MEA Golf Outing

Be bold, be brave-- bid for Battaglieri

Palmer, Nicklaus, Woods and Battaglieri.

Battaglieri?

Truth be told, this may be the only time that MEA President Lu Battaglieri's name will ever be mentioned in the same breath with these gods of golf.

And, because Palmer, Nicklaus and Woods aren't available to play in MEA's Scholarship Fund golf outing on June 20 at Royal Scot in Lansing, Battaglieri is looking for three players to fill out his foursome.

Not just any three players. You have to bid to play with Battaglieri in amounts beyond the normal $100 per player entry fee. The three highest bidders will join Lu's foursome on June 20.

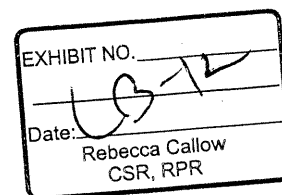

"Be generous," Battaglieri said. "This is for a great cause. We'll have lots of fun and maybe win a prize or two."

Money raised at the golf outing will benefit the MEA Scholarship Fund. Since 1997, the fund has provided more than $50,000 in college scholarships to Michigan public school students.

The MEA president admits he's a golfing neophyte, who doesn't know the difference between a niblick and a Nassau.

"I took lessons last year, and the first time I played I shot a 72...on the front nine," he joked. Battaglieri refers would-be bidders to Utica EA President Jim Matrilie and Hazel Park EA President Mary Ann Ochab. "These are my references," he said. "I played golf with them last summer, and they both survived."

So, let the bidding begin. Bid for Battaglieri by e-mailing your amount to Dennis Keenon, golf outing chairperson, at Dkeenon@mea.org. Keenon also can be reached by telephone at 800/292-1934 or 517/332-6551. The bidding will close on May 25. Serious bidders only, please.
