislation after it has been enacted into law but before its effective date.

Article IV Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members to be elected from single member districts at the same election as the governor for four-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned an apportionment factor equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent multiplied by four and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties is entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there is a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to two or more senate districts shall be divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for two-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as provided in this article. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as provided in this section shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to two or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined, if provided by ordinance of the city. The district or districts with which the territory shall be combined shall be determined by such ordinance certified to the secretary of state. No such change in the boundaries of a representative or senatorial district shall have the effect of removing a legislator from office during his term.

Sec. 5. Island areas are considered to be contiguous by land to the county of which they are a part.

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of eight persons, four of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the two political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election at which a governor was elected preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, four of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One member of the commission shall be selected by each political party organization from each of the following four regions: (1) The upper peninsula; (2) The northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Nwaygo and Oceana; (3) Southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) Southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

No officers or employees of the federal, state or local governments, excepting notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, shall be eligible for membership on the commission. Members of the commission shall not be eligible for election to the legislature until two years after the apportionment in which they participated becomes effective.

The commission shall be appointed immediately after the adoption of this constitution and whenever apportionment or districting of the legislature is required by the provisions of this constitution. Members of the commission shall hold office until each apportionment or districting plan becomes effective. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as for original appointment.

The secretary of state shall be secretary of the commission without vote, and in that capacity shall furnish, under the direction of the commission, all necessary technical services. The commission shall elect its own chairman, shall make its own rules of procedure, and shall receive compensation provided by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its activities.

Within 30 days after the adoption of this constitution, and after the official total population count of each federal decennial census of the state and its political subdivisions is available, the secretary of state shall issue a call convening the commission not less than 30 nor more than 45 days thereafter. The commission shall complete its work within 180 days after all necessary census information is available. The commission shall proceed to district and apportion the senate and house of representatives according to the provisions of this constitution. All final decisions shall require the concurrence of a majority of the members of the commission. The commission shall hold public hearings as may be provided by law.

Each final apportionment and districting plan shall be published as provided by law within 30 days from the date of its adoption and shall become law 60 days after publication. The secretary of state shall keep a public record of all the proceedings of the commission and shall be responsible for the publication and distribution of each plan.

If a majority of the commission cannot agree on a plan, each member of the commission, individually or jointly with other members, may submit a proposed plan to the supreme court. The supreme court shall determine which plan complies most accurately with the constitutional requirements and shall direct that it be adopted by the commission and published as provided in this section.

Upon the application of any elector filed not later than 60 days after final publication of the plan, the supreme court, in the exercise of original jurisdiction, shall direct the secretary of state or the apportionment commission to perform their duties, may review any final plan adopted by the commission, and shall remand such plan to the commission for further action if it fails to comply with the requirements of this constitution.

Sec. 7. Each senator and representative must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and an elector of the district he represents. The removal of his domicile from the district shall be deemed a vacation of the office. No person who has been convicted of subversion or who has within the preceding 20 years been convicted of a felony involving a breach of public trust shall be eligible for either house of the legislature.

Sec. 8. No person holding any office under the United States or this state or a political subdivision thereof, except notaries public and officers of the armed forces reserve, may be a member of either house of the legislature.

Sec. 9. No person elected to the legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this

1 state from the governor, except notaries public,
2 from the legislature, or from any other state
3 authority, during the term for which he is elected.

4 Sec. 10. No member of the legislature nor any 5 state officer shall be interested directly or in-6 directly in any contract with the state or any 7 political subdivision thereof which shall cause a
8 substantial conflict of interest. The legislature
9 shall further implement this provision by appro-
10 priate legislation.

11 Sec. 11. Senators and representatives shall be 12 privileged from civil arrest and civil process dur-
13 ing sessions of the legislature and for five days 14 next before the commencement and after the 15 termination thereof. They shall not be ques-
16 tioned in any other place for any speech in either
17 house.

18 Sec. 12. The compensation and expense al-19 lowances of the members of the legislature shall 20 be determined by law. Changes in compensation
21 or expense allowances shall become effective only 22 when legislators commence their terms of office
23 after a general election.

24 Sec. 13. The legislature shall meet at the seat
25 of government on the second Wednesday in Janu-
26 ary of each year at twelve o'clock noon. Each 27 regular session shall adjourn without day, on a 28 day determined by concurrent resolution, at 29 twelve o'clock noon. Any business, bill or joint 30 resolution pending at the final adjournment of 31 a regular session held in an odd numbered year 32 shall carry over with the same status to the 33 next regular session.

34 Sec. 14. A majority of the members elected
35 to and serving in each house shall constitute a 36 quorum to do business. A smaller number in 37 each house may adjourn from day to day, and 38 may compel the attendance of absent members in 39 the manner and with penalties as each house may 40 prescribe.

41 Sec. 15. There shall be a bi-partisan legisla-42 tive council consisting of legislators appointed in 43 the manner prescribed by law. The legislature
44 shall appropriate funds for the council's opera-45 tions and provide for its staff which shall main-
46 tain bill drafting, research and other services
47 for the members of the legislature. The council 48 shall periodically examine and recommend to the 49 legislature revision of the various laws of the 50 state.

51 Sec. 16. Each house, except as otherwise pro-
52 vided in this constitution, shall choose its own
53 officers and determine the rules of its proceedings,
54 but shall not adopt any rule that will prevent a 55 majority of the members elected thereto and 56 serving therein from discharging a committee
57 from the further consideration of any measure.
58 Each house shall be the sole judge of the quali-
59 fications, elections and returns of its members, 60 and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of

1 all the members elected thereto and serving
2 therein, expel a member. The reasons for such 3 expulsion shall be entered in the journal, with 4 the votes and names of the members voting upon
5 the question. No member shall be expelled a
6 second time for the same cause.

7 Sec. 17. Each house of the legislature may
8 establish the committees necessary for the effi-
9 cient conduct of its business and the legislature
10 may create joint committees. Each committee
11 shall by roll call vote record the vote and name 12 of all action on bills and resolutions taken in 13 the committee. Such vote shall be available for 14 public inspection. Notice of all committee hear-
15 ings and a clear statement of all subjects to be 16 considered at each hearing shall be published in
17 the journal in advance of the hearing.

18 Sec. 18. Each house shall keep a journal of 19 its proceedings, and publish the same unless the 20 public security otherwise requires. The record
21 of the vote and name of the members of either 22 house voting on any question shall be entered 23 in the journal at the request of one-fifth of the 24 members present. Any member of either house
25 may dissent from and protest against any act,
26 proceeding or resolution which he deems injuri-27 ous to any person or the public, and have the 28 reason for his dissent entered in the journal.

29 Sec. 19. All elections in either house or in 30 joint convention and all votes on appointments
31 submitted to the senate for advice and consent
32 shall be published by vote and name in the journal.

33 Sec. 20. The doors of each house shall be open
34 unless the public security otherwise requires.

35 Sec. 21. Neither house shall, without the con-
36 sent of the other, adjourn for more than two 37 intervening calendar days, nor to any place other 38 than where the legislature may then be in session.

39 Sec. 22. All legislation shall be by bill and 40 may originate in either house.

41 Sec. 23. The style of the laws shall be: The 42 People of the State of Michigan enact.

43 Sec. 24. No law shall embrace more than one
44 object, which shall be expressed in its title. No
45 bill shall be altered or amended on its passage
46 through either house so as to change its original
47 purpose as determined by its total content and
48 not alone by its title.

49 Sec. 25. No law shall be revised, altered or
50 amended by reference to its title only. The section
51 or sections of the act altered or amended shall
52 be re-enacted and published at length.

53 Sec. 26. No bill shall be passed or become a 54 law at any regular session of the legislature until
55 it has been printed or reproduced and in the pos-56 session of each house for at least five days. Every 57 bill shall be read three times in each house be-58 fore the final passage thereof. No bill shall be-59 come a law without the concurrence of a majority 60 of the members elected to and serving in each house. On the final passage of bills, the votes and names of the members voting thereon shall be entered in the journal.

Sec. 27. No act shall take effect until the expiration of 90 days from the end of the session at which it was passed, but the legislature may give immediate effect to acts by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 28. When the legislature is convened on extraordinary occasions in special session no bill shall be passed on any subjects other than those expressly stated in the governor's proclamation or submitted by special message.

Sec. 29. The legislature shall pass no local or special act in any case where a general act can be made applicable, and whether a general act can be made applicable shall be a judicial question. No local or special act shall take effect until approved by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house and by a majority of the electors voting thereon in the district affected. Any act repealing local or special acts shall require only a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house and shall not require submission to the electors of such district.

Sec. 30. The assent of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature shall be required for the appropriation of public money or property for local or private purposes.

Sec. 31. The general appropriation bills for the succeeding fiscal period covering items set forth in the budget shall be passed or rejected in either house of the legislature before that house passes any appropriation bill for items not in the budget except bills supplementing appropriations for the current fiscal year's operation. Any bill requiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of the general appropriation bills as passed by the legislature shall contain an itemized statement of estimated revenue by major source in each operating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total of which shall not be less than the total of all appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

Sec. 32. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax.

Sec. 33. Every bill passed by the legislature shall be presented to the governor before it becomes law, and the governor shall have 14 days measured in hours and minutes from the time of presentation in which to consider it. If he approves, he shall within that time sign and file it with the secretary of state and it shall become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature has within that time finally adjourned the session at which the bill was passed, it shall not become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature continues the session at which the bill was passed, he shall return it within such 14-day period with his objections, to the house in which it originated. That house shall enter such objections in full in its journal and reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house. The vote of each house shall be entered in the journal with the votes and names of the members voting thereon. If any bill is not returned by the governor within such 14-day period, the legislature continuing in session, it shall become law as if he had signed it.

Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except a bill appropriating money, may provide that it will not become law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Sec. 35. All laws enacted at any session of the legislature shall be published in book form within 60 days after final adjournment of the session, and shall be distributed in the manner provided by law. The prompt publication of judicial decisions shall be provided by law. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Sec. 36. No general revision of the laws shall be made. The legislature may provide for a compilation of the laws in force, arranged without alteration, under appropriate heads and titles.

Sec. 37. The legislature may by concurrent resolution empower a joint committee of the legislature acting between sessions to suspend until the end of the next regular legislative session any rule or regulation of an administrative agency promulgated when the legislature is not in regular session.

Sec. 38. The legislature may provide by law the cases in which any office shall be vacant and the manner of filling vacancies where no provision is made in this constitution.

Sec. 39. In order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency only, resulting from disasters occurring in this state caused by enemy attack on the United States, the legislature may provide by law for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices; and enact other laws necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations. Notwithstanding the power conferred by this section, elections shall always be called as soon as possible to fill any vacancies in elective offices temporarily occupied by operation of any legislation enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. The legislature may by law establish a liquor control commission which, subject to statutory limitations, shall exercise complete control of the alcoholic beverage traffic within this state, including the retail sales thereof. The legislature may provide for an excise tax on such sales. Neither the legislature nor the commission may authorize the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages in any county in which a majority of the electors voting thereon shall prohibit the same.

Sec. 41. The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets.

Sec. 42. The legislature may provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts, and confer power and authority upon them to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

Sec. 43. No general law providing for the incorporation of trust companies or corporations for banking purposes, or regulating the business thereof, shall be enacted, amended or repealed except by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 44. The legislature may authorize a trial by a jury of less than 12 jurors in civil cases.

Sec. 45. The legislature may provide for indeterminate sentences as punishment for crime and for the detention and release of persons imprisoned or detained under such sentences.

Sec. 46. No law shall be enacted providing for the penalty of death.

Sec. 47. The legislature may authorize the employment of chaplains in state institutions of detention or confinement.

Sec. 48. The legislature may enact laws providing for the resolution of disputes concerning public employees, except those in the state classified civil service.

Sec. 49. The legislature may enact laws relative to the hours and conditions of employment.

Sec. 50. The legislature may provide safety measures and regulate the use of atomic energy and forms of energy developed in the future, having in view the general welfare of the people of this state.

Sec. 51. The public health and general welfare of the people of the state are hereby declared to be matters of primary public concern. The legislature shall pass suitable laws for the protection and promotion of the public health.

Sec. 52. The conservation and development of the natural resources of the state are hereby declared to be of paramount public concern in the interest of the health, safety and general welfare of the people. The legislature shall provide for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment and destruction.

Sec. 53. The legislature by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, shall appoint an auditor general, who shall be a certified public accountant licensed to practice in this state, to serve for a term of eight years. He shall be ineligible for appointment or election to any other public office in this state from which compensation is derived while serving as auditor general and for two years following the termination of his service. He may be removed for cause at any time by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house. The auditor general shall conduct post audits of financial transactions and accounts of the state and of all branches, departments, offices, boards, commissions, agencies, authorities and institutions of the state established by this constitution or by law, and performance post audits thereof.

The auditor general upon direction by the legislature may employ independent accounting firms or legal counsel and may make investigations pertinent to the conduct of audits. He shall report annually to the legislature and to the governor and at such other times as he deems necessary or as required by the legislature. He shall be assigned no duties other than those specified in this section.

Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to infringe the responsibility and constitutional authority of the governing boards of the institutions of higher education to be solely responsible for the control and direction of all expenditures from the institutions' funds.

The auditor general, his deputy and one other member of his staff shall be exempt from classified civil service. All other members of his staff shall have classified civil service status.

Article V

Executive Branch

Sec. 1. The executive power is vested in the governor.

Sec. 2. All executive and administrative offices, agencies and instrumentalities of the executive branch of state government and their respective functions, powers and duties, except for the office of governor and lieutenant governor and the governing bodies of institutions of higher education provided for in this constitution, shall be allocated by law among and within not more than 20 principal departments. They shall be grouped as far as practicable according to major purposes.

Subsequent to the initial allocation, the governor may make changes in the organization of the executive branch or in the assignment of functions among its units which he considers necessary for efficient administration. Where these changes require the force of law, they shall be set forth in executive orders and submitted to the legislature. Thereafter the legislature shall have 60 calendar days of a regular session, or a full session if of shorter duration, to disapprove each executive order. Unless disapproved in both houses by a resolution concurred in by a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house, each order shall become effective at a date thereafter to be designated by the governor.

Sec. 3. The head of each principal department shall be a single executive unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law. The single executives heading principal departments shall include a secretary of state, a state treasurer and an attorney general. When a single executive is the head of a principal department, unless elected or appointed as otherwise provided in this constitution, he shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate and he shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

When a board or commission is at the head of a principal department, unless elected or appointed as otherwise provided in this constitution, the members thereof shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The term of office and procedure for removal of such members shall be as prescribed in this constitution or by law.

Terms of office of any board or commission created or enlarged after the effective date of this constitution shall not exceed four years except as otherwise authorized in this constitution. The terms of office of existing boards and commissions which are longer than four years shall not be further extended except as provided in this constitution.

Sec. 4. Temporary commissions or agencies for special purposes with a life of no more than two years may be established by law and need not be allocated within a principal department.

Sec. 5. At no time shall an examining or licensing board of a profession include less than a majority of members of that profession.

Sec. 6. Appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate when used in this constitution or laws in effect or hereafter enacted means appointment subject to disapproval by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in the senate if such action is taken within 60 session days after the date of such appointment. Any appointment not disapproved within such period shall stand confirmed.

Sec. 7. Vacancies in any office, appointment to which requires advice and consent of the senate, shall be filled by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. A person whose appointment has been disapproved by the senate shall not be eligible for an interim appointment to the same office.

Sec. 8. Each principal department shall be under the supervision of the governor unless otherwise provided by this constitution. The governor shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government and may require information in writing from all executive and administrative state officers, elective and appointive, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

The governor may initiate court proceedings in the name of the state to enforce compliance with any constitutional or legislative mandate, or to restrain violations of any constitutional or legislative power, duty or right by any officer, department or agency of the state or any of its political subdivisions. This authority shall not be construed to authorize court proceedings against the legislature.

Sec. 9. Single executives heading principal departments and the chief executive officers of principal departments headed by boards or commissions shall keep their offices at the seat of government except as otherwise provided by law, superintend them in person and perform duties prescribed by law.

Sec. 10. The governor shall have power and it shall be his duty to inquire into the condition and administration of any public office and the acts of any public officer, elective or appointive. He may remove or suspend from office for gross neglect of duty or for corrupt conduct in office, or for any other misfeasance or malfeasance therein, any elective or appointive state officer, except legislative or judicial, and shall report the reasons for such removal or suspension to the legislature.

Sec. 11. The governor may make a provisional appointment to fill a vacancy occasioned by the suspension of an appointed or elected officer, other than a legislative or judicial officer, until he is reinstated or until the vacancy is filled in the manner prescribed by law or this constitution.

Sec. 12. The governor shall be commander-in-chief of the armed forces and may call them out to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion.

Sec. 13. The governor shall issue writs of election to fill vacancies in the senate or house of representatives. Any such election shall be held in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 14. The governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after convictions for all offenses, except cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and limitations as he may direct, subject to procedures and regulations prescribed by law. He shall inform the legislature annually of each reprieve, commutation and pardon granted, stating reasons therefor.

Sec. 15. The governor may convene the legislature on extraordinary occasions.

Sec. 16. The governor may convene the legislature at some other place when the seat of government becomes dangerous from any cause.

Sec. 17. The governor shall communicate by message to the legislature at the beginning of each session and may at other times present to the legislature information as to the affairs of the state and recommend measures he considers necessary or desirable.

Sec. 18. The governor shall submit to the legislature at a time fixed by law, a budget for the ensuing fiscal period setting forth in detail, for all operating funds, the proposed expenditures and estimated revenue of the state. Proposed expenditures from any fund shall not exceed the estimated revenue thereof. On the same date, the governor shall submit to the legislature general appropriation bills to embody the proposed expenditures and any necessary bill or bills to provide new or additional revenues to meet proposed expenditures. The amount of any surplus created or deficit incurred in any fund during the last preceding fiscal period shall be entered as an item in the budget and in one of the appropriation bills. The governor may submit amendments to appropriation bills to be offered in either house during consideration of the bill by that house, and shall submit any bills to meet deficiencies in current appropriations.

Sec. 19. The governor may disapprove any distinct item or items appropriating moneys in any appropriation bill. The part or parts approved shall become law, and the item or items disapproved shall be void unless re-passed according to the method prescribed for the passage of other bills over the executive veto.

Sec. 20. No appropriation shall be a mandate to spend. The governor, with the approval of the appropriating committees of the house and senate, shall reduce expenditures authorized by appropriations whenever it appears that actual revenues for a fiscal period will fall below the revenue estimates on which appropriations for that period were based. Reductions in expenditures shall be made in accordance with procedures prescribed by law. The governor may not reduce expenditures of the legislative and judicial branches or from funds constitutionally dedicated for specific purposes.

Sec. 21. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall be elected for four-year terms at the general election in each alternate even-numbered year.

The lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall be nominated by party conventions in a manner prescribed by law. In the general election one vote shall be cast jointly for the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor nominated by the same party.

Vacancies in the office of the secretary of state and attorney general shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

Sec. 22. To be eligible for the office of governor or lieutenant governor a person must have attained the age of 30 years, and have been a registered elector in this state for four years next preceding his election.

Sec. 23. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall each receive the compensation provided by law in full payment for all services performed and expenses incurred during his term of office. Such compensation shall not be changed during the term of office except as otherwise provided in this constitution.

Sec. 24. An executive residence suitably furnished shall be provided at the seat of government for the use of the governor. He shall receive an allowance for its maintenance as provided by law.

Sec. 25. The lieutenant governor shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote except in case of equal division. He may perform duties requested of him by the governor, but no power vested in the governor shall be delegated.

Sec. 26. In case of the conviction of the governor on impeachment, his removal from office, his resignation or his death, the lieutenant governor, the elected secretary of state, the elected attorney general and such other persons designated by law shall in that order be governor for the remainder of the governor's term.

In case of the death of the governor-elect, the lieutenant governor-elect, the secretary of state-elect, the attorney general-elect and such other persons designated by law shall become governor in that order at the commencement of the governor-elect's term.

If the governor or the person in line of succession to serve as governor is absent from the state, or suffering under an inability, the powers and duties of the office of governor shall devolve in order of precedence until the absence or inability giving rise to the devolution of powers ceases.

The inability of the governor or person acting as governor shall be determined by a majority of the supreme court on joint request of the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. Such determination shall be final and conclusive. The supreme court shall upon its own initiative determine if and when the inability ceases.

Sec. 27. The legislature shall provide that the salary of any state officer while acting as governor shall be equal to that of the governor.

Sec. 28. There is hereby established a state highway commission, which shall administer the state highway department and have jurisdiction and control over all state trunkline highways and appurtenant facilities, and such other public works of the state, as provided by law.

The state highway commission shall consist of four members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. They shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate for four-year terms, no two of which shall expire in the same year as provided by law.

The state highway commission shall appoint and may remove a state highway director, who shall be a competent highway engineer and administrator. He shall be the principal executive officer of the state highway department and shall be responsible for executing the policy of the state highway commission.

Sec. 29. There is hereby established a civil rights commission which shall consist of eight persons, not more than four of whom shall be members of the same political party, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for four-year terms not more than two of which shall expire in the same year. It shall be the duty of the commission in a manner which may be prescribed by law to investigate alleged discrimination against any person because of religion, race, color or national origin in the enjoyment of the civil rights guaranteed by law and by this constitution, and to secure the equal protection of such civil rights without such discrimination. The legislature shall provide an annual appropriation for the effective operation of the commission.

The commission shall have power, in accordance with the provisions of this constitution and of general laws governing administrative agencies, to promulgate rules and regulations for its own procedures, to hold hearings, administer oaths, through court authorization to require the attendance of witnesses and the submission of records, to take testimony, and to issue appropriate orders. The commission shall have other powers provided by law to carry out its purposes. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to diminish the right of any party to direct and immediate legal or equitable remedies in the courts of this state.

Appeals from final orders of the commission, including cease and desist orders and refusals to issue complaints, shall be tried de novo before the circuit court having jurisdiction provided by law.

Article VI Judicial Branch

Sec. 1. The judicial power of the state is vested exclusively in one court of justice which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, one trial court of general jurisdiction known as the circuit court, one probate court, and other courts of limited jurisdiction that the legislature may establish by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall consist of seven justices elected at non-partisan elections as provided by law. The term of office shall be eight years and not more than two terms of office shall expire at the same time. Nominations for justices of the supreme court shall be in the manner prescribed by law. Any incumbent justice whose term is to expire may become a candidate for re-election by filing an affidavit of candidacy, in the form and manner prescribed by law, not less than 180 days prior to the expiration of his term.

Sec. 3. One justice of the supreme court shall be selected by the court as its chief justice as provided by rules of the court. He shall perform other duties required by the court. The supreme court shall appoint an administrator of the courts and other assistants of the supreme court as may be necessary to aid in the administration of the courts of this state. The administrator shall perform administrative duties assigned by the court.

Sec. 4. The supreme court shall have general superintending control over all courts; power to issue, hear, and determine prerogative and remedial writs; and appellate jurisdiction as provided by rules of the supreme court. The supreme court shall not have the power to remove a judge.

Sec. 5. The supreme court shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state. The distinctions between law and equity proceedings shall, as far as practicable, be abolished. The office of master in chancery is prohibited.

Sec. 6. Decisions of the supreme court, including all decisions on prerogative writs, shall be in writing and shall contain a concise statement of the facts and reasons for each decision and reasons for each denial of leave to appeal. When a judge dissents in whole or in part he shall give in writing the reasons for his dissent.

Sec. 7. The supreme court may appoint, may remove, and shall have general supervision of its staff. It shall have control of the preparation of its budget recommendations and the expenditure of moneys appropriated for any purpose pertaining to the operation of the court or the performance of activities of its staff except that the salaries of the justices shall be established by law. All fees and perquisites collected by the court staff shall be turned over to the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 8. The court of appeals shall consist initially of nine judges who shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines and as nearly as possible of equal population, as provided by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals may sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be changed by law.

Sec. 9. Judges of the court of appeals shall hold office for a term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office for the judges in each district shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall be provided by law and the practice and procedure therein shall be prescribed by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 11. The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges may be changed and circuits may be created, altered and discontinued by law and the number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term.

Sec. 12. Circuit judges shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the circuit in which they reside, and shall hold office for a term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In circuits having more than one circuit judge their terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 13. The circuit court shall have original jurisdiction in all matters not prohibited by law; appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals except as otherwise provided by law; power to issue, hear and determine prerogative and remedial writs; supervisory and general control over inferior courts and tribunals within their respective jurisdictions in accordance with rules of the supreme court; and jurisdiction of other cases and matters as provided by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 14. The clerk of each county organized for judicial purposes or other officer performing the duties of such office as provided in a county charter shall be clerk of the circuit court for such county. The judges of the circuit court may fill a vacancy in an elective office of county clerk or prosecuting attorney within their respective jurisdictions.

Sec. 15. In each county organized for judicial purposes there shall be a probate court. The legislature may create or alter probate court districts of more than one county if approved in each affected county by a majority of the electors voting on the question. The legislature may provide for the combination of the office of probate judge with any judicial office of limited jurisdiction within a county with supplemental salary as provided by law. The jurisdiction, powers and duties of the probate court and of the judges thereof shall be provided by law. They shall have original jurisdiction in all cases of juvenile delinquents and dependents, except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 16. One or more judges of probate as provided by law shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the counties or the probate districts in which they reside and shall hold office for terms of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In counties or districts with more than one judge the terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 17. No judge or justice of any court of this state shall be paid from the fees of his office nor shall the amount of his salary be measured by fees, other moneys received or the amount of judicial activity of his office.

Sec. 18. Salaries of justices of the supreme court, of the judges of the court of appeals, of the circuit judges within a circuit, and of the probate judges within a county or district, shall be uniform, and may be increased, but shall not be decreased during a term of office except and only to the extent of a general salary reduction in all other branches of government.

Each of the judges of the circuit court shall receive an annual salary as provided by law. In addition to the salary received from the state, each circuit judge may receive from any county in which he regularly holds court an additional salary as determined from time to time by the board of supervisors of the county. In any county where an additional salary is granted, it shall be paid at the same rate to all circuit judges regularly holding court therein.

Sec. 19. The supreme court, the court of appeals, the circuit court, the probate court and other courts designated as such by the legislature shall be courts of record and each shall have a common seal. Justices and judges of courts of record must be persons who are licensed to practice law in this state. No person shall be elected or appointed to a judicial office after reaching the age of 70 years.

1 Sec. 20. Whenever a justice or judge removes
2 his domicile beyond the limits of the territory
3 from which he was elected, he shall have vacated 4 his office.

5 Sec. 21. Any justice or judge of a court of 6 record shall be ineligible to be nominated for 7 or elected to an elective office other than a judicial 8 office during the period of his service and for 9 one year thereafter.

10 Sec. 22. Any elected judge of the court of 11 appeals, circuit court or probate court may be-12 come a candidate in the primary election for the 13 office of which he is the incumbent by filing an 14 affidavit of candidacy in the form and manner
15 prescribed by law.

16 Sec. 23. A vacancy in the elective office of a 17 judge of any court of record shall be filled at a 18 general or special election as provided by law.
19 The supreme court may authorize persons who 20 have served as judges and who have retired, to 21 perform judicial duties for the limited period of 22 time from the occurrence of the vacancy until 23 the successor is elected and qualified. Such per-24 sons shall be ineligible for election to fill the 25 vacancy.

26 Sec. 24. There shall be printed upon the ballot
27 under the name of each elected incumbent justice 28 or judge who is a candidate for nomination or 29 election to the same office the designation of 30 that office.

31 Sec. 25. For reasonable cause, which is not 32 sufficient ground for impeachment, the governor
33 shall remove any judge on a concurrent resolution
34 of two-thirds of the members elected to and serv-
35 ing in each house of the legislature. The cause 36 for removal shall be stated at length in the 37 resolution.

38 Sec. 26. The offices of circuit court commis-39 sioner and justice of the peace are abolished at 40 the expiration of five years from the date this 41 constitution becomes effective or may within this 42 period be abolished by law. Their jurisdiction, 43 compensation and powers within this period shall 44 be as provided by law. Within this five-year period,
45 the legislature shall establish a court or courts
46 of limited jurisdiction with powers and jurisdic-
47 tion defined by law. The location of such court
48 or courts, and the qualifications, tenure, method
49 of election and salary of the judges of such court 50 or courts, and by what governmental units the 51 judges shall be paid, shall be provided by law,
52 subject to the limitations contained in this Article.

53 Statutory courts in existence at the time this 54 constitution becomes effective shall retain their 55 powers and jurisdiction, except as provided by 56 law, until they are abolished by law.

57 Sec. 27. The supreme court, the court of ap-
58 peals, the circuit court, or any justices or judges
59 thereof, shall not exercise any power of appoint-60 ment to public office except as provided in this constitution.

1 Sec. 28. All final decisions, findings, rulings
2 and orders of any administrative officer or agency
3 existing under the constitution or by law, which 4 are judicial or quasi-judicial and affect private 5 rights or licenses, shall be subject to direct re-
6 view by the courts as provided by law. This re-
7 view shall include, as a minimum, the determina-
8 tion whether such final decisions, findings, rulings
9 and orders are authorized by law; and, in cases in 10 which a hearing is required, whether the same
11 are supported by competent, material and sub-12 stantial evidence on the whole record. Findings
13 of fact in workmen's compensation proceedings
14 shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud un-15 less otherwise provided by law.

16 Sec. 29. Justices of the supreme court, judges
17 of the court of appeals, circuit judges and other 18 judges as provided by law shall be conservators
19 of the peace within their respective jurisdictions.

Article VII

Local Government

1 Sec. 1. Each organized county shall be a body
2 corporate with powers and immunities provided
3 by law.

4 Sec. 2. Any county may frame, adopt, amend
5 or repeal a county charter in a manner and with 6 powers and limitations to be provided by general
7 law, which shall among other things provide for 8 the election of a charter commission. The law
9 may permit the organization of county govern-
10 ment in form different from that set forth in this 11 constitution and shall limit the rate of ad valorem
12 property taxation for county purposes, and re-13 strict the powers of charter counties to borrow 14 money and contract debts. Each charter county 15 is hereby granted power to levy other taxes for 16 county purposes subject to limitations and pro-
17 hibitions set forth in this constitution or law.
18 Subject to law, a county charter may authorize 19 the county through its regularly constituted 20 authority to adopt resolutions and ordinances re-
21 lating to its concerns.

22 The board of supervisors by a majority vote
23 of its members may, and upon petition of five 24 percent of the electors shall, place upon the ballot
25 the question of electing a commission to frame a 26 charter.

27 No county charter shall be adopted, amended
28 or repealed until approved by a majority of elec-
29 tors voting on the question.

30 Sec. 3. No organized county shall be reduced 31 by the organization of new counties to less than 32 16 townships as surveyed by the United States,
33 unless approved in the manner prescribed by law
34 by a majority of electors voting thereon in each 35 county to be affected.

36 Sec. 4. There shall be elected for four-year
37 terms in each organized county a sheriff, a county clerk, a county treasurer, a register of deeds and a prosecuting attorney, whose duties and powers shall be provided by law. The board of supervisors in any county may combine the offices of county clerk and register of deeds in one office or separate the same at pleasure.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, county clerk, county treasurer and register of deeds shall hold their principal offices at the county seat.

Sec. 6. The sheriff may be required by law to renew his security periodically and in default of giving such security, his office shall be vacant. The county shall never be responsible for his acts, except that the board of supervisors may protect him against claims by prisoners for unintentional injuries received while in his custody. He shall not hold any other office except in civil defense.

Sec. 7. A board of supervisors shall be established in each organized county consisting of one member from each organized township and such representation from cities as provided by law.

Sec. 8. Boards of supervisors shall have legislative, administrative and such other powers and duties as provided by law.

Sec. 9. Boards of supervisors shall have exclusive power to fix the compensation of county officers not otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 10. A county seat once established shall not be removed until the place to which it is proposed to be moved shall be designated by two-thirds of the members of the board of supervisors and a majority of the electors voting thereon shall have approved the proposed location in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 11. No county shall incur any indebtedness which shall increase its total debt beyond 10 percent of its assessed valuation.

Sec. 12. A navigable stream shall not be bridged or dammed without permission granted by the board of supervisors of the county as provided by law, which permission shall be subject to such reasonable compensation and other conditions as may seem best suited to safeguard the rights and interests of the county and political subdivisions therein.

Sec. 13. Two or more contiguous counties may combine into a single county if approved in each affected county by a majority of the electors voting on the question.

Sec. 14. The board of supervisors of each organized county may organize and consolidate townships under restrictions and limitations provided by law.

Sec. 15. Any county, when authorized by its board of supervisors shall have the authority to enter or to intervene in any action or certificate proceeding involving the services, charges or rates of any privately owned public utility furnishing services or commodities to rate payers within the county.

Sec. 16. The legislature may provide for the laying out, construction, improvement and maintenance of highways, bridges, culverts and airports by the state and by the counties and townships thereof; and may authorize counties to take charge and control of any highway within their limits for such purposes. The legislature may provide the powers and duties of counties in relation to highways, bridges, culverts and airports; may provide for county road commissioners to be appointed or elected, with powers and duties provided by law. The ad valorem property tax imposed for road purposes by any county shall not exceed in any year one-half of one percent of the assessed valuation for the preceding year.

Sec. 17. Each organized township shall be a body corporate with powers and immunities provided by law.

Sec. 18. In each organized township there shall be elected for terms of not less than two nor more than four years as prescribed by law a supervisor, a clerk, a treasurer, and not to exceed four trustees, whose legislative and administrative powers and duties shall be provided by law.

Sec. 19. No organized township shall grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the township, unless the proposition shall first have been approved by a majority of the electors of such township voting thereon at a regular or special election.

Sec. 20. The legislature shall provide by law for the dissolution of township government whenever all the territory of an organized township is included within the boundaries of a village or villages notwithstanding that a village may include territory within another organized township and provide by law for the classification of such village or villages as cities.

Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by general laws for the incorporation of cities and villages. Such laws shall limit their rate of ad valorem property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict the powers of cities and villages to borrow money and contract debts. Each city and village is granted power to levy other taxes for public purposes, subject to limitations and prohibitions provided by this constitution or by law.

Sec. 22. Under general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt and amend its charter, and to amend an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or enacted by the legislature for the government of the city or village. Each such city and village shall have power to adopt resolutions and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government, subject to the constitution and law. No enumeration of powers granted to cities and villages in this constitution shall limit or restrict the general grant of authority conferred by this section.

Sec. 23. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. 24. Subject to this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own or operate, within or without its corporate limits, public service facilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof.

Any city or village may sell and deliver heat, power or light without its corporate limits in an amount not exceeding 25 percent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; may sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal services outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines outside the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 25. No city or village shall acquire any public utility furnishing light, heat or power, or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless the proposition shall first have been approved by three-fifths of the electors voting thereon. No city or village may sell any public utility unless the proposition shall first have been approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, or a greater number if the charter shall so provide.

Sec. 26. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as provided by law, for any public purpose.

Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution the legislature may establish in metropolitan areas additional forms of government or authorities with powers, duties and jurisdictions as the legislature shall provide. Whenever possible, such additional forms of government or authorities shall be designed to perform multi-purpose functions rather than a single function.

Sec. 28. The legislature by general law shall authorize two or more counties, townships, cities, villages or districts, or any combination thereof among other things to: enter into contractual undertakings or agreements with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof for the joint administration of any of the functions or powers which each would have the power to perform separately; share the costs and responsibilities of functions and services with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof which each would have the power to perform separately; transfer functions or responsibilities to one another or any combination thereof upon the consent of each unit involved; cooperate with one another and with state government; lend their credit to one another or any combination thereof as provided by law in connection with any authorized publicly owned undertaking.

Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof, except members of the legislature, may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service.

Sec. 29. No person, partnership, association or corporation, public or private, operating a public utility shall have the right to the use of the highways, streets, alleys or other public places of any county, township, city or village for wires, poles, pipes, tracks, conduits or other utility facilities, without the consent of the duly constituted authority of the county, township, city or village; or to transact local business therein without first obtaining a franchise from the township, city or village. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution the right of all counties, townships, cities and villages to the reasonable control of their highways, streets, alleys and public places is hereby reserved to such local units of government.

Sec. 30. No franchise or license shall be granted by any township, city or village for a period longer than 30 years.

Sec. 31. The legislature shall not vacate or alter any road, street, alley, or public place under the jurisdiction of any county, township, city or village.

Sec. 32. Any county, township, city, village, authority or school district empowered by the legislature or by this constitution to prepare budgets of estimated expenditures and revenues shall adopt such budgets only after a public hearing in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 33. Any elected officer of a political subdivision may be removed from office in the manner and for the causes provided by law.

Sec. 34. The provisions of this constitution and law concerning counties, townships, cities and villages shall be liberally construed in their favor. Powers granted to counties and townships by this constitution and by law shall include those fairly implied and not prohibited by this constitution.

Article VIII Education

Sec. 1. Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.

1 Sec. 2. The legislature shall maintain and sup-
 2 port a system of free public elementary and sec-
 3 ondary schools as defined by law. Every school
 4 district shall provide for the education of its
 5 pupils without discrimination as to religion, creed,
 6 race, color or national origin.

7 Sec. 3. Leadership and general supervision over 8 all public education, including adult education and 9 instructional programs in state institutions, except 10 as to institutions of higher education granting 11 baccalaureate degrees, is vested in a state board
 12 of education. It shall serve as the general plan-
 13 ning and coordinating body for all public educa-14 tion, including higher education, and shall advise 15 the legislature as to the financial requirements
 16 in connection therewith.

17 The state board of education shall appoint a 18 superintendent of public instruction whose term
 19 of office shall be determined by the board. He 20 shall be the chairman of the board without the 21 right to vote, and shall be responsible for the 22 execution of its policies. He shall be the principal 23 executive officer of a state department of educa-
 24 tion which shall have powers and duties provided
 25 by law.

26 The state board of education shall consist of 27 eight members who shall be nominated by party 28 conventions and elected at large for terms of 29 eight years as prescribed by law. The governor 30 shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the 31 unexpired term. The governor shall be ex-officio 32 a member of the state board of education with-33 out the right to vote.

34 The power of the boards of institutions of higher 35 education provided in this constitution to super-36 vise their respective institutions and control and 37 direct the expenditure of the institutions' funds
 38 shall not be limited by this section.

39 Sec. 4. The legislature shall appropriate
 40 moneys to maintain the university of Michigan,
 41 Michigan State University, Wayne State Univer-
 42 sity, Eastern Michigan University, Michigan Col-
 43 lege of Science and Technology, Central Michi-
 44 gan University, Northern Michigan University,
 45 Western Michigan University, Ferris Institute,
 46 Grand Valley State College, by whatever names
 47 such institutions may hereafter be known, and 48 other institutions of higher education established 49 by law. The legislature shall be given an annual 50 accounting of all income and expenditures by each 51 of these educational institutions. Formal sessions
 52 of governing boards of such institutions shall be 53 open to the public.

54 Sec. 5. The regents of the University of Michi-55 gan and their successors in office shall constitute 56 a body corporate known as the Regents of the 57 University of Michigan; the trustees of Michigan
 58 State University and their successors in office shall 59 constitute a body corporate known as the Board 60 of Trustees of Michigan State University; the governors of Wayne State University and their successors in office shall constitute a body corporate known as the Board of Governors of Wayne State University. Each board shall have general supervision of its institution and the control and direction of all expenditures from the institution's funds. Each board shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of the institution under its supervision. He shall be the principal executive officer of the institution, be ex-officio a member of the board without the right to vote and preside at meetings of the board. The board of each institution shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years and who shall be elected as provided by law. The governor shall fill board vacancies by appointment. Each appointee shall hold office until a successor has been nominated and elected as provided by law.

Sec. 6. Other institutions of higher education established by law having authority to grant baccalaureate degrees shall each be governed by a board of control which shall be a body corporate.
 The board shall have general supervision of the institution and the control and direction of all expenditures from the institution's funds. It shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of the institution under its supervision. He shall be the principal executive officer of the institution and be ex-officio a member of the board without the right to vote. The board may elect one of its members or may designate the president, to preside at board meetings. Each board of control shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years, not more than two of which shall expire in the same year, and who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Vacancies shall be filled in like manner.

Sec. 7. The legislature shall provide by law for the establishment and financial support of public community and junior colleges which shall be supervised and controlled by locally elected boards. The legislature shall provide by law for a state board for public community and junior colleges which shall advise the state board of education concerning general supervision and planning for such colleges and requests for annual appropriations for their support. The board shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years, not more than two of which shall expire in the same year, and who shall be appointed by the state board of education. Vacancies shall be filled in like manner. The superintendent of public instruction shall be ex-officio a member of this board without the right to vote.

Sec. 8. Institutions, programs, and services for the care, treatment, education or rehabilitation of those inhabitants who are physically, mentally, or otherwise seriously handicapped shall always be fostered and supported.

1 Sec. 9. The legislature shall provide by law for 2 the establishment and support of public libraries
3 which shall be available to all residents of the state
4 under regulations adopted by the governing bodies
5 thereof. All fines assessed and collected in the 6 several counties, cities and townships for any 7 breach of the penal laws shall be exclusively ap-8 plied to the support of such public libraries, and 9 county law libraries as provided by law.

Article IX

Finance and Taxation

10 Sec. 1. The legislature shall impose taxes suf-11 ficient with other resources to pay the expenses of 12 state government.

13 Sec. 2. The power of taxation shall never be 14 surrendered, suspended or contracted away.

15 Sec. 3. The legislature shall provide for the 16 uniform general ad valorem taxation of real and 17 tangible personal property not exempt by law. The 18 legislature shall provide for the determination of 19 true cash value of such property; the proportion 20 of true cash value at which such property shall 21 be uniformly assessed, which shall not, after 22 January 1, 1966, exceed 50 percent; and for a sys-
23 tem of equalization of assessments. The legislature 24 may provide for alternative means of taxation of 25 designated real and tangible personal property in 26 lieu of general ad valorem taxation. Every tax
27 other than the general ad valorem property tax 28 shall be uniform upon the class or classes on 29 which it operates.

30 Sec. 4. Property owned and occupied by non-31 profit religious or educational organizations and 32 used exclusively for religious or educational pur-33 poses, as defined by law, shall be exempt from 34 real and personal property taxes.

35 Sec. 5. The legislature shall provide for the 36 assessment by the state of the property of those 37 public service businesses assessed by the state
38 at the date this constitution becomes effective, and 39 of other property as designated by the legislature,
40 and for the imposition and collection of taxes
41 thereon. Property assessed by the state shall be 42 assessed at the same proportion of its true 43 cash value as the legislature shall specify for 44 property subject to general ad valorem taxation.
45 The rate of taxation on such property shall be 46 the average rate levied upon other property in this 47 state under the general ad valorem tax law, or,
48 if the legislature provides, the rate of tax applica-49 ble to the property of each business enterprise assessed
50 by the state shall be the average rate of ad valorem
51 taxation levied upon other property in all counties
52 in which any of such property is situated.

53 Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this
54 constitution, the total amount of general ad valo-55 rem taxes imposed upon real and tangible per-56 sonal property for all purposes in any one year 57 shall not exceed 15 mills on each dollar of the 58 assessed valuation of property as finally equalized.

59 Under procedures provided by law, which shall 60 guarantee the right of initiative, separate tax
61 limitations for any county and for the townships 62 and for school districts therein, the aggregate of 63 which shall not exceed 18 mills on each dollar of 64 such valuation, may be adopted and thereafter
65 altered by the vote of a majority of the qualified 66 electors of such county voting thereon, in lieu 67 of the limitation hereinbefore established. These 68 limitations may be increased to an aggregate of 69 not to exceed 50 mills on each dollar of valuation,
70 for a period of not to exceed 20 years at any one
71 time, if approved by a majority of the electors,
72 qualified under Section 6 of Article II of this 73 constitution, voting on the question.

74 The foregoing limitations shall not apply to 75 taxes imposed for the payment of principal and 76 interest on bonds or other evidences of indebted-77 ness or for the payment of assessments or con-
78 tract obligations in anticipation of which bonds
79 are issued, which taxes may be imposed without 80 limitation as to rate or amount; or to taxes im-
81 posed for any other purpose by any city, vil-
82 lage, charter county, charter township, charter
83 authority or other authority, the tax limitations
84 of which are provided by charter or by general
85 law.

86 In any school district which extends into two 87 or more counties, property taxes at the highest 88 rate available in the county which contains the 89 greatest part of the area of the district may be 90 imposed and collected for school purposes through-91 out the district.

92 Sec. 7. No income tax graduated as to rate 93 or base shall be imposed by the state or any of 94 its subdivisions.

95 Sec. 8. The legislature shall not impose a 96 sales tax on retailers at a rate of more than 97 four percent of their gross taxable sales of 98 tangible personal property.

99 Sec. 9. All specific taxes, except general sales
100 and use taxes and regulatory fees, imposed di-
101 rectly or indirectly on fuels sold or used 102 to propel motor vehicles upon highways and on 103 registered motor vehicles shall, after the payment
104 of necessary collection expenses, be used exclusi-105 vely for highway purposes as defined by law.

106 Sec. 10. One-eighth of all taxes imposed on 107 retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible 108 personal property shall be used exclusively for 109 assistance to townships, cities and villages, on 110 a population basis as provided by law. In de-111 termining population the legislature may exclude 112 any portion of the total number of persons who 113 are wards, patients or convicts in any tax sup-114 ported institution.

115 Sec. 11. There shall be established a state
116 school aid fund which shall be used exclusively 117 for the support of public education and school employees' retirement systems, as provided by law. One-half of all taxes imposed on retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible personal property, and other tax revenues provided by law, shall be dedicated to this fund. Payments from this fund shall be made in full on a scheduled basis, as provided by law.

Sec. 12. No evidence of state indebtedness shall be issued except for debts authorized pursuant to this constitution.

Sec. 13. Public bodies corporate shall have power to borrow money and to issue their securities evidencing debt, subject to this constitution and law.

Sec. 14. To meet obligations incurred pursuant to appropriations for any fiscal year, the legislature may by law authorize the state to issue its full faith and credit notes in which case it shall pledge undedicated revenues to be received within the same fiscal year for the repayment thereof. Such indebtedness in any fiscal year shall not exceed 15 percent of undedicated revenues received by the state during the preceding fiscal year and such debts shall be repaid at the time the revenues so pledged are received, but not later than the end of the same fiscal year.

Sec. 15. The state may borrow money for specific purposes in amounts as may be provided by acts of the legislature adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house, and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at any general election. The question submitted to the electors shall state the amount to be borrowed, the specific purpose to which the funds shall be devoted, and the method of repayment.

Sec. 16. The state, in addition to any other borrowing power, may borrow from time to time such amounts as shall be required, pledge its faith and credit and issue its notes or bonds therefor, for the purpose of making loans to school districts as provided in this section.

If the minimum amount which would otherwise be necessary for a school district to levy in any year to pay principal and interest on its qualified bonds, including any necessary allowances for estimated tax delinquencies, exceeds 13 mills on each dollar of its assessed valuation as finally equalized, or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, then the school district may elect to borrow all or any part of the excess from the state. In that event the state shall lend the excess amount to the school district for the payment of principal and interest. If for any reason any school district will be or is unable to pay the principal and interest on its qualified bonds when due, then the school district shall borrow and the state shall lend to it an amount sufficient to enable the school district to make the payment.

The term "qualified bonds" means general obligation bonds of school districts issued for capital expenditures, including refunding bonds, issued prior to May 4, 1955, or issued thereafter and qualified as provided by law pursuant to Section 27 or Section 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908 or pursuant to this section.

After a school district has received loans from the state, each year thereafter it shall levy for debt service, exclusive of levies for nonqualified bonds, not less than 13 mills or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, until the amount loaned has been repaid, and any tax collections therefrom in any year over and above the minimum requirements for principal and interest on qualified bonds shall be used toward the repayment of state loans. In any year when such levy would produce an amount in excess of the requirements and the amount due to the state, the levy may be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the legislature shall have the power to prescribe and to limit the procedure, terms and conditions for the qualification of bonds, for obtaining and making state loans, and for the repayment of loans.

The power to tax for the payment of principal and interest on bonds hereafter issued which are the general obligations of any school district, including refunding bonds, and for repayment of any state loans made to school districts, shall be without limitation as to rate or amount.

All rights acquired under Sections 27 and 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908, by holders of bonds heretofore issued, and all obligations assumed by the state or any school district under these sections, shall remain unimpaired.

Sec. 17. No money shall be paid out of the state treasury except in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Sec. 18. The credit of the state shall not be granted to, nor in aid of any person, association or corporation, public or private, except as authorized in this constitution.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the investment of public funds until needed for current requirements or the investment of funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees, as provided by law.

Sec. 19. The state shall not subscribe to, nor be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation, except that funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees may be invested as provided by law; and endowment funds created for charitable or educational purposes may be invested as provided by law governing the investment of funds held in trust by trustees.

Sec. 20. No state money shall be deposited in banks other than those organized under the national or state banking laws. No state money

1 shall be deposited in any bank in excess of 50
2 percent of the capital and surplus of such bank.
3 Any bank receiving deposits of state money shall 4 show the amount of state money so deposited as 5 a separate item in all published statements.

6 Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by law
7 for the annual accounting for all public moneys,
8 state and local, and may provide by law for interim
9 accounting.

10 The legislature shall provide by law for the 11 maintenance of uniform accounting systems by 12 units of local government and the auditing of 13 county accounts by competent state authority
14 and other units of government as provided by law.

15 Sec. 22. Procedures for the examination and 16 adjustment of claims against the state shall be 17 prescribed by law.

18 Sec. 23. All financial records, accountings,
19 audit reports and other reports of public moneys
20 shall be public records and open to inspection. A 21 statement of all revenues and expenditures of pub-
22 lic moneys shall be published and distributed 23 annually, as provided by law.

24 Sec. 24. The accrued financial benefits of each
25 pension plan and retirement system of the state
26 and its political subdivisions shall be a contractual 27 obligation thereof which shall not be diminished
28 or impaired thereby.

29 Financial benefits arising on account of service 30 rendered in each fiscal year shall be funded during 31 that year and such funding shall not be used for 32 financing unfunded accrued liabilities.

Article X Property

33 Sec. 1. The disabilities of coverture as to prop-34 erty are abolished. The real and personal estate of 35 every woman acquired before marriage and all 36 real and personal property to which she may after-37 wards become entitled shall be and remain the 38 estate and property of such woman, and shall not 39 be liable for the debts, obligations or engagements
40 of her husband, and may be dealt with and dis-
41 posed of by her as if she were unmarried. Dower 42 may be relinquished or conveyed as provided by 43 law.

44 Sec. 2. Private property shall not be taken for 45 public use without just compensation therefor
46 being first made or secured in a manner prescribed 47 by law. The amount of compensation shall be 48 determined in proceedings in a court of record.

49 Sec. 3. A homestead in the amount of not less
50 than $3,500 and personal property of every resi-51 dent of this state in the amount of not less than 52 $750, as defined by law, shall be exempt from 53 forced sale on execution or other process of any 54 court. Such exemptions shall not extend to any 55 lien thereon excluded from exemption by law.

56 Sec. 4. Procedures relating to escheats and to 57 the custody and disposition of escheated property shall be prescribed by law.

58 Sec. 5. The legislature shall have general su-
59 pervisory jurisdiction over all state owned lands
60 useful for forest preserves, game areas and recrea-61 tional purposes; shall require annual reports as 62 to such lands from all departments having super-
63 vision or control thereof; and shall by general law 64 provide for the sale, lease or other disposition of 65 such lands.

66 The legislature by an act adopted by two-thirds
67 of the members elected to and serving in each 68 house may designate any part of such lands as 69 a state land reserve. No lands in the state land
70 reserve may be removed from the reserve, sold,
71 leased or otherwise disposed of except by an act
72 of the legislature.

73 Sec. 6. Aliens who are residents of this state 74 shall enjoy the same rights and privileges in 75 property as citizens of this state.

Article XI

Public Officers and Employment

76 Sec. 1. All officers, legislative, executive and 77 judicial, before entering upon the duties of their 78 respective offices, shall take and subscribe the 79 following oath or affirmation: I do solemnly swear
80 (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution
81 of the United States and the constitution of this 82 state, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties
83 of the office of according to the best of 84 my ability. No other oath, affirmation, or any 85 religious test shall be required as a qualification
86 for any office or public trust.

87 Sec. 2. The terms of office of elective state
88 officers, members of the legislature and justices
89 and judges of courts of record shall begin at twelve
90 o'clock noon on the first day of January next suc-
91 ceeding their election, except as otherwise provided
92 in this constitution. The terms of office of county
93 officers shall begin on the first day of January
94 next succeeding their election, except as otherwise
95 provided by law.

96 Sec. 3. Neither the legislature nor any poli-
97 tical subdivision of this state shall grant or author-
98 ize extra compensation to any public officer, agent
99 or contractor after the service has been rendered 100 or the contract entered into.

101 Sec. 4. No person having custody or control of 102 public moneys shall be a member of the legislature, 103 or be eligible to any office of trust or profit under 104 this state, until he shall have made an accounting, 105 as provided by law, of all sums for which he may 106 be liable.

107 Sec. 5. The classified state civil service shall 108 consist of all positions in the state service except 109 those filled by popular election, heads of principal 110 departments, members of boards and commis-111 sions, the principal executive officer of boards and 112 commissions heading principal departments, em-113 ployees of courts of record, employees of the legislature, employees of the state institutions of higher education, all persons in the armed forces of the state, eight exempt positions in the office of the governor, and within each principal department, when requested by the department head, two other exempt positions, one of which shall be policy-making. The civil service commission may exempt three additional positions of a policy-making nature within each principal department.

The civil service commission shall be non-salaried and shall consist of four persons, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party, appointed by the governor for terms of eight years, no two of which shall expire in the same year.

The administration of the commission's powers shall be vested in a state personnel director who shall be a member of the classified service and who shall be responsible to and selected by the commission after open competitive examination.

The commission shall classify all positions in the classified service according to their respective duties and responsibilities, fix rates of compensation for all classes of positions, approve or disapprove disbursements for all personal services, determine by competitive examination and performance exclusively on the basis of merit, efficiency and fitness the qualifications of all candidates for positions in the classified service, make rules and regulations covering all personnel transactions, and regulate all conditions of employment in the classified service.

No person shall be appointed to or promoted in the classified service who has not been certified by the commission as qualified for such appointment or promotion. No appointments, promotions, demotions or removals in the classified service shall be made for religious, racial or partisan considerations.

Increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission may be effective only at the start of a fiscal year and shall require prior notice to the governor, who shall transmit such increases to the legislature as part of his budget. The legislature may, by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, waive the notice and permit increases in rates of compensation to be effective at a time other than the start of a fiscal year. Within 60 calendar days following such transmission, the legislature may, by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, reject or reduce increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission. Any reduction ordered by the legislature shall apply uniformly to all classes of employees affected by the increases and shall not adjust pay differentials already established by the civil service commission. The legislature may not reduce rates of compensation below those in effect at the time of the transmission of increases authorized by the commission.

The appointing authorities may create or abolish positions for reasons of administrative efficiency without the approval of the commission. Positions shall not be created nor abolished except for reasons of administrative efficiency. Any employee considering himself aggrieved by the abolition of a position shall have a right of appeal to the commission through established grievance procedures.

The civil service commission shall recommend to the governor and to the legislature rates of compensation for all appointed positions within the executive department not a part of the classified service.

To enable the commission to exercise its powers, the legislature shall appropriate to the commission for the ensuing fiscal year a sum not less than one percent of the aggregate payroll of the classified service for the preceding fiscal year, as certified by the commission. Within six months after the conclusion of each fiscal year the commission shall return to the state treasury all moneys unexpended for that fiscal year.

The commission shall furnish reports of expenditures, at least annually, to the governor and the legislature and shall be subject to annual audit as provided by law.

No payment for personal services shall be made or authorized until the provisions of this constitution pertaining to civil service have been complied with in every particular. Violation of any of the provisions hereof may be restrained or observance compelled by injunctive or mandamus proceedings brought by any citizen of the state.

Sec. 6. By ordinance or resolution of its governing body which shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, unless otherwise provided by charter, each county, township, city, village, school district and other governmental unit or authority may establish, modify or discontinue a merit system for its employees other than teachers under contract or tenure. The state civil service commission may on request furnish technical services to any such unit on a reimbursable basis.

Sec. 7. The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeaching civil officers for corrupt conduct in office or for crimes or misdemeanors, but a majority of the members elected and serving shall be necessary to direct an impeachment.

When an impeachment is directed, the house of representatives shall elect three of its members to prosecute the impeachment.

Every impeachment shall be tried by the senate immediately after the final adjournment of the legislature. The senators shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try and determine the impeachment according to the evi-

1 dence. When the governor or lieutenant governor
2 is tried, the chief justice of the supreme court
3 shall preside.

4 No person shall be convicted without the con-
5 currence of two-thirds of the senators elected and 6 serving. Judgment in case of conviction shall not 7 extend further than removal from office, but the 8 person convicted shall be liable to punishment
9 according to law.

10 No judicial officer shall exercise any of the 11 functions of his office after an impeachment is 12 directed until he is acquitted.

Article XII

Amendment & Revision

14 Sec. 1. Amendments to this constitution may 15 be proposed in the senate or house of representa-16 tives. Proposed amendments agreed to by two-17 thirds of the members elected to and serving in 18 each house on a vote with the names and vote of 19 those voting entered in the respective journals
20 shall be submitted, not less than 60 days there-
21 after, to the electors at the next general election
22 or special election as the legislature shall direct.
23 If a majority of electors voting on a proposed 24 amendment approve the same, it shall become 25 part of the constitution and shall abrogate or 26 amend existing provisions of the constitution at 27 the end of 45 days after the date of the election
28 at which it was approved.

29 Sec. 2. Amendments may be proposed to this
30 constitution by petition of the registered electors
31 of this state. Every petition shall include the full 32 text of the proposed amendment, and be signed by 33 registered electors of the state equal in number to 34 at least 10 percent of the total vote cast for 35 all candidates for governor at the last preceding 36 general election at which a governor was elected.
37 Such petitions shall be filed with the person au-
38 thorized by law to receive the same at least 120
39 days before the election at which the proposed 40 amendment is to be voted upon. Any such petition 41 shall be in the form, and shall be signed and 42 circulated in such manner, as prescribed by law.
43 The person authorized by law to receive such peti-
44 tion shall upon its receipt determine, as provided
45 by law, the validity and sufficiency of the signa-46 tures on the petition, and make an official an-47 nouncement thereof at least 60 days prior to the 48 election at which the proposed amendment is to be 49 voted upon.

50 Any amendment proposed by such petition shall 51 be submitted, not less than 120 days after it was 52 filed, to the electors at the next general election.
53 Such proposed amendment, existing provisions of 54 the constitution which would be altered or abro-
55 gated thereby, and the question as it shall appear 56 on the ballot shall be published in full as provided 57 by law. Copies of such publication shall be posted 58 in each polling place and furnished to news media

as provided by law.

59 The ballot to be used in such election shall con-60 tain a statement of the purpose of the proposed amendment, expressed in not more than 100 words, exclusive of caption. Such statement of purpose and caption shall be prepared by the person authorized by law, and shall consist of a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against the proposed amendment.

61 If the proposed amendment is approved by a
62 majority of the electors voting on the question, 63 it shall become part of the constitution, and 64 shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of 65 the constitution at the end of 45 days after 66 the date of the election at which it was ap-67 proved. If two or more amendments approved by 68 the electors at the same election conflict, that 69 amendment receiving the highest affirmative vote
70 shall prevail.

71 Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in 72 the year 1978, and in each 16th year thereafter 73 and at such times as may be provided by law, the 74 question of a general revision of the constitution
75 shall be submitted to the electors of the state. If 76 a majority of the electors voting on the question
77 decide in favor of a convention for such purpose,
78 at an election to be held not later than six months
79 after the proposal was certified as approved, the 80 electors of each representative district as then 81 organized shall elect one delegate and the elec-
82 tors of each senatorial district as then organized 83 shall elect one delegate at a partisan election.
84 The delegates so elected shall convene at the seat
85 of government on the first Tuesday in October
86 next succeeding such election or at an earlier date
87 if provided by law.

88 The convention shall choose its own officers,
89 determine the rules of its proceedings and judge
90 the qualifications, elections and returns of its mem-
91 bers. The governor shall appoint a qualified 92 resident of the same district to fill a vacancy
93 in the office of any delegate who shall be a mem-
94 ber of the same party as the delegate vacating
95 the office. The convention shall have power to ap-96 point such officers, employees and assistants as 97 it deems necessary and to fix their compensation;
98 to provide for the printing and distribution of its 99 documents, journals and proceedings; to explain 100 and disseminate information about the proposed constitution and to complete the business of the convention in an orderly manner. Each delegate shall receive for his services compensation provided by law.

101 No proposed constitution or amendment adopted
102 by such convention shall be submitted to the 103 electors for approval as hereinafter provided un-
104 less by the assent of a majority of all the delegates 105 elected to and serving in the convention, with the 106 names and vote of those voting entered in the journal. Any proposed constitution or amendments adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the qualified electors in the manner and at the time provided by such convention not less than 90 days after final adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or amendments by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon the constitution or amendments shall take effect as provided by the convention.

Schedule and Temporary Provisions

To insure the orderly transition from the constitution of 1908 to this constitution the following schedule and temporary provisions are set forth to be effective for such period as are thereby required.

Sec. 1. The attorney general shall recommend to the legislature as soon as practicable such changes as may be necessary to adapt existing laws to this constitution.

Sec. 2. All writs, actions, suits, proceedings, civil or criminal liabilities, prosecutions, judgments, sentences, orders, decrees, appeals, causes of action, contracts, claims, demands, titles and rights existing on the effective date of this constitution shall continue unaffected except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, all officers filling any office by election or appointment shall continue to exercise their powers and duties until their offices shall have been abolished or their successors selected and qualified in accordance with this constitution or the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

No provision of this constitution, or of law or of executive order authorized by this constitution shall shorten the term of any person elected to state office at a statewide election on or prior to the date on which this constitution is submitted to a vote. In the event the duties of any such officers shall not have been abolished or incorporated into one or more of the principal departments at the expiration of his term, such officer shall continue to serve until his duties are so incorporated or abolished.

Sec. 4. All officers elected at the same election that this constitution is submitted to the people for adoption shall take office and complete the term to which they were elected under the 1908 constitution and existing laws and continue to serve until their successors are elected and qualified pursuant to this constitution or law.

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision in this constitution, the governor, the lieutenant governor, the secretary of state, the attorney general, and state senators shall be elected at the general election in 1964 to serve for two year terms beginning on the first day of January next succeeding their election. The first election of such officers for four-year terms under this constitution shall be held at the general election in 1966.

Sec. 6. The state shall be districted for the purpose of electing senators in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of Article IV of this constitution, after the official publication of the total population count of the 1970 decennial federal census. Until the apportionment of the senate following the 1970 census, the senatorial districts under the 1908 constitution shall remain intact except that upon the adoption of this constitution each of the counties of Kent, Genesee, Macomb and Oakland shall be divide by the apportionment commission into two senatorial districts and Wayne county into eight senatorial districts in accordance with this constitution. The legislature may give prior effect to Section 2 of Article IV of this constitution, which action shall not be subject to veto by the governor.

Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the provisions of this constitution that the supreme court shall consist of seven justices it shall consist of eight justices until the time that a vacancy occurs as a result of death, retirement or resignation of a justice. The first such vacancy shall not be filled.

Sec. 8. Any judge of probate serving on the effective date of this constitution may serve the remainder of the term and be eligible to succeed himself for election regardless of other provisions in this constitution requiring him to be licensed to practice law in this state.

Sec. 9. The provisions of Article VI providing that terms of judicial offices shall not all expire at the same time, shall be implemented by law providing that at the next election for such offices judges shall be elected for terms of varying length, none of which shall be shorter than the regular term provided for the office.

Sec. 10. The members of the state board of education provided for in Section 3 of Article VIII of this constitution shall first be elected at the first general election after the effective date of this constitution for the following terms: two shall be elected for two years, two for four years, two for six years, and two for eight years as prescribed by law.

The State Board of Education provided for in the constitution of 1908 is abolished at twelve o'clock noon January 1 of the year following the first general election under this constitution and the terms of members thereof shall then expire.

Sec. 11. The provisions of this constitution providing for members of boards of control of institutions of higher education and the State Board of Public Community and Junior Colleges shall be implemented by law. The law may provide that the term of each member in office on the date of the vote on this constitution may be extended, and may further provide that the initial terms of office of members may be less than eight years.

Sec. 12. The provisions of this constitution increasing the number of members of the Board of Trustees of Michigan State University and of the Board of Governors of Wayne State University to eight, and of their term of office to eight years, shall be implemented by law. The law may provide that the term of each member in office on the date of the vote on this constitution may be extended one year, and may further provide that the initial terms of office of the additional members may be less than eight years.

Sec. 13. The initial allocation of departments by law pursuant to Section 2 of Article V of this constitution, shall be completed within two years after the effective date of this constitution. If such allocation shall not have been completed within such period, the governor, within one year thereafter, by executive order, shall make the initial allocation.

Sec. 14. Contractual obligations of the state incurred pursuant to the constitution of 1908 shall continue to be obligations of the state.

For the retirement of notes and bonds issued under Section 26 of Article X of the 1908 constitution, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund each year during their life a sum equal to the amount of principal and interest payments due and payable in each year.

Sec. 15. The legislature by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house may provide that the state may borrow money and may pledge its full faith and credit for refunding any bonds issued by the Mackinac Bridge Authority and at the time of refunding the Mackinac Bridge Authority shall be abolished and the operation of the bridge shall be assumed by the state highway department. The legislature may implement this section by law.

Sec. 16. This constitution shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state forthwith to give notice of such submission to all other officers required to give or publish any notice in regard to a general election. He shall give notice that this constitution will be duly submitted to the electors at such election. The notice shall be given in the manner required for the election of governor.

Sec. 17. Every registered elector may vote on the adoption of the constitution. The board of election commissioners in each county shall cause to be printed on a ballot separate from the ballot containing the names of the nominees for office, the words: Shall the revised constitution be adopted? () Yes. () No. All votes cast at the election shall be taken, counted, canvassed and returned as provided by law for the election of state officers. If the revised constitution so submitted receives more votes in its favor than were cast against it, it shall be the supreme law of the state on and after the first day of January of the year following its adoption.

against the secretary of state, by Mr. Van Dusen, chairman, submits the following report:

In accordance with Resolution 96, the committee on action against secretary of state on May 14, 1962, filed with the circuit court for the county of Ingham, a petition for declaration of rights in an action entitled, Stephen S. Nisbet, President of the Michigan Constitutional Convention of 1961-1962 v. James M. Hare, Secretary of State. The relief sought was a declaration that the convention has the right to provide for submission of the proposed new constitution to the electors at the general election to be held November 6, 1962. The summons and petition were served on the secretary of state on the same day.

On May 22, having had no response from the attorney general, petitioner filed a motion for the entry of a decree. On May 25, the secretary of state appeared specially by the attorney general and moved to dismiss the petition on the ground that the case did not present an actual controversy. The trial court heard argument on the attorney general's motion on June 1 and on June 6 rendered an opinion denying the motion to dismiss. An order to that effect was entered on June 11.

Instead of proceeding to file an answer, the attorney general then filed an application to the supreme court for leave to appeal. This application was granted by the supreme court and the attorney general, on July 2, filed a claim of appeal.

The attorney general has not yet filed a brief and he states that he does not intend to do so until after August 7.

It is obvious that no judicial determination of the right of the constitutional convention to require submission of the proposed constitution to the electors on November 6 will be made in time to be useful to the convention. Accordingly, the committee recommends:

1) That section 15 [formerly section 16] of the schedule and temporary provisions of the proposed constitution be amended by striking from the first sentence the words "Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962" and inserting "first Monday in April, 1963."

2) That the committee be authorized to discontinue the action entitled, Nisbet v. Hare.

Richard C. Van Dusen, chairman.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, I move the adoption of the report.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the motion of Mr. Van Dusen that the report be adopted. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The report is adopted. Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VAN DUSEN: Mr. President, in compliance with our rules, I think it would now be necessary to take a roll call vote on the amendment to the constitution changing the date.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Mr. Chase will read the amendment.

SECRETARY CHASE: The amendment recommended in the report is as follows:

1. Amend the schedule, section 15 [formerly section 16] (column 2) line 11, after "held on the" by striking out "Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1962.", and inserting "first Monday in April, 1963."

PRESIDENT NISBET: The secretary will call the roll. Those in favor of the amendment will vote aye as your name is called. Those opposed will vote no.

The roll was called and the delegates voted as follows:

SECRETARY CHASE: On the adoption of the constitution as amended, the yeas are 98; the nays are 43. (applause)
PRESIDENT NISBET: The constitution is adopted.

For the constitution as adopted, see below, page 3317.

Because of the hour, it being almost noon, the Chair recognizes Mr. Van Dusen.

MR. VANDUSEN: Mr. President, I move that the convention now stand in recess until 2:00 p.m.

PRESIDENT NISBET: The question is on the motion of Mr. Van Dusen that we recess until 2:00 p.m. Those in favor will say aye. Opposed, no.

The motion prevails. We are recessed until 2:00 o'clock.

[Whereupon, at 11:50 o'clock a.m., the convention recessed; and, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., reconvened.]

Will the delegates please take their seats. The convention will please come to order.

SECRETARY CHASE: Mr. President, a quorum of the convention is present.

PRESIDENT NISBET: I think we should recognize the fact that many of our employees are voluntarily back with us today, meeting with the delegates. I'm sure all of us are very happy to have them here. It brings about a happy result to see them and I think we ought to give them a good hand. (applause) Mr. Chase has an announcement.

SECRETARY CHASE: There are 3 announcements that possibly should have been made before we recessed for lunch.

First, there is mail for all of the delegates in the mail room downstairs.

Just prior to the May 11 adjournment, several of the delegates took out, on loan, sets of convention slides which have not been returned. Missing from our files are 12 complete sets of slides. Since we frequently have call from other delegates for the use of these slides, we would appreciate their return as soon as possible. Ink White, chairman of the committee on public information.

I am sure the delegates recall the lady on the civic center staff who took such good care of keeping the windows clean and the place well slicked up, who had to go to the hospital for a very critical operation. A number of the delegates contributed to a fund to help her over her financial difficulties. I have the following card:

It is very difficult to express my appreciation to all the wonderful people of con con. Let me say, with my heart, your kindness and generosity will always be remembered.

Sincerely,
Freda Adams.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Since the adjournment on May 11, we have added 2 new associate members to the delegation: Mrs. Charles Follo and Mrs. Gil Wanger.

I asked Charlie if Mrs. Follo was present so that he might present her, but he said she isn't. We are sorry, Charlie, she couldn't be with us.

Mr. Wanger, is your associate delegate present? Would you present her?

[Whereupon, the delegates accorded Mrs. Wanger a standing ovation.]

At the final session before the long recess the president was authorized to name a reunion committee for the constitutional convention. Accordingly, the president appoints, as members of the reunion committee: Mr. Erickson, Mrs. Koeze, Messrs. Jones, Bowens, Brake, Mrs. Conklin, Mr. Dean Doty, Mrs. Daisy Elliott, Messrs. Faxon, Kelsey, Kuhn, Powell, Sharpe, Wanger, White and Norris.

Without objection, the appointments are approved. You will notice that most of these delegates are within the area of Lansing, Detroit or Grand Rapids for their ease in getting together when they have to meet. Mr. Claud Erickson is chairman of the committee.

Returning to the order of business, approval of address to people. We will take up the report of the committee on public information. Mr. White, chairman.

MR. WHITE: Mr. President, under date of June 26, 1962, each delegate was mailed proof copies of the proposed address to the people. Since that time our committee has received numerous suggestions for corrections, additions, deletions and so on. Our committee has met and gone over these suggestions and they have been, for the most part, agreed to. I might say, parenthetically, the address in its present corrected form represents the writing and editing of upwards of 50 of our delegates.

Under date of July 27, 1962, each of you was mailed a 16 page multilith report which outlined in detail some 108 corrections. This communication also carried the recommendation that we be authorized to correct the text of the constitution as it appears in the address to conform with the style and drafting changes adopted at today's session, and to offer comments accordingly, if necessary. All of this material has been delivered again to each delegate's desk today. Additionally, you have a single white multilith sheet from our committee containing brief addenda to this 16 page report.

It seems to me, Mr. President, the delegates have had ample time to consider these matters, and to expedite our final deliberations, I move that the report of the public information committee, with the recommended addenda, be considered read.

PRESIDENT NISBET: Without objection, it is so ordered.

Following is the report as submitted and considered read:

After careful consideration of suggestions from delegates, your committee on public information recommends the adoption of the following changes in the proof copy of the address to the people:

1. Amend page 2, second full paragraph, line 3, after "that one" by striking out "must" and inserting "should"; to improve phraseology.

2. Amend page 2, third full paragraph, line 1, by striking out "Ordered by popular vote, its delegates selected by the people on the basis of one from each senatorial and representative district, the Constitutional Convention of 1961-62 met in Lansing on October 3, 1961.", and inserting "The convention was ordered by popular vote in April of 1961. There were 144 delegates, representing Michigan's 34 State Senatorial districts and 110 State Representative seats. They were elected in statewide voting on September 12, 1961, and convened at Lansing on October 3, 1961."; to improve awkward sentence construction and correct error by indicating "seats" rather than representative "districts."

3. Amend page 2, fifth full paragraph, line 2, after "overlapped" by striking out "each other"; to improve phraseology.

4. Amend page 2, fifth full paragraph, line 6, after

CONSTITUTION
OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

as finally adopted by the Convention
August 1, 1962

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Michigan, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of freedom, and earnestly desiring to secure these blessings undiminished to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I

Declaration of Rights

Sec. 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal benefit, security and protection.

Sec. 2. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws; nor shall any person be denied the enjoyment of his civil or political rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of religion, race, color or national origin. The legislature shall implement this section by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Sec. 4. Every person shall be at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, or, against his consent, to contribute to the erection or support of any place of religious worship, or to pay tithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any minister of the gospel or teacher of religion. No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society, theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the state be appropriated for any such purpose. The civil and political rights, privileges and capacities of no person shall be diminished or enlarged on account of his religious belief.

Sec. 5. Every person may freely speak, write, express and publish his views on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of such right; and no law shall be enacted to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.

Sec. 6. Every person has a right to keep and bear arms for the defense of himself and the state.

Sec. 7. The military shall in all cases and at all times be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Sec. 8. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner or occupant, nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. Neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this state.

Sec. 10. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law or law impairing the obligation of contract shall be enacted.

Sec. 11. The person, houses, papers and possessions of every person shall be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any criminal proceeding any narcotic drug, firearm, bomb, explosive or any other dangerous weapon, seized by a peace officer outside the curtilage of any dwelling house in this state.

Sec. 12. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

Sec. 13. A suitor in any court of this state has the right to prosecute or defend his suit, either in his own proper person or by an attorney.

Sec. 14. The right of trial by jury shall remain, but shall be waived in all civil cases unless demanded by one of the parties in the manner prescribed by law. In all civil cases tried by 12 jurors a verdict shall be received when 10 jurors agree.

Sec. 15. No person shall be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for murder and treason when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Sec. 16. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed; cruel or unusual punishment shall not be inflicted; nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

Sec. 17. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law. The right of all individuals, firms, corporations and voluntary associations to fair and just treatment in the course of legislative and executive investigations and hearings shall not be infringed.

Sec. 18. No person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief.

Sec. 19. In all prosecutions for libels the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and, if it appears to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the accused shall be acquitted.

Sec. 20. In every criminal prosecution, the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, which may consist of less than 12 jurors in all courts not of record; to be informed of the nature of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; to have the assistance of counsel for his defense; to have an appeal as a matter of right; and in courts of record, when the trial court so orders, to have such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to perfect and prosecute an appeal.

Sec. 21. No person shall be imprisoned for debt arising out of or founded on contract, express or implied, except in cases of fraud or breach of trust.

Sec. 22. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or on confession in open court.

Sec. 23. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE II

Elections

Sec. 1. Every citizen of the United States who has attained the age of 21 years, who has resided in this state six months, and who meets the requirements of local residence provided by law, shall be an elector and qualified to vote in any election except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature shall define residence for voting purposes.

Sec. 2. The legislature may by law exclude persons from voting because of mental incompetence or commitment to a jail or penal institution.

Sec. 3. For purposes of voting in the election for president and vice-president of the United States only, the legislature may by law establish lesser residence requirements for citizens who have resided in this state for less than six months and may waive residence requirements for former citizens of this state who have removed herefrom. The legislature shall not permit voting by any person who meets the voting residence requirements of the state to which he has removed.

Sec. 4. The legislature shall enact laws to regulate the time, place and manner of all nominations and elections, except as otherwise provided in this constitution or in the constitution and laws of the United States. The legislature shall enact laws to preserve the purity of elections, to preserve the secrecy of the ballot, to guard against abuses of the elective franchise, and to provide for a system of voter registration and absentee voting. No law shall be enacted which permits a candidate in any partisan primary or partisan election to have a ballot designation except when required for identification of candidates for the same office who have the same or similar surnames.

Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill vacancies, or as otherwise provided in this constitution, all elections for national, state, county and township offices shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even-numbered year or on such other date as members of the congress of the United States are regularly elected.

Sec. 6. Whenever any question is required to be submitted by a political subdivision to the electors for the increase of the ad valorem tax rate limitation imposed by Section 6 of Article IX for a period of more than five years, or for the issue of bonds, only electors in, and who have property assessed for any ad valorem taxes in, any part of the district or territory to be affected by the result of such election or electors who are the lawful husbands or wives of such persons shall be entitled to vote thereon. All electors in the district or territory affected may vote on all other questions.

Sec. 7. A board of state canvassers of four members shall be established by law. No candidate for an office to be canvassed nor any inspector of elections shall be eligible to serve as a member of a board of canvassers. A majority of any board of canvassers shall not be composed of members of the same political party.

Sec. 8. Laws shall be enacted to provide for the recall of all elective officers except judges of courts of record upon petition of electors equal in number to 25 percent of the number of persons voting in the last preceding election for the office of governor in the electoral district of the officer sought to be recalled. The sufficiency of any statement of reasons or grounds procedurally required shall be a political rather than a judicial question.

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds and must be invoked in the manner prescribed by law within 90 days following the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the law was enacted. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of registered electors, not less than eight percent for initiative and five percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected shall be required.

No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided.

If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next general election.

Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by a vote of the electors unless otherwise provided in the initiative measure or by three-fourths of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The legislature shall implement the provisions of this section.

General Government

Sec. 1. The seat of government shall be at Lansing.

Sec. 2. The powers of government are divided into three branches: legislative, executive and judicial. No person exercising powers of one branch shall exercise powers properly belonging to another branch except as expressly provided in this constitution.

Sec. 3. There shall be a great seal of the State of Michigan and its use shall be provided by law.

Sec. 4. The militia shall be organized, equipped and disciplined as provided by law.

Sec. 5. Subject to provisions of general law, this state or any political subdivision thereof, any governmental authority or any combination thereof may enter into agreements for the performance, financing or execution of their respective functions, with any one or more of the other states, the United States, the Dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision thereof unless otherwise provided in this constitution. Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or of any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service. The legislature may impose such restrictions, limitations or conditions on such service as it may deem appropriate.

Sec. 6. The state shall not be a party to, nor be financially interested in, any work of internal improvement, nor engage in carrying on any such work, except for public internal improvements provided by law.

Sec. 7. The common law and the statute laws now in force, not repugnant to this constitution, shall remain in force until they expire by their own limitations, or are changed, amended or repealed.

Sec. 8. Either house of the legislature or the governor may request the opinion of the supreme court on important questions of law upon solemn occasions as to the constitutionality of legislation after it has been enacted into law but before its effective date.

ARTICLE IV

Legislative Branch

Sec. 1. The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives.

Sec. 2. The senate shall consist of 38 members to be elected from single member districts at the same election as the governor for four-year terms concurrent with the term of office of the governor.

In districting the state for the purpose of electing senators after the official publication of the total population count of each federal decennial census, each county shall be assigned apportionment factors equal to the sum of its percentage of the state's population as shown by the last regular federal decennial census computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent multiplied by four and its percentage of the state's land area computed to the nearest one-one hundredth of one percent.

In arranging the state into senatorial districts, the apportionment commission shall be governed by the following rules:

(1) Counties with 13 or more apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. After each such county has been allocated one senator, the remaining senators to which this class of counties is entitled shall be distributed among such counties by the method of equal proportions applied to the apportionment factors.

(2) Counties having less than 13 apportionment factors shall be entitled as a class to senators in the proportion that the total apportionment factors of such counties bear to the total apportionment factors of the state computed to the nearest whole number. Such counties shall thereafter be arranged into senatorial districts that are compact, convenient, and contiguous by land, as rectangular in shape as possible, and having as nearly as possible 13 apportionment factors, but in no event less than 10 or more than 16. Insofar as possible, existing senatorial districts at the time of reapportionment shall not be altered unless there is a failure to comply with the above standards.

(3) Counties entitled to two or more senators shall be divided into single member districts. The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the county by the number of senators to which it is entitled. Each such district shall follow incorporated city or township boundary lines to the extent possible and shall be compact, contiguous, and as nearly uniform in shape as possible.

Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of 110 members elected for two-year terms from single member districts apportioned on a basis of population as provided in this article. The districts shall consist of compact and convenient territory contiguous by land.

Each county which has a population of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall constitute a separate representative area. Each county having less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state shall be combined with another county or counties to form a representative area of not less than seven-tenths of one percent of the population of the state. Any county which is isolated under the initial allocation as provided in this section shall be joined with that contiguous representative area having the smallest percentage of the state's population. Each such representative area shall be entitled initially to one representative.

After the assignment of one representative to each of the representative areas, the remaining house seats shall be apportioned among the representative areas on the basis of population by the method of equal proportions.

Any county comprising a representative area entitled to two or more representatives shall be divided into single member representative districts as follows:

(1) The population of such districts shall be as nearly equal as possible but shall not be less than 75 percent nor more than 125 percent of a number determined by dividing the population of the representative area by the number of representatives to which it is entitled.

(2) Such single member districts shall follow city and township boundaries where applicable and shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly square in shape as possible.

Any representative area consisting of more than one county, entitled to more than one representative, shall be divided into single member districts as equal as possible in population, adhering to county lines.

Sec. 4. In counties having more than one representative or senatorial district, the territory in the same county annexed to or merged with a city between apportionments shall become a part of a contiguous representative or senatorial district in the city with which it is combined, if provided by ordinance of the city. The district or districts with which the territory shall be combined shall be determined by such ordinance certified to the secretary of state. No such change in the boundaries of a representative or senatorial district shall have the effect of removing a legislator from office during his term.

Sec. 5. Island areas are considered to be contiguous by land to the county of which they are a part.

Sec. 6. A commission on legislative apportionment is hereby established consisting of eight electors, four of whom shall be selected by the state organizations of each of the two political parties whose candidates for governor received the highest vote at the last general election at which a governor was elected preceding each apportionment. If a candidate for governor of a third political party has received at such election more than 25 percent of such gubernatorial vote, the commission shall consist of 12 members, four of whom shall be selected by the state organization of the third political party. One resident of each of the following four regions shall be selected by each political party organization: (1) the upper peninsula; (2) the northern part of the lower peninsula, north of a line drawn along the northern boundaries of the counties of Bay, Midland, Isabella, Mecosta, Newaygo and Oceana; (3) southwestern Michigan, those counties south of region (2) and west of a line drawn along the western boundaries of the counties of Bay, Saginaw, Shiawassee, Ingham, Jackson and Hillsdale; (4) southeastern Michigan, the remaining counties of the state.

No officers or employees of the federal, state or local governments, excepting notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, shall be eligible for membership on the commission. Members of the commission shall not be eligible for election to the legislature until two years after the apportionment in which they participated becomes effective.

The commission shall be appointed immediately after the adoption of this constitution and whenever apportionment or districting of the legislature is required by the provisions of this constitution. Members of the commission shall hold office until each apportionment or districting plan becomes effective. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as for original appointment.

The secretary of state shall be secretary of the commission without vote, and in that capacity shall furnish, under the direction of the commission, all necessary technical services. The commission shall elect its own chairman, shall make its own rules of procedure, and shall receive compensation provided by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its activities.

Within 30 days after the adoption of this constitution, and after the official total population count of each federal decennial census of the state and its political subdivisions is available, the secretary of state shall issue a call convening the commission not less than 30 nor more than 45 days thereafter. The commission shall complete its work within 180 days after all necessary census information is available. The commission shall proceed to district and apportion the senate and house of representatives according to the provisions of this constitution. All final decisions shall require the concurrence of a majority of the members of the commission. The commission shall hold public hearings as may be provided by law.

Each final apportionment and districting plan shall be published as provided by law within 30 days from the date of its adoption and shall become law 60 days after publication. The secretary of state shall keep a public record of all the proceedings of the commission and shall be responsible for the publication and distribution of each plan.

If a majority of the commission cannot agree on a plan, each member of the commission, individually or jointly with other members, may submit a proposed plan to the supreme court. The supreme court shall determine which plan complies most accurately with the constitutional requirements and shall direct that it be adopted by the commission and published as provided in this section.

Upon the application of any elector filed not later than 60 days after final publication of the plan, the supreme court, in the exercise of original jurisdiction, shall direct the secretary of state or the commission to perform their duties, may review any final plan adopted by the commission, and shall remand such plan to the commission for further action if it fails to comply with the requirements of this constitution.

Sec. 7. Each senator and representative must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and an elector of the district he represents. The removal of his domicile from the district shall be deemed a vacation of the office. No person who has been convicted of subversion or who has within the preceding 20 years been convicted of a felony involving a breach of public trust shall be eligible for either house of the legislature.

Sec. 8. No person holding any office, employment or position under the United States or this state or a political subdivision thereof, except notaries public and members of the armed forces reserve, may be a member of either house of the legislature.

Sec. 9. No person elected to the legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this state from the governor, except notaries public, from the legislature, or from any other state authority, during the term for which he is elected.

Sec. 10. No member of the legislature nor any state officer shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract with the state or any political subdivision thereof which shall cause a substantial conflict of interest. The legislature shall further implement this provision by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 11. Senators and representatives shall be privileged from civil arrest and civil process during sessions of the legislature and for five days next before the commencement and after the termination thereof. They shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech in either house.

Sec. 12. The compensation and expense allowances of the members of the legislature shall be determined by law. Changes in compensation or expense allowances shall become effective only when legislators commence their terms of office after a general election.

Sec. 13. The legislature shall meet at the seat of government on the second Wednesday in January of each year at twelve o'clock noon. Each regular session shall adjourn without day, on a day determined by concurrent resolution, at twelve o'clock noon. Any business, bill or joint resolution pending at the final adjournment of a regular session held in an odd numbered year shall carry over with the same status to the next regular session.

Sec. 14. A majority of the members elected to and serving in each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. A smaller number in each house may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in the manner and with penalties as each house may prescribe.

Sec. 15. There shall be a bi-partisan legislative council consisting of legislators appointed in the manner prescribed by law. The legislature shall appropriate funds for the council's operations and provide for its staff which shall maintain bill drafting, research and other services for the members of the legislature. The council shall periodically examine and recommend to the legislature revision of the various laws of the state.

Sec. 16. Each house, except as otherwise provided in this constitution, shall choose its own officers and determine the rules of its proceedings, but shall not adopt any rule that will prevent a majority of the members elected thereto and serving therein from discharging a committee from the further consideration of any measure. Each house shall be the sole judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its members, and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected thereto and serving therein, expel a member. The reasons for such expulsion shall be entered in the journal, with the votes and names of the members voting upon the question. No member shall be expelled a second time for the same cause.

Sec. 17. Each house of the legislature may establish the committees necessary for the efficient conduct of its business and the legislature may create joint committees. On all actions on bills and resolutions in each committee, names and votes of members shall be recorded. Such vote shall be available for public inspection. Notice of all committee hearings and a clear statement of all subjects to be considered at each hearing shall be published in the journal in advance of the hearing.

Sec. 18. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same unless the public security otherwise requires. The record of the vote and name of the members of either house voting on any question shall be entered in the journal at the request of one-fifth of the members present. Any member of either house may dissent from and protest against any act, proceeding or resolution which he deems injurious to any person or the public, and have the reason for his dissent entered in the journal.

Sec. 19. All elections in either house or in joint convention and all votes on appointments submitted to the senate for advice and consent shall be published by vote and name in the journal.

Sec. 20. The doors of each house shall be open unless the public security otherwise requires.

Sec. 21. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two intervening calendar days, nor to any place other than where the legislature may then be in session.

Sec. 22. All legislation shall be by bill and may originate in either house.

Sec. 23. The style of the laws shall be: The People of the State of Michigan enact.

Sec. 24. No law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title. No bill shall be altered or amended on its passage through either house so as to change its original purpose as determined by its total content and not alone by its title.

Sec. 25. No law shall be revised, altered or amended by reference to its title only. The section or sections of the act altered or amended shall be re-enacted and published at length.

Sec. 26. No bill shall be passed or become a law at any regular session of the legislature until it has been printed or reproduced and in the possession of each house for at least five days. Every bill shall be read three times in each house before the final passage thereof. No bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house. On the final passage of bills, the votes and names of the members voting thereon shall be entered in the journal.

Sec. 27. No act shall take effect until the expiration of 90 days from the end of the session at which it was passed, but the legislature may give immediate effect to acts by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 28. When the legislature is convened on extraordinary occasions in special session no bill shall be passed on any subjects other than those expressly stated in the governor's proclamation or submitted by special message.

Sec. 29. The legislature shall pass no local or special act in any case where a general act can be made applicable, and whether a general act can be made applicable shall be a judicial question. No local or special act shall take effect until approved by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house and by a majority of the electors voting thereon in the district affected. Any act repealing local or special acts shall require only a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house and shall not require submission to the electors of such district.

Sec. 30. The assent of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature shall be required for the appropriation of public money or property for local or private purposes.

Sec. 31. The general appropriation bills for the succeeding fiscal period covering items set forth in the budget shall be passed or rejected in either house of the legislature before that house passes any appropriation bill for items not in the budget except bills supplementing appropriations for the current fiscal year's operation. Any bill requiring an appropriation to carry out its purpose shall be considered an appropriation bill. One of the general appropriation bills as passed by the legislature shall contain an itemized statement of estimated revenue by major source in each operating fund for the ensuing fiscal period, the total of which shall not be less than the total of all appropriations made from each fund in the general appropriation bills as passed.

Sec. 32. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax.

Sec. 33. Every bill passed by the legislature shall be presented to the governor before it becomes law, and the governor shall have 14 days measured in hours and minutes from the time of presentation in which to consider it. If he approves, he shall within that time sign and file it with the secretary of state and it shall become law. If he does not approve, and the legislature has within that time finally adjourned the session at which the bill was passed, it shall not become law. If he disapproves, and the legislature continues the session at which the bill was passed, he shall return it within such 14-day period with his objections, to the house in which it originated. That house shall enter such objections in full in its journal and reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, it shall be sent with the objections to the other house for reconsideration. The bill shall become law if passed by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in that house. The vote of each house shall be entered in the journal with the votes and names of the members voting thereon. If any bill is not returned by the governor within such 14-day period, the legislature continuing in session, it shall become law as if he had signed it.

Sec. 34. Any bill passed by the legislature and approved by the governor, except a bill appropriating money, may provide that it will not become law unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Sec. 35. All laws enacted at any session of the legislature shall be published in book form within 60 days after final adjournment of the session, and shall be distributed in the manner provided by law. The prompt publication of judicial decisions shall be provided by law. All laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Sec. 36. No general revision of the laws shall be made. The legislature may provide for a compilation of the laws in force, arranged without alteration, under appropriate heads and titles.

Sec. 37. The legislature may by concurrent resolution empower a joint committee of the legislature, acting between sessions, to suspend any rule or regulation promulgated by an administrative agency subsequent to the adjournment of the last preceding regular legislative session. Such suspension shall continue no longer than the end of the next regular legislative session.

Sec. 38. The legislature may provide by law the cases in which any office shall be vacant and the manner of filling vacancies where no provision is made in this constitution.

Sec. 39. In order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency only, resulting from disasters occurring in this state caused by enemy attack on the United States, the legislature may provide by law for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices; and enact other laws necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations. Notwithstanding the power conferred by this section, elections shall always be called as soon as possible to fill any vacancies in elective offices temporarily occupied by operation of any legislation enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. The legislature may by law establish a liquor control commission which, subject to statutory limitations, shall exercise complete control of the alcoholic beverage traffic within this state, including the retail sales thereof. The legislature may provide for an excise tax on such sales. Neither the legislature nor the commission may authorize the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages in any county in which a majority of the electors voting thereon shall prohibit the same.

Sec. 41. The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets.

Sec. 42. The legislature may provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts, and confer power and authority upon them to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

Sec. 43. No general law providing for the incorporation of trust companies or corporations for banking purposes, or regulating the business thereof, shall be enacted, amended or repealed except by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 44. The legislature may authorize a trial by a jury of less than 12 jurors in civil cases.

Sec. 45. The legislature may provide for indeterminate sentences as punishment for crime and for the detention and release of persons imprisoned or detained under such sentences.

Sec. 46. No law shall be enacted providing for the penalty of death.

Sec. 47. The legislature may authorize the employment of chaplains in state institutions of detention or confinement.

Sec. 48. The legislature may enact laws providing for the resolution of disputes concerning public employees, except those in the state classified civil service.

Sec. 49. The legislature may enact laws relative to the hours and conditions of employment.

Sec. 50. The legislature may provide safety measures and regulate the use of atomic energy and forms of energy developed in the future, having in view the general welfare of the people of this state.

Sec. 51. The public health and general welfare of the people of the state are hereby declared to be matters of primary public concern. The legislature shall pass suitable laws for the protection and promotion of the public health.

Sec. 52. The conservation and development of the natural resources of the state are hereby declared to be of paramount public concern in the interest of the health, safety and general welfare of the people. The legislature shall provide for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment and destruction.

Sec. 53. The legislature by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, shall appoint an auditor general, who shall be a certified public accountant licensed to practice in this state, to serve for a term of eight years. He shall be ineligible for appointment or election to any other public office in this state from which compensation is derived while serving as auditor general and for two years following the termination of his service. He may be removed for cause at any time by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house. The auditor general shall conduct post audits of financial transactions and accounts of the state and of all branches, departments, offices, boards, commissions, agencies, authorities and institutions of the state established by this constitution or by law, and performance post audits thereof.

The auditor general upon direction by the legislature may employ independent accounting firms or legal counsel and may make investigations pertinent to the conduct of audits. He shall report annually to the legislature and to the governor and at such other times as he deems necessary or as required by the legislature. He shall be assigned no duties other than those specified in this section.

Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to infringe the responsibility and constitutional authority of the governing boards of the institutions of higher education to be solely responsible for the control and direction of all expenditures from the institutions' funds.

The auditor general, his deputy and one other member of his staff shall be exempt from classified civil service. All other members of his staff shall have classified civil service status.

ARTICLE V

Executive Branch

Sec. 1. The executive power is vested in the governor.

Sec. 2. All executive and administrative offices, agencies and instrumentalities of the executive branch of state government and their respective functions, powers and duties, except for the office of governor and lieutenant governor and the governing bodies of institutions of higher education provided for in this constitution, shall be allocated by law among and within not more than 20 principal departments. They shall be grouped as far as practicable according to major purposes.

Subsequent to the initial allocation, the governor may make changes in the organization of the executive branch or in the assignment of functions among its units which he considers necessary for efficient administration. Where these changes require the force of law, they shall be set forth in executive orders and submitted to the legislature. Thereafter the legislature shall have 60 calendar days of a regular session, or a full regular session if of shorter duration, to disapprove each executive order. Unless disapproved in both houses by a resolution concurred in by a majority of the members elected to and serving in each house, each order shall become effective at a date thereafter to be designated by the governor.

Sec. 3. The head of each principal department shall be a single executive unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law. The single executives heading principal departments shall include a secretary of state, a state treasurer and an attorney general. When a single executive is the head of a principal department, unless elected or appointed as otherwise provided in this constitution, he shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate and he shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

When a board or commission is at the head of a principal department, unless elected or appointed as otherwise provided in this constitution, the members thereof shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The term of office and procedure for removal of such members shall be as prescribed in this constitution or by law.

Terms of office of any board or commission created or enlarged after the effective date of this constitution shall not exceed four years except as otherwise authorized in this constitution. The terms of office of existing boards and commissions which are longer than four years shall not be further extended except as provided in this constitution.

Sec. 4. Temporary commissions or agencies for special purposes with a life of no more than two years may be established by law and need not be allocated within a principal department.

Sec. 5. A majority of the members of an appointed examining or licensing board of a profession shall be members of that profession.

Sec. 6. Appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate when used in this constitution or laws in effect or hereafter enacted means appointment subject to disapproval by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in the senate if such action is taken within 60 session days after the date of such appointment. Any appointment not disapproved within such period shall stand confirmed.

Sec. 7. Vacancies in any office, appointment to which requires advice and consent of the senate, shall be filled by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. A person whose appointment has been disapproved by the senate shall not be eligible for an interim appointment to the same office.

Sec. 8. Each principal department shall be under the supervision of the governor unless otherwise provided by this constitution. The governor shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government and may require information in writing from all executive and administrative state officers, elective and appointive, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

The governor may initiate court proceedings in the name of the state to enforce compliance with any constitutional or legislative mandate, or to restrain violations of any constitutional or legislative power, duty or right by any officer, department or agency of the state or any of its political subdivisions. This authority shall not be construed to authorize court proceedings against the legislature.

Sec. 9. Single executives heading principal departments and the chief executive officers of principal departments headed by boards or commissions shall keep their offices at the seat of government except as otherwise provided by law, superintend them in person and perform duties prescribed by law.

Sec. 10. The governor shall have power and it shall be his duty to inquire into the condition and administration of any public office and the acts of any public officer, elective or appointive. He may remove or suspend from office for gross neglect of duty or for corrupt conduct in office, or for any other misfeasance or malfeasance therein, any elective or appointive state officer, except legislative or judicial, and shall report the reasons for such removal or suspension to the legislature.

Sec. 11. The governor may make a provisional appointment to fill a vacancy occasioned by the suspension of an appointed or elected officer, other than a legislative or judicial officer, until he is reinstated or until the vacancy is filled in the manner prescribed by law or this constitution.

Sec. 12. The governor shall be commander-in-chief of the armed forces and may call them out to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion.

Sec. 13. The governor shall issue writs of election to fill vacancies in the senate or house of representatives. Any such election shall be held in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 14. The governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after convictions for all offenses, except cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and limitations as he may direct, subject to procedures and regulations prescribed by law. He shall inform the legislature annually of each reprieve, commutation and pardon granted, stating reasons therefor.

Sec. 15. The governor may convene the legislature on extraordinary occasions.

Sec. 16. The governor may convene the legislature at some other place when the seat of government becomes dangerous from any cause.

Sec. 17. The governor shall communicate by message to the legislature at the beginning of each session and may at other times present to the legislature information as to the affairs of the state and recommend measures he considers necessary or desirable.

Sec. 18. The governor shall submit to the legislature at a time fixed by law, a budget for the ensuing fiscal period setting forth in detail, for all operating funds, the proposed expenditures and estimated revenue of the state. Proposed expenditures from any fund shall not exceed the estimated revenue thereof. On the same date, the governor shall submit to the legislature general appropriation bills to embody the proposed expenditures and any necessary bill or bills to provide new or additional revenues to meet proposed expenditures. The amount of any surplus created or deficit incurred in any fund during the last preceding fiscal period shall be entered as an item in the budget and in one of the appropriation bills. The governor may submit amendments to appropriation bills to be offered in either house during consideration of the bill by that house, and shall submit bills to meet deficiencies in current appropriations.

Sec. 19. The governor may disapprove any distinct item or items appropriating moneys in any appropriation bill. The part or parts approved shall become law, and the item or items disapproved shall be void unless re-passed according to the method prescribed for the passage of other bills over the executive veto.

Sec. 20. No appropriation shall be a mandate to spend. The governor, with the approval of the appropriating committees of the house and senate, shall reduce expenditures authorized by appropriations whenever it appears that actual revenues for a fiscal period will fall below the revenue estimates on which appropriations for that period were based. Reductions in expenditures shall be made in accordance with procedures prescribed by law. The governor may not reduce expenditures of the legislative and judicial branches or from funds constitutionally dedicated for specific purposes.

Sec. 21. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall be elected for four-year terms at the general election in each alternate even-numbered year.

The lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall be nominated by party conventions in a manner prescribed by law. In the general election one vote shall be cast jointly for the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor nominated by the same party.

Vacancies in the office of the secretary of state and attorney general shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

Sec. 22. To be eligible for the office of governor or lieutenant governor a person must have attained the age of 30 years, and have been a registered elector in this state for four years next preceding his election.

Sec. 23. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall each receive the compensation provided by law in full payment for all services performed and expenses incurred during his term of office. Such compensation shall not be changed during the term of office except as otherwise provided in this constitution.

Sec. 24. An executive residence suitably furnished shall be provided at the seat of government for the use of the governor. He shall receive an allowance for its maintenance as provided by law.

Sec. 25. The lieutenant governor shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided. He may perform duties requested of him by the governor, but no power vested in the governor shall be delegated.

Sec. 26. In case of the conviction of the governor on impeachment, his removal from office, his resignation or his death, the lieutenant governor, the elected secretary of state, the elected attorney general and such other persons designated by law shall in that order be governor for the remainder of the governor's term.

In case of the death of the governor-elect, the lieutenant governor-elect, the secretary of state-elect, the attorney general-elect and such other persons designated by law shall become governor in that order at the commencement of the governor-elect's term.

If the governor or the person in line of succession to serve as governor is absent from the state, or suffering under an inability, the powers and duties of the office of governor shall devolve in order of precedence until the absence or inability giving rise to the devolution of powers ceases.

The inability of the governor or person acting as governor shall be determined by a majority of the supreme court on joint request of the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. Such determination shall be final and conclusive. The supreme court shall upon its own initiative determine if and when the inability ceases.

Sec. 27. The legislature shall provide that the salary of any state officer while acting as governor shall be equal to that of the governor.

Sec. 28. There is hereby established a state highway commission, which shall administer the state highway department and have jurisdiction and control over all state trunkline highways and appurtenant facilities, and such other public works of the state, as provided by law.

The state highway commission shall consist of four members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. They shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate for four-year terms, no two of which shall expire in the same year, as provided by law.

The state highway commission shall appoint and may remove a state highway director, who shall be a competent highway engineer and administrator. He shall be the principal executive officer of the state highway department and shall be responsible for executing the policy of the state highway commission.

Sec. 29. There is hereby established a civil rights commission which shall consist of eight persons, not more than four of whom shall be members of the same political party, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for four-year terms not more than two of which shall expire in the same year. It shall be the duty of the commission in a manner which may be prescribed by law to investigate alleged discrimination against any person because of religion, race, color or national origin in the enjoyment of the civil rights guaranteed by law and by this constitution, and to secure the equal protection of such civil rights without such discrimination. The legislature shall provide an annual appropriation for the effective operation of the commission.

The commission shall have power, in accordance with the provisions of this constitution and of general laws governing administrative agencies, to promulgate rules and regulations for its own procedures, to hold hearings, administer oaths, through court authorization to require the attendance of witnesses and the submission of records, to take testimony, and to issue appropriate orders. The commission shall have other powers provided by law to carry out its purposes. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to diminish the right of any party to direct and immediate legal or equitable remedies in the courts of this state.

Appeals from final orders of the commission, including cease and desist orders and refusals to issue complaints, shall be tried de novo before the circuit court having jurisdiction provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

Judicial Branch

Sec. 1. The judicial power of the state is vested exclusively in one court of justice which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, one trial court of general jurisdiction known as the circuit court, one probate court, and courts of limited jurisdiction that the legislature may establish by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house.

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall consist of seven justices elected at non-partisan elections as provided by law. The term of office shall be eight years and not more than two terms of office shall expire at the same time. Nominations for justices of the supreme court shall be in the manner prescribed by law. Any incumbent justice whose term is to expire may become a candidate for re-election by filing an affidavit of candidacy, in the form and manner prescribed by law, not less than 180 days prior to the expiration of his term.

Sec. 3. One justice of the supreme court shall be selected by the court as its chief justice as provided by rules of the court. He shall perform duties required by the court. The supreme court shall appoint an administrator of the courts and other assistants of the supreme court as may be necessary to aid in the administration of the courts of this state. The administrator shall perform administrative duties assigned by the court.

Sec. 4. The supreme court shall have general superintending control over all courts; power to issue, hear and determine prerogative and remedial writs; and appellate jurisdiction as provided by rules of the supreme court. The supreme court shall not have the power to remove a judge.

Sec. 5. The supreme court shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state. The distinctions between law and equity proceedings shall, as far as practicable, be abolished. The office of master in chancery is prohibited.

Sec. 6. Decisions of the supreme court, including all decisions on prerogative writs, shall be in writing and shall contain a concise statement of the facts and reasons for each decision and reasons for each denial of leave to appeal. When a judge dissents in whole or in part he shall give in writing the reasons for his dissent.

Sec. 7. The supreme court may appoint, may remove, and shall have general supervision of its staff. It shall have control of the preparation of its budget recommendations and the expenditure of moneys appropriated for any purpose pertaining to the operation of the court or the performance of activities of its staff except that the salaries of the justices shall be established by law. All fees and perquisites collected by the court staff shall be turned over to the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 8. The court of appeals shall consist initially of nine judges who shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines and as nearly as possible of equal population, as provided by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be changed by law.

Sec. 9. Judges of the court of appeals shall hold office for a term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office for the judges in each district shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall be provided by law and the practice and procedure therein shall be prescribed by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 11. The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges may be changed and circuits may be created, altered and discontinued by law and the number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term.

Sec. 12. Circuit judges shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the circuit in which they reside, and shall hold office for a term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In circuits having more than one circuit judge their terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 13. The circuit court shall have original jurisdiction in all matters not prohibited by law; appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals except as otherwise provided by law; power to issue, hear and determine prerogative and remedial writs; supervisory and general control over inferior courts and tribunals within their respective jurisdictions in accordance with rules of the supreme court; and jurisdiction of other cases and matters as provided by rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 14. The clerk of each county organized for judicial purposes or other officer performing the duties of such office as provided in a county charter shall be clerk of the circuit court for such county. The judges of the circuit court may fill a vacancy in an elective office of county clerk or prosecuting attorney within their respective jurisdictions.

Sec. 15. In each county organized for judicial purposes there shall be a probate court. The legislature may create or alter probate court districts of more than one county if approved in each affected county by a majority of the electors voting on the question. The legislature may provide for the combination of the office of probate judge with any judicial office of limited jurisdiction within a county with supplemental salary as provided by law. The jurisdiction, powers and duties of the probate court and of the judges thereof shall be provided by law. They shall have original jurisdiction in all cases of juvenile delinquents and dependents, except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 16. One or more judges of probate as provided by law shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections in the counties or the probate districts in which they reside and shall hold office for terms of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In counties or districts with more than one judge the terms of office shall be arranged by law to provide that not all terms will expire at the same time.

Sec. 17. No judge or justice of any court of this state shall be paid from the fees of his office nor shall the amount of his salary be measured by fees, other moneys received or the amount of judicial activity of his office.

Sec. 18. Salaries of justices of the supreme court, of the judges of the court of appeals, of the circuit judges within a circuit, and of the probate judges within a county or district, shall be uniform, and may be increased but shall not be decreased during a term of office except and only to the extent of a general salary reduction in all other branches of government.

Each of the judges of the circuit court shall receive an annual salary as provided by law. In addition to the salary received from the state, each circuit judge may receive from any county in which he regularly holds court an additional salary as determined from time to time by the board of supervisors of the county. In any county where an additional salary is granted, it shall be paid at the same rate to all circuit judges regularly holding court therein.

Sec. 19. The supreme court, the court of appeals, the circuit court, the probate court and other courts designated as such by the legislature shall be courts of record and each shall have a common seal. Justices and judges of courts of record must be persons who are licensed to practice law in this state. No person shall be elected or appointed to a judicial office after reaching the age of 70 years.

Sec. 20. Whenever a justice or judge removes his domicile beyond the limits of the territory from which he was elected, he shall have vacated his office.

Sec. 21. Any justice or judge of a court of record shall be ineligible to be nominated for or elected to an elective office other than a judicial office during the period of his service and for one year thereafter.

Sec. 22. Any elected judge of the court of appeals, circuit court or probate court may become a candidate in the primary election for the office of which he is the incumbent by filing an affidavit of candidacy in the form and manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 23. A vacancy in the elective office of a judge of any court of record shall be filled at a general or special election as provided by law. The supreme court may authorize persons who have served as judges and who have retired, to perform judicial duties for the limited period of time from the occurrence of the vacancy until the successor is elected and qualified. Such persons shall be ineligible for election to fill the vacancy.

Sec. 24. There shall be printed upon the ballot under the name of each elected incumbent justice or judge who is a candidate for nomination or election to the same office the designation of that office.

Sec. 25. For reasonable cause, which is not sufficient ground for impeachment, the governor shall remove any judge on a concurrent resolution of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house of the legislature. The cause for removal shall be stated at length in the resolution.

Sec. 26. The offices of circuit court commissioner and justice of the peace are abolished at the expiration of five years from the date this constitution becomes effective or may within this period be abolished by law. Their jurisdiction, compensation and powers within this period shall be as provided by law. Within this five-year period, the legislature shall establish a court or courts of limited jurisdiction with powers and jurisdiction defined by law. The location of such court or courts, and the qualifications, tenure, method of election and salary of the judges of such court or courts, and by what governmental units the judges shall be paid, shall be provided by law, subject to the limitations contained in this article.

Statutory courts in existence at the time this constitution becomes effective shall retain their powers and jurisdiction, except as provided by law, until they are abolished by law.

Sec. 27. The supreme court, the court of appeals, the circuit court, or any justices or judges thereof, shall not exercise any power of appointment to public office except as provided in this constitution.

Sec. 28. All final decisions, findings, rulings and orders of any administrative officer or agency existing under the constitution or by law, which are judicial or quasi-judicial and affect private rights or licenses, shall be subject to direct review by the courts as provided by law. This review shall include, as a minimum, the determination whether such final decisions, findings, rulings and orders are authorized by law; and, in cases in which a hearing is required, whether the same are supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record. Findings of fact in workmen's compensation proceedings shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud unless otherwise provided by law.

In the absence of fraud, error of law or the adoption of wrong principles, no appeal may be taken to any court from any final agency provided for the administration of property tax laws from any decision relating to valuation or allocation.

Sec. 29. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, circuit judges and other judges as provided by law shall be conservators of the peace within their respective jurisdictions.

ARTICLE VII

Local Government

Sec. 1. Each organized county shall be a body corporate with powers and immunities provided by law.

Sec. 2. Any county may frame, adopt, amend or repeal a county charter in a manner and with powers and limitations to be provided by general law, which shall among other things provide for the election of a charter commission. The law may permit the organization of county government in form different from that set forth in this constitution and shall limit the rate of ad valorem property taxation for county purposes, and restrict the powers of charter counties to borrow money and contract debts. Each charter county is hereby granted power to levy other taxes for county purposes subject to limitations and prohibitions set forth in this constitution or law. Subject to law, a county charter may authorize the county through its regularly constituted authority to adopt resolutions and ordinances relating to its concerns.

The board of supervisors by a majority vote of its members may, and upon petition of five percent of the electors shall, place upon the ballot the question of electing a commission to frame a charter.

No county charter shall be adopted, amended or repealed until approved by a majority of electors voting on the question.

Sec. 3. No organized county shall be reduced by the organization of new counties to less than 16 townships as surveyed by the United States, unless approved in the manner prescribed by law by a majority of electors voting thereon in each county to be affected.

Sec. 4. There shall be elected for four-year terms in each organized county a sheriff, a county clerk, a county treasurer, a register of deeds and a prosecuting attorney, whose duties and powers shall be provided by law. The board of supervisors in any county may combine the offices of county clerk and register of deeds in one office or separate the same at pleasure.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, county clerk, county treasurer and register of deeds shall hold their principal offices at the county seat.

Sec. 6. The sheriff may be required by law to renew his security periodically and in default of giving such security, his office shall be vacant. The county shall never be responsible for his acts, except that the board of supervisors may protect him against claims by prisoners for unintentional injuries received while in his custody. He shall not hold any other office except in civil defense.

Sec. 7. A board of supervisors shall be established in each organized county consisting of one member from each organized township and such representation from cities as provided by law.

Sec. 8. Boards of supervisors shall have legislative, administrative and such other powers and duties as provided by law.

Sec. 9. Boards of supervisors shall have exclusive power to fix the compensation of county officers not otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 10. A county seat once established shall not be removed until the place to which it is proposed to be moved shall be designated by two-thirds of the members of the board of supervisors and a majority of the electors voting thereon shall have approved the proposed location in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 11. No county shall incur any indebtedness which shall increase its total debt beyond 10 percent of its assessed valuation.

Sec. 12. A navigable stream shall not be bridged or dammed without permission granted by the board of supervisors of the county as provided by law, which permission shall be subject to such reasonable compensation and other conditions as may seem best suited to safeguard the rights and interests of the county and political subdivisions therein.

Sec. 13. Two or more contiguous counties may combine into a single county if approved in each affected county by a majority of the electors voting on the question.

Sec. 14. The board of supervisors of each organized county may organize and consolidate townships under restrictions and limitations provided by law.

Sec. 15. Any county, when authorized by its board of supervisors shall have the authority to enter or to intervene in any action or certificate proceeding involving the services, charges or rates of any privately owned public utility furnishing services or commodities to rate payers within the county.

Sec. 16. The legislature may provide for the laying out, construction, improvement and maintenance of highways, bridges, culverts and airports by the state and by the counties and townships thereof; and may authorize counties to take charge and control of any highway within their limits for such purposes. The legislature may provide the powers and duties of counties in relation to highways, bridges, culverts and airports; may provide for county road commissioners to be appointed or elected, with powers and duties provided by law. The ad valorem property tax imposed for road purposes by any county shall not exceed in any year one-half of one percent of the assessed valuation for the preceding year.

Sec. 17. Each organized township shall be a body corporate with powers and immunities provided by law.

Sec. 18. In each organized township there shall be elected for terms of not less than two nor more than four years as prescribed by law a supervisor, a clerk, a treasurer, and not to exceed four trustees, whose legislative and administrative powers and duties shall be provided by law.

Sec. 19. No organized township shall grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the township, unless the proposition shall first have been approved by a majority of the electors of such township voting thereon at a regular or special election.

Sec. 20. The legislature shall provide by law for the dissolution of township government whenever all the territory of an organized township is included within the boundaries of a village or villages notwithstanding that a village may include territory within another organized township and provide by law for the classification of such village or villages as cities.

Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by general laws for the incorporation of cities and villages. Such laws shall limit their rate of ad valorem property taxation for municipal purposes, and restrict the powers of cities and villages to borrow money and contract debts. Each city and village is granted power to levy other taxes for public purposes, subject to limitations and prohibitions provided by this constitution or by law.

Sec. 22. Under general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt and amend its charter, and to amend an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or enacted by the legislature for the government of the city or village. Each such city and village shall have power to adopt resolutions and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government, subject to the constitution and law. No enumeration of powers granted to cities and villages in this constitution shall limit or restrict the general grant of authority conferred by this section.

Sec. 23. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals and all works which involve the public health or safety.

Sec. 24. Subject to this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own or operate, within or without its corporate limits, public service facilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof.

Any city or village may sell and deliver heat, power or light without its corporate limits in an amount not exceeding 25 percent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; may sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal services outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines outside the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 25. No city or village shall acquire any public utility furnishing light, heat or power, or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless the proposition shall first have been approved by three-fifths of the electors voting thereon. No city or village may sell any public utility unless the proposition shall first have been approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, or a greater number if the charter shall so provide.

Sec. 26. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as provided by law, for any public purpose.

Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution the legislature may establish in metropolitan areas additional forms of government or authorities with powers, duties and jurisdictions as the legislature shall provide. Wherever possible, such additional forms of government or authorities shall be designed to perform multi-purpose functions rather than a single function.

Sec. 28. The legislature by general law shall authorize two or more counties, townships, cities, villages or districts, or any combination thereof among other things to:

enter into contractual undertakings or agreements with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof for the joint administration of any of the functions or powers which each would have the power to perform separately; share the costs and responsibilities of functions and services with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof which each would have the power to perform separately; transfer functions or responsibilities to one another or any combination thereof upon the consent of each unit involved; cooperate with one another and with state government; lend their credit to one another or any combination thereof as provided by law in connection with any authorized publicly owned undertaking.

Any other provision of this constitution notwithstanding, an officer or employee of the state or any such unit of government or subdivision or agency thereof, except members of the legislature, may serve on or with any governmental body established for the purposes set forth in this section and shall not be required to relinquish his office or employment by reason of such service.

Sec. 29. No person, partnership, association or corporation, public or private, operating a public utility shall have the right to the use of the highways, streets, alleys or other public places of any county, township, city or village for wires, poles, pipes, tracks, conduits or other utility facilities, without the consent of the duly constituted authority of the county, township, city or village; or to transact local business therein without first obtaining a franchise from the township, city or village. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution the right of all counties, townships, cities and villages to the reasonable control of their highways, streets, alleys and public places is hereby reserved to such local units of government.

Sec. 30. No franchise or license shall be granted by any township, city or village for a period longer than 30 years.

Sec. 31. The legislature shall not vacate or alter any road, street, alley or public place under the jurisdiction of any county, township, city or village.

Sec. 32. Any county, township, city, village, authority or school district empowered by the legislature or by this constitution to prepare budgets of estimated expenditures and revenues shall adopt such budgets only after a public hearing in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 33. Any elected officer of a political subdivision may be removed from office in the manner and for the causes provided by law.

Sec. 34. The provisions of this constitution and law concerning counties, townships, cities and villages shall be liberally construed in their favor. Powers granted to counties and townships by this constitution and by law shall include those fairly implied and not prohibited by this constitution.

ARTICLE VIII

Education

Sec. 1. Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.

Sec. 2. The legislature shall maintain and support a system of free public elementary and secondary schools as defined by law. Every school district shall provide for the education of its pupils without discrimination as to religion, creed, race, color or national origin.

Sec. 3. Leadership and general supervision over all public education, including adult education and instructional programs in state institutions, except as to institutions of higher education granting baccalaureate degrees, is vested in a state board of education. It shall serve as the general planning and coordinating body for all public education, including higher education, and shall advise the legislature as to the financial requirements in connection therewith.

The state board of education shall appoint a superintendent of public instruction whose term of office shall be determined by the board. He shall be the chairman of the board without the right to vote, and shall be responsible for the execution of its policies. He shall be the principal executive officer of a state department of education which shall have powers and duties provided by law.

The state board of education shall consist of eight members who shall be nominated by party conventions and elected at large for terms of eight years as prescribed by law. The governor shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term. The governor shall be ex-officio a member of the state board of education without the right to vote.

The power of the boards of institutions of higher education provided in this constitution to supervise their respective institutions and control and direct the expenditure of the institutions' funds shall not be limited by this section.

Sec. 4. The legislature shall appropriate moneys to maintain the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Wayne State University, Eastern Michigan University, Michigan College of Science and Technology, Central Michigan University, Northern Michigan University, Western Michigan University, Ferris Institute, Grand Valley State College, by whatever names such institutions may hereafter be known, and other institutions of higher education established by law. The legislature shall be given an annual accounting of all income and expenditures by each of these educational institutions. Formal sessions of governing boards of such institutions shall be open to the public.

Sec. 5. The regents of the University of Michigan and their successors in office shall constitute a body corporate known as the Regents of the University of Michigan; the trustees of Michigan State University and their successors in office shall constitute a body corporate known as the Board of Trustees of Michigan State University; the governors of Wayne State University and their successors in office shall constitute a body corporate known as the Board of Governors of Wayne State University. Each board shall have general supervision of its institution and the control and direction of all expenditures from the institution's funds. Each board shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of the institution under its supervision. He shall be the principal executive officer of the institution, be ex-officio a member of the board without the right to vote and preside at meetings of the board. The board of each institution shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years and who shall be elected as provided by law. The governor shall fill board vacancies by appointment. Each appointee shall hold office until a successor has been nominated and elected as provided by law.

Sec. 6. Other institutions of higher education established by law having authority to grant baccalaureate degrees shall each be governed by a board of control which shall be a body corporate. The board shall have general supervision of the institution and the control and direction of all expenditures from the institution's funds. It shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of the institution under its supervision.

He shall be the principal executive officer of the institution and be ex-officio a member of the board without the right to vote. The board may elect one of its members or may designate the president, to preside at board meetings. Each board of control shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years, not more than two of which shall expire in the same year, and who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Vacancies shall be filled in like manner.

Sec. 7. The legislature shall provide by law for the establishment and financial support of public community and junior colleges which shall be supervised and controlled by locally elected boards. The legislature shall provide by law for a state board for public community and junior colleges which shall advise the state board of education concerning general supervision and planning for such colleges and requests for annual appropriations for their support. The board shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years, not more than two of which shall expire in the same year, and who shall be appointed by the state board of education. Vacancies shall be filled in like manner. The superintendent of public instruction shall be ex-officio a member of this board without the right to vote.

Sec. 8. Institutions, programs and services for the care, treatment, education or rehabilitation of those inhabitants who are physically, mentally or otherwise seriously handicapped shall always be fostered and supported.

Sec. 9. The legislature shall provide by law for the establishment and support of public libraries which shall be available to all residents of the state under regulations adopted by the governing bodies thereof. All fines assessed and collected in the several counties, townships and cities for any breach of the penal laws shall be exclusively applied to the support of such public libraries, and county law libraries as provided by law.

ARTICLE IX

Finance and Taxation

Sec. 1. The legislature shall impose taxes sufficient with other resources to pay the expenses of state government.

Sec. 2. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended or contracted away.

Sec. 3. The legislature shall provide for the uniform general ad valorem taxation of real and tangible personal property not exempt by law. The legislature shall provide for the determination of true cash value of such property; the proportion of true cash value at which such property shall be uniformly assessed, which shall not, after January 1, 1966, exceed 50 percent; and for a system of equalization of assessments. The legislature may provide for alternative means of taxation of designated real and tangible personal property in lieu of general ad valorem taxation. Every tax other than the general ad valorem property tax shall be uniform upon the class or classes on which it operates.

Sec. 4. Property owned and occupied by non-profit religious or educational organizations and used exclusively for religious or educational purposes, as defined by law, shall be exempt from real and personal property taxes.

Sec. 5. The legislature shall provide for the assessment by the state of the property of those public service businesses assessed by the state at the date this constitution becomes effective, and of other property as designated by the legislature, and for the imposition and collection of taxes thereon. Property assessed by the state shall be assessed at the same proportion of its true cash value as the legislature shall specify for property subject to general ad valorem taxation. The rate of taxation on such property shall be the average rate levied upon other property in this state under the general ad valorem tax law, or, if the legislature provides, the rate of tax applicable to the property of each business enterprise assessed by the state shall be the average rate of ad valorem taxation levied upon other property in all counties in which any of such property is situated.

Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, the total amount of general ad valorem taxes imposed upon real and tangible personal property for all purposes in any one year shall not exceed 15 mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of property as finally equalized. Under procedures provided by law, which shall guarantee the right of initiative, separate tax limitations for any county and for the townships and for school districts therein, the aggregate of which shall not exceed 18 mills on each dollar of such valuation, may be adopted and thereafter altered by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting thereon, in lieu of the limitation hereinbefore established. These limitations may be increased to an aggregate of not to exceed 50 mills on each dollar of valuation, for a period of not to exceed 20 years at any one time, if approved by a majority of the electors, qualified under Section 6 of Article II of this constitution, voting on the question.

The foregoing limitations shall not apply to taxes imposed for the payment of principal and interest on bonds or other evidences of indebtedness or for the payment of assessments or contract obligations in anticipation of which bonds are issued, which taxes may be imposed without limitation as to rate or amount; or to taxes imposed for any other purpose by any city, village, charter county, charter township, charter authority or other authority, the tax limitations of which are provided by charter or by general law.

In any school district which extends into two or more counties, property taxes at the highest rate available in the county which contains the greatest part of the area of the district may be imposed and collected for school purposes throughout the district.

Sec. 7. No income tax graduated as to rate or base shall be imposed by the state or any of its subdivisions.

Sec. 8. The legislature shall not impose a sales tax on retailers at a rate of more than four percent of their gross taxable sales of tangible personal property.

Sec. 9. All specific taxes, except general sales and use taxes and regulatory fees, imposed directly or indirectly on fuels sold or used to propel motor vehicles upon highways and on registered motor vehicles shall, after the payment of necessary collection expenses, be used exclusively for highway purposes as defined by law.

Sec. 10. One-eighth of all taxes imposed on retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible personal property shall be used exclusively for assistance to townships, cities and villages, on a population basis as provided by law. In determining population the legislature may exclude any portion of the total number of persons who are wards, patients or convicts in any tax supported institution.

Sec. 11. There shall be established a state school aid fund which shall be used exclusively for aid to school districts, higher education and school employees' retirement systems, as provided by law. One-half of all taxes imposed on retailers on taxable sales at retail of tangible personal property, and other tax revenues provided by law, shall be dedicated to this fund. Payments from this fund shall be made in full on a scheduled basis, as provided by law.

Sec. 12. No evidence of state indebtedness shall be issued except for debts authorized pursuant to this constitution.

Sec. 13. Public bodies corporate shall have power to borrow money and to issue their securities evidencing debt, subject to this constitution and law.

Sec. 14. To meet obligations incurred pursuant to appropriations for any fiscal year, the legislature may by law authorize the state to issue its full faith and credit notes in which case it shall pledge undedicated revenues to be received within the same fiscal year for the repayment thereof. Such indebtedness in any fiscal year shall not exceed 15 percent of undedicated revenues received by the state during the preceding fiscal year and such debts shall be repaid at the time the revenues so pledged are received, but not later than the end of the same fiscal year.

Sec. 15. The state may borrow money for specific purposes in amounts as may be provided by acts of the legislature adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house, and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at any general election. The question submitted to the electors shall state the amount to be borrowed, the specific purpose to which the funds shall be devoted, and the method of repayment.

Sec. 16. The state, in addition to any other borrowing power, may borrow from time to time such amounts as shall be required, pledge its faith and credit and issue its notes or bonds therefor, for the purpose of making loans to school districts as provided in this section.

If the minimum amount which would otherwise be necessary for a school district to levy in any year to pay principal and interest on its qualified bonds, including any necessary allowances for estimated tax delinquencies, exceeds 13 mills on each dollar of its assessed valuation as finally equalized, or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, then the school district may elect to borrow all or any part of the excess from the state. In that event the state shall lend the excess amount to the school district for the payment of principal and interest. If for any reason any school district will be or is unable to pay the principal and interest on its qualified bonds when due, then the school district shall borrow and the state shall lend to it an amount sufficient to enable the school district to make the payment.

The term "qualified bonds" means general obligation bonds of school districts issued for capital expenditures, including refunding bonds, issued prior to May 4, 1955, or issued thereafter and qualified as provided by law pursuant to Section 27 or Section 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908 or pursuant to this section.

After a school district has received loans from the state, each year thereafter it shall levy for debt service, exclusive of levies for nonqualified bonds, not less than 13 mills or such lower millage as the legislature may prescribe, until the amount loaned has been repaid, and any tax collections therefrom in any year over and above the minimum requirements for principal and interest on qualified bonds shall be used toward the repayment of state loans. In any year when such levy would produce an amount in excess of the requirements and the amount due to the state, the levy may be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the legislature shall have the power to prescribe and to limit the procedure, terms and conditions for the qualification of bonds, for obtaining and making state loans, and for the repayment of loans.

The power to tax for the payment of principal and interest on bonds hereafter issued which are the general obligations of any school district, including refunding bonds, and for repayment of any state loans made to school districts, shall be without limitation as to rate or amount.

All rights acquired under Sections 27 and 28 of Article X of the Constitution of 1908, by holders of bonds heretofore issued, and all obligations assumed by the state or any school district under these sections, shall remain unimpaired.

Sec. 17. No money shall be paid out of the state treasury except in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Sec. 18. The credit of the state shall not be granted to, nor in aid of any person, association or corporation, public or private, except as authorized in this constitution.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the investment of public funds until needed for current requirements or the investment of funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees, as provided by law.

Sec. 19. The state shall not subscribe to, nor be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation, except that funds accumulated to provide retirement or pension benefits for public officials and employees may be invested as provided by law; and endowment funds created for charitable or educational purposes may be invested as provided by law governing the investment of funds held in trust by trustees.

Sec. 20. No state money shall be deposited in banks other than those organized under the national or state banking laws. No state money shall be deposited in any bank in excess of 50 percent of the capital and surplus of such bank. Any bank receiving deposits of state money shall show the amount of state money so deposited as a separate item in all published statements.

Sec. 21. The legislature shall provide by law for the annual accounting for all public moneys, state and local, and may provide by law for interim accounting.

The legislature shall provide by law for the maintenance of uniform accounting systems by units of local government and the auditing of county accounts by competent state authority and other units of government as provided by law.

Sec. 22. Procedures for the examination and adjustment of claims against the state shall be prescribed by law.

Sec. 23. All financial records, accountings, audit reports and other reports of public moneys shall be public records and open to inspection. A statement of all revenues and expenditures of public moneys shall be published and distributed annually, as provided by law.

Sec. 24. The accrued financial benefits of each pension plan and retirement system of the state and its political subdivisions shall be a contractual obligation thereof which shall not be diminished or impaired thereby.

Financial benefits arising on account of service rendered in each fiscal year shall be funded during that year and such funding shall not be used for financing unfunded accrued liabilities.

ARTICLE X

Property

Sec. 1. The disabilities of coverture as to property are abolished. The real and personal estate of every woman acquired before marriage and all real and personal property to which she may afterwards become entitled shall be and remain the estate and property of such woman, and shall not be liable for the debts, obligations or engagements of her husband, and may be dealt with and disposed of by her as if she were unmarried. Dower may be relinquished or conveyed as provided by law.

Sec. 2. Private property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation therefor being first made or secured in a manner prescribed by law. Compensation shall be determined in proceedings in a court of record.

Sec. 3. A homestead in the amount of not less than $3,500 and personal property of every resident of this state in the amount of not less than $750, as defined by law, shall be exempt from forced sale on execution or other process of any court. Such exemptions shall not extend to any lien thereon excluded from exemption by law.

Sec. 4. Procedures relating to escheats and to the custody and disposition of escheated property shall be prescribed by law.

Sec. 5. The legislature shall have general supervisory jurisdiction over all state owned lands useful for forest preserves, game areas and recreational purposes; shall require annual reports as to such lands from all departments having supervision or control thereof; and shall by general law provide for the sale, lease or other disposition of such lands.

The legislature by an act adopted by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house may designate any part of such lands as a state land reserve. No lands in the state land reserve may be removed from the reserve, sold, leased or otherwise disposed of except by an act of the legislature.

Sec. 6. Aliens who are residents of this state shall enjoy the same rights and privileges in property as citizens of this state.

Public Officers and Employment

Sec. 1. All officers, legislative, executive and judicial, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this state, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of according to the best of my ability. No other oath, affirmation, or any religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust.

Sec. 2. The terms of office of elective state officers, members of the legislature and justices and judges of courts of record shall begin at twelve o'clock noon on the first day of January next succeeding their election, except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The terms of office of county officers shall begin on the first day of January next succeeding their election, except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 3. Neither the legislature nor any political subdivision of this state shall grant or authorize extra compensation to any public officer, agent or contractor after the service has been rendered or the contract entered into.

Sec. 4. No person having custody or control of public moneys shall be a member of the legislature, or be eligible to any office of trust or profit under this state, until he shall have made an accounting, as provided by law, of all sums for which he may be liable.

Sec. 5. The classified state civil service shall consist of all positions in the state service except those filled by popular election, heads of principal departments, members of boards and commissions, the principal executive officer of boards and commissions heading principal departments, employees of courts of record, employees of the legislature, employees of the state institutions of higher education, all persons in the armed forces of the state, eight exempt positions in the office of the governor, and within each principal department, when requested by the department head, two other exempt positions, one of which shall be policy-making. The civil service commission may exempt three additional positions of a policy-making nature within each principal department.

The civil service commission shall be non-salaried and shall consist of four persons, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party, appointed by the governor for terms of eight years, no two of which shall expire in the same year.

The administration of the commission's powers shall be vested in a state personnel director who shall be a member of the classified service and who shall be responsible to and selected by the commission after open competitive examination.

The commission shall classify all positions in the classified service according to their respective duties and responsibilities, fix rates of compensation for all classes of positions, approve or disapprove disbursements for all personal services, determine by competitive examination and performance exclusively on the basis of merit, efficiency and fitness the qualifications of all candidates for positions in the classified service, make rules and regulations covering all personnel transactions, and regulate all conditions of employment in the classified service.

No person shall be appointed to or promoted in the classified service who has not been certified by the commission as qualified for such appointment or promotion. No appointments, promotions, demotions or removals in the classified service shall be made for religious, racial or partisan considerations.

Increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission may be effective only at the start of a fiscal year and shall require prior notice to the governor, who shall transmit such increases to the legislature as part of his budget. The legislature may, by a majority vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, waive the notice and permit increases in rates of compensation to be effective at a time other than the start of a fiscal year. Within 60 calendar days following such transmission, the legislature may, by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to and serving in each house, reject or reduce increases in rates of compensation authorized by the commission. Any reduction ordered by the legislature shall apply uniformly to all classes of employees affected by the increases and shall not adjust pay differentials already established by the civil service commission. The legislature may not reduce rates of compensation below those in effect at the time of the transmission of increases authorized by the commission.

The appointing authorities may create or abolish positions for reasons of administrative efficiency without the approval of the commission. Positions shall not be created nor abolished except for reasons of administrative efficiency. Any employee considering himself aggrieved by the abolition or creation of a position shall have a right of appeal to the commission through established grievance procedures.

The civil service commission shall recommend to the governor and to the legislature rates of compensation for all appointed positions within the executive department not a part of the classified service.

To enable the commission to exercise its powers, the legislature shall appropriate to the commission for the ensuing fiscal year a sum not less than one percent of the aggregate payroll of the classified service for the preceding fiscal year, as certified by the commission. Within six months after the conclusion of each fiscal year the commission shall return to the state treasury all moneys unexpended for that fiscal year.

The commission shall furnish reports of expenditures, at least annually, to the governor and the legislature and shall be subject to annual audit as provided by law.

No payment for personal services shall be made or authorized until the provisions of this constitution pertaining to civil service have been complied with in every particular. Violation of any of the provisions hereof may be restrained or observance compelled by injunctive or mandamus proceedings brought by any citizen of the state.

Sec. 6. By ordinance or resolution of its governing body which shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, unless otherwise provided by charter, each county, township, city, village, school district and other governmental unit or authority may establish, modify or discontinue a merit system for its employees other than teachers under contract or tenure. The state civil service commission may on request furnish technical services to any such unit on a reimbursable basis.

Sec. 7. The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeaching civil officers for corrupt conduct in office or for crimes or misdemeanors, but a majority of the members elected thereto and serving therein shall be necessary to direct an impeachment.

When an impeachment is directed, the house of representatives shall elect three of its members to prosecute the impeachment.

Every impeachment shall be tried by the senate immediately after the final adjournment of the legislature. The senators shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try and determine the impeachment according to the evidence. When the governor or lieutenant governor is tried, the chief justice of the supreme court shall preside.

No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected and serving. Judgment in case of conviction shall not extend further than removal from office, but the person convicted shall be liable to punishment according to law.

No judicial officer shall exercise any of the functions of his office after an impeachment is directed until he is acquitted.

Amendment and Revision

Sec. 1. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the senate or house of representatives. Proposed amendments agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house on a vote with the names and vote of those voting entered in the respective journals shall be submitted, not less than 60 days thereafter, to the electors at the next general election or special election as the legislature shall direct. If a majority of electors voting on a proposed amendment approve the same, it shall become part of the constitution and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved.

Sec. 2. Amendments may be proposed to this constitution by petition of the registered electors of this state. Every petition shall include the full text of the proposed amendment, and be signed by registered electors of the state equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected. Such petitions shall be filed with the person authorized by law to receive the same at least 120 days before the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon. Any such petition shall be in the form, and shall be signed and circulated in such manner, as prescribed by law. The person authorized by law to receive such petition shall upon its receipt determine, as provided by law, the validity and sufficiency of the signatures on the petition, and make an official announcement thereof at least 60 days prior to the election at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon.

Any amendment proposed by such petition shall be submitted, not less than 120 days after it was filed, to the electors at the next general election. Such proposed amendment, existing provisions of the constitution which would be altered or abrogated thereby, and the question as it shall appear on the ballot shall be published in full as provided by law. Copies of such publication shall be posted in each polling place and furnished to news media as provided by law.

The ballot to be used in such election shall contain a statement of the purpose of the proposed amendment, expressed in not more than 100 words, exclusive of caption. Such statement of purpose and caption shall be prepared by the person authorized by law, and shall consist of a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against the proposed amendment.

If the proposed amendment is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question, it shall become part of the constitution, and shall abrogate or amend existing provisions of the constitution at the end of 45 days after the date of the election at which it was approved. If two or more amendments approved by the electors at the same election conflict, that amendment receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year 1978, and in each 16th year thereafter and at such times as may be provided by law, the question of a general revision of the constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state. If a majority of the electors voting on the question decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, at an election to be held not later than six months after the proposal was certified as approved, the electors of each representative district as then organized shall elect one delegate and the electors of each senatorial district as then organized shall elect one delegate at a partisan election. The delegates so elected shall convene at the seat of government on the first Tuesday in October next succeeding such election or at an earlier date if provided by law.

The convention shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings and judge the qualifications, elections and returns of its members. To fill a vacancy in the office of any delegate, the governor shall appoint a qualified resident of the same district who shall be a member of the same party as the delegate vacating the office. The convention shall have power to appoint such officers, employees and assistants as it deems necessary and to fix their compensation; to provide for the printing and distribution of its documents, journals and proceedings; to explain and disseminate information about the proposed constitution and to complete the business of the convention in an orderly manner. Each delegate shall receive for his services compensation provided by law.

No proposed constitution or amendment adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the electors for approval as hereinafter provided unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to and serving in the convention, with the names and vote of those voting entered in the journal. Any proposed constitution or amendments adopted by such convention shall be submitted to the qualified electors in the manner and at the time provided by such convention not less than 90 days after final adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or amendments by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon the constitution or amendments shall take effect as provided by the convention.

Schedule and Temporary Provisions

To insure the orderly transition from the constitution of 1908 to this constitution the following schedule and temporary provisions are set forth to be effective for such period as are thereby required.

Sec. 1. The attorney general shall recommend to the legislature as soon as practicable such changes as may be necessary to adapt existing laws to this constitution.

Sec. 2. All writs, actions, suits, proceedings, civil or criminal liabilities, prosecutions, judgments, sentences, orders, decrees, appeals, causes of action, contracts, claims, demands, titles and rights existing on the effective date of this constitution shall continue unaffected except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, all officers filling any office by election or appointment shall continue to exercise their powers and duties until their offices shall have been abolished or their successors selected and qualified in accordance with this constitution or the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

No provision of this constitution, or of law or of executive order authorized by this constitution shall shorten the term of any person elected to state office at a statewide election on or prior to the date on which this constitution is submitted to a vote. In the event the duties of any such officers shall not have been abolished or incorporated into one or more of the principal departments at the expiration of his term, such officer shall continue to serve until his duties are so incorporated or abolished.

Sec. 4. All officers elected at the same election that this constitution is submitted to the people for adoption shall take office and complete the term to which they were elected under the 1908 constitution and existing laws and continue to serve until their successors are elected and qualified pursuant to this constitution or law.

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision in this constitution, the governor, the lieutenant governor, the secretary of state, the attorney general and state senators shall be elected at the general election in 1964 to serve for two-year terms beginning on the first day of January next succeeding their election. The first election of such officers for four-year terms under this constitution shall be held at the general election in 1966.

Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this constitution that the supreme court shall consist of seven justices it shall consist of eight justices until the time that a vacancy occurs as a result of death, retirement or resignation of a justice. The first such vacancy shall not be filled.

Sec. 7. Any judge of probate serving on the effective date of this constitution may serve the remainder of the term and be eligible to succeed himself for election regardless of other provisions in this constitution requiring him to be licensed to practice law in this state.

Sec. 8. The provisions of Article VI providing that terms of judicial offices shall not all expire at the same time, shall be implemented by law providing that at the next election for such offices judges shall be elected for terms of varying length, none of which shall be shorter than the regular term provided for the office.

Sec. 9. The members of the state board of education provided for in Section 3 of Article VIII of this constitution shall first be elected at the first general election after the effective date of this constitution for the following terms: two shall be elected for two years, two for four years, two for six years, and two for eight years as prescribed by law.

The state board of education provided for in the constitution of 1908 is abolished at twelve o'clock noon January 1 of the year following the first general election under this constitution and the terms of members thereof shall then expire.

Sec. 10. The provisions of this constitution providing for members of boards of control of institutions of higher education and the state board of public community and junior colleges shall be implemented by law. The law may provide that the term of each member in office on the date of the vote on this constitution may be extended, and may further provide that the initial terms of office of members may be less than eight years.

Sec. 11. The provisions of this constitution increasing the number of members of the Board of Trustees of Michigan State University and of the Board of Governors of Wayne State University to eight, and of their term of office to eight years, shall be implemented by law. The law may provide that the term of each member in office on the date of the vote on this constitution may be extended one year, and may further provide that the initial terms of office of the additional members may be less than eight years.

Sec. 12. The initial allocation of departments by law pursuant to Section 2 of Article V of this constitution, shall be completed within two years after the effective date of this constitution. If such allocation shall not have been completed within such period, the governor, within one year thereafter, by executive order, shall make the initial allocation.

Sec. 13. Contractual obligations of the state incurred pursuant to the constitution of 1908 shall continue to be obligations of the state.

For the retirement of notes and bonds issued under Section 26 of Article X of the 1908 constitution, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund each year during their life a sum equal to the amount of principal and interest payments due and payable in each year.

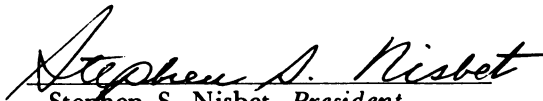

Sec. 14. The legislature by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to and serving in each house may provide that the state may borrow money and may pledge its full faith and credit for refunding any bonds issued by the Mackinac Bridge Authority and at the time of refunding the Mackinac Bridge Authority shall be abolished and the operation of the bridge shall be assumed by the state highway department. The legislature may implement this section by law.

Sec. 15. This constitution shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on the first Monday in April, 1963. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state forthwith to give notice of such submission to all other officers required to give or publish any notice in regard to a general election. He shall give notice that this constitution will be duly submitted to the electors at such election. The notice shall be given in the manner required for the election of governor.

Sec. 16. Every registered elector may vote on the adoption of the constitution. The board of election commissioners in each county shall cause to be printed on a ballot separate from the ballot containing the names of the nominees for office, the words: Shall the revised constitution be adopted? () Yes. () No. All votes cast at the election shall be taken, counted, canvassed and returned as provided by law for the election of state officers. If the revised constitution so submitted receives more votes in its favor than were cast against it, it shall be the supreme law of the state on and after the first day of January of the year following its adoption.

Adopted by the Constitutional Convention of nineteen hundred sixty-one at Constitution Hall in Lansing on the first day of August, nineteen hundred sixty-two.

[ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE]

What the Proposed
New State Constitution Means to You

- A report to the people of Michigan by their elected delegates to the Constitutional Convention of 1961-62.

Lansing, Michigan

August 1, 1962

of these local units has been conflicting. The section is intended in no way to approve or disapprove income taxes.

Charters; laws; ordinances.

Sec. 22. Under  general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt and amend its charter, and to amend an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or enacted by the legislature for the government of the city or village. * Each such city and village shall have power to adopt resolutions and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government, subject to the constitution and law. No enumeration of powers granted to cities and villages in this constitution shall limit or restrict the general grant of authority conferred by this section.

This is a revision of Sec. 21, Article VIII, of the present constitution and reflects Michigan's successful experience with home rule. The new language is a more positive statement of municipal powers, giving home rule cities and villages full power over their own property and government, subject to this constitution and law.

Powers to acquire and maintain parks, hospitals.

Sec. 23. Any city or village may acquire, own, establish and maintain, * within or without its corporate limits, parks, boulevards, cemeteries, hospitals * and all works which involve the public health or safety.

This is a revision of Sec. 22, Article VIII, of the present constitution. The obsolete word "almshouses" is deleted.

Public service facilities; power to own or operate.

Sec. 24. Subject to  this constitution, any city or village may acquire, own or operate, * within or without its corporate limits, public service facilities for supplying water, light, heat, power, sewage disposal and transportation to the municipality and the inhabitants thereof.

*Any city or village may * sell and deliver heat, power or light without its corporate limits in an amount not * exceeding 25 percent of that furnished by it within the corporate limits, except as greater amounts may be permitted by law; * may * sell and deliver water and provide sewage disposal services outside of its corporate limits in such amount as may be determined by the legislative body of the city or village; and may operate transportation lines outside the municipality within such limits as may be prescribed by law. *****

This is a revision of Sec. 23, Article VIII, of the present constitution. Sewage disposal is recognized as a public service facility.

New language in the second paragraph permits the legislature to increase the limitation on the sale of service facilities by a city or village outside its corporate boundaries. This is designed to prevent the duplication of plants in neighboring areas.

These words are deleted: "Provided, that the right to own and operate transportation facilities shall not extend to any city or village of less than 25,000 inhabitants." The original purpose of this clause appears to have been to prevent small cities from entering into unwise transit ventures. This prohibition seems to be unnecessary today and it prevents smaller municipalities from entering into joint transit projects with private firms or neighboring cities and villages.

Elective franchise; public utilities.

Sec. 25. No city or village shall * acquire any public utility furnishing light, heat or power, or grant any public utility franchise which is not subject to revocation at the will of the city or village, unless the proposition shall first have been approved by three-fifths of the electors voting thereon. No city or village may sell any public utility unless the proposition shall first have been approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, or a greater number if the charter shall so provide.

This is a revision of Sec. 25, Article VIII, of the present constitution. Language in the first sentence relating to the elective franchise has been transferred to Article II, and provisions concerning credit are now covered in another section of this Article.

The words "furnishing light, heat or power" are added to the second sentence to define the power of municipalities to acquire utilities. The three-fifths majority required for purchase of a utility is continued because such purchase implies commitment to a large investment of public funds and should not be lightly undertaken. The municipality should have sound assurance that the utility will be supported by its citizens.

New language relating to the sale of municipally-owned utilities permits approval by a majority vote. The consideration involved is not the same as for a purchase, but is largely restricted to the question of whether most voters believe sale is desirable and the sale price is satisfactory. A final clause in the present section relating to women taxpayers is obsolete and has been deleted.

Taxation for private purposes.

Sec. 26. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, no city or village shall have the power to loan its credit for any private purpose or, except as provided by law, for any public purpose.

This is a new section which spells out the present prohibition on the use of a city's or village's credit for private purposes, but allows them to use it as authorized by law for public purposes. In conjunction with other sections of the document, it permits municipalities, with the consent of the legislature, to loan their credit in order to finance a joint public works project by general obligation bonds. This can permit a lower interest rate than for revenue or special assessment bonds.

Metropolitan areas.

Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution the legislature may establish in metropolitan areas additional forms of gov-
